"We have all enjoyed reading The Times since we have come to Oregon, enjoyed it more perhaps since we have been a long ways from old Thief River Falls. We have had a very dry summer here this year, but despite that we have had very good crops. The land is still too dry to begin fall work on."

He was a resident of the vicinity of Warren for forty years, coming there in 1883, and was well known thruout the county. Mr. Johnson is given credit for laying out the Great Eastern, now one of the leading roads of Marshall county. Last winter he observed his golden wedding anniversary.

VISTAUNET ATTENDS NATIONAL MEETING OF RESEARCH GROUP

Progress Made in Electronic Theory of Healing, Says Local Physician

Dr. P. L. Vistaunet returned Sunday morning from Chicago where he attended a four-day session of the American Electronic Research association and a meeting of the American Medico-Physical Research association, being gone for ten days. The conference of the Electronic association was attended by about 250 scientists from all parts of the United States and was addressed by exponents of the Dr. Abrams theory.

Among those who addressed the Electronic Research conference was Dr. J. Clawson Burnett, who operates a private $250,000 laboratory at Alpine, N. J. Dr. Burnett, with the assistance of J. A. Hallberg, an engineer with a considerable reputation in the electrical world and who also spoke at the meeting, is attempting to show the practicability of the atomic theory as regards the human body. Matter is electronically constituted, and he holds it can therefore be controlled to man's advantage.

Dr. Burnett and Mr. Hallberg demonstrated an instrument known as the oscilloclast, around which a medical storm has raged since its invention several years ago by the late Dr. Albert Abrams of California. The oscilloclast is designed to heal diseases by the discharge of electronic force; in other words, instead of healing by medicine, it is intended to heal by radio waves. The first fruits of Dr. Burnett's and Mr. Hallberg's labors, extending over two years at Closter and some months in their private laboratory were announced to physicians in attendance at the Chicago meeting and were hailed as being of tremendous value in emphasizing proof for the advanced theories of Dr. Abrams concerning electronic control. Much has been claimed for the oscilloclast and much has been said against it, according to Dr. Vistaunet, who states that demonstrations made at the conference proved that the instrument gives off electrical energy, a vital question around which much of the heated discussion concerning it has centered.

Before long Dr. Burnett expects to make public reports on other scientific questions of importance to the electrical world. One of the first will offer proof that evaporation is an electrical phenomenon, which, if substantiated, would be of inestimable value in the diagnosis of disease, inasmuch as the body fluids could be submitted to valuable tests now meaningless.

"We maintain," said Mr. Hallberg, "that the human body is 99 per cent efficient, an opinion based on our own experiments plus deductions from the latest medical developments. Given proper food and light, the body would take care of itself, without interference.

"Light we consider of primary importance. Tests on eggs and chickens prove that. Therefore vibrations are of primary importance, which can be substantiated by such experiments as vases ringing in tune with a piano note. I think we are at liberty to assume that the whole body is affected by light—that is, by electromagnetic waves."

Comparison was made to the radio, the phones of which are dead and meaningless until acted upon by electromagnetic waves. An effort is being made to find the particular wave which will cause the healing reflex for every disease.

"In time," the scientists explained, "we will be able first to diagnose diseases and then cure them by electromagnetic vibrations. Medicine, with due respects to it, is still an art, but we hope, by means of electricity, to make diagnosis and cure an exact science."

Dr. Burnett said that by means of his experiments he hoped to find a fundamental law governing life. He did not expect to discover how life began; the beginnings, he said, would be too far in higher vibrations. "No matter how we develop diagnosis and healing by electrolitic means," he continued, we shall not, of course, be able to end disease. We will never be able to do that because man is too satisfied with the way he lives. He likes his pleasures and his comforts too much. But what we can do is to make the world a better place in which to live." Dr. Burnett declared himself healed from tuberculosis in his shoulder by the oscilloclast.

Demonstrations were also conducted by Mr. Ellis, the inventor of the Ellis machine, a development of the oscilloclast. Dr. Vistaunet has been using an Ellis machine since last March and claims having met with highly satisfactory results.

Hospital for Veterans Being Opened at Gatzke

Dr. J. V. Lance, who located at Gatzke a short time ago, was a caller in Thief River Falls Tuesday. While in the city he informed The Times that he has started an institution for the hospitalization and care of soldiers and sailors, and has named his place the Rollis Sanatorium. The hospital is said to have an ideal location for recuperation. An effort will be made to provide facilities for regular hospital and surgery work also, a physician already having been engaged and will arrive as soon as accommodations are completed. Dr. Lance is himself a veteran of the late war and comes to this section from Indiana. This is a new venture in this section but Dr. Lance declares that indications are favorable for success.

Flannagan's Band Boys Give Pleasing Program

A troupe of boys from Father Flannagan's Boys home near Omaha, Neb., entertained the people of Thief River Falls at a concert given in the city auditorium Sunday afternoon and evening, the afternoon being a special matinee for the children. The boys gave a creditable performance and the large audience in attendance seemed to enjoy it very much. The program, which consisted of three parts, opened with a minstrel show. The second part was an olio, the last part being a band concert which included many popular airs, well executed.

The school which is for boys of all races and creeds is independent of both church and state and is entirely dependent on the support of its friends. Several colored boys were members of the troupe.

History of J. C. Penney Co.

In this issue of The Times appears an account of the founding and development of the chain of J. C. Penney stores, now one of the greatest merchandising organizations in America. The account, taken from the American magazine, is uncolored and shows the struggles of J. C. Penney in his early mercantile adventures. The life of Mr. Penney is an example many can afford to follow, at least in-as-much as is concerned his faithfulness to duty and unquenchable desire to succeed against all odds.

FARM VALUES INCREASING

A survey of conditions in a number of counties in the state indicate that there is again a demand for farms and and the association making the survey predicts that by spring Minnesota will witness a resumption of real estate activity. Conditions that have been responsible for the slump of the last three years are gradually being eliminated. The improvements in marketing methods, the resultant increase in the price of farm produce, the desire of the progressive farmer to engage in diversified agriculture have all tended to turn attention towards the farm once more.

Beltrami county offers better opportunities for the energetic farmer than any other portion of the state. The land in this vicinity is ideally suited for diversified farming, the price is within the reach of the man who has, perhaps, suffered reverses in other sections and the new marketing ideas have been enthusiastically supported in this part of the state.

The Bemidji Association, awake to all opportunities that will tend to improve this section, has already started on a systematic plan of land development. Returns are already beginning to come in and by the time that active movement is again noticeable in farm land, this county will be in a splendid position to profit.—Bemidji Pioneer.

What is said about Beltrami county in the foregoing article can be said much more emphatically of Pennington county, with its natural adaptability to diversified farming.

Why not get busy and revive the idea of organized effort to attract home seekers to this community? This is a logical time and much could be accomplished.

THE GASOLINE TAX
(Minneapolis Star.)

Shall taxes on gasoline be used to improve Minnesota roads?

That is the question the Minnesota voter will be called upon to answer at the coming election in passing on "Amendment No. 1."

The proposed amendment has been given its number on the ticket and it is the same number as the amendment which made possible the trunk highway system.

The trunk highways are already bringing big money to Minnesota and are earning dividends for the state in large wads while freeing county money to be applied on the minor country roads that need to be improved to benefit the farmer.

There is no question at all that the state has the right to tax gasoline. The only question before the voters is whether that money should be diverted to the road fund from the general expense fund.

The amendment opens the way for a tax on gasoline that will give increased road funds and at the same time relieve the pressure of the license tax.

If the system is adopted it will be possible to come nearer making those who use the roads pay for them. The more a motorist drives the more he will contribute to the road fund. The less he drives the less he will contribute.

A good thing about it is that it will make the outside tourist passing thru Minnesota contribute something to the wear and tear on the roads caused by his car.

COMMUNITY SUCCESS

Success has been defined by a well known authority as the progressive realization of a worthy ideal.

This definition is in terms of individuals, but it can be applied equally as well to a business or a community.

It lays down the fixed principle that success is impossible without the element of a worthy ideal.

Therefore, communities that expect to be successful must have a worthy goal to which the energies of the people are directed.

Thief River Falls can expect to get ahead only by aspiring to achieve an aim that is within its reach, and by following a well defined program of action.

Nothing is impossible if the ideal is worthy and the people are "sold" on what they are attempting to do.

The residents of Pennington can make the county renowned the world around as "The home of Alfalfa."

They can also make it a community of homes where people really live and where children can be reared to become useful and valuable citizens.

If you are campaigning for office or want to increase your business use some other medium besides outdoor advertising on state, county and city highways, advises the Duluth News-Tribune. It's illegal, and officials declared Monday that enforcement will follow the rather sharp increase in the practice. Subdivision three of section 11 of the state law is authority for their declaration.

It states explicitly that any person who puts any advertisement within the limits of a public highway, or who is in any way responsible for the 'ad', is guilty of a misdemeanor.

This does not prohibit the use of public billboards which have been erected by express authority of the governing body. The use of stamps, trees, stones, posts and poles is expressly forbidden.

"Leopold and Loeb's college educations will be a great help at Joliet," states an exchange. "They will know just how to break a rock into the proper geometrical proportions."

There is a bright side to everything. If we have no radio we don't have to listen to the campaign speeches.

Thief River Originally Called "Secret Earth River" by Indians

The name Thief River Falls originated thru a mistake, according to a news story in the Minneapolis Daily Star, the translation of the name of the river from the Ojibway language being responsible for this rather suggestive name, a change of which has been suggested by some citizens in the past. The Daily Star explains it as follows:

A mistake gave the town of Thief River Falls its name.

The mistake goes back to the translation of the name of the river from the Ojibway language.

The map made by Long's expedition in 1823 gives the name as Thief River.

An earlier historian says the Objibway name was "Kimodakwi zibi," the stolen land river or thieving land river.

Warren's "History of the Objibways" explains the origin of the name and reveals the mistake.

"For a number of years," it says, "on the head waters of the Thief River a camp of ten Dakota lodges succeeded in holding the country by evading the search of the Objibway war parties. Loath to leave their rich hunting grounds, they lived from year to year in continual dread of attack. They built a high embankment of earth for defense around their lodges and took every means in their power to escape the notice of the Objibways, even discarding the use of the gun on account of its loud report and using bows and arrows.

"They were at last discovered by their enemies when the Crees and Assinniboines, during a short peace with the Dakotas, learned of their existence and locality and told the Objibways.

"The Objibways raised a war party and went in search of them. The Dakotas made a brave defense with their bows and arrows, but the ten lodges with their inmates were entirely destroyed."

From the Sioux earthwork the Objibways gave the stream its early name meaning "Secret Earth River" in allusion to the hiding and protecting earth embankment.

Through erroneous pronunciation of the name, however, with a misunderstanding of its intended significance, the French and English fur traders, and afterward the Objibways, changed it to "Stealing Earth River," and then to Thief River.

In another article the Daily Star tells how Warren was named after a railroad man. The story follows:

When the Great Northern railway was the St. Paul, Minneapolis and Manitoba railway, Charles H. Warren was its general passenger agent.

In 1878 this railway was built as far as the present site of the city of Warren and that site was named after the general passenger agent.

In November of that year the first trains ran through to Winnipeg, forming the first connecting link between that city and the rapidly growing cities of St. Paul and Minneapolis.

The next year the site was platted and in 1882 it was incorporated as a village. After eight years as a village Warren was chartered as a city, just a year after the railroad changed its name to the Great Northern.

Warrenton township, organized in 1879, was named after the same man. Warren is now the county seat of Marshall county.

COMMISSION ORDERS CHANGES IN TWELVE ITEMS OF TAX LIST

State Tax Body Approves County Assessment with a Few Changes—2 Items Cut

With an increase of five percent on the real estate as previously announced, changing of 12 items in the personal property list the assessment rolls of the county have been accepted by the state tax commission, according to information recently received by Auditor T. P. Anderson. Two items of farm property were reduced while only five were raised, indicating good work on the part of the county board of equalization.

The two decreases are: Horses, under one year, 10%; horses, under two years, 15%. Increases are given as follows: Horses, 3 years old and under 16, 5%; grade cows, 5%; purebred bulls, 15%; sheep, under 3 months, 10%; sheep, 3 months old and over, 20%; manufacturer's tools and machinery, 20%; lumber, lath and shingles, in hands of dealer, 10%; all manufactured materials and articles, 10%; goods and merchandise, wholesale jobbers, 10%; goods and merchandise of retail merchants, 10%.

CLUB WORKERS WILL SELL PIGS AT SALE

Poland Chinas from Fuller and Mayhew Herds to be Sold Here Oct. 10

A splendid opportunity will be given those desiring to purchase first class hogs at the 1924 Pig club sale to be held at the fair grounds here Friday afternoon, Oct. 10. Pigs from the Fuller and Mayhew herds at Mavie will be sold at auction as in previous years.

All the hogs listed are purebred Poland Chinas of the large type and registry papers will be furnished. C. H. Fuller last spring distributed a large number of young pigs among girls and boys of the county, these to get one half of the sale price of the hog for caring for it during the summer minths. The club member having the best hog in the lot will receive the entire sum paid for the animal at the sale.

A large number of buyers are expected to be on hand for this sale, a number of farmers having announced their intentions to get started in hog raising.

Compensation Cases are Heard in City Yesterday

Two hearings were held in the court rooms at the county court house Tuesday before the industrial commission. The case of Otto H. Bessler, who suffered a crushed leg and arm December 27, 1922, while in the employ of the Minneapolis Bridge company at Appleton, was heard before K. G. McManigal, referee, representing the Industrial Commission of Minnesota. O. A. Naplin of this city and Hugo V. Koch of St. Paul represented the petitioner, Mr. Bessler, against L. R. Barker, attorney for the Ocean Accident and Guarantee Corp. Ltd. Drs. J. Biederman and Ed. Bratrud appeared as witnesses for Mr. Bessler and Drs. E. J. Voyer and Harley Gunderson of Minneapolis as witnesses for the Insurance company. Mr. Bessler has received compensation to date but the hearing was held to determine if compensation should continue. The decision will be made at Bemidji.

The case of Otto Kline, who received injuries to his back Feb. 18, 1924, while in the employ of the American Cedar company at Kelliher was also brot up for hearing and at an adjourned hearing at Bemidji yesterday decision was supposed to have been made. The same attorneys appeared for the petitioner and Lancaster, Simpson, Junell and Dorsey of Minneapolis as attorney for the Employers Mutual Liability Insurance company. Drs. Vistaunet and Swedenburg appeared as witnesses for the petitioners and Drs. Gilmore and McCann of Bemidji for the Insurance company. Decision of the case was supposed to have been made at Bemidji yesterday.

What a wonderful world this would be if we were all as smart as we think we are.

More on Bank Guarantee Question

Editor, The Times:—Since we called attention to banking legislation and the necessity for a Bank Deposit Guarantee Law through the columns of your paper some time ago, we have inquired of both Mr. Olson and Mr. Christianson the two leading gubernatorial candidates, as to their attitude, and have received replies from both men. Mr. Olson states in his reply that he is favorable to the idea and to any practical legislation designed to protect depositors. Mr. Christianson's letter is so vague and indefinite that we are unable to determine his position. In writing Mr. Christianson we asked the following question:

"Will you if elected governor recommend a bank deposit guarantee law in your message, and sign such a law if it should be passed by the legislature?"

Mr. Christianson's reply is written on the stationery of the Republican State Central Committee. In fairness we submit this letter for the readers attention and each one can form his own conclusions as to where Mr. Christianson stands. It reads as follows:

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 3, 1924.

Mr. H. O. Bervie,
Germantown, Minn.

Dear Mr. Bervie:

I am in receipt of your letter of the 25th ult., in reply to which I will say that in my keynote speech which will be forthcoming soon I will state my position quite definitely on different questions which I consider issues in the present political campaign. I should feel very reluctant to commit myself in anticipation of my keynote address on any matter outside of its scope.

Yours very truly,
Theodore Christianson.

It will be noticed that Mr. Christianson does not even say he will sign such a law if passed. Apparently the public can expect little or no relief in the line of a Guarantee Law from Mr. Christianson, and perhaps from the Republican party. Judging from the letter he considers such matters "outside the scope" of his keynote address. He won't mention it.

It would be very desirable if others would also write to the gubernatorial and legislative candidates as to their attitude. Let us get down to brass tacks. If there are ten depositors of our failed banks in each county that will spend a two cent stamp, and write a letter we shall soon get action. It is one of the greatest and most important questions before us in this campaign. Get busy. No candidate, gubernatorial or legislative, who does not want to absolutely pledge himself to a Bank Deposit Guarantee Law, or some other practical and adequate legislation, should be elected.

If there is something better than a Guarantee Law give us that. "State Guarantee" is only a name. Call it a "Depositors Indemnity Fund" if you like. The depositors will have to foot the greater share of the cost in the long run. But in return for this there must be legislation to provide adequate inspection, regulation and supervision. The day of taking "long shots" and doing a reckless banking business with other peoples' money will have to pass. Merely passing a Guarantee Law and letting things run wild is useless.

Yours truly,
H. O. BERVIE,
Germantown, Minn.

FAVORS CO-OP.

The Peoples Press of Hallock makes the following comment regarding the recently launched co-operative egg and poultry marketing association:

The Thief River Valley Poultry Marketing association is an organization that should have the support of the co-operative enterprises and other believers in co-operation. That is the 24th district in the State to organize. These districts are much like creamery except that they cover more area to secure the necessary volume and members. The association agrees to take the poultry and eggs from each member, provide facilities for handling, assembling, grading, selling, and turn over to the member all the products bring less the actual marketing expense and a fraction of a cent in the reserve fund. In short it provides a sales department for one poultry and egg business. Western farmers are netting 3 to 7 cents more than Minnesota farmers after shipping 2000 miles.

The most important raw material in the world is experience.

Folks are hard to please who laugh at grief and cry at every wheeze.

Lieberman's DEPARTMENT STORE
Thief River Falls, Minn.

THE MAN WITH 1,000 PARTNERS

James C. Penney

HOW HE BUILT BIG ENTERPRISE

A FARMER was trying on a new pair of shoes in a dry-goods store in Hamilton, Missouri. New shoes didn't come to him often and, once bought, they had to serve a long, long time.

The shoe clerk sat down astraddle his little bench and fitted a shoe to the farmer's right foot, lacing up the tops and smoothing the leather over the instep with eager concern.

"Now, sir, try that," he said confidently.

To tell the truth the salesman was not quite the sort of man you would expect to find clerking in a dry-goods store in a town of a few thousand souls in the Middle West. He was not tall, and he was slight of figure. He wore a blue suit with a light pencil stripe and he had on a soft collar with a bow tie.

But his crisp, graying hair covered a well-shaped head; clean, strong health shone through his tanned skin, and there was a serious understanding in his gray eyes. To the farmer he appeared an ordinary clerk, perhaps a little more courteous, perhaps more painstaking than others.

The farmer did not know that the slender clerk before him was one of the great figures in American merchandising; that his offices covered three floors of the Pennsylvania Terminal Building in New York City; that there were five hundred stores under his command throughout the country; that his name was known from coast to coast; that his life was insured for three million dollars; that thousands of loyal, ambitious men had cast their lots with his, that they, and their families, might attain what he had attained.

That shoe clerk was J. C. Penney, and the time was April, 1924. Mr. Penney had come back to open his five hundredth store in the town where he was born. He became a salesman again for the day. When the farmer discovered who it was that had waited on him he almost perished of excitement.

J. C. Penney is perhaps the strangest figure that has come up through the mills of American business. Anyone meeting him for the first time would be puzzled to name his occupation. He might be taken for a professor, a lawyer, a banker, or a minister; but least of all you would think him a merchant.

It is hard to believe that a man who has endured harsh years of poverty, who was caught up in the merciless grind of work since he was a child, who did not know what leisure was, or rest, or ease, could have emerged into the man he is.

Twelve years ago, Wall Street bankers declined to lend Penney enough money to pay his current bills. They disbelieved in his profit-sharing plan for salesmen, and they felt and said that his venture in chain stores was unsafe. Those bankers have since reversed their opinion, and have established immense lines of credit for the stores bearing his name.

It is doubtful if any boy was ever brought up under more iron-handed discipline than James Penney. Certainly none ever came through such a stern boyhood to thank his parents for the harshness of his young years and to reverence their memories for the training he underwent. A weaker spirit would have failed under it.

James Penney was not given an equal chance at life; he did not have a fair start; he didn't get an even break. But, mind you, he says he did. He had to rustle his own clothes from the day he was eight years old. Because he was such a queer figure in his father's made-over garments he was ridiculed at school, and there is nothing that will so bruise a child's heart as ridicule. He couldn't defend himself, because he had a frail body. His odd appearance denied him the friendship of girls. He was a lonely boy.

Yet he says that it was his boyhood training that brought him through failure and illness and sorrow. He does not hesitate to say, too, that Providence has guided his hand from the first. Let's see:

His father was a minister of the Primitive Baptist faith; a devout man, an uncompromising man, an improvident man. He was the father of twelve children. James Penney was the seventh.

It was one of the laws of the Primitive Baptist Church that ministers were not to be paid. The Rev. Mr. Penney, a sound scholar of the Bible and of the classics, rode twenty miles twice a month to preach the word of God to his tiny flock.

After thirteen years of faithful ministry, his congregation expelled him from the church and denounced him as a heretic, because he spoke his belief that the Baptists should make some provision for their preachers, that they should establish Sunday-schools, and that the preachers should be trained in divinity.

While Mr. Penney was telling me these facts, I gradually became aware that he was speaking in lucid, precise English, that his speech was as well ordered as his office and his business and his health. There was not a trace of slang, not a ready-made phrase, not a word of business jargon. For a man whose life has been one of buying and selling, he was giving an amazingly fine expression to his thoughts.

"But, Mr. Penney, you had only a public school education in a rural district!"

"No one is more aware of my deficiencies than I am," he said. "A few years ago, I closed up my office each afternoon and studied with a tutor for eighteen months. I tried to make up what I had lost thirty years ago.

"You see, I'm still sensitive; the jeers of my schoolmates made me sensitive, but they also made me determinative. Some day I wasn't going to be an object of derision.

"I was eight years old the day my father told me that I would have to provide my own clothes. I can remember my dismay at that moment, because the order caught me with my shoes worn out and I didn't see how I was going to get them re-soled.

"But there was no appeal. I had been taught to honor and obey, and his word was final. I counted up the pennies I had been hoarding and I had two dollars and fifty cents. I bought a little Berkshire pig with that money and fixed a pen for him in the back yard. Although my father worked the farm two and a half miles east of Hamilton, he had moved us all into a house in town, so that the children could go to school.

"My father gave me permission to follow along after the corn huskers on Saturdays, so that I could pick up any ears of corn that had been left behind. I fed these to my pig. Then, too, I made the rounds of the neighbors' back doors with a pail, and gathered up slops to fatten the pig.

"In the fall I sold him and bought more pigs. By trading and bargaining I managed to add still more pigs to my drove until I had eleven. I fed them carefully through the winter and planned to sell them in the autumn, when they would fetch the best price.

"But I was headed for a fall. A pig pen has an unpleasant smell, especially during the hot summer months. I had eleven pigs in a small pen in the middle of town; and when summer came on this was brought very forcibly to the attention of the neighbors.

"They complained to my father. He came to me and said, 'Son, I just wanted to see how far you would go with this business. Now you've got to get rid of those pigs.'

"'But, Father,' I said, 'it isn't time yet. They aren't in good condition. Fall is the time to sell pigs. I can't get any kind of a price for them now.'

"'Sell the pigs', said my father.

"I drove them down-town and sold them for what I could get."

As Mr. Penney talked I couldn't suppress the feeling that he had been ungenerously dealt with in this case. But he defended his father's course.

"It was for my good," he said. "That training made me self-reliant and resourceful. It made me utterly dependent upon myself, and I shall always be grateful for that.

"During one summer I raised watermelons, but I had a hard time making anything because my patch was raided so many times at night. I finally took to sleeping in it with my dog for company.

"I liked to play store. I set up a little counter at home and sold all kinds of little things for pins. I printed a newspaper too, on wrapping paper with a pencil. I sold copies of that for pins, too. And I ran a delivery stable with stick horses, which I hired out for pins."

His father helped him with his school work. Like all profound scholars, he despised shallow scholarship. In translating Latin, Jim Penney was a sore trial to his father.

"'You'll never amount to anything, Jim,' my father said one night, 'You're too careless.'

"How these words stung," said Mr. Penney. "I made up my mind to show my father that I would amount to something.

"Don't think for a minute that I was different from other boys. I remember one day my sister put me to churning. It happened that the window of the kitchen looked out over a vacant lot where the boys were playing baseball. It was Saturday afternoon and I was wild to get into that game. With my eyes fixed on the game I churned and churned and churned. The butter would not come. Finally I got desperate.

"I knew that there was some butter on a plate in the pantry and I slipped in and took that. I plastered it around the rim of the churn, to make it look as if my work were done. Then I ran off to the ball game. I wasn't very much afraid of my sister, and I didn't think that my father would hear about it.

"But he did. And he did his duty with a cherry branch. I got many sound thrashings as a boy.

"When I thought that things were hard for me on the farm my father used to tell me what an easy time of it I really was having. 'Why', he would say, 'when I was a boy, and I'd finished all the chores for the day, my father would put me to throwing rocks from the road into our front yard and then make me throw them all back again, just to keep me busy!'

"There was one family chore in which I took great pride," Mr. Penney said. "My father gave me the job of buying wood for the family for the winter. When winter came on it gave me an actual thrill to know that I had had stocked the woodhouse full and the family would have plenty of dry cordwood during the cold months.

"I graduated from high school at seventeen without distinguishing myself in any way. I wasn't a good student and I didn't do anything in sports. And I was seldom invited to any parties.

"I put in the next two years on the farm. But I was too light for farm work and I was worried about what to do. At times my father, too, was discouraged with me.

"I was twenty years old when I got my first real job. My father, who was ill at the time, took me down to the General Store in Hamilton, where he had arranged to have me taken on as a clerk. I was to get $25 for the first year's work and there were eleven months left in the year.

"Do you think I felt that I was badly treated? I was thrilled over it.

"Then my father died. His last words will ring in my ears as long as I live. 'Jim will make it,' he said; 'I like the way he has started out.'

"When I entered the store I knew nothing about merchandise, nothing about selling, nothing about anything. To the other clerks I was the biggest joke in town. They were sure that anyone who would work for $2.27 a month must be a fool. And they felt that any boy who would readily do anything he was asked to do, come at any call, run errands, do little chores, was a simpleton.

"The most important incident in my life happened in my first year in that store. It all happened in my own mind. Something inside me snapped like a bow-string. I shut my teeth and clinched my fists and my whole body stiffened. In that moment I changed from a passive, helpless boy to a determined man.

"When I saw myself as others saw me, that day it turned me into a fighter. I felt that I could tackle a buzz saw. I made up my mind not to listen to a single gibe, to pay no attention to anyone's laughter. My days as a floater were over, over forever.

"I got a grip on myself and began to plot out little ways of pleasing: materials and the different weaves of cloth. I observed customers and tried to plot out little ways of pleasing them.

"At the end of my first year I was third highest in sales. The third year my health broke. I was pale and weak and unfit for the long hours in the store. When I went to see a doctor he told me that I must leave the store and go out West. There was no appeal from that order, either. I went to Denver, Colorado, and started out to hunt a new job.

"The only one I could find was in a dry-goods store at six dollars a week. The harder I worked in that store the less possibilities there seemed to be for me. That store simply held no future.

"I still had three hundred dollars from my pig and watermelon ventures, and I was looking for a chance to start a little business of my own. The first opportunity that turned up was a butcher shop in Longmont, Colorado. I was able to buy that with my savings.

"I put all the energy I could into that business; I studied it from every point. And yet that shop failed in a single year. And I lost every cent I had. I'll tell you why.

"The butcher told me at the outset that in order to get business and to hold it you had to make certain inducements to the cooks in town. The most valuable customer was the cook in the hotel. The butcher said that the way to obtain his trade was to give him a bottle of whiskey every Saturday night.

"Now, I had been brought up in a family where liquor was an abhorrence. My father was a strict prohibitionist and so was my mother. I had learned to hate the sight of whisky as a boy, and even now it makes my blood boil to see men drinking.

"But I did buy a bottle of whisky for that hotel cook the first week. When I had done it my conscience began to trouble me. 'What would my father say?' kept running thru my mind. Then I made the decision which cost me my business, but I held to it. I would buy no more whisky for anyone.

"The butcher remonstrated with me. He told me that I was bound to lose out, which was true. But I refused and in a year my shop was cleaned out.

"Down the street from the butcher shop was a Golden Rule store, run by Mr. Callahan. I walked down there and asked for a job. I could see what was going on in his mind when I spoke to him. 'Why, you're a butcher,' he was thinking. 'What are you doing, trying to get work in a dry-goods store?'

"'Well, he said, there's nothing for you here now, but maybe I can put you on so as an "extry" during the holiday season.'

"'But, Mr Callahan,' I said, 'I'm absolutely broke, and I've got to have a job.'

"He gave me one, temporarily."

James Penney hadn't been in the store three weeks before Mr. Callahan saw that he had a scrupulously honest, tireless young man.

When the regular clerk, who had been ill during these weeks, came back, Mr. Callahan sent Penney out to Evanston, Wyoming, where his partner, Mr. Johnson, had a Golden Rule store. His salary was fifty dollars a month. This was in 1899.

"At noon of my first day in the Evanston store Mr. Johnson sent me off to lunch with the head clerk of the store. As soon as we had finished eating I got up from the table.

"'Where are you going?' the head clerk asked me.

"'Back to the store.'

"'Don't you know you've got an hour for lunch?'

"I told him I wanted to get back to the store," said Mr. Penney; "and I went back.

"The same thing happened next day. I got up to leave as soon as we had finished lunch.

"'Say! You're a fool!' the clerk exploded. 'Don't you know that a man's entitled to an hour for lunch?'

"'But,' said Mr. Penney, "I went back to the store. It seemed to me that that man was losing his great opportunity. He had been selling dry goods for twenty years, and he had been in this particular store for a long time. Yet he took things as they came and lived an effortless life.

"The days weren't long enough for me. I never left the store till the last suit had been brushed and piled, and until the floor had been swept and the shelves dusted.

"Every night the clerk asked me the same question: 'Don't you know when to quit?'

"I did know when to quit: when everything was shipshape for the morning's business. When I got home and went to bed I'd run over every detail of the day's work in my mind. Had I securely locked up the store for the night? Had I banked the fires properly? Were the windows fastened? And many times, because I was uneasy in my mind, I got out of bed and went back to the store to see that all was well.

"In six weeks Mr. Johnson fired the head clerk. I have always been puzzled to know why that man, with his years of training, didn't try to make anything of himself.

"My marriage took place at this time. I remember what a little neighbor girl said when she saw the tiny house that my wife and I fixed up to live in. 'Is this all you're going to have?' she said, looking at our few sticks of furniture. You see, we were desperately poor.

"One day the mayor of the town came to me and asked me to see him in his office. I was surprised and confused, because I had no idea what he wanted to see me about. And I didn't know how I could get down to see him. I explained that I had no time to call on him because my time belonged to the store.

"But one night I stopped in at his home. 'Young man,' he said, 'I've been watching you day after day, month after month. I could regulate my watch on the time that you pass my house on your way to the store in the morning. I own a store, and I want a young man like you to run it. How much are you getting now?'

"'Sixty-five dollars a month.'

"'I'll give you a hundred. What do you say?'

"To me, of course, such a salary was staggering; but I told him that I couldn't consider it. I said that Mr. Johnson had been very kind to me and that I owed a great deal to him. The mayor urged me to talk it over with Mr. Johnson and I promised I would. Mr. Johnson was in the New York market at that time. On his return to Evanston I took the matter up with him. He sat down and talked to me in such a kindly way that I wouldn't have left him for two hundred and fifty dollars a month.

"When I had been in the Evanston store for three years, the two partners, Johnson and Callahan, decided to locate me in a new store. They took me to Ogden, Utah, a prosperous town of thirty-five thousand people. We walked about the streets, which were teeming with life, and surveyed the business section for a possible location.

"Finally I stopped and said, 'Mr. Johnson, I'd really be happier in a smaller town. This is too big for me. I can't get at the hearts of people here.'

"Both of the partners were astonished; but they agreed to let me pick my own town. I chose a mining settlement of less than one thousand people in Wyoming, called Kemmerer."

Here followed five years of dogged labor. The business part of the bleak little town was a triangular block, like an island surrounded by streets which, during most of the year, were seas of mud. J. C. Penney's store wasn't even on this island.

He had a wooden shack, twenty-five feet wide and forty-five feet long, off the main lines of business. His store was out of the way, but it was the best he could find. He sold dry goods, ready-to-wear furnishings, and shoes, and he dealt only on a cash basis.

Johnson and Callahan had offered him a one-third interest in that store; Penney had $500 which he saved up from his years of clerking in Evanston and he borrowed $1,500. The total capital of the store was $6,000. Mr. Penney put himself heavily in debt to get his third interest of $2,000. He lowered himself into a well from which the only escape was ceaseless, methodical climbing.

In a room over the store Penney and his wife and their little boy lived and ate and slept. Penney made a bureau and some chairs and a table out of boxes and shipping crates. His wife never left his side—an eager, industrious woman, glad to share any hardship with her husband. They had but one purpose: to make a success of that little store. They saved, and stinted, and sacrificed. Penney's store was the first one open in Kemmerer in the morning and the last one to close at night. For him there were no Sundays or holidays. Penney put his own salary at $50 a month, just to keep down the running expenses of the store.

Soon he had scraped together money enough to pay off the $1,500 he owed. He had, in addition, $500, with which he bought a house across the street from the store.

Not only did his wife keep that house as clean and bright as a new pin but she continued to help her husband in the store.

"Three times a day, she came over to 'tend store' while I ate," said Mr. Penney. "She thought up dozens of little ways of interesting customers. No matter what she was doing, she came over to help me whenever I called her. And even then she found out moments in which she built, with her own hands, a shed over the rear of the house with packing boxes. She finished a half-story of that house and covered it with building paper. We made a bedroom out of it. You can understand why I believe that a wife has everything to do with her husband's progress."

The little cash and carry store in Kemmerer was prospering. There was no longer any doubt about Penney's ability to carry on a business. Johnson and Callahan, who had accumulated wealth, wanted to retire, and they offered to sell Penney their entire interests in both their Kemmerer and Rock Springs stores.

It was at this time that the idea of chain stores was born in Penney's mind. He thought he saw the advantages of one great buying organization, with selling arms stretched thruout the smaller towns of the West.

"Johnson and Callahan gave me their confidence and an interest in a store, and it has prospered," he thought; "why shouldn't it work with other men?"

With a full knowledge of the withering struggle for money fresh in his mind, and knowing what he must again endure in case he lost it, Penney went ahead. He bought out Johnson and Callahan, giving them notes, and he opened two new stores, one at Preston, Idaho, and another at Bingham Canyon, Utah. He never departed from his original formula: cash payments.

And he put a man in each of these stores who had worked under him as a clerk and he gave them each a third interest, taking their notes, which were to be paid out of the store's earnings.

In order to do the most effective buying for his stores, Mr. Penney moved to Salt Lake City with his wife and his two boys, for another son had arrived; there he intended to establish a headquarters for his business.

It was here, just as he was entering upon the benefits of his achievement, just as he was coming into the first realization of his dreams, that he was to suffer a crushing blow. His wife died. For the first time in his life he faltered. He walked through Gethsemane and he came out a graver, a quieter and humbler man.

From then on Penney's story is blended with the stories of the splendid associates whom he picked and trained. He refuses to take to himself credit for the tremendous growth of the Penney stores during these latter years.

He established a training store at Cumberland where his men could learn the business methods and ideals of the Penney organization. If they made good, they were sold a third interest in a new store and allowed to work out their own salvation, to make their own mistakes, fight their own battles, and win through as he had done.

"Perhaps you wonder that we have such inflexible rules in the choosing of men," said Mr. Penney. "We will not employ a man who drinks or smokes cigarettes or gambles. You see, we have had several tragic cases in the organization. Young men have fought their way up to prosperity and have gone to pieces. Stout moral fiber is the first quality we look for in a young man who wants to start his career with us."

As for the Penney organization, it has grown and multiplied five hundred times, because it was a healthy, wholesome plant growing in good soil. The first man whom J. C. Penney started out was E. C. Sams, who is now president of the Penney Company. Mr. Sams was given the managership of a store in Cumberland, Wyoming, and when he had proved himself he was sold a third-interest in a new Penney store in Eureka, Utah. One young man after another has proved his mettle and risen to prosperity under the guidance of Mr. Penney.

"I believe that without giving a man a start in the business the success of our company would have been small. When a man is working for you as a manager, or with a prospect of an interest in the business, he will work a lot harder than if he were just hired to do a day's work.

"This is how the Penney plan operates:

"A young man starts to work in one of our stores at an ordinary salary," said Mr. Penney. "When he has proved his ability, he is assigned to the management of the store. After he has made good he is sold an interest in the store he is managing, or a new store, and he pays for that one-third interest out of the store profits.

"As soon as he has paid for his one-third interest and the store has made sufficient money, he can take the surplus profits from that store and start another store, in which also he will own a one-third interest.

"When this second store has made enough money, the profits may be used to start another store, in which the original manager has a one-third interest, the second man a one-third interest, while another young man, just starting as a part owner, starts to buy his third.

"But on the fourth store a change takes place. Each store can be owned by but three men, one of whom must be a new part owner. Accordingly, the first man drops out; that is, he doesn't own any part of the fourth store. But that doesn't limit him to part ownership in but three stores. Any store may bloom out into several successions of new stores.

"There are a number of men in the organization who have begun as part owners in single stores, who now own one-third interest in as many as a score or more.

"You see, the point is that a few individuals can never get control of the entire company, because of their capital. Our plan prevents pyramiding of profits by a few and at the same time makes room for new young men.'

As an outsider you can't buy an interest in the Penney stores. The only way you can get an interest is to work for the company.

"I believe in the Western boy," said Mr. Penney, "the boy who has been brought up in a small town. He usually knows the meaning of sacrifices and he has not been accustomed to luxury.

"His parents have usually been the thrifty, hard-working sort, and the boy actually wants to amount to something.

"When we plan to hire a young man we try to make the offer as unattractive as possible, to test him. We tell him about the dull town in which he will have to live. We tell him that there is hard work in store for him and a small salary, to which he and his wife must accommodate themselves.

"We want his ambitions to urge him in soul, mind, and body; to impel him into action, not with a blind desperation but with a buoyant inspiration.

"A young man of ordinary mind and body, ordinary talents, led on by great ambition will accomplish far more in life than the man of the finest mental and physical equipment who drifts."—(Adv.)

Preparations Being Made For Valley Spelling Meet

Pennington county rural school pupils will take part in the eleventh annual Red River Valley Rural School Spelling contest which will be held in connection with the 1925 Red River Valley Winter Shows and the Northwest School Farmers and Women's week meetings which are scheduled to be held at Crookston during the week February 9-13, 1925.

Spelling lists have already been sent to the county superintendents in the 11 Northwestern Minnesota counties and will in turn be distributed by them to the rural school teachers within the next few days.

Gladys Siverson, Esplee, Marshall county won the championship spelling banner at the 1921 Winter Shows in a field of twenty-two contestants there being two from each of the eleven counties. Emma Letnes, district No. 28, and Chester Wilson, district No. 35, represented this county last year.

County Superintendent Ole R. Sande is very enthusiastic regarding this spelling contest as it interests annually all the rural school pupils of the county. Every effort will be made to place Pennington county in the front ranks in the ensuing contest.

CREAMERY PATRONS RECEIVE TOTAL OF $23,205 IN AUGUST

Usual Drop in Cream Receipts Noted During Month—25 Get More than $100

More than 28 tons of butter were shipped out by the Farmers Co-operative creamery in this city during the month of August, according to figures obtained from Secretary Thos. H. Bjerke. A total of $23,205 was paid to patrons during that period of which $15,530 went to monthly patrons and $7,675 was paid in cash. The total receipts dropped from $28,500 in July, the cause for this being attributed to the poorer condition of pastures and the customary drop in production at that time.

Of the 350 patrons, 123, a list of which follows, received checks of $50 or over, while 25 passed the $100 mark. In July 50 patrons received in excess of $100.

Creamery patrons are now anxiously awaiting the completion of the new creamery building, which is to be ready for occupation the first part of December.

Stock Feeders to Meet

Farmers interested in beef cattle feeding trials are invited to attend the second annual Cattle Feeders Day to be held at the Northwest Experiment Station, Crookston, on the afternoon of October 3. At that time twenty-four steers which have been fed in different pastures at the station during the past season will be taken to their winter feeding quarters. These steers were fed during last winter in four separate lots.

Prof. W. H. Peters, University Farm, St. Paul, and Prof. O. M. Kiser, Northwest Experiment Station, will have charge of the program which it is expected will be of great interest to the farmers feeding livestock in the Red River Valley.

Filling Silos

With shock threshing well under way, in many parts of the community completed, many farmers are now busy filling their silos. Altho the corn crop suffered severely from the early frosts there will be a considerable quantity of silage. Some who do not have a silo are using the stack or trench silo method of preserving their fodder.

A number of farmers are picking out somewhat ripened corn ears for seed, there being a few reports of deated corn. The Tessum company of this city has prepared curing facilities for a large amount and expects to provide at least a part of next year's supply of northern Minnesota grown seed.

SIR: As required by section 46, General Statutes 1913, I have the honor to furnish you herewith, a statement of the purposes and effects of all amendments proposed to the constitution of the state of Minnesota by the legislature of 1923 and which are to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in 1924.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 1.

Chapter 447, Session Laws of Minnesota for the year 1923 proposes an amendment to section 5 of article 9 of the constitution of the state. The section now reads as follows:

"Section 5. For the purpose of defraying extraordinary expenditures, the state may contract public debts, but such debts shall never, in the aggregate, exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; every such debt shall be authorized by law, for some single object, to be distinctly specified therein; and no such law shall take effect until it shall have been passed by the vote of two-thirds of the members of each branch of the legislature, to be recorded by yeas and nays on the journals of each house respectively; and every such law shall levy a tax annually sufficient to pay the annual interest of such debt, and also a tax sufficient to pay the principal of such debt within ten years from the final passage of such law, and shall specially appropriate the proceeds of such taxes to the payment of such principal and interest; and such appropriation and taxes shall not be repealed, postponed, or diminished, until the principal and interest of such debt shall have been wholly paid. The state shall never contract any debts for works of internal improvements, or be a party in carrying on such works, except in cases where grants of land or other property shall have been made to the state, especially dedicated by the grant to specific purposes, and in such cases the state shall devote thereto the avails of such grants, and may pledge or appropriate the revenues derived from such works in aid of their completion."

If amended this section will read as follows:

"Section 5. For the purpose of defraying extraordinary expenditures, the state may contract public debts, but such debts shall never, in the aggregate, exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; every such debt shall be authorized by law, for some single object, to be distinctly specified therein; and no such law shall take effect until it shall have been passed by the vote of two-thirds of the members of each branch of the legislature, to be recorded by yeas and nays on the journals of each house respectively; and every such law shall levy a tax annually sufficient to pay the annual interest of such debt, and also a tax sufficient to pay the principal of such debt within ten years from the final passage of such law, and shall specially appropriate the proceeds of such taxes to the payment of such principal and interest; and such appropriation and taxes shall not be repealed, postponed, or diminished, until the principal and interest of such debt shall have been wholly paid. The state shall never contract any debts for works of internal improvement, or be a party in carrying on such works, except as authorized by section 16 of article 9, and by article 16 of this constitution; but it may levy an excise tax upon any substance, material, fluid force or other means or instrumentality, or the business of dealing in, selling or producing any or all thereof, used or useful, in producing or generating power for propelling motor or other vehicles used on the public highways of this state, and shall place the proceeds of such tax in the trunk highway fund provided for in section 2 of said article 16 and further except in cases where grants of land or other property shall have been made to the state, especially dedicated by the grant to specific purposes, and in such cases the state shall devote thereto the avails of such grants, and may pledge or appropriate the revenues derived from such works in aid of their completion."

The purpose of the proposed amendment is to confer express authority upon the legislature to provide a special tax on gasoline or other substances used, or useful, for the propulsion of motor vehicles on the public highways of the state or on the business of dealing in, selling or producing such substances. The money so raised by such tax to be used for the construction and maintenance of trunk highways.

The effect of the amendment, if adopted, will be that the cost of the construction and maintenance of trunk highways, the whole of which is now paid by a direct tax on motor vehicles, supplemented by federal aid, will be borne in part by the revenue derived from such gasoline tax, so-called, as the legislature may impose.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 2.

Chapter 448, Session Laws of Minnesota for the year 1923 proposes an amendment of section 36 of article 4 of the constitution of the state. This section now reads as follows:

"Section 36. Any city or village in this state may frame a charter for its own government as a city consistent with and subject to the laws of this state, as follows: The legislature shall provide, under such restrictions as it deems proper, for a board of fifteen freeholders, who shall be and for the past five years shall have been qualified voters thereof, to be appointed by the district judges of the judicial district in which the city or village is situated, as the legislature may determine, for a term in no event to exceed six years, which board shall, within six months after its appointment, return to the chief magistrate of said city or village a draft of said charter, signed by the members of said board, or a majority thereof. Such charter shall be submitted to the qualified voters of such city or village at the next election thereafter, and if four-sevenths of the qualified voters voting at such election shall ratify the same it shall, at the end of thirty days thereafter, become the charter of such city or village as a city, and supersede any existing charter and amendments thereof; Provided, that in cities having patrol limits now established, such charter shall require a three-fourths majority vote of the qualified voters voting at such election to change the patrol limits now established. Before any city shall incorporate under this act the legislature shall prescribe by law the general limits within which such charter shall be framed. Duplicate certificates shall be made setting forth the charter proposed and its ratification, which shall be signed by the chief magistrate of said city or village and authenticated by its corporate seal. One of said certificates shall be deposited in the office of the secretary of state, and the other, after being recorded in the office of the register of deeds for the county in which such city or village lies, shall be deposited among the archives of such city or village, and all courts shall take judicial notice thereof. Such charter, so deposited may be amended by proposal therefor made by a board of fifteen commissioners aforesaid, published for at least thirty days in three newspapers of general circulation in such city or village, and accepted by three-fifths of the qualified voters of such city or village voting at the next election and not otherwise; but such charter shall always be in harmony with and subject to the constitution and laws of the state of Minnesota. The legislature may prescribe the duties of the commission relative to submitting amendments of charter to the vote of the people, and shall provide that upon application of five per cent of the legal voters of any such city or village, by written petition, such commission shall submit to the vote of the people proposed amendments to such charter set forth in said petition. The board of freeholders above provided for shall be permanent, and all the vacancies by death, disability to perform duties, resignation or removal from the corporate limits, or expiration of term of office, shall be filled by appointment in the same manner as the original board was created, and said board shall always contain its full complement of members. It shall be a feature of all such charters that there shall be provided, among other things, for a mayor or chief magistrate, and a legislative body of either one or two houses; if of two houses, at least one of them shall be elected by general vote of the electors. In submitting any such charter or amendment thereto to the qualified voters of such city or village any alternate section or article may be presented for the choice of the voters, and may be voted on separately without prejudice to other articles or sections of the charter or any amendments thereto. The legislature may provide general laws relating to affairs of cities, the application of which may be limited to cities of over fifty thousand inhabitants, or to cities of fifty and not less than twenty thousand inhabitants, or to cities of twenty and not less than ten thousand inhabitants, or to cities of ten thousand inhabitants or less, which shall apply equally to all such cities of either class, and which shall be paramount while in force to the provisions relating to the same matter included in the local charter herein provided for. But no local charter, provision or ordinance passed thereunder shall supersede any general law of the state defining or punishing crimes or misdemeanors."

If amended this section will read as follows:

"Section 36. Any city or village in this state may frame a charter for its own government as a city consistent with and subject to the laws of this state, as follows: The legislature shall provide, under such restrictions as it deems proper, for a board of fifteen freeholders, who shall be and for the past five years shall have been qualified voters thereof, to be appointed by the district judges of the judicial district in which the city or village is situated, as the legislature may determine, for a term in no event to exceed six years, which board shall, within six months after its appointment, return to the chief magistrate of said city or village a draft of said charter, signed by the members of said board, or a majority thereof. Such charter shall be submitted to the qualified voters of such city or village at the next election thereafter, and if four-sevenths of the qualified voters voting at such election shall ratify the same it shall, at the end of thirty days thereafter, become the charter of such city or village as a city, and supersede any existing charter and amendments thereof; Provided, that in cities having patrol limits now established, such charter shall require a three-fourths majority vote of the qualified voters voting at such election to change the patrol limits now established. Such charter so deposited may be amended by proposal therefor made by a board of fifteen commissioners aforesaid, published for at least ten days in any daily newspaper of general circulation in such city or village, or if there be no daily newspaper of general circulation in such city or village then for two successive weeks in a weekly newspaper of general circulation in such city or village, and accepted by three-fifths of the qualified voters of such city or village voting at the next election and not otherwise; but such charter shall always be in harmony with and subject to the constitution and laws of the state of Minnesota. The legislature may prescribe the duties of the commission relative to submitting amendments of charter to the vote of the people, and shall provide that upon application of five per cent of the legal voters of any such city or village, by written petition, such commission shall submit to the vote of the people proposed amendments to such charter set forth in said petition. In submitting any such charter or amendment thereto to the qualified voters of such city or village any alternate section or article may be presented for the choice of the voters, and may be voted on separately without prejudice to other articles or sections of the charter or any amendments thereto. The legislature may provide general laws relating to affairs of cities, the applications of which may be limited to cities over fifty thousand inhabitants, or to cities of fifty and not less than twenty thousand inhabitants, or to cities of twenty and not less than ten thousand inhabitants, or to cities of ten thousand inhabitants or less, which shall apply equally to all such cities of either class, and which shall be paramount while in force to the provisions relating to the same matter included in the local charter herein provided for. But no local charter, provision or ordinance passed thereunder shall supersede any general law of the state defining or punishing crimes or misdemeanors."

The purpose of said amendment is to change the number of newspapers in which proposed amendments of home rule charters of cities and villages must be published and the duration of such publication.

The effect of said amendment, if adopted, will be to authorize the publication of proposed amendments to the home rule charter of a city or village for ten days in one daily newspaper of general circulation therein, if there be such a newspaper, or once each week for two successive weeks, in a weekly newspaper of general circulation therein, if there be no such daily newspaper, instead of publishing the same for thirty days in three newspapers of general circulation therein as now required.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 3.

Chapter 449 Session Laws Minnesota for the year 1923 proposes an amendment to the constitution of Minnesota by adding thereto a new article, to be known as Article 17, to read as follows:

Article 17.

"Section 1. The legislature by law may establish one state owned public terminal grain elevator at Duluth, Minnesota, and one at Minneapolis, Minnesota, acquired by purchase, lease or exercise of the right of eminent domain, sites and facilities therefor, and provide for the construction, maintenance and operation thereof by the state.

Section 2. The legislature by law may provide for the issue and sale of bonds of the state in such amount as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of Section 1 of this article.

Section 3. Any and all provisions of the constitution of the state of Minnesota inconsistent with the provisions of this article are hereby repealed, so far, but only so far, as the same prohibit or limit the power of the legislature to enact laws authorizing or permitting the doing of the things hereinbefore authorized."

The purpose of said amendment is to expressly empower the legislature to establish, construct, operate and maintain two state owned public terminal elevators.

The effect of said amendment, if adopted, will be to empower the legislature to acquire by purchase, lease or the exercise of the right of eminent domain, sites for one state owned public terminal elevator at Duluth, Minnesota, and another at Minneapolis, Minnesota, to establish, construct, operate and maintain said elevators, to issue and sell bonds of the state in such amount as may be necessary to acquire said sites and to establish, construct, operate and maintain said elevators, and to repeal all provisions of the state constitution inconsistent with said amendment.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 4.

Chapter 450, Session Laws of Minnesota for the year 1923 proposes an amendment to the constitution of the state of Minnesota by adding thereto a new article, to succeed article 16, and to be appropriately numbered, to read as follows:

Article ....

"Section 1. Laws may be enacted for the purpose of encouraging and promoting forestation and reforestation of lands in this state, whether owned by private persons or the public, including irrepealable provisions for definite and limited taxation of such lands during a term of years, and for a yield tax at or after the end of such term, upon the timber and other forest products so grown.

"Section 2. Any and all provisions of the constitution of the state of Minnesota inconsistent with the provisions of this article are hereby repealed, so far, but only so far, as the same prohibit or limit the power of the legislature to enact laws authorizing or permitting the doing of the things hereinbefore authorized."

The purpose of said amendment is to empower the legislature to enact laws to encourage and promote forestation and reforestation of publicly and privately owned lands.

The effect of said amendment, if adopted, will be to empower the legislature to enact laws to encourage and promote forestation and reforestation of publicly and privately owned lands, and in that end to enact irrepealable laws for a definite and limited taxation for a term of years of lands devoted to forestation or reforestation, and laws for a yield tax, at the end or after such term, upon the timber or other forest products so grown upon said lands, and to repeal provisions of the state constitution inconsistent with said amendment.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 5.

Chapter 451, Session Laws of Minnesota for 1923 proposes an amendment to the constitution of said state by adding thereto a new article, to be known as Article 17 (a), to read as follows:

Article 17 (a).

"Section 1. The state and (or) any of its political subdivisions, if and whenever authorized by the legislature, may contract debts and pledge the public credit for and engage in any work reasonably tending to prevent or abate forest fires, including the compulsory clearing and improvement of wild lands (whether belonging to the public or privately owned) and the assessment against such lands of the value of all benefits so conferred and the payment of damages so sustained in excess of such benefits.

Section 2. Any and all provisions of the constitution of the state of Minnesota inconsistent with the provisions of this article, are hereby repealed, so far, but only so far, as the same prohibit or limit the power of the legislature to enact laws authorizing or permitting the doing of the things hereinbefore authorized."

The purpose of said amendment is to expressly empower the state, and its political subdivisions, to undertake the prevention and abatement of forest fires, and to incur debts and pledge the public credit in so doing.

The effect of said amendment, if adopted, will be to empower the state, and any of its political subdivisions when authorized by the legislature so to do, to engage in any work reasonably tending to prevent or abate forest fires, including the compulsory clearing and improvement of publicly and privately owned wild lands, to assess against said lands the benefits accruing thereto from such work, and to pay the damages to such lands in excess of the benefits, if any resulting from such work, to contract debts and pledge the public credit in carrying on said work, and to repeal all provisions of the state constitution inconsistent with said amendment.

Yours respectfully,
CLIFFORD L. HILTON,
Attorney General.

Silo Saves Corn Crop for Many Pennington Farmers

The silo is a life saver for corn farmers in Pennington county this year, according to a report just issued by the Blue Valley Creamery Institute.

"With late corn almost certain to be caught by frosts while still unripe, use of the silo offers a means of saving the farmer huge sums of money in feeding values. It is highly important to save the maximum from the present crop, as official reports declare the corn condition in this state is only 61 per cent, while the total yield will not run over 118,900,000 bushels as compared with 154,692,000 in 1923. The five year average for the state was 128,469,000 bushels.

"The probability of an unusually large amount of frosted corn in at least the northern half of the corn belt is indicated in a recent report of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, which states that an early frost will play havoc with the corn crop.

"It is better to ensile the frosted corn than to put it to any other use," the report continues." Soft frosted corn is an inferior feed. In late seasons it is better to let corn stand until after the frost than ensile it too green for a satisfactory silage can be secured from frosted corn and the crop may mature to a considerable extent before a severe frost comes. If the crop is killed by frost, it should either be ensiled quickly or shocked tightly to preserve it from the weather. If shocked properly, it will keep in good condition until after the first of the year and can be used to refill the silo after it is emptied the first or second time.

STATE WHEAT POOL REDUCES SELLING COST, REPORT SAYS

Co-operative Growers' Association Issues Final Statement on 1923 Crop

The Minnesota Wheat Growers' Co-operative Marketing association with headquarters in Minneapolis, has compiled its final statement on the 1923 wheat pool and is jubilant over the showing it has made in comparison with old line companies in previous years. The total spread between the price the members received and the price at the terminal market, except freight, was 15.34 cents per bushel for the Association, compared with a spread of 17 to 19 cents in the grain trade for the years 1919 to 1922, the report states.

This spread of 15.34 cents for the Wheat Growers' association is divided into two main items of cost, namely, fixed charges and actual marketing costs. The fixed charges include such items as elevator and farm storage, interest, exchange, insurance, etc., and amounted to 11.66 cents per bushel. These are items which must be paid in any system of marketing grain, whether it is handled by the pool, by a farmers' elevator, or by the old line grain companies. The actual marketing costs of the association included such items as salaries, office expenses and supplies, etc., and amounted to only 3.68 cents per bushel. This is the figure which must be compared with the total cost of overhead of the old line elevator companies, rents, salaries, profits, etc.

As compared with its total spread of 15.34 cents, the Wheat Growers' association draws attention to the spread in the old line grain companies as revealed by government investigation. According to a report of the Federal Trade Commission, the total spread between the producer and the final purchaser, except freight, was 18.89 cents in the grain trade for the years 1919 and 1920. Additional studies by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the University of Minnesota show that this total spread in the grain trade was 19.69 cents per bushel in 1920, 17.19 cents in 1921, and 17.56 cents in 1922, or an average of 18.15 cents for the three-year period.

"It must be noted," said W. H. Frederick, formerly of Thief River Falls, secretary of the association, "that we handled only a very small pool of wheat last year. Our actual marketing cost of 3.68 cents per bushel would have handled a much larger number of bushels, in which case even that low cost per bushel would have been considerably reduced. Considering the small pool, the low marketing cost, and the comparison between our total spread and that of the grain trade, we think the Minnesota Wheat Growers' association has made a wonderful showing in its first year.

"The figures on total spread for the old line grain companies are for the period 1919 to 1922. These were the costs before the Wheat Growers' association entered the field. We know that the spread in the grain trade was lowered in 1923, because our competition forced the old line companies, for the first time in the history of the grain trade in Minnesota, to return to the farmers a part of the premium price they received.

"This year the grain trade is paying premiums over the station card price at country points that actually return them a loss on the transaction, in an effort to wean our members away and destroy the association. If they could succeed in that attempt, the day of premium prices to farmers would be past and they could again pay what they liked. The showing of the association in its first year of operation, however, is the clearest kind of evidence to farmers that co-operative marketing of wheat is a success, both in low cost of operation and in raising the general level of prices to all the wheat growers in the state. We are proud of that showing, and we look with even greater confidence upon the future."

Mr. Frederick adds that complete itemized statements of the year's operations and members' personal accounts are now being prepared. These will be mailed to members, with checks to cover final balance, as fast as the clerical help can get them out.

Graveling of Highway to Start as Soon as Possible

Bids for the graveling of Trunk Highway No. 32 between this city and St. Hilaire and a stretch north from Red Lake Falls will be publicly opened Tuesday, Oct. 7 beginning at 10 a. m., at the leased offices of the highway department in St. Paul. Much of the graveling will be done this winter, it is announced, and all the work will be pushed that the public may enjoy the earlier use of the improvements. Contractors located near the projects are especially urged to submit bids as they do not have to include the cost of moving machinery.

The grading south from this city to St. Hilaire is now being pushed as much as possible and if weather conditions are favorable may be completed in two-three weeks.

The new members of the Exchange include the Lincoln County Egg and Poultry Producers' association, of Lake Benton, of which A. A. Kosmoski is manager; and the Thief River Valley Co-operative Poultry and Marketing association, of Thief River Falls, of which B. O. Norby is manager. It is expected that three other associations will be in operation by the end of September.

Big Yields at Holt

The following report of crop yields in the vicinity of Holt appeared in the Holt Weekly News last week:

George Johnson, 1206 bushels of rye from 20 acres, an average of 60 bushels per acre; O. B. Johnson's rye went 49 bushels to the acre and O. M. Larson's 57; John Holst's barley averaged 42 bushels to the acre and John Benitt's 45; Mrs. Fred Larson had 2033 bushels of oats on 28 acres, an average yield of 72½ bushels per acre; Nels Lysne's crop of oats averaged 65 bushels per acre.

"BUNCOING" FROM HOUSE TO HOUSE

The following editorial from the Minneapolis Daily Star gives a vivid account of the practices of the multitude of "bell ringers" infesting the cities and towns of the country and is well worth reading by citizens of this community who are approached daily by some glib-tongued, high-powered salesman:

Sixteen hundred canvassers and peddlers are going from door to door in Minneapolis selling their wares. They are not compelled to take out a license. Usually they have no credentials of value to vouch for their responsibility or for the responsibility of those firms they represent. They rely upon the articles of the glib-tongued profession, the tricks of the high pressure salesman. And their victims for the most part are working people.

The homes of the wealthy are usually shunned because there the peddler must make the nature of his mission known through a servant and is usually told to be on his way without a chance to see the head of the household. But in the humbler homes, where the women folks know the need of extreme economy, they often find ready victims. The housewife "falls" for a well-memorized speech about the elimination of the middleman and the advantage of buying "direct from the factory representative." She purchases "glitter silk stockings" at a price lower than she can buy silk hose of a retail store. Then she learns to her dismay that "glitter silk" is not silk at all and that the stockings are not as good and still more expensive than lisle hose.

She listens to a siren song about cheap shirts and decides that her husband needs a few more. She purchases three for $8.65 and then finds that contrary to the agent's false story she could have bought three shirts of the same material except that they are better made and are not "seconds," from her merchants for $5.35. She listens to a story about rugs being brought into the country in some mysterious way "duty free" and though they are "orientas" they can be had for less than the Minneapolis stores charge for domestic rugs. By and by she learns that they are only cheap imitations of orientals and are of trifling value.

And so the story goes. The household forgets that when she trades with a Minneapolis businessman, whether he be large or small, he is always ready to make an adjustment on any merchandise that fails to come up to the claims made for it. But when she buys from the bell-ringer salesman, if the goods fail to come up to expectations, there is no recourse.

In addition, the peddler is quite often a very unsafe party to have enter your home. Many thefts have been traced to this gentry and often times the canvasser is merely an advance agent for thieves looking for soft spots to burglarize.

If peddlers and canvassers by the hundreds are to be allowed to roam in residence districts in search of trade, they should first be required to have a license and no license should be given those who do not represent responsible concerns and who cannot furnish evidence of their personal character. It would be well for the city officials to look into the situation at once and pass an ordinance that will protect the people against this form of misrepresentation and fraud.

Partridges Dying Off

Reports are coming in from various parts of northern Minnesota that partridges are being found dead in large numbers in the woods and fields, the cause of which has not been discovered. An investigation by the game warden has been started, according to the Crookston Times. Birds taken by game wardens near Baudette were infected with a small tick. The parasites were found in large numbers in their feathers and it is believed that this is the reason for the large number of dead birds being found. Partridges are reported to be numerous in this locality this year.

The season for partridges opens Oct. 15 and continues until Nov. 20. The duck season is now on but reports from those who have visited the popular hunting grounds indicate small numbers in most places. It is expected, however, that they will be numerous when the flocks from the north start winging southward about the latter part of this month. The number of hunting licenses issued in most counties of the state is below normal so far this year. Auditor T. P. Anderson has received a list of Pennington county hunters who failed to report their 1923 catch, but is issuing 1924 permits to anyone making out an affidavit that he has made the report required by law.

Postpone Building

At a meeting of potato growers members of the Pennington exchange, held at St. Hilaire recently it was decided to postpone the building of a shipping house until next season, states the Spectator. It would be impossible to finish a building in time to handle the crop at the beginning of digging and as a result bids were canceled.

Michelet is Promoted

Wm. Michelet, for a number of years judge of probate in this county and a resident of Thief River Falls and more recently assistant in the Land Commissioner's office in St. Paul, has been appointed assistant Immigration Commission to succeed "Doc" Rutledge who has resigned. Local friends are pleased to hear of the promotion accorded the former servant of Pennington county.

High Blood Pressure

is due to hardening of the walls of the blood vessels and they are not able to contract or expand fully. The kidneys have been over-worked and are not capable of eliminating all of the impurities from the blood hence the arteries and veins have been poisoned and hardening is the result. The distance from the heart upward is far less than downward hence the resistance upward is less and high blood pressure is the result. Chiropractic adjustment for the kidneys and the nerves which control the blood vessels will get results where other methods have failed.

THE VALUE OF A SCHOOL PAPER

A school paper is undoubtedly valuable. If it were not, we wouldn't have such a thing. By reading the "Progress" and exchange papers placed on the assembly stage, we know high schools do have papers, and a great many of them. The staff must work hard every week in order that we may have a publication for our high school. Some read it, but many pay no attention to the paper whatsoever. It creates enthusiasm for athletics by articles on football and basketball. It gives the students on the staff practice in journalism, and shows the bright side of school life by numerous incidents taken from the classrooms. It also shows in various ways to people outside of school what is going on and what, we, the students, are accomplishing.

Our Freshies

The L. H. S. Freshmen are cutest here, though some folks think they're mighty queer, because they fail to understand that Freshies simply "beat the band." They study hard, they're never bold, they always do just what they're told, because they have great plans you see, of what they're some day going to be. Of course the Freshmen all have crushes; we must admit they are fond of mushes; but all in all we have a hunch, that they're a perfect little bunch!

SENIOR-FACULTY RECEPTION SUCCESS

High School Gymnasium Furnished to Resemble Large Hotel Lobby

The reception given to the Lincoln high school faculty last Saturday evening by the Senior class was a delightfully well appointed social event. The success of the entertainment is reason enough to make the class a wee bit proud. The keen interest in affairs and the spirit of good fellowship on the part of every member of the class was in itself a source of enjoyment to the guests. The school gymnasium was artistically transformed into a beautiful lobby with the easy chairs, pillows, lamps, and every other thing that could possibly lend to the atmosphere of comfort.

The evening opened with an address of welcome given by Emmett Shanahan, the Senior class president, and then a response by Principal Morris Bye, following which was given a splendid program by school talent. An orchestra consisting of Maxine Johnson, piano; Kermit Anderson, saxophone; Henry Arneson, violin, and Lloyd Bennes, drums. Following is the program for the evening:

Address of Welcome	Emmett Shanahan
Response	Mr. Morris Bye
Marcheta	Orchestra
Reading	Lucille Roark
Piano Solo	Mildred Engen

The first of a series of games that followed was an autograph contest in which Lylian Arnold captured first prize and Erysle Anderson the consolation. Mr. I. T. Simley was taken back a bit when the results of the next contest showed Mr. Morris Bye to excel him in spelling. The third game was to test each individuals power of observation in which case Roy Langseth and Ansof Dahlen tied for first, while Robert Halvorson received a minor reward for his efforts.

Immediately afterwards partners were chosen for the grand march which wound up the stairs and terminated at the refreshment tables where a very delicious lunch was served.

Again the merrymakers took to the gymnasium where, last but not least, they gave rousing yells for the Seniors and Faculty in turn.

The evening raised the thermometer of class success one point higher, and those individuals who were directly connected with the decorating may feel well paid for their efforts from the praises that have been given their handiwork.

Locals To Play Warren On Their Gridiron Sat.

On October the fourth, the Thief River high school football team is to go to Warren and play them. It is to be remembered that the Lincolnites suffered a defeat at the hands of Warren on Armistice Day last year. This defeat, being the last game of the year, made the locals see "red" and crave a return game. Their chance has come and although the defeat happened last year there still remains a longing for revenge. Judging by the crowd which represented the local high school at the Red Lake Falls game, there will be quite a delegation of Thief River people going to Warren.

M. W. Deputy Addresses High School Assembly

On Tuesday morning the high school was given a treat when M. W. Deputy, president of the Bemidji State Teacher's college, addressed the assembly. Mr. Deputy began his speech with the question, "What are the three most important things in life?" Going on he explained that they were: health, character and well directed energy. Stating that a person who was not blessed with good health could not rise to the same heights of success as could a healthy person. "Many persons," he said, "have told me that a person need not be healthy in order to give the world good things. They give Robert Louis Stevenson as an example. But I say that Robert Louis Stevenson did not write because he was sick, but that he wrote in spite of poor health. Perhaps if Stevenson had not been sick he would have given the world a whole library full of valuable works instead of just a few good books."

He said that there were some people who had so little character that they neither did good nor harm. He also stated that there were two kinds of character, negative and positive. The negative did harm to the world, while the persons of positive character were the people to be admired.

In speaking on well directed energy, he said a person should spend his life or exert his energy in doing something worth while to the rest of the people inhabitating the world. If a person does not do this, he is not only wasting his own life but that of the world as well.

The student body was very much pleased with his speech and they hope that they will have occasion to hear Mr. Deputy at some other time.

A Repudiation

Last week a disagreeable incident took place at the high school. A group of individuals hoisted a pennant upon the flag pole with the name "Senior" on it. Naturally sentiment was aroused against the act, both within the class and without, for it is a desecration to hoist a flag or pennant in the place of the American flag. It is possible, however, that the parties to the affair did not think of that but sought to "play a prank."

At a special meeting of the class it was voted overwhelmingly to repudiate the action of these few individuals. It was decidedly not a class affair and the class, by its vote, made it known that they were opposed to such action.

—The Senior Class.

Normal Notes

Last Friday the Normal students held a meeting for the purpose of selecting a motto for their organization, "Climb, though the rocks be rugged," was selected.

The normalites observed two second grade classes last Thursday, one at the Northrup and one at the Washington.

New Enrollment Record

Last year's enrollment record of 429 students was shattered on Monday. The high school now has 431 which exceeds the number at the end of the first semester by 35. With such a great number the assembly is unable to accommodate all. To offset this, two people have to be assigned to the same seat in a number of instances. At the present time there are eighteen seats which are holding double. This is made possible by assigning to one seat two people whose programs are so arranged that both of them are not in the assembly during the same period.

The Senior class gained a new recruit this week, making the class roll 98. In addition there are 32 post graduates. This will be the largest class ever graduated from Lincoln high school. The enrollment in the other three classes is: Juniors, 73; Sophomore, 87; Freshmen, 141.

The same sun shone on Napoleon when he marched to his Waterloo that shines these days on Students who go to class unprepared.

Teacher: "Children, can any of you tell me what is the most dangerous part of an automobile?"

Tommy: "Yes, Miss, I can! It's the driver."

Found on the American History quiz papers:

"The Mayflower Compact is a ship."

"Freeholders were large land holders."

"The Southern plantations were so large that there was no room for a school house. This was why there was very little education in the South."

"Why do they call them Glee Clubs?"

"Because it's funny how some of the fellows get in."

"What's the matter?"

"I wrote an article on fresh milk, and the editor condensed it."

Weather Forecast

The weather in general has been fair in Lincoln high school. Somewhat unsettled in all classes before class meetings. Rainy in the eastern part of the assembly where the Freshment are located. Threatening clouds seen on some teacher's faces, but we find that clearer weather is reported ahead. Slightly unsettled in the Sophomore and Junior division, and very fair wheather reported in the Senior class except for the high temperature of enthusiasm for the Teacher reception,

FRANCES WILLARD DAY IS OBSERVED

Olaf Olstead Awarded First Prize in W. C. T. U. Essay Contest

At the regular assembly period held at 11:20 on Friday, the high school observed Frances Willard day. Miss Willard's birthday came on Sunday, Sept. 28, but in order to have a program observing the day it was necessary to have it on the Friday before the Sunday. The program opened with some singing by the whole student body led by Miss Maude L. Johnson. After this Supt. I. T. Simley read the result of the essay contest conducted by the W. C. T. U. last spring. Olaf Olstad was awarded first prize and Viola Barringrud received state honorable mention for high schools. In the grade sections, Marion Gray and Wendell Sether received honorable mention.

Rev. Chas. Gerlinger then gave an interesting talk on the life of Frances E. Willard touching upon her character as a leader in the movement which resulted in the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the U. S. He also emphasized that she was not only a great temperance worker, but an educator and a Christian as well.

Grace Mostue Ranks Fifth In State Baking Contest

Grace Mostue, a Junior, received a letter Wednesday from Chicago stating that she had won fifth prize in the individual bread baking contest at the Minnesota State Fair. She baked on Friday the sixth of September with thirty-one other contestants. Her loaf was judged fifth best out of five hundred loaves baked. The prizes were awarded by the Fleishman Yeast Co., of Chicago, hence the letter from Chicago. The prize was five dollars. Grace is to be congratulated on her success as a bread baker.

Juniors Decide Class Dues

A Junior class meeting was held last Friday. The subject of class dues was talked over, and it was decided that they should be two dollars a year, one dollar to be paid each semester. The class finds it necessary to do something special in order to raise some money for the Junior-Senior banquet. To do this the class will stage a play sometime during the year. The play will be chosen by a committee of class advisor, Miss Doreen Finnegan and Principal Morris Bye, and three members of the class who will be appointed by the president, Sannia Erickson. The cast will be selected by three teachers.

Minimum Requirement Tests Given

The Minnesota minimum requirement test in English was given to al the students on Friday morning, September 26, between the hours of nine and ten. The same test was given in many other of the high schools of the state.

Since all the pupils took the same test the difference in ability in English between the different classes can be found by comparing the average score of one class with that of another. For instance, the difference in the ability to use English between the Freshmen class and the Senior class would be denoted by the difference between the average score made by the Freshmen on the test and that of the Seniors.

By comparing the average score made by all the students at Lincoln high school with that of all the students of the other schools of Minnesota, it will be found whether the pupils in the local high school are above or below average in their ability to use English.

To Play on A. C. Team

Among those mentioned as members of the 1924 football team at the Northwest School of Agriculture, Crookston, are two Pennington county boys, namely Elmer Miller of Erie, member of last year's eleven and Oliver Howard of Highlanding. D. H. LaVoi of Fosston is back as athletic coach at the farm school and declares that prospects point to a strong team. The Aggies will meet the Thief River Falls high school team at Crookston on Nov. 1. The regular term at the Northwest school opened Oct. 1.

Crookston Wins

Coach L. A. Thune, Arthur Penney, Lawrence Mulry, Lloyd Bennes, Donald McCrum and Mike Parenteau motored to Crookston Saturday to witness the Crookston-Red Lake Falls football game, the former of which were victors by a 19-0 score. The local high school team meets the Crookston eleven on the home field Friday, Oct. 10, during the convention of the Northwestern Minnesota Educational association.

Red Lake Falls Handed Goose Egg in Football Contest Here Yesterday

The Red Lake Falls high school football team was decisively defeated by the Lincoln team yesterday afternoon at the fair grounds. The final score was 26 to 0. The locals displayed some very effective offensive play, taking the ball straight down the field a number of times. Zeh and Bennes made several good gains with some pretty runs around and through the opposition. The visitors at no time approached closer than thirty yards from the goal line.

Shortly after the beginning of the fourth quarter the entire second team was sent in for Thief River. They showed their mettle by holding Red Lake for downs on the thirty yard line and making sufficient ground for one first down before the final whistle blew.

LOCAL MERCHANTS ARE BEST BOOSTERS

Support of Local Business Men Make it possible to Increase Community Spirit

Frequently a community will fall into a rut of indifference, and the prosperity that might have been theirs is lost for want of a little push and enterprise. Noting these things many of the citizens realize the need of a little work to bring home the value of home community work to the people, and lead on to solid road in the future. They have selected The Times as their organ of publicity in this campaign for a better home community, and a building up of the home trade.

In another column appear the names of your "partners" who are speaking to you in these articles. Our own business men who have a great confidence in a great future here. They must have or they would not back their faith in this place with the investments they have made, and pay heavy taxes on these investments besides spending large sums each year to maintain the establishments that stand before you, as monuments of their implicit confidence that the community can and will make good!

Our community riches deserves the confidence of our trade territory and Thief River Falls. This belief on the part of Thief River Falls business men is the cause for one of the biggest booster campaigns this place has known. The home merchants know that nobody is going to push this city except the citizens themselves. To expect this help from outside is futile.

The lines of merchandise carried by our merchants are most complete—they are bought and sold at prices that entitle Thief River Falls merchants to the trade of this community.

Cash is the motor that will make Thief River Falls forge to the front. But not in the way you think. You will not be asked to part with your money. Not the cash that comes out of your pocket, but the cash that stays there is what will build up this community.

Auto Kills Kittson Youth

E. M. Bennes, district representative of the Lincoln Life Insurance company, made a trip to Lancaster Tuesday of last week to settle the claim of John Erickson, 22, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Erickson, who was run into by an automobile and fatally injured Saturday night, Sept. 13, and who passed away the following Monday. F. E. Lindgren, lineman for the Kittson Telephone company, who drove the car which hit Erickson, was exonerated by a coroner's jury which met a week ago Saturday at Hallock. The victim of the accident and a Agnar Pearson were walking on the road to Lancaster when they saw two cars meeting a short distance behind them. As the Lindgren car approached Pearson stepped aside but Erickson failed to get clear of the road and was hit by the machine, Lindgren claiming to have been blinded by the lights of the car which he had just met.

List of Rural Teachers in County Nearly Filled

Practically all the rural schools of Pennington county are now in session, according to statement by Supt. O. R. A number of districts started their term last week and others opened Monday, while about 10 will not open until next week. All teachers in the county will attend institute week in this city, Oct. 6-10 and the annual convention of the Northwestern division of the Minnesota Educational association during the same week.

This leaves only four districts to be heard from.

An Editor's Beatitudes

Blessed are the merchants who advertise because they believe in it and in their business; for their prosperity shall increase many fold. Blessed are the country correspondents who send in their well-written items every week; for fame of their friendly neighborhood shall go abroad in the land. Blessed is the woman who sends in a written account of a party or wedding for she shall see the details of the function and the names of her guests correctly reported. Blessed are those who do not expect the editor to know everything, but who call up and tell him whenever an interesting event occurs to them for they shall have a newsy paper in their town. Blessed are they who get their copy in early for they shall occupy a warm place in the editor's heart. Blessed are those who co-operate with the editor in his efforts in behalf of the community for their town shall be known far and wide as a good place in which to live.—Vilas County (Wis.) News.

The Importance of a "Right" Labor Policy

In his new book, "The Organization of Modern Business", W. R. Basset says:

"One hears a good deal about the iron heel of capitalistic despotism squeezing blood profit out of the poor, down-trodden worker. But, I have yet to discover a company that became really prosperous when operated on the lemon squeezer principle."

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) long since appreciated the essential value of putting the "right" labor policy into practice. And such a policy is as important to the community as it is to the Company.

The only way to achieve a "right" labor policy is to consider it in its broad aspect as affecting the whole social fabric. Consumers as well as employers and employes profit by industrial peace. The public as a whole suffers when an industry does not afford economic protection to its workers and their families.

The Directors of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) in every policy they institute, consider all parties involved—consumers, stockholders, workers, and the public as a whole.

The keystone of this Company's policy is that all must be benefitted by its existence as an industrial organization.

One of the latest plans by which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has recognized the partnership of its workers, is to establish a death benefit plan for the dependents of its employes. It must be clearly recognized that this policy is not a benefit solely to the employes. It benefits, indirectly, every one in the community because it is a forward-looking, sound, economic measure.

A sage summary of the service rendered by this measure is given by the Lapeer, Michigan, Clarion:

"The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has insured the lives of its 25,000 employes. The insurance costs the employes nothing. The Company pays the premiums.

"Here we have a splendid example of the new spirit which is pervading industry, and which if persisted in must eventually level the barriers that often lie between employer and employe.

"There may have been a time when corporations exploited their employes and yielded to them in better wages and working conditions only as they were forced to do so. Possibly a number of this type of corporation survives, but they are passing. Mutual distrust and antagonism is giving way to mutual friendliness and co-operation. If a social revolution ever threatened this country, the menace is fading. The ground is too barren.

"This single generous act of the Standard Oil Company will do more to sweeten the relations between capital and labor than all the propaganda in the world."

Destroy Them Now

Frost kills the weed vegetation but it does not kill the seeds, according to a statement received from N. J. Holmberg, Minnesota commission of agriculture, who declares that the best time to fight the spread of weeds is now.

"No use now to go to any expense or trouble to cut weeds. They have been or soon will be killed by frost"; this is a common expression. But it is as erroneous as it is common, says the commissioner.

"Weed seeds by the millions will be matured between now and freezing weather in October and November," Mr. Holmberg continues. "On the other hand, peculiar to fall conditions, many seeds are still held on the plant and can be destroyed. Thus, a goodly portion of the 1925 weeds may be prevented from materializing by cutting and burning the weeds now found in the fields, along the roads, in waste places and in yards. Many a field has been infested with noxious weeds by thoughtlessly hauling weed infested barnyard or paddock cleaning in the fall of the year.

"Owing to the lateness of the season this year much remains possible to do to kill weeds. Canada thistles are yet in bloom. So are many other noxious weeds. Cut them down and burn them. Disc the stubble lands, mow and burn the weeds and brush on the road sides. And then! everyone has seen patches of weeds left standing in grain fields because the farmers didn't want to harvest them along with the grain. Mow these down and burn them. Don't think of plowing under all the weed seeds to be found in such places.

"Clean up around where the separator stood. Do not haul the 'clean up' into the field or barn yard where later all its weed seeds will find a way to the field in manure. Haul it to some 'dump' or otherwise keep it safe from getting scattered to the fields. A farmer should clean house every fall just as religiously as the woman cleans house each year in the fall.

"The town chairman is the local inspector. Let the people cooperate with him in fighting weeds, notify him when weed patches are being left uncut or otherwise destroyed. October 16th is the date set by the law as the last day of the weed season. Road, streets, and alleys, as well as public grounds in villages and cities should be cleaned up—the weeds cut and destroyed. It will help the traffic in winter when snows are inclined to drift and fill thorofares if weeds are allowed to stand around to collect it. Do it now."

COMMUNITY NEWS

ROSEWOOD

Melvin Pederson, who operates the Gust Nakken farm north of here, had a tip-over with his Ford last Friday south of the Rindal church, which might have brought about very serious consequences. It appears the steering apparatus had stuck in some manner and the car was hurled swiftly to one side throwing Mr. Pederson forward and through the windshield, receiving some nasty glass cuts about the face and head. One of the rear wheels was also broken, and other damages sustained by the car. Mr. Pederson is about his work as usual only somewhat disfigured from the accident.

R. R. George and Roscoe Batten are scheduled to appear before the New Solum town justice today, in a hearing brought about by two summons which they have served on each other. It appears that Mr. Batten is a renter of the John Melacheck farm since the latter left last winter for New Prague, and that later Mr. George arrived and took up his residence in the Melacheck buildings claiming to have an agreement with Mr. Melacheck that he could occupy the building while Mr. Batten only uses the farm. This Mr. Batten disclaims, and together with a few other financial matters between the two, the matter will be ground out before the local officers.

Gust Nakken returned on Saturday evening to his home at Duluth after spending a week here while the crop was being threshed on his farm at this place. Mr. Nakken has been employed at Boulevard work in the Duluth suburbs this summer together with his sons, and is evidently doing very nicely, at least he told the writer that he had not felt as good for many years past as this summer. Mrs. Nakken is operating a small rooming house at Duluth.

Haugen and Pederson completed their threshing run here on Thursday and left for the Christ Evenson farm near Anita, in which neighborhood they will thresh for some time.

A few days of the usual rainy and dreary fall wether set in on Friday morning putting a stop to all threshing work and bringing home all the men from this place who are threshing near Argyle, Stephen, Angus and other points further west. Fall work is considerably delayed already, and the seeding of winter rye is carried on about two weeks behind time.

School is suspended at Rosebank this week to allow all pupils to assist with potato picking. The potato harvest is bountiful but the market is rather unsteady. At Thief River Falls this week the Minnesota Potato Growers association accepts potatoes for their members, and a California representative is buying the flat Burbank type at the Peterson-Biddick Produce building at a fair price. Otherwise no local concerns buy as the market is too unsteady.

The Co-operative Egg and Poultry association with centralizer at Thief River Falls opened their station at this place on Sept. 19, being in charge of Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Peterson. Poultry was shipped the first day and also on Oct. 6 and 7. Eggs are brought in with truck every Tuesday and Friday. The association has a large number of signed up members at this place.

A number of farmers brought stock to Viking on Saturday to be shipped with the Viking Shipping association.

Lewis Meyers was down from Steiner on Saturday on a business trip.

Frances Marshton spent Saturday at Warren on business matters.

Miss Ethel Styrlund who has been employed at the J. E. Hellquist farm this summer, is employed at the John Bloom farm since the beginning of this week.

A 16x26 barn is being constructed on the Nels Hol farm east of town this week. A well will also be dug at that place this fall.

D. N. Peterson and Chester Dols returned on Sunday evening from their trip to the southern part of the state and were accompanied by Mr. Peterson's daughter, Ruth. They were unfortunate in striking very rainy weather with slippery roads during a large part of their trip and on returning between the twin cities and here had a tip-over with their Ford. However nobody was hurt, but the car was somewhat damaged. The occupants were shaken up and they were pretty well soaked with mud and water. Rudolph Sagmoen who was in the party down south will return by rail in a short time.

The Rindal Ladies Aid will be entertained by Mrs. Selmar Haugen at her home next Tuesday, Oct. 7, at 2 o'clock.

John Remmem and E. H. Carlson motored here from Stephen last Sunday to look around for more threshing hands at that place.

L. L. Furan and Severt Benson of Thief River Falls were here on Sunday evening calling on old friends, and also visiting at the B. P. Sagmoen home.

Julia Axelson who has been employed at the Bishop Dairy lunch this summer was called home on Monday owing to her mother's illness suffering from another attack of erysipelas. She will remain at home this week to assist with potato picking.

Judge A. Grindeland of Warren was a business visitor here on Monday to look after his farming interests near this place.

CIF, CONKLIN'S 11-YEAR OLD COW IS STILL DOING WELL

Show Winner Produces 580 lbs. Butterfat in Year at Advanced Age

Another excellent record has been made by a cow owned by F. B. Conklin, prominent Guernsey breeder near the city and owner of Lady Bruce of Clovercrest, one of the champion producers of the world in her class. This time it is Cif's 11 year old, who is getting recognition on account of having produced 580 pounds of butterfat in a year's official test, completed Sept. 12, carrying a calf the full time. This is an exceptional record of production for a cow of her age and speaks well for her quality and strain. Mr. Conklin states that Cif's was given only ordinary care during the entire period, practically all the feed being raised right on the farm, located but a short distance from the city.

Cif's what is now in the AA class, was awarded second prize in the aged cow class at the Minnesota State fair in 1921, the cow which was awarded highest honors being the national champion that year. Cif's Jean, a daughter, was awarded first place at the state fair the same year in the two-year old class, and Governors Lady of the North won fourth place in the three-year old class. The fourth animal entered, Cherub's Diamond, a grand-daughter of Cif's was given third prize in the yearling class.

Cif's has had nine calves, six of which have been raised on the Conklin farm, giving splendid returns to their owner. Little did Mr. Conklin think when he purchased Cif from Dr. F. H. Gamble a number of years ago, that she would become the producer she has later proven to be. She was brought here by H. C. Woolson, another Pennington Guernsey breeder, who bought her in New York, together with a number of other heifers.

There are two general methods of obtaining productions—official test records and cow testing association records. The official test records deal with the purebred animals, while the testing association records deal mainly with the grade animals, altho in many instances purebreds are included. Official records are a benefit to the breeder of purebred dairy cattle. Each year sees keener interest in the work. Dairy farmers are realizing more and more that the official records add to the value of the animals for both sale and breeding purposes.

SUGAR BEETS BEING PULLED; FACTORY IN VALLEY ASSURED

St. Hilaire Farmer Reports Yield of 20 Tons an Acre—Start Hauling

Sugar beets are now being harvested thruout this locality, the entire acreage of 800 acres in the vicinity of this city giving promise of a good average yield. J. H. Bohlin of St. Hilaire estimates his yield at about 20 tons to the acre, according to J. J. McCann, field director, but it is expected that the average in the territory will be about 10-12 tons. Some farmers at Newfolden started pulling beets the early part of last week but the harvesting did not start in earnest until this week. The beets are not large this year but the heavy stand makes up for it, according to reports.

Hauling to the Soo tracks where the beets are being piled has already been started and shipping may start in another week or so, depending upon the demand at the Mason City, Ia. factory, where this year's crop will be shipped. According to present indications growers will receive about $8.00 a ton for beets this year, the guarantee being $5.00. The sum of $25.00 an acre is taken off for labor.

Work will be started this fall on the Red River Sugar company factory in East Grand Forks, according to announcement by H. A. Douglas, president of the company, last week. Efforts will be made to have the plant ready for handling the 1925 crop. It is planned to continue the sale of stock in the communities where growers intend to sign up acreage, Crookston already having subscribed for more than $10,000, Warren for $4,000, and Stephen for $2,000. The Agricultural Credit Corporation is providing $100,000 to be loaned to growers in the section desiring stock in the company in order to assure the establishment of the factory. The committee feels that the communities which do their share towards the financing of the enterprise should have the preference in the matter of beet acreage over those which do not.

That the farmers of this community are pleased to note the success of the campaign to get a factory in the valley, altho not in Thief River Falls, goes without saying. Indications are that more factories will follow as the industry develops.

CONSIDER NEW INDUSTRY FOR THIEF R. FALLS

after which it is threshed by a special machine and taken to the factory. Growers may be more than 20 miles from the cannery, the inspector stated. Seed costs amount to $13-$14 an acre. The vines have considerable value as ensilage.

"A factory to meet the demands of from 1000 to 1500 acres would cost approximately $80,000," Mr. Anderson stated upon being questioned as to the cost of a plant. Additional capital would also be necessary for operating and properly launching the project.

Mr. Sanford, representing the Canners' Service company which has started upon a program of establishing a number of canning factories in Minnesota, presented to the club a plan whereby the enterprise could be handled entirely by local capital or jointly with the company. This plan would involve the issuance of about $100,000 in stock, making a special effort to sell a large portion to growers who would then share in the profits, especially as this method would assure the growers' co-operation in growing peas most suitable for canning purposes. The proposed plan is to organize under the co-operative laws of the state and operate on that basis.

Mr. Sanford pointed out that the establishment of a pea canning factory here would mean a greatly increased income for the farmers in the community and provide employment for a large number of persons in the manufacturing process. A company was recently organized at Little Falls by a group of local business men, and two St. Paul men, one of whom is Mr. Sanford, who has been chosen president of the concern. Factories at Mankato, Cokato and other points in the state were referred to as making a success. Expert management was emphasized as an important factor.

Members of the club expressed themselves enthusiastically in favor of a factory here and ordered the industrial committee to look into the matter further with a view of getting some action started in the near future.

Dr. J. T. Bowers stated that at Barron, Wis., a canning factory has been operated for 22 years and growers are getting very satisfactory returns. This year the 1600 acres of peas within three miles from the factory are netting growers an average of nearly $50 an acre, the vines being additional.

THIS SECTION MADE FINE ALFALFA SHOWING AT STATE FAIR

Practically No Alfalfa Seed Being Grown in This Locality This Year

Hjelle Brothers, prominent farmers of West Valley township, near Newfolden, won first prize with their samples of Grimm alfalfa and Medium Red Clover at the state fair this year, scoring another victory for northern Minnesota in the culture of leading grass seeds.

T. J. Sumpter, farmer near Hazel, also entered the contest but thru misinformation sent in an exhibit of only a quart instead of the required peck, and was for that reason ruled out. One of the judges at the state show, who had seen Sumpter's sample, declared at Hazel shortly after the fair that the Pennington county entry would have captured high honors had the required quantity been entered. However, Mr. Sumpter was awarded first prize at a state show last winter.

These seed entries were splendid supplements to the showing of alfalfa roots and plants emphasized in the Pennington county booth in the county exhibition building at the Minnesota fair this year.

There is practically no alfalfa seed raised in this territory this year, according to farmers and seed dealers who have been interviewed. It seems that the cool weather thruout the season prevented seed formation in most fields here, reports from other parts of the state being to the same effect. Mr. Sumpter states that he had intended to leave a considerable acreage for seed from the first cutting but finally cut it for hay upon discovering that the seed crop would be negligible anyway. It is apparent that the bulk of next year's seed supply must necessarily be secured from outside points. The Minnesota Grimm Alfalfa Seed association, of which Mr. Sumpter is a director, expects to do but a small business this year in the way of distributing Minnesota grown certified seed, Mr. Sumpter states.

The second crop of alfalfa hay has now been cut and altho not as heavy as the first it is reported to be quite satisfactory on most farms in the vicinity. The 1924 alfalfa crop in this county by far exceeds that of any previous year and with the many new fields added during the past year as a result of the alfalfa campaign it is a certainty that next year's tonnage will be greatly increased.

Alfalfa seeded last spring is getting a splendid start, according to farmers in this community, bidding well for next year's crop.

The clover seed crop is also very small in this locality, altho large tonnages of hay have been cut. However, there is a considerable amount of timothy seed among growers who are threshing the crop.

Grain Shipments Thru Here Reach High Mark Last Week

Approximatey 3,000,000 bushels of grain, of which about 75 per cent was wheat, was shipped thru Thief River Falls on the Soo Line last week, according to P. J. Keating, superintendent of grain inspection here. This is the heaviest grain movement here in history, declares the inspector, who predicts that heavy shipments will continue to go thru this point for at least 60 days. Most of the grain is being billed to Duluth, where a higher price is received on account of lake shipping to foreign markets.

Inspector Keating now has three assistants to help him take care of the inspection of grain passing thru this point, shipments coming here from many parts of North Dakota and Montana. The train crews on the local division are reported to be busier than ever before and employment is provided for practically everyone available.

Threshing in this community, which was considerably delayed the latter part of the week on account of rains, is now progressing rapidly and a large amount of grain is being hauled to local elevators. The wheat production is small as a result of the reduced acreage but present indications are that more oats will be marketed than for some time past. Good yields are reported in all localities.

With a total of 12,368,000 bushels grain unloaded at Duluth and Superior elevators last week, another new record has been hung up in the history of grain trading at the head of the lakes, according to reports. Wheat receipts alone amounted to more than five million bushels, figures show.

THIEF RIVER FALLS WELCOMES 500 TEACHERS TODAY

HEALTH DIRECTOR OF STATE SPEAKS AT OPENING SESSION OF EDUCATIONAL CONVENTION

Many Hear E. W. Everts at Auditorium Last Night—Urges Physical Education

ADDRESSES BY U MEN AT SESSIONS TODAY

Interesting Program at Auditorium Tonight—Football Game Tomorrow P. M.

Thief River Falls today is host to about 500 teachers attending the Northwest Division of the Minnesota Educational association which opened its three-day convention with a session at the auditorium last night.

"The Benefits of Physical and Health Education Program in the Public Schools" was the topic discussed by Edgar W. Everts, state director of physical and health education, the main speaker last night. Regarding the benefit to the pupil, Mr. Everts said:

"The organization of vigorous physical training activities are absolutely essential for the proper physical growth and mental development of the child. Very serious physical defects result from the lack of proper kind and amount of physical activities. If we cannot provide the means by which the child can develop it may mean a future life of unhappiness and despair for the child.

"From the social standpoint the organization of the big muscle play activities offers a very good opportunity for the teaching of morals and manners. Situations are constantly arising in the play of children which call for them to play the part of a good sport or the part of a sneak. If there is sympathetic guidance of children in forming the right ideals and attitudes towards fairness we have a very practical means of giving training in citizenship. Also by holding up high ideals of courtesy on the playground we have a splendid opportunity of training children in rules of courteous conduct.

"From the mental standpoint the children must learn the vigorous games and other activities on the physical education program. This means the opening up of many new neural pathways in the brain of the child and should result in more efficient control of the body.

"The community spends a large sum of money on the education of each individual child. If the child is not kept up to par physically he makes a very poor subject for instruction. In other words the time of the teacher who is being paid by the community is apt to be largely wasted on the child who is weak physically. The children who are given a chance for normal expression of the fundamental instincts through big muscle play activities present fewer social problems for the community."

Following the program a reception was given the visiting delegates by the local teachers at the high school gymnasium.

This morning the schools of Thief River Falls were visited, a general session at the auditorium opening at 10 o'clock with Dr. Fred Engelhardt of the University of Minnesota, and Prof. F. B. Knight, University of Iowa as the principal speakers. In discussing "The Psychology of Misbehavior" Prof. Knight said in part:

"For proper treatment of serious mis-behavior we must have adequate diagnosis of the causes of mis-behavior. A large percentage of misbehaviors can be traced to relatively few causes. The teacher should have a clear understanding of these causes and be able to find them when they exist.

"It is fruitful to organize one's ideas about the causes of mis-behavior around a series of questions. Samples of useful questions in this connection are: what is likely to happen when school work is too hard, what is likely to happen when school work is too easy, what is likely to happen when life does not bring at least a minimum amount of satisfaction to the fundamental cravings of human nature, what is likely to happen when knowingly or unknowingly the personality of the child is outraged in one of several ways?

"While it is impossible to tell before-hand just what the proper treatment of any specific mis-behavior is the fundamentals of a good system of treatment are few. Among these fundamentals are: the proper adjustment of work to ability, the provision of experiences which feed the insistent demands of human nature, the avoiding of conflicts which cause a dis-organization of personality."

At noon today the men teachers are guests of the Commercial club at a luncheon at the Sons of Norway hall, and this evening the schoolmasters' banquet will be held at the Hotel Evelyn.

This evening a program, for which a charge of 25 cents will be made to persons not members of the association, will be given at the auditorium, a feature of which is folk dances and songs of foreign lands by groups of children from the various schools in the city, Maude L. Johnson and Clara Baumann in charge. C. G. Schultz, secretary of the Minnesota association, is the speaker of the evening. Friday morning the convention will be addressed by W. J. Osburn, state director of educational measurements in Wisconsin.

Three sectional meetings are scheduled for this afternoon and a number of round table discussions will take up tomorrow afternoon.

A large number of the visiting teachers are given lodging at the homes. A rest room for the ladies is provided in the auditorium basement and service cars are on hand to accommodate visitors. Cars will be provided to take teachers to the football game Friday afternoon, when Crookston comes here to meet the locals.

Supt. I. T. Simley of this city presides at the general sessions. Principal Morris Bye is secretary of the association.

State School Aid Cut To $4 for Each Pupil

With enrollment in the state's public schools jumping 3,482 over last year, apportionment of the school fund to school districts certified Monday by J. M. McConnell, commissioner of education, showed the rate for each pupil dropping from $4.40 to $4. The total amount was $1,992,588, and the distribution is based on an enrollment of 498,147 pupils entitled to aid. Distribution of other state aid is now being completed, including aid to high, graded, consolidated, semi-graded and rural schools, special aid under the gross earnings tax law, night schools, public school libraries and federal vocational aid.

It has been reported to the county auditor's office that Pennington's share of the apportionment money this year is $12,004, the number of pupils entitled to apportionment being 3,001. The money will be forthcoming soon.

NOTED CHURCHMEN TO ADDRESS BIBLE CONFERENCE HERE

Dr. Watt from Scotland Secured for Third Conference Here Opening Next Sunday

The third annual Pennington County Bible Conference (Inter-denominational) will be held in the Presbyterian church of Thief River Falls beginning Sunday, Oct. 12 and continuing through Sunday, Oct. 19. The first meeting will be held Sunday afternoon, Oct. 12, at three o'clock. There will be two meetings each day at 3:00 p. m. and 7:45 p. m., except on Monday when there will be no meetings.

Dr. Gordon Watt of Aberdeen, Scotland, is the main speaker this year. Dr. Watt is said to be an excellent Bible teacher. He is a graduate of Aberdeen university and has until recently been a pastor in Glasgow, Scotland. He has given up his pastorate to do Bible Conference work and is now touring Canada and the United States for a year and a half. He will speak in some of the largest cities and in some of the most important pulpits of the country.

This Bible Conference is one of a series of such conferences held under the direction of Peter MacFarlane of the Union Gospel Mission, St. Paul. Beginning at Hallock three years ago the Bible Conferences have grown in size and number. They are being held in many towns of Northern Minnesota. Conferences have been held this year in Detroit, Warren and Stephen and will also be held in Hallock, Crookston, Bemidji, and other places.

It has been planned this year to give special attention to Sunday School and Foreign Mission work, if it is possible to secure the speakers desired.

The churches co-operating in this work in Thief River Falls are: the Methodist, Swedish Mission, Scandinavian Evangelical, and Presbyterian. The Conference is not denominational in management or in spirit. All pastors and people are cordially invited to attend and to unite with the others in this work.

Experts Address Rural Teachers at Institute

Sixty-five rural teachers of Pennington county, 12 from Polk, two from Clay and one from each of Marshall and Kittson counties were present Monday morning for the opening of the Pennington County Teachers' Institute at the high school gymnasium. Sessions were held twice daily on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The rest of the week is given over to attendance at the Northwestern Minnesota Educational association convention, which opened last night. The 32 students in the normal department also attended the institute.

County Superintendent Ole R. Sande was in charge of the institute, assisted by Geo. Selke of the Minnesota university and Miss Anna Swenson, state rural school inspector, as instructors. Libraries, tests and other problems of the rural schools were considered, practical demonstrations featuring the discussions.

Rev. Dixon Reappointed M. E. Pastor in This City

Rev. J. T. Dixon, for the past half year pastor of the local Methodist Episcopal church, was reappointed at the annual Northern Minnesota conference held at Aitkin last week, closing Sunday. In addition to the Thief River Falls congregation Rev. Dixon has also been appointed to serve the St. Hilaire congregations. The local pastor is an able and fearless speaker and his parishoners are greatly pleased to have him remain here. A petition for his retention was entered with the conference. Rev. J. A. Edward is superintendent of the Fergus Falls district, in which this city is included.

THOMAS D. SCHALL
Republican Candidate
For United States Senator

Mr. Schall, the blind congressman from the tenth district, will speak at the auditorium in this city tomorrow, Friday evening, at 8 o'clock. This is his first visit to Thief River Falls in his campaign against Magnus Johnson, Farmer-Laborite, and it is expected that a large number of Pennington county voters will hear him. Mrs. Schall accompanies her husband on his speaking tour.

Musical Revue Will be Most Elaborate Entertainment of Year is Present Indication

Judging by the rehearsals of the Musical Revue which the Legion Auxiliary are giving at the city auditorium Friday evening next week, under the direction of Mrs. Hodgson of Crookston, the event will be one of the most elaborate entertainments of the year. The talent has been secured and most of the song and dance parts very nearly learned. About 150 local young men and women and children are taking part in the revue, including the best talent in dancing, singing and dramtic work of the city.

The Revue opens with an elaborate scene representing dawn and dancing by the characters to the air of Grieg's "Morning Mood", which creates a very impressive and effective setting. A large number of group dances have been arranged to represent flowers, birds, butterflies, grasshoppers, etc., with costumes for each part, creating a veritable panorama of nature, dancing to music adapted to the various parts symbolized.

Another feature of the revue is the toy shop which includes characters costumed to represent toys, wooden soldiers, dolls, tumblers, clowns, jumping jacks and candy sticks and is accompanied by specialties and songs which carry out the general theme of the scenes.

A one act farce particularly popular for its wit and snap is being worked out and will alone be worth the evening's time.

The minstrel show, one of the most elaborate parts of the revue and including some of the best talent the city has to offer, will be a succession of clever dances, and songs, and the characters fitted with costumes both artistically elaborate and comical. Mrs. Hodgson, who is assisted by Miss Mildred Engen, pianist, is to be complimented for the manner in which the Revue is progressing.

Sunday School Institute Will be Held at Trinity Church Sunday and Monday

Thief River Falls will be the scene of a two-day institute for pastors and Sunday school teachers of the Norwegian Lutheran church thruout the valley on Sunday and Monday, Oct. 12 and 13. Rev. S. L. Tallakson, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church will preside and the Rev. S. T. Sorenson of Moorhead and Rev. J. Linnevold of Glenwood will give addresses at all sessions.

The Sunday sessions will begin at 2:30 and 7:45 p. m. respectively and will be conducted by Rev. Sorenson and the Monday sessions at 3:30 and 7:30 p. m., and Rev. Linnevold will serve as leader. All sessions will be held at the Trinity church. Round table discussions follow the lectures and questions and problems will be considered in a helpful way. The sessions are open to the public and all who can attend are welcome.

Eight of the following ten topics will be taken up at the institute: Teachers qualifications; methods of instruction; child study; the Lutheran conception of the Sunday school; how to use the catechism; the teacher training class; how to prepare and to teach the lesson; the week-day religious school; the importance of the work of the teacher of christianity; Sunday school and management, room, equipment, literature and other helps.

The housing committee consists of Mrs. G. Tessum, Mrs. Arthur Dahl and Miss Beatrice Erickson. Guests will be entertained on the Harvard plan. Rev. Tallakson, G. Tessum and H. M. Nelson serve as the publicity committee.

These institutes, several of which have been held in Minnesota and neighboring states the past year, are being conducted under the auspices of the board of elementary education of the Norwegian Lutheran church.

Will Redeem Advance Tickets

The local post of the American Legion announces that the tickets sold in advance for the speed carnival, which was cancelled on account of adverse weather, will be redeemed at the Farmers and Merchants state bank of this city.

Superintendent in Fargo School Wants Information About Resort Association

That interest in the Red Lake Summer Resort association and its ~~resort~~ at the narrows of Red Lake is not confined to Thief River Falls and immediate vicinity was demonstrated the other day when E. O. Mogensen, president of the organization, received a letter from Supt. P. J. Iverson of the high school department at the Agricultural College, Fargo, N. D., requesting information relative to chances of securing a lot in the tract leased by the association. "I was out there this summer for a short stay," Mr. Iverson writes, "and would like to find out a little more about it and regarding your organization for the purpose of handling the project." Many are already anxious to get out there to build cottages.

Owing to a series of delays the staking out of lots by Engineer B. F. Umland has not yet been completed. However, it is hoped to have this matter disposed of in the very near future, after which directors of the association will get together to select the blocks for their respective towns or group and determine the manner of selecting individual lots.

The response from various points thruout the valley has been very encouraging and President Mogensen predicts that within another year not a lot will be available.

Those who visit the narrows at this time of year are cautioned to be careful about campfires and throwing cigarettes and matches as they may cause serious fires when vegetation begins to dry. It was pointed out in a report from the state fire department last week that Minnesota is not suffering from any serious forest fires so far this fall.

CITIZENS ASKED TO AID IN PREVENTION OF FIRES IN T. R. F.

"Fire Prevention Week" Observed in Municipalities to Eliminate Hazards

Citizens of Thief River Falls in general and owners and occupants of property in particular are requested in a proclamation issued by Governor Preus to co-operate in observing "fire prevention week," which opened Monday and continues thru next Saturday.

Altho no public demonstration or observance is made in Thief River Falls this year residents are called upon to supplement this by a general cleanup of all rubbish and trash and an inspection of property with a view of suppressing fire hazards. Next spring it is hoped to have a program of fire prevention and an inspection of the city by the state organization of insurance underwriters.

In 1923 fifteen thousand people in the United States lost their lives by fire, statistics show. The total property loss was $550,000,000, a per capita loss of $5.00. The loss of life and property that year was approximately equal to the loss by fire in 1922. With careful attention to the subject of fire prevention, there should be a substantial reduction in this loss each year it is claimed. The per capita loss could, with reasonable care, be cut to one tenth of what it is today.

Hazel Bank Opens Doors Tuesday—Officers Named

Business operations at the Citizens State bank of Hazel was resumed on Tuesday noon, the institution having been reorganized. Reopening is made possible without serious loss to depositors, who forfeit only six per cent or one year's interest, with no reduction of the principal. New capital stock has been paid in, the bank being backed by about 30 prominent farmers and business men of the community.

Officers of the bank are: T. A. Berg, president; Oscar C. Peterson, vice president; Andrew C. Nyquist, formerly with the First State bank of East Grand Forks, cashier. Andrew Nilson and I. C. Wilson are the other two members of the board.

Bible Class of St. John's Church

The Bible Class of St. John's held its first regular meeting of the year last Wednesday evening. The following officers were elected: Miss Bertha Borgen, president; Miss Stella Borgen, vice president; Miss Laura Brown, secretary-treasurer. The following plan for the year was adopted: The class meets twice a month, devoting the first Wednesday evening to the study of "The Temple, its Ministry and Service, in the Time of Christ." The third Wednesday evening will be set aside for a lecture by some neighboring pastor, after which refreshments will be served, to help toward defraying the expense of the lecture. The Bible Class feels quite fortunate in securing the services of Rev. H. A. Mayer of International Falls for the first lecture.

Supt. Simley Nominated

Supt. I. T. Simley of this city may head the Northwestern Minnesota Educational association the coming year, his name being placed on the ballot by the nominations committee this morning. The other candidate is Supt. John M. Brendal of Hallock.

TEACHERS ARE GUESTS

Men teachers in attendance at the convention of the Northwestern Minnesota Educational association are entertained today by the Commercial club at a noon luncheon at the Sons of Norway hall. This affair takes the place of the regular weekly meeting of the club. Prominent educators in attendance are scheduled to speak.

SUPREME COURT IS ASSAILED BY JAS. A. PETERSON

LaFollette Campaigner Predicts Election of Wisconsin Senator in Talk Here

SUPREME COURT POWERS ASSUMED AND USURPED

Proposed Change in Constitution Would be Protection, Speaker Declares

"Robert M. LaFollette, the fighting senator from Wisconsin, who has fought with his back to the wall for the past 40 years, will be elected president on Nov. 4," declared James A. Peterson, Minneapolis attorney, who spoke to a good-sized audience at the Princess theatre Friday night. The gathering was in the form of a booster meeting for the LaFollette-Wheeler third party ticket and the Farmer-Labor group in Minnesota.

Mr. Peterson, who has been a member of the Minnesota legislature and at one time opposed Knute Nelson as candidate for United States senator, opened his address by eulogizing LaFollette and his record in public office, declaring emphatically that "Bob" has always fought the common peoples' battle and "never compromised with wrong." "As a member of the group which nominated LaFollette as third party presidential candidate at the Cleveland convention I felt, as did other men in that convention, that a new era is in store for the American people," he continued. "There is a political awakening thruout the country and victory is assured if the people are informed." The speaker predicted that even state of New York would go to LaFollette, while the western and north central states would be overwhelmingly in his favor.

"The opposition's attack on LaFollette's proposed change of the constitution is ridiculous and absurd," the speaker declared in discussing the issues of the campaign. He pointed out that the public is being led to believe that the Wisconsin senator if elected president would amend the constitution so as to destroy it, by taking away from the United States supreme court the power to declare any law passed by congress unconstitutional. "LaFollette does not want to amend the constitution upon being elected but merely wants to give the people a chance to vote upon the amendment and promises to sign it when presented to him," said Mr. Peterson. "What danger is there in having the change voted upon by the people themselves?" queried the speaker in pointing out that it is LaFollette's belief that every issue of that nature should be decided by the voters of the land.

Attention was called to the attack made upon LaFollette by General Chas. G. Dawes, Republican candidate for vice-president. "The proposed amendment would give congress the power to pass a measure declared unconstitutional by the supreme court over its veto, with a two-thirds majority."

The speaker charged the supreme court with being a political court as it decides political questions. "Furthermore, it has assumed a power not granted in the constitution," he asserted. "It was first tried in 1803 and since that time the high court has usurped such powers that it has become a menace to the common people and a tool in the hand of Wall Street politicians." Instances were cited showing the activities of the court in the past and how in some cases the decisions were handed down by a 4 to 5 vote, making it possible for one man to determine whether the measure should become the law of the land or not. The manner of appointment and some of the recent appointments were also severely critized.

LaFollette's attack on the practises of the supreme court is right in line with the opinions expressed by former presidents, Mr. Peterson stated. Recorded statements by Jefferson, Jackson, Lincoln and Roosevelt were cited, each charging the high tribunal with an assumed and dangerous power.

The speaker declared that "we no longer have a constitution." He called attention to how it had been set aside, especially during the late war when the youth of the nation was conscripted without the consent of the people, a letter written by Senator Cabot Lodge during the war period being brought out in evidence of this. Senator Lodge admitted, according to this letter, that such action set aside the constitution and its provisions. "It is high time that the people are given their rights granted them by the constitution," said the speaker.

"Dawes represented J. P. Morgan and the financial interests of the country," Peterson stated in discussing the Dawes plan for the rehabilitation of European countries. He claimed that this plan was worked out in such a manner that it would assure the safety of American money loaned to foreign nations, regardless of what effect it would have on the people of these countries.

The meeting was presided over by W. H. Quist who also called upon Thos. Vollum of Erskine, defeated candidate for the gubernatorial nomination on the Farmer-Labor ticket; R. O. Gordon of Oklee, candidate for the legislature from this district; and O. A. Naplin of this city, who made a severe attack on Marius Waldal's legislative record and urged that all voters turn out on election day to register their preference.

Attending Medical Meet

Mrs. A. W. Swedenburg left last night for St. Cloud to attend the annual convention of the Minnesota Medical society, which opened yesterday and continues thru tomorrow.

RYE ON BURNED PEAT YIELDS 60 BU. AN ACRE

Three and one-fourth acres of rye on the Mons Lindwick farm near Germantown yielded a total of 199½ bushels, or about 60 bushels an acre. This crop was raised on burned peat land and emphatically demonstrates what peat land can produce when treated in that manner. H. O. Berve, another Germantown farmer, reports a yield of 130 bushels of fall rye on three acres of burned peat ground, or an average of 43 bushels an acre. Various crops have been grown in that vicinity on burned peat soil with very satisfactory results.

Embargo Stops All Grain Shipments to Duluth—May Remain Rest of the Week

The embargo of all grain billed to the head of the lakes at Duluth and Superior went into effect here Friday night and all cars loaded after that time have not been accepted for billing to that destination. It is likely that the embargo will remain in effect thru the week until the congested condition of the Duluth terminal is cleared up, reports P. J. Keating, superintendent of grain inspection at this point. "During the 20 years I have been in the inspection service in the state", states Mr. Keatng, "there has never been such an enormous amount of grain shipped to the Duluth terminals and never before during that period has an embargo been necessary." Yesterday noon there were about 300 cars in the local Soo yards with more coming in. Side tracks are being filled all along the line according to the inspector.

TEACHERS OF CITY GIVEN WELCOME AT RECEPTION FRIDAY

Co-operation Between Parents and Teachers Urged at Gathering—Fine Program

A hearty welcome was accorded instructors in the Thief River Falls schools Friday evening when the Parent-Teachers' association held its first meeting of the season in the form of a reception. The affair was exceptionally well attended by parents of the city and was a splendid success in every detail, a fine spirit of cordiality and co-operaton prevailing thruout. The gathering assembled in the high school gymnasium, which has been completely repaired and fixed up with a new floor, ceiling and walls, and tastily decorated for the occasion.

A most interesting program had been arranged for the event, the program being opened with a number by the chorus of the Woman's club followed by a few remarks of welcome by Mrs. R. Arnold, president of the Parent-Teachers' association. Mrs. L. G. Larsen represented the school board and bespoke the board's co-operation with the teachers in increasing the efficiency of the school system. She was followed by a piano solo by Miss Lucille Hermanson, who responded to an encore.

"Mothers and the Schools" was discussed by Mrs. E. J. Richards, who urged the mothers especially to do their utmost in helping the teachers in their work. It was a very interesting talk, as was also that on "Fathers and the Schools" by W. W. Prichard, Sr., who emphasized the responsibility of the fathers towards the training of their children. Both speakers brought out the necessity of cooperation between parents and teachers in getting the best results in the schools. A vocal solo by Dr. J. N. Nesse followed Mr. Prichard's talk, after which Supt. I. T. Simley made a few remarks in his usual whole hearted manner in response to the welcome to the teachers, assuring the parents present that the eductional machinery is in good hands and worthy of the hearty support of its patrons.

Teachers of the respective schools were grouped under letters on the wall representing each school in the city, making it easier for the parents to find the instructors of their children. Refreshments were served by a committee headed by Mrs. L. M. Rayson. Mrs. Lucille Johnson was in charge of decorations.

The next meeting of the association will take place Nov. 3, and it is hoped that parents will continue to show interest in the organization.

Purebred Poland Chinas To Be Sold at Club Sale

As was announced in last week's issue of The Times the annual Pennington County Pig club sale will be held at the fair grounds in this city tomorrow, Friday afternoon. Purebred Poland China pigs from Fuller and Mayhew herds near Mavie will be sold at auction as in former years, the sale to be preceded by a pig show in which it will be determined who is the winner of the club contest. The boy or girl having the best pig will receive the full price paid by the purchaser at the sale, while the others will be given one half. These pigs were distributed among boys and girls of the county last spring and have been cared for by them during the summer months.

Hog raising in this community has been on the increase the last few years and it is expected that a goodly number of buyers will be on hand at the sale Friday.

Anderson to Cities

County Auditor T. P. Anderson returned this morning from the twin cities where he spent a few days on business in connection with the claim for compensation for Tim Ensrud, injured veteran of the late world war. Mr. Anderson is guardian for Mr. Ensrud.

SLIGHT CUT IN SCHOOL LEVY IS MADE BY BOARD

1924 Budget Calls For $75,000 Tax Levy in District—$1,000 Below Last Year's

SINKING FUND PROVIDED. GETTING ON CASH BASIS

Operating Expense of System Cannot be Reduced This Year Superintendent Says

Adopting a budget of $108,992.00 making necessary a tax levy of $76,000.00 the school board of district No. 18 declares that the cost of operating the schools in Thief River Falls is held down to the lowest possible figure. As has been announced previously this year's levy is $1000 below that of 1928. A larger slash in the levy would be possible if no provisions were made for a sinking fund and an effort made to get on a cash basis, members of the board state in justifying their action. It is pointed out that the local school system with about 1600 pupils enrolled is at the present time operated on as economical a basis as possible, every expense item being carefully considered and allowed only after it has been deemed absolutely necessary for properly carrying on the work.

Last year a sinking fund of $10,000 was set aside and this year's budget allows for the sum of $8,000 for this purpose.

If all the state aid money is received, the sinking fund, for which money has not been provided until last year for the first time, will be increased, the district put on a cash basis and make it possible for the board to make a reduction in next year's levy, it is predicted by school authorities. Last year only about one half of the supplemental aid promised by the state was actually paid. Had the entire amount been received the district would have been enriched with $13,000 more. Tax receipts also usually fall below the actual levy, making it necessary to fix a higher levy. Last year about $6,000 of the tax money for school purposes was not collected, it is stated.

The special levy could have been reduced to approximately $59,000 if the board would entirely empty the treasury and could depend upon getting the full amount of state aid and tax money, according to I. T. Simley, superintendent of the Thief River Falls schools. This action, however, would have been unwise, it is declared, as it would result in added expense for interest on warrants, etc. "The cost of operating the local schools at the present time cannot be reduced," Mr. Simley stated to a Times repre-

Bank Reorganization is Progressing—Depositors Urged to Sign Agreement

Another statement from W. W. Prichard, Sr., manager of the reorganization work in connection with the Citizens State bank, urges that depositors of the closed institution sign up the "Reduction agreement" without delay. The statement to the depositors follows: "Your committee desires to report that progress is made daily in securing the reduction agreements.

"There are some who have the impression that no haste in returning the agreements is necessary. That is a mistake. It is essential and important that they be secured as soon as possible. To all those who are in sympathy with the move to reopen the bank, the committee asks that they sign and return the agreements without delay.

"There are other details to be worked out after the "reduction agreements" have been secured. If all the depositors would help just a little, most of the agreements would be in the hands of the committee before Nov. 1."

New Owner Takes Over Simonson Grocery Store

Thief River Falls has a new grocer this week, announcement being made in this issue that Lee S. Gartland of Gary, has purchased the stock of merchandise of the Simonson grocery store on Third street, for some time past operated by S. C. Simonson. Mr. Gartland, who is a single man, arrived Saturday and opened the store under the new management Monday morning. Alfred Stene will be retained as clerk.

Mr. Gartland has a long experience in merchandising, having operated a store at Gary the past eight years, and his entrance into business in Thief River Falls bids well for success. High grade lines of merchandise will be handled at all times and Mr. Gartland invites the patronage of the buying public in an announcement elsewhere in this issue.

Work Going Forward

Construction of the walls of the new creamery building in this city will be completed this week, according to Contractor Bert Norby, who is pushing the work as fast as possible. Some time was lost in the delay of material shipments, but the building is rapidly taking definite form.

CIF, CONKLIN'S 11-YEAR OLD COW IS STILL DOING WELL

Show Winner Produces 580 lbs. Butterfat in Year at Advanced Age

Another excellent record has been made by a cow owned by F. B. Conklin, prominent Guernsey breeder near the city and owner of Lady Bruce of Clovercrest, one of the champion producers of the world in her class. This time it is Cif's 11 year old, who is getting recognition on account of having produced 580 pounds of butterfat in a year's official test, completed Sept. 12, carrying a calf the full time. This is an exceptional record of production for a cow of her age and speaks well for her quality and strain. Mr. Conklin states that Cif's was given only ordinary care during the entire period, practically all the feed being raised right on the farm, located but a short distance from the city.

Cif, who is now in the AA class, was awarded second prize in the aged cow class at the Minnesota State fair in 1921, the cow which was awarded highest honors being the national champion that year. Cif's calf, a daughter, was awarded first place at the state fair the same year in the two-year old class, and Governor's Lady of the North won fourth place in the three-year old class. The fourth animal entered, Cherub's Diamond, a granddaughter of Cif's was given third prize in the yearling class. Cif has had nine calves, six of which have been raised on the Conklin farm, giving splendid returns to their owner. Little did Mr. Conklin think when he purchased Cif from Dr. F. H. Gamble a number of years ago, that she would become the producer she has later proven to be. She was brought here by H. C. Woolson, another Pennington Guernsey breeder, who bought her in New York, together with a number of other heifers.

There are two general methods of obtaining productions—official test records and cow testing association records. The official test records deal with the purebred animals, while the testing association records deal mainly with the grade animals, altho in many instances purebreds are included. Official records are a benefit to the breeder of purebred dairy cattle. Each year sees keener interest in the work. Dairy farmers are realizing more and more that the official records add to the value of the animals for both sale and breeding purposes.

Campaigner Will Discuss Issues of Third Party In Talk Here Tomorrow Nite

Various political issues will be discussed at the Princess theatre in this city tomorrow, Friday night, when Hon. James A. Peterson of Minneapolis comes here to speak in behalf of the LaFollette-Wheeler independent ticket for president and vice president respectively.

He will handle the judiciary question in particular, stressing the attack made on LaFollette, the fighting Wisconsin senator, on account of his endeavors to amend the national constitution so as to take from the United States supreme court the power to declare laws passed by Congress unconstitutional. He will also discuss General Dawes, Republican candidate for vice president, according to announcement by the LaFollette committee. Mr. Peterson is a former member of the Minnesota legislature and well known in state politics.

Talks will also be made by local LaFollette - Wheeler boosters. The meeting is scheduled to open at 8 o'clock.

Many Local O. E. S. Members Attend Instruction School

A delegation of more than 30 members of the Winslow chapter, Order of Eastern Star, together with Crookston members attended the school of instruction at East Grand Forks, held under the auspices of the Red River chapter, Friday evening. Among the guests was Mrs. Fannie Neuman of Wheaton, who is worthy grand matron of O. E. S. in Minnesota. The instruction was conducted in the New State theatre and dinner was served to more than 100 people in the Masonic lodge rooms. Examination of a visitor and the closing exercises were exemplified by the local chapter.

Those who attended from this city made the trip by car but had a rather unpleasant trip on account of the rain. In spite of this they report an enjoyable time.

In the delegation from this city were:

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Larsen, Mr. and Mrs. John Cronkhite, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Prichard, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Nels Christianson, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bennes, Mrs. John E. Robinson, Mrs. J. T. Bowers, Mrs. F. L. Christensen, Miss Carolyn Melby, Miss Aneta Dahlquist, Miss Vera Byler, Miss Hilda Hammarsten, Miss Maude Frissell, Mrs. Christina Frissell, Mrs. Geo. Frissell, Mrs. Ed. Hill, Mrs. H. Olson, Mrs. A. M. Heggan, Mrs. Mauritz Brink, Mrs. L. M. Rayson, Mrs. C. A. Nason, Mrs. Nate Harris, Miss Maude L. Johnson, Mrs. Theo. Tamborg, Miss Esther Gjertson, Miss Esther Werner, Mrs. H. W. Kinghorn, Mrs. J. C. Toms, Palmer Tommerdahl and Bud Kinghorn.

The next meeting of the local lodge will be held Oct. 8.

Three deputy public examiners arrived Saturday to check up the county records in the court house, completing the work Tuesday. From here they went on to Roseau.

SUGAR BEETS BEING PULLED; FACTORY IN VALLEY ASSURED

St. Hilaire Farmer Reports Yield of 20 Tons an Acre—Start Hauling

Sugar beets are now being harvested thruout this locality, the entire acreage of 800 acres in the vicinity of this city giving promise of a good average yield. J. H. Bohlin of St. Hilaire estimates his yield at about 20 tons to the acre, according to J. J. McCann, field director, but it is expected that the average in the territory will be about 10-12 tons. Some farmers at Newfolden started pulling beets the early part of last week but the harvesting did not start in earnest until this week. The beets are not large this year but the heavy stand makes up for it, according to reports.

Hauling to the Soo tracks where the beets are being piled has already been started and shipping may start in another week or so, depending upon the demand at the Mason City, Ia. factory, where this year's crop will be shipped. According to present indications growers will receive about $8.00 a ton for beets this year, the guarantee being $5.00. The sum of $25.00 an acre is taken off for labor.

Work will be started this fall on the Red River Sugar company factory in East Grand Forks, according to announcement by H. A. Douglas, president of the company, last week. Efforts will be made to have the plant ready for handling the 1925 crop. It is planned to continue the sale of stock in the communities where growers intend to sign up acreage, Crookston already having subscribed for more than $10,000, Warren for $4,000, and Stephen for $2,000. The Agricultural Credit Corporation is providing $100,000 to be loaned to growers in the section desiring stock in the company in order to assure the establishment of the factory. The committee feels that the communities which do their share towards the financing of the enterprise should have the preference in the matter of beet acreage over those which do not.

That the farmers of this community are pleased to note the success of the campaign to get a factory in the valley, altho not in Thief River Falls, goes without saying. Indications are that more factories will follow as the industry develops.

after which it is threshed by a special machine and taken to the factory. Growers may be more than 20 miles from the cannery, the inspector stated. Seed costs amount to $13-$14 an acre. The vines have considerable value as ensilage.

"A factory to meet the demands of from 1000 to 1500 acres would cost approximately $80,000," Mr. Anderson stated upon being questioned as to the cost of a plant. Additional capital would also be necessary for operating and properly launching the project.

Mr. Sanford, representing the Canners' Service company which has started upon a program of establishing a number of canning factories in Minnesota, presented to the club a plan whereby the enterprise could be handled entirely by local capital or jointly with the company. This plan would involve the issuance of about $100,000 in stock, making a special effort to sell a large portion to growers who would then share in the profits, especially as this method would

Practically No Alfalfa Seed Being Grown in This Locality This Year

Hjelle Brothers, prominent farmers of West Valley township, near Newfolden, won first prize with their samples of Grimm alfalfa and Medium Red Clover at the state fair this year, scoring another victory for northern Minnesota in the culture of leading grass seeds.

T. J. Sumpter, farmer near Hazel, also entered the contest but thru misinformation sent in an exhibit of only a quart instead of the required peck, and was for that reason ruled out. One of the judges at the state show, who had seen Sumpter's sample, declared at Hazel shortly after the fair that the Pennington county entry would have captured high honors had the required quantity been entered. However, Mr. Sumpter was awarded first prize at a state show last winter.

These seed entries were splendid supplements to the showing of alfalfa roots and plants emphasized in the Pennington county booth in the county exhibition building at the Minnesota fair this year.

There is practically no alfalfa seed raised in this territory this year, according to farmers and seed dealers who have been interviewed. It seems that the cool weather thruout the season prevented seed formation in most fields here, reports from other parts of the state being to the same effect. Mr. Sumpter states that he had intended to leave a considerable acreage for seed from the first cutting but finally cut it for hay upon discovering that the seed crop would be negligible anyway. It is apparent that the bulk of next year's seed supply must necessarily be secured from outside points. The Minnesota Grimm Alfalfa Seed association, of which Mr. Sumpter is a director, expects to do but a small business this year in the way of distributing Minnesota grown certified seed, Mr. Sumpter states.

The second crop of alfalfa hay has now been cut and altho not as heavy as the first it is reported to be quite satisfactory on most farms in the vicinity. The 1924 alfalfa crop in this county by far exceeds that of any previous year and with the many new fields added during the past year as a result of the alfalfa campaign it is a certainty that next year's tonnage will be greatly increased.

Alfalfa seeded last spring is getting a splendid start, according to farmers in this community, bidding well for next year's crop.

The clover seed crop is also very small in this locality, altho large tonnages of hay have been cut. However, there is a considerable amount of timothy seed among growers who are threshing the crop.

Grain Shipments Thru Here Reach High Mark Last Week

Approximatey 3,000,000 bushels of grain, of which about 75 per cent was wheat, was shipped thru Thief River Falls on the Soo Line last week, according to P. J. Keating, superintendent of grain inspection here. This is the heaviest grain movement here in history, declares the inspector, who predicts that heavy shipments will continue to go thru this point for at least 60 days. Most of the grain is being billed to Duluth, where a higher price is received on account of lake shipping to foreign markets.

Inspector Keating now has three assistants to help him take care of the inspection of grain passing thru this point, shipments coming here from many parts of North Dakota and Montana. The train crews on the local division are reported to be busier than ever before and employment is provided for practically everyone available.

Threshing in this community, which was considerably delayed the latter part of the week on account of rains, is now progressing rapidly and a large amount of grain is being hauled to local elevators. The wheat production is small as a result of the reduced acreage but present indications are that more oats will be marketed than for some time past. Good yields are reported in all localities.

With a total of 12,368,000 bushels grain unloaded at Duluth and Superior elevators last week, another new record has been hung up in the history of grain trading at the head of the lakes, according to reports. Wheat receipts alone amounted to more than five million bushels, figures show.

Injured in Fall

Chas. O. Swanson of St. Hilaire had his right arm fractured between the elbow and wrist and also suffered severe scalp wounds Wednesday afternoon of last week while threshing at the L. Holmes farm west of the village, according to the St. Hilaire Spectator. No one witnessed the accident but it is believed Mr. Swanson slipped while on top of the separator and fell headlong onto some pulleys on the side of the machine. He was rushed to St. Hilaire where the injured limb was attended to by Dr. O. S. Werner. Mr. Swanson will be laid up for some time but is not expected to suffer any permanent injury.

THIEF RIVER FALLS WELCOMES 500 TEACHERS TODAY

HEALTH DIRECTOR OF STATE SPEAKS AT OPENING SESSION OF EDUCATIONAL CONVENTION

Many Hear E. W. Everts at Auditorium Last Night—Urges Physical Education

ADDRESSES BY U MEN AT SESSIONS TODAY

Interesting Program at Auditorium Tonight—Football Game Tomorrow P. M.

Thief River Falls today is host to about 500 teachers attending the Northwest Division of the Minnesota Educational association which opened its three-day convention with a session at the auditorium last night.

"The Benefits of Physical and Health Education Program in the Public Schools" was the topic discussed by Edgar W. Everts, state director of physical and health education, the main speaker last night. Regarding the benefit to the pupil, Mr. Everts said:

"The organization of vigorous physical training activities are absolutely essential for the proper physical growth and mental development of the child. Very serious physical defects result from the lack of proper kind and amount of physical activities. If we cannot provide the means by which the child can develop it may mean a future life of unhappiness and despair for the child.

"From the social standpoint the organization of the big muscle play activities offers a very good opportunity for the teaching of morals and manners. Situations are constantly arising in the play of children which call for them to play the part of a good sport or the part of a sneak. If there is sympathetic guidance of children in forming the right ideals and attitudes towards fairness we have a very parctical means of giving training in citizenship. Also by holding up high ideals of courtesy on the playground we have a splendid opportunity of training children in rules of courteous conduct.

"From the mental standpoint the children must learn the vigorous games and other activities on the physical education program. This means the opening up of many new neural pathways in the brain of the child and should result in more efficient control of the body.

"The community spends a large sum of money on the education of each individual child. If the child is not kept up to par physically he makes a very poor subject for instruction. In other words the time of the teacher who is being paid by the community is apt to be largely wasted on the child who is weak physically. The children who are given a chance for normal expression of the fundamental instincts through big muscle play activities present fewer social problems for the community."

Following the program a reception was given the visiting delegates by the local teachers at the high school gymnasium.

This morning the schools of Thief River Falls were visited, a general session at the auditorium opening at 10 o'clock with Dr. Fred Engelhardt of the University of Minnesota, and Prof. F. B. Knight, University of Iowa as the principal speakers. In discussing "The Psychology of Misbehavior" Prof. Knight said in part:

"For proper treatment of serious mis-behavior we must have adequate diagnosis of the causes of mis-behavior. A large percentage of misbehaviors can be traced to relatively few causes. The teacher should have a clear understanding of these causes and be able to find them when they exist.

"It is fruitful to organize one's ideas about the causes of mis-behavior around a series of questions. Samples of useful questions in this connection are: what is likely to happen when school work is too hard, what is likely to happen when school work is too easy, what is likely to happen when life does not bring at least a minimum amount of satisfaction to the fundamental cravings of human nature, what is likely to happen when knowingly or unknowingly the personality of the child is outraged in one of several ways?

"While it is impossible to tell before-hand just what the proper treatment of any specific mis-behavior is the fundamentals of a good system of treatment are few. Among these fundamentals are: the proper adjustment of work to ability, the provision of experiences which feed the insistent demands of human nature, the avoiding of conflicts which cause a dis-organization of personality."

At noon today the men teachers are guests of the Commercial club at a luncheon at the Sons of Norway hall, and this evening the schoolmasters' banquet will be held at the Hotel Evelyn.

This evening a program, for which a charge of 25 cents will be made to persons not members of the association, will be given at the auditorium, a feature of which is folk dances and songs of foreign lands by groups of children from the various schools in the city, Maude L. Johnson and Clara Baumann in charge. C. G. Schultz, secretary of the Minnesota association, is the speaker of the evening. Friday morning the convention will be addressed by W. J. Osburn, state director of educational measurements in Wisconsin.

Three sectional meetings are scheduled for this afternoon and a number of round table discussions will take up tomorrow afternoon.

A large number of the visiting teachers are given lodging at the homes. A rest room for the ladies is provided in the auditorium basement and service cars are on hand to accommodate visitors. Cars will be provided to take teachers to the football game Friday afternoon, when Crookston comes here to meet the locals.

Supt. I. T. Simley of his city presides at the general sessions. Principal Morris Bye is secretary of the association.

State School Aid Cut To $4 for Each Pupil

With enrollment in the state's public schools jumping 3,482 over last year, apportionment of the school fund to school districts certified Monday by J. M. McConnell, commissioner of education, showed the rate for each pupil dropping from $4.40 to $4. The total amount was $1,992,588, and the distribution is based on an enrollment of 498,147 pupils entitled to aid. Distribution of other state aid is now being completed, including aid to high, graded, consolidated, semi-graded and rural schools, special aid under the gross earnings tax law, night schools, public school libraries and federal vocational aid.

It has been reported to the county auditor's office that Pennington's share of the apportionment money this year is $12,004, the number of pupils entitled to apportionment being 3,001. The money will be forthcoming soon.

NOTED CHURCHMEN TO ADDRESS BIBLE CONFERENCE HERE

Dr. Watt from Scotland Secured for Third Conference Here Opening Next Sunday

The third annual Pennington County Bible Conference (Inter-denominational) will be held in the Presbyterian church of Thief River Falls beginning Sunday, Oct. 12 and continuing through Sunday, Oct. 19. The first meeting will be held Sunday afternoon, Oct. 12, at three o'clock. There will be two meetings each day at 3:00 p. m. and 7:45 p. m., except on Monday when there will be no meetings.

Dr. Gordon Watt of Aberdeen, Scotland, is the main speaker this year. Dr. Watt is said to be an excellent Bible teacher. He is a graduate of Aberdeen university and has until recently been a pastor in Glasgow, Scotland. He has given up his pastorate to do Bible Conference work and is now touring Canada and the United States for a year and a half. He will speak in some of the largest cities and in some of the most important pulpits of the country.

This Bible Conference is one of a series of such conferences held under the direction of Peter MacFarlane of the Union Gospel Mission, St. Paul. Beginning at Hallock three years ago the Bible Conferences have grown in size and number. They are being held in many towns of Northern Minnesota. Conferences have been held this year in Detroit, Warren and Stephen and will also be held in Hallock, Crookston, Bemidji, and other places.

It has been planned this year to give special attention to Sunday School and Foreign Mission work, if it is possible to secure the speakers desired.

The churches co-operating in this work in Thief River Falls are: the Methodist, Swedish Mission, Scandinavian Evangelical, and Presbyterian. The Conference is not denominational in management or in spirit. All pastors and people are cordially invited to attend and to unite with the others in this work.

Experts Address Rural Teachers at Institute

Sixty-five rural teachers of Pennington county, 12 from Polk, two from Clay and one from each of Marshall and Kittson counties were present Monday morning for the opening of the Pennington County Teachers' Institute at the high school gymnasium. Sessions were held twice daily on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The rest of the week is given over to attendance at the Northwestern Minnesota Educational association convention, which opened last night. The 32 students in the normal department also attended the institute.

County Superintendent Ole R. Sande was in charge of the institute, assisted by Geo. Selke of the Minnesota university and Miss Anna Swenson, state rural school inspector, as instructors. Libraries, tests and other problems of the rural schools were considered, practical demonstrations featuring the discussions.

Mrs. Schall accompanies her husband on his speaking tour.

Musical Revue Will be Most Elaborate Entertainment of Year is Present Indication

Judging by the rehearsals of the Musical Revue which the Legion Auxiliary are giving at the city auditorium Friday evening next week, under the direction of Mrs. Hodgson of Crookston, the event will be one of the most elaborate entertainments of the year. The talent has been secured and most of the song and dance parts very nearly learned. About 150 local young men and women and children are taking part in the revue, including the best talent in dancing, singing and dramtic work of the city.

The Revue opens with an elaborate scene representing dawn and dancing by the characters to the air of Grieg's "Morning Mood", which creates a very impressive and effective setting. A large number of group dances have been arranged to represent flowers, birds, butterflies, grasshoppers, etc., with costumes for each part, creating a veritable panorama of nature, dancing to music adapted to the various parts symbolized.

Another feature of the revue is the toy shop which includes characters costumed to represent toys, wooden soldiers, dolls, tumblers, clowns, jumping jacks and candy sticks and is accompanied by specialties and songs which carry out the general theme of the scenes.

A one act farce particularly popular for its wit and snap is being worked out and will alone be worth the evening's time.

The minstrel show, one of the most elaborate parts of the revue and including some of the best talent the city has to offer, will be a succession of clever dances, and songs, and the characters fitted with costumes both artistically elaborate and comical. Mrs. Hodgson, who is assisted by Miss Mildred Engen, pianist, is to be complimented for the manner in which the Revue is progressing.

Sunday School Institute Will be Held at Trinity Church Sunday and Monday

Thief River Falls will be the scene of a two-day institute for pastors and Sunday school teachers of the Norwegian Lutheran church thruout the valley on Sunday and Monday, Oct. 12 and 13. Rev. S. L. Tallakson, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church will preside and the Rev. S. T. Sorenson of Moorhead and Rev. J. Linnevold of Glenwood will give addresses at all sessions.

The Sunday sessions will begin at 2:30 and 7:45 p. m. respectively and will be conducted by Rev. Sorenson and the Monday sessions at 3:30 and 7:30 p. m., and Rev. Linnevold will serve as leader. All sessions will be held at the Trinity church. Round table discussions follow the lectures and questions and problems will be considered in a helpful way. The sessions are open to the public and all who can attend are welcome.

Eight of the following ten topics will be taken up at the institute: Teachers qualifications; methods of instruction; child study; the Lutheran conception of the Sunday school; how to use the catechism; the teacher training class; how to prepare and to teach the lesson; the week-day religious school; the importance of the work of the teacher of christianity; Sunday school and management, room, equipment, literature and other helps.

The housing committee consists of Mrs. G. Tessum, Mrs. Arthur Dahl and Miss Beatrice Erickson. Guests will be entertained on the Harvard plan. Rev. Tallakson, G. Tessum and H. M. Nelson serve as the publicity committee.

These institutes, several of which have been held in Minnesota and neighboring states the past year, are being conducted under the auspices of the board of elementary education of the Norwegian Lutheran church.

Superintendent in Fargo School Wants Information About Resort Association

That interest in the Red Lake Summer Resort association and its resort at the narrows of Red Lake is not confined to Thief River Falls and immediate vicinity was demonstrated the other day when E. O. Mogensen, president of the organization, received a letter from Supt. P. J. Iverson of the high school department at the Agricultural College, Fargo, N. D., requesting information relative to chances of securing a lot in the tract leased by the association. "I was out there this summer for a short stay," Mr. Iverson writes, "and would like to find out a little more about it and regarding your organization for the purpose of handling the project." Many are already anxious to get out there to build cottages.

Owing to a series of delays the staking out of lots by Engineer B. F. Umland has not yet been completed. However, it is hoped to have this matter disposed of in the very near future, after which directors of the association will get together to select the blocks for their respective towns or group and determine the manner of selecting individual lots.

The response from various points thruout the valley has been very encouraging and President Mogensen predicts that within another year not a lot will be available.

Those who visit the narrows at this time of year are cautioned to be careful about campfires and throwing cigarettes and matches as they may cause serious fires when vegetation begins to dry. It was pointed out in a report from the state fire department last week that Minnesota is not suffering from any serious forest fires so far this fall.

CITIZENS ASKED TO AID IN PREVENTION OF FIRES IN T. R. F.

"Fire Prevention Week" Observed in Municipalities to Eliminate Hazards

Citizens of Thief River Falls in general and owners and occupants of property in particular are requsted in a proclamation issued by Governor Preus to co-operate in observing "fire prevention week," which opened Monday and continues thru next Saturday.

Altho no public demonstration or observance is made in Thief River Falls this year residents are called upon to supplement this by a general cleanup of all rubbish and trash and an inspection of property with a view of suppressing fire hazards. Next spring it is hoped to have a program of fire prevention and an inspection of the city by the state organization of insurance underwriters.

In 1923 fifteen thousand people in the United States lost their lives by fire, statistics show. The total property loss was $550,000,000, a per capita loss of $5.00. The loss of life and property that year was approximately equal to the loss by fire in 1922. With careful attention to the subject of fire prevention, there should be a substantial reduction in this loss each year it is claimed. The per capita loss could, with reasonable care, be cut to one tenth of what it is today.

The third Wednesday evening will be set aside for a lecture by some neighboring pastor, after which refreshments will be served, to help toward defraying the expense of the lecture. The Bible Class feels quite fortunate in securing the services of Rev. H. A. Mayer of International Falls for the first lecture.

SUPREME COURT IS ASSAILED BY JAS. A. PETERSON

LaFollette Campaigner Predicts Election of Wisconsin Senator in Talk Here

SUPREME COURT POWERS ASSUMED AND USURPED

Proposed Change in Constitution Would be Protection, Speaker Declares

"Robert M. LaFollette, the fighting senator from Wisconsin, who has fought with his back to the wall for the past 40 years, will be elected president on Nov. 4," declared James A. Peterson, Minneapolis attorney, who spoke to a good-sized audience at the Princess theatre Friday night. The gathering was in the form of a booster meeting for the LaFollette-Wheeler third party ticket and the Farmer-Labor group in Minnesota.

Mr. Peterson, who has been a member of the Minnesota legislature and at one time opposed Knute Nelson as candidate for United States senator, opened his address by eulogizing LaFollette and his record in public office, declaring emphatically that "Bob" has always fought the common peoples' battle and "never compromised with wrong." "As a member of the group which nominated LaFollette as third-party presidential candidate at the Cleveland convention I felt, as did other men in that convention, that a new era is in store for the American people," he continued. "There is a political awakening thruout the country and victory is assured if the people are informed." The speaker predicted that even state of New York would go to LaFollette, while the western and north central states would be overwhelmingly in his favor.

"The opposition's attack on LaFollette's proposed change of the constitution is ridiculous and absurd," the speaker declared in discussing the issues of the campaign. He pointed out that the public is being led to believe that the Wisconsin senator if elected president would amend the constitution so as to destroy it, by taking away from the United States supreme court the power to declare any law passed by congress unconstitutional. "LaFollette does not want to amend the constitution upon being elected but merely wants to give the people a chance to vote upon the amendment and promises to sign it when presented to him," said Mr. Peterson. "What danger is there in having the change voted upon by the people themselves?" queried the speaker in pointing out that it is LaFollette's belief that every issue of that nature should be decided by the voters of the land.

Attention was called to the attack made upon LaFollette by General Chas. G. Dawes, Republican candidate for vice-president. "The proposed amendment would give congress the power to pass a measure declared unconstitutional by the supreme court over its veto, with a two-thirds majority."

The speaker charged the supreme court with being a political court as it decides political questions. "Furthermore, it has assumed a power not granted in the constitution," he asserted. "It was first tried in 1803 and since that time the high court has usurped such powers that it has become a menace to the common people and a tool in the hand of Wall Street politicians." Instances were cited showing the activities of the court in the past and how in some cases the decisions were handed down by a 4 to 5 vote, making it possible for one man to determine whether the measure should become the law of the land or not. The manner of appointment and some of the recent appointments were also severely critizised.

LaFollette's attack on the practises of the supreme court is right in line with the opinions expressed by former presidents, Mr. Peterson stated. Recorded statements by Jefferson, Jackson, Lincoln and Roosevelt were cited, each charging the high tribunal with an assumed and dangerous power.

The speaker declared that "we no longer have a constitution." He called attention to how it had been set aside, especially during the late war when the youth of the nation was conscripted without the consent of the people, a letter written by Senator Cabot Lodge during the war period being brought out in evidence of this. Senator Lodge admitted, according to this letter, that such action set aside the constitution and its provisions. "It is high time that the people are given their rights granted them by the constitution," said the speaker.

"Dawes represented J. P. Morgan and the financial interests of the country," Peterson stated in discussing the Dawes plan for the rehabilitation of European countries. He claimed that this plan was worked out in such a manner that it would assure the safety of American money loaned to foreign nations, regardless of what effect it would have on the people of these countries.

The meeting was presided over by W. H. Quist who also called upon Thos. Vollum of Erskine, defeated candidate for the gubernatorial nomination on the Farmer-Labor ticket; R. O. Gordon of Oklee, candidate for the legislature from this district; and O. A. Naplin of this city, who made a severe attack on Marius Waldal's legislative record and urged that all voters turn out on election day to register their preference.

Attending Medical Meet

Mrs. A. W. Swedenburg left last night for St. Cloud to attend the annual convention of the Minnesota Medical society, which opened yesterday and continues thru tomorrow.

RYE ON BURNED PEAT YIELDS 60 BU. AN ACRE

Three and one-fourth acres of rye on the Mons Lindwick farm near Germantown yielded a total of 199½ bushels, or about 60 bushels an acre. This crop was raised on burned peat land and emphatically demonstrates what peat land can produce when treated in that manner. H. O. Berve, another Germantown farmer, reports a yield of 130 bushels of fall rye on three acres of burned peat ground; or an average of 43 bushels an acre. Various crops have been grown in that vicinity on burned peat soil with very satisfactory results.

Embargo Stops All Grain Shipments to Duluth—May Remain Rest of the Week

The embargo of all grain billed to the head of the lakes at Duluth and Superior went into effect here Friday night and all cars loaded after that time have not been accepted for billing to that destination. It is likely that the embargo will remain in effect thru the week until the congested condition of the Duluth terminal is cleared up, reports P. J. Keating, superintendent of grain inspection at this point. "During the 20 years I have been in the inspection service in the state", states Mr. Keatng, "there has never been such an enormous amount of grain shipped to the Duluth terminals and never before during that period has an embargo been necessary." Yesterday noon there were about 300 cars in the local Soo yards with more coming in. Side tracks are being filled all along the line according to the inspector.

TEACHERS OF CITY GIVEN WELCOME AT RECEPTION FRIDAY

Co-operation Between Parents and Teachers Urged at Gathering—Fine Program

A hearty welcome was accorded instructors in the Thief River Falls schools Friday evening when the Parent-Teachers' association held its first meeting of the season in the form of a reception. The affair was exceptionally well attended by parents of the city and was a splendid success in every detail, a fine spirit of cordiality and co-operaton prevailing thruout. The gathering assembled in the high school gymnasium, which has been completely repaired and fixed up with a new floor, ceiling and walls, and tastily decorated for the occasion.

A most interesting program had been arranged for the event, the program being opened with a number by the chorus of the Woman's club followed by a few remarks of welcome by Mrs. R. Arnold, president of the Parent-Teachers' association. Mrs. L. G. Larsen represented the school board and bespoke the board's co-operation with the teachers in increasing the efficiency of the school system. She was followed by a piano solo by Miss Lucille Hermanson, who responded to an encore.

"Mothers and the Schools" was discussed by Mrs. E. J. Richards, who urged the mothers especially to do their utmost in helping the teachers in their work. It was a very interesting talk, as was also that on "Fathers and the Schools" by W. W. Prichard, Sr., who emphasized the responsibility of the fathers towards the training of their children. Both speakers brought out the necessity of cooperation between parents and teachers in getting the best results in the schools. A vocal solo by Dr. J. N. Nesse followed Mr. Prichard's talk, after which Supt. I. T. Simley made a few remarks in his usual whole hearted manner in response to the welcome to the teachers, assuring the parents present that the eductional machinery is in good hands and worthy of the hearty support of its patrons.

Teachers of the respective schools were grouped under letters on the wall representing each school in the city, making it easier for the parents to find the instructors of their children. Refreshments were served by a committee headed by Mrs. L. M. Rayson. Mrs. Lucille Johnson was in charge of decorations.

The next meeting of the association will take place Nov. 3, and it is hoped that parents will continue to show interest in the organization.

These pigs were distributed among boys and girls of the county last spring and have been cared for by them during the summer months.

SLIGHT CUT IN SCHOOL LEVY IS MADE BY BOARD

1924 Budget Calls For $75,000 Tax Levy in District—$1,000 Below Last Year's

SINKING FUND PROVIDED. GETTING ON CASH BASIS

Operating Expense of System Cannot be Reduced This Year Superintendent Says

Adopting a budget of $108,992.00 making necessary a tax levy of $75,000.00 the school board of district No. 18 declares that the cost of operating the schools in Thief River Falls is held down to the lowest possible figure. As has been announced previously this year's levy is $1000 below that of 1923. A larger slash in the levy would be possible if no provisions were made for a sinking fund and an effort made to get on a cash basis, members of the board state in justifying their action. It is pointed out that the local school system with about 1600 pupils enrolled is at the present time operated on as economical a basis as possible, every expense item being carefully considered and allowed only after it has been deemed absolutely necessary for properly carrying on the work.

Last year a sinking fund of $10,000 was set aside and this year's budget allows for the sum of $8,000 for this purpose.

If all the state aid money is received, the sinking fund, for which money has not been provided until last year for the first time, will be increased, the district put on a cash basis and make it possible for the board to make a reduction in next year's levy, it is predicted by school authorities. Last year only about one half of the supplemental aid promised by the state was actually paid. Had the entire amount been received the district would have been enriched with $13,000 more. Tax receipts also usually fall below the actual levy, making it necessary to fix a higher levy. Last year about $6,000 of the tax money for school purposes was not collected, it is stated.

The special levy could have been reduced to approximately $59,000 if the board would entirely empty the treasury and could depend upon getting the full amount of state aid and tax money, according to I. T. Simley, superintendent of the Thief River Falls schools. This action, however, would have been unwise, it is declared, as it would result in added expense for interest on warrants, etc. "The cost of operating the local schools at the present time cannot be reduced," Mr. Simley stated to a Times repre-

Bank Reorganization is Progressing—Depositors Urged to Sign Agreement

Another statement from W. W. Prichard, Sr., manager of the reorganization work in connection with the Citizens State bank, urges that depositors of the closed institution sign up the "Reduction agreement" without delay. The statement to the depositors follows: "Your committee desires to report that progress is made daily in securing the reduction agreements.

"There are some who have the impression that no haste in returning the agreements is necessary. That is a mistake. It is essential and important that they be secured as soon as possible. To all those who are in sympathy with the move to reopen the bank, the committee asks that they sign and return the agreements without delay.

"There are other details to be worked out after the "reduction agreements" have been secured. If all the depositors would help just a little, most of the agreements would be in the hands of the committee before Nov. 1."

New Owner Takes Over Simonson Grocery Store

Mr. Gartland has a long experience in merchandising, having operated a store at Gary the past eight years, and his entrance into business in Thief River Falls bids well for success. High grade lines of merchandise will be handled at all times and Mr. Gartland invites the patronage of the buying public in an announcement elsewhere in this issue.

Joint Legion Meeting

A joint meeting of the Legion post and the Woman's Auxiliary will be held tomorrow, Friday, night, the regular meeting night having been changed from Thursday.

Woman's Club Meeting is Addressed by Dist. President Mrs. Davis of Warren

Thief River Falls has a woman's club that is wide awake and a credit to the city as was evidenced by the attendance and spirit at the luncheon held at the Hotel Evelyn Monday noon. The regular membership had nearly full representation and many prospective members were present. This was the first meeting of the season and augurs well for the ensuing year's work.

The hotel dining room was decorated for the occasion and flower favors of red Dahlias gave a festive appearance to the tables. Four members of the high school orchestra furnished music during the entire repast. Mrs. O. F. Mellby gave a vocal solo which was very well received and community singing was led by Mrs. Mellby. Mrs. G. W. Booren, president of the local club, gave the opening talk. The principal address was given by Mrs. G. D. Davis of Warren, president of the clubs of the ninth district. Mrs. Davis is a convincing and fluent speaker and gave an interesting and inspirational as well as informative address.

In her talk she stressed three separate subjects, all of importance to club women. She began with rural and junior club work. Mrs. Davis stated that the organization of junior clubs among high school girls would be a fine thing but in most cases was impractical on account of the fact that high school students had already too many interests. The rural club work, however, was one of the federation's most important services she stated. A instance of a rural club in this district was cited and seventy members, residents of a small village and farm women. These women have a few social interests and appreciate a medium of getting together to talk over problems and enjoy a program.

Peace was also touched briefly. To teach defense and fill the students minds with the more horrible details of war thru the school text books she considered as being wrong. "Every man, young, or old," said Mrs. Davis, "has in him the instinct of defense and the occasion need only present itself and he will give his all in defense of his home and his nation." However she did believe that a small standing army or at least some preparation was necessary when the neighboring nations were ready for action.

The third issue was the criminal and immoral conditions which, if not curtailed, may result in the downfall of America. The penal institutions, the institutions for the mentally and physically deficient are filled and many waiting to enter. These cannot be eliminated but laws can be enacted to prevent the marriage of such mental, physical and moral degenerates and thus prevent the further growth of such a population. The issue has not yet become a legislative one but in the course of a few years, the state and federal governments will no doubt be forced to take the matter in hand.

Pastor of International Falls to Speak in City

Rev. H. A. Mayer of International Falls will speak Wednesday evening at St. John's Lutheran church under the auspices of the Bible class. The lecture begins at 7:30 and will be given in the English language. As his topic Rev. Mayer has chosen "Hidden Powers of the Mind." The following extract from his letter to Rev. E. H. Kreidt will give the public an idea of the scope of the lecture. "Hidden powers of the mind" (Underlying principles of Hypnotism, Spiritism, and so-called Divine Healing). I do not intend to speak the last word on this subject, but the lecture should stimulate thought. I want to bring examples of strange things: dreams, mental telepathy, etc. Many of these seemingly abstruse occurances can be psychologically explained. Religious enthusiasts and fanatics reap a rich harvest where people are unacquainted with these things. Of course, I do not intend to explain all religious fanaticism." The general public is invited to hear this lecture.

Immediately following the lecture lunch will be served in the church basement at 15 cents a plate. The Bible class has adopted this method of helping to defray the expenses of these lectures.

The large Fairbanks-Morse oil engine, which will supply electric power for the mill, has arrived but will not be installed until later this month. Water power will be used until the new unit is completed. The output of the mill is approximately 250 barrels of flour a day. A big season is looked forward to this year, and the mill is now in first class condition.

Official Paper of Pennington County
Official Paper, City Thief River Falls
Official Paper, School District No. 18

Now and then a person is heard saying that if a big increase in dairying is made the prices of dairy products will be reduced to an unprofitable stage. These persons probably are not aware of the fact that during 1923 the United States bought more butter and cheese than it sold to foreign markets. Consumption of dairy products is on the increase both in the United States and in foreign countries, and it is not likely that anyone in this or the next generation will suffer from over-production in the dairy industry.

That the dairy cow is a real mortgage lifter is now pretty generally realized and Pennington county farmers are marching in the right direction when they get more and better dairy cattle.

A cow is no longer just a cow—he is either a good cow or else an unprofitable one. Farmers are realizing more and more that it pays to secure good stock.

The Pennington County Bankers' association set a good example with its alfalfa campaign last winter. Already similar organizations in other parts of the state are following its example in an effort to encourage the culture of this valuable crop in their respective communities. At a meeting of bankers of Kandiyohi county last week the principal topic for discussion was alfalfa, according to the Willmar Tribune.

It is firmly believed that no campaign conducted in this county is doing and will continue to do as much for the prosperity of its farmers as the alfalfa campaign. The result is clearly evident by the increased acreage and interest in the crop.

A good movement has been started. Let's keep it up.

Since its organization in this city the Parent-Teacher's association has been an active force for good, especially in creating more interest in the local educational system among parents and school patrons generally. Much has been accomplished in bringing about more co-operation between the parents and teachers, and in this way increase the efficiency of the schools. Unless the two forces pull together it is evident that little can be accomplished.

Show your interest in the persons who are in charge of your child the greater part of nine months. If you are not already a member of this worthy organization now is an opportune time to join the ranks of these fathers and mothers working for their children's welfare.

The Times joins with other business institutions and citizens of Thief River Falls in extending a hearty welcome to teachers of the Red River valley who are in the city attending the annual convention of the Northwestern Minnesota Educational association this week.

Voters of Minnesota will decide upon four amendments to the state constitution at the election Nov. 4. The texts of these amendments appear elsewhere in this issue and should be studied by every voter who intends to mark the ballot on election day.

"For the love of peat" can well be said by the Germantown farmer who raised nearly 60 bushels of rye an acre on a three-acre patch of peat land. The top surface was burned.

"Register your opinion and preference or forever hold your peace," said a speaker in urging citizens to go to the polls on Nov. 4.

SLIGHT CUT IN SCHOOL LEVY IS MADE BY BOARD

sentative when interviewed on the subject.

Instead it is the object of the school board to maintain a balance so as to have sufficent funds to meet warrants issued up to the time when the tax money is received, some time in December. This fall the district opened the term with about $16,000 in the treasury and all bills paid, the finances being in sound condition in spite of the fact that the state failed to pay the entire aid promised last year.

Members of the school board always come in for a great deal of grief, it is pointed out by a former member of the school board, and very rarely is any credit given them for the good work which they are doing and endeavoring to do even at a sacrifice of their own business.

Considerable new equipment is being installed this year, to be paid for out of the 1924 budget. A new safe cabinet for the storing of financial and scholastic records has been purchased and placed in the high school, the cost of which was $500. New chairs to the amount of $225 are being secured to replace worn out and broken chairs in the high school, while about $1500 was spent on repairing the high school gymnasium, new ceiling, floor and walls being constructed and other improvements made. An additional teacher in the normal department increases the payroll by $1750, which sum, however, is reimbursed to the district by the state.

It is estimated that receipts from outside sources will be as follows:

Apportionment	$ 8,754.00
Special Aids	25,619.62
State one mill tax	1,500.00
Total	$35,873.62

In the above figures the supplemental aid is estimated at 50 per cent, or $11,581.94.

Following is a complete table giving the actual expense for four years, beginning with 1920-1921, and the details of the estimated budget for the ensuing year:

	Actual Expense.				Budget

Public Fourm

St. Hilaire, Minn., Oct. 6, 1924.
Editor, the Times:

Congressman Gilbert M. Haugen of Iowa seems to have heard the crack of the party bosses' whip and was boosting Coolidge and Dawes at the Princess Theatre in Thief River Falls last week. This looks like servility more than sincerity. He seems to have been Washingtonized in the true Republican fashion. When that process has been successfully accomplished, personal principles and consistency become secondary to party loyalty.

When the McNary-Haugen farm-relief bill was before Congress and about to be voted on, Senator Magnus Johnson went to President Coolidge and asked him to throw his influence in favor of the bill. Coolidge merely shook his head and said he didn't know what to do. He did nothing to aid, and we know how the reactionaries rejoiced and the progressives were disappointed over its defeat.

Last June 20, the Associated Press reported Congressman Haugen as having spoken at Des Moines to Polk county (Iowa) farmers, stating that: "Opposition of the grain speculators and the packing interests was largely responsible for the defeat of his bill; that 46½% of the farmers of the northwest are bankrupt and thousands are abandoning the farms; that the only cure is the enactment of laws creating a marketing corporation which will adjust prices on a more favorable basis to agriculture; that he held little hope for the enactment of his bill in the coming congress." (It should be remembered here, that Coolidge continues as President during the next session of congress.) Thus we see Haugen in June, leading us to see the hands of grain speculators and big packing concerns back of the inaction of "silent, cautious, careful Cal " Coolidge.

On Sept. 19 the "calamity-prophet" Dawes was reported to have spoken at Sioux Falls, S. D., to an audience of farmers declaring that "the agricultural crisis is so serious it must be kept away from political quack doctors," etc.

Yet here we see Congressman Haugen, whom Dawes refers to when he calls "political quack", trotting out to do his stunt when the boss cracks the whip—boosting the very men who disagree with him in principle. How can he do it? Apparently he was either insincere about the McNary-Haugen bill and was glad to see it defeated, thus double-crossing the farmers, or he is insincere now in campaigning for Coolidge and Dawes.

It is strikingly pathetic that a man of his position and standing should consider it necessary or expedient to stoop to "farmer-baiting" for the Republican ticket.

Respectfully,
JAS. A. DAHL.

Henry Melvin Kilen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kilen of Kratka township, died at the Physicians hospital Oct. 1, from a ruptured appendix. He had a serious attack of appendicitis a week previous but was not brot to the hospital until it was too late for surgical aid. YOU CITIZENS ARE INTERESTED IN POLITICS THIS YEAR BECAUSE you desire a continuation of the present National Administration's policies of tax reduction.

PUBLIC EXPENDITURES OF THE NATION HAVE BEEN REDUCED FROM 5½ billions of dollars annually to less than 3½ billions.

THE NATION'S DEBT HAS BEEN REDUCED BY MORE THAN 1¾ BILLIONS.

NATIONAL CREDIT HAS BEEN RESTORED AS EVIDENCED BY THE fact that Liberty Bonds which, during the preceding (Democratic) administration could be cashed for only about 85 per cent of their face value, are now worth from 100 to 104 per cent of their face value.

NO SUCH RECORD OF FINANCIAL ADJUSTMENT WAS EVER BEFORE made in the history of the world. Its continuation means increased prosperity and happiness for all.

THE REPUBLICAN TICKET IN MINNESOTA STANDS FOUR SQUARE with the principles and aims of the National Administration.

THE MASTERLY KEYNOTE SPEECH OF THEODORE CHRISTIANSON, candidate for Governor, definitely promises a state budget system and consequent reduction of expense to the taxpayer.

ALL REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES ARE OF HIGH CHARACTER AND great ability with records of efficient public service. They believe in our present form of government, agreeing with Charles G. Dawes, Republican Candidate for Vice-President, who recently said:

"THIS CAMPAIGN IS A CONTEST BETWEEN PROGRESSIVE CONSERVATISM AND UNTRIED AND DANGEROUS RADICALISM. LaFOLLETTE, LEADING THE ARMY OF EXTREME RADICALS, HAS A PLATFORM DEMANDING PUBLIC OWNERSHIP OF THE RAILROADS AND ATTACKING OUR COURTS, WHICH ARE A FUNDAMENTAL AND CONSTITUTIONAL SAFEGUARD OF AMERICAN LIBERTIES."

THE FARMER-LABOR PARTY IN STATE AND NATION IS FOR MORE paternalism in government; paternalism has always meant more state commissions and bureaus, a larger army of state employes, more expense and higher taxes. This effort to socialize the state is well organized and financed. You, right thinking citizens, are against it, opposing, as you do, any tendency toward the Russian system and realizing, as you do, that it has no place in the American scheme of things.

TALK TO YOUR FRIENDS. MAKE SUGGESTIONS TO THE COMMITTEE. This is your fight. Contribute your time or your money—or both. The more money we have the more we can circulate the truths of the situation and about the campaign for progressive, intelligent economy and against any compromise with that Communism and Radicalism which is the worst form of Reaction.

DO IT NOW!

Warns Absentee Voters

County Auditor T. P. Anderson has issued a warning to voters who plan to be out of town on election day and desire to vote. He urges all persons who expect to be away on November 4 to apply immediately for a set of vote-by-mail ballots and explains that many voters have been disappointed in former years because they were tardy in making application. All persons who have registered and made application will receive the necessary ballots after Oct. 15. The ballot can then be marked and mailed to the county auditor in a sealed envelope, where it will be counted with the ballots cast at the polls.

Fined for Using Nets

George Neierson of Deer Park township, this county, was fined $10 and costs, which amounted to $3 additional, last Friday when he plead guilty before Judge N. W. Tarrant in municipal court to a charge of fishing with nets. He was arrested by Game Warden Wm. Munch.

COMMUNITY NEWS

ROSEWOOD

We had another good soaker of rain on Saturday night and Sunday which will further delay all fall operation and which drove home all the threshers from Argyle, Stephen, Angus, Northland and other places. Near this place very little threshing is undone and last week being potato week most of the root crops are also in harbor by now. Potatoes on the average do not seem to yield as well as was once anticipated, but we have several reports of up to 150 bushels per acre. On the flat most spuds were somewhat small sized but as the prevailing market is very dead most of the crop will be used for stock feed. A few of the farmers who grew the flat type Burbanks have been hauling in their surplus to Thief River Falls where they are marketed at one cent per pound.

Mr. Zuckmann, the California potato buyer was in this vicinity last Tuesday investigating a few fields of flat Burbanks and contracting for the crop.

Paul Schanke spent Monday at Warren in business interests, returning home the same evening.

A carload of lumber was shipped in at the Hanson & Barzen company this week and another of native lumber is expected this week. This is the first building material handled by this company for several years past at this station, and we are indeed glad to note that times have changed enough to warrant this move. The lumber yard is in charge of the company's grain buyer, Mr. A. C. Vorseth.

Geneva and Oliva Swenson went to Thief River Falls on Friday evening to attend the America show at the Lyceum.

Attorney J. M. Bishop of this city was elected president of the Goodridge State bank, when the new directors of the merged Farmers State bank and the Goodridge State bank met Wednesday of last week after being named by the stockholders of the two institutions. The other directors are: Carl B. Larson, Dr. H. W. Froehlich, Rasmus Oen, M. M. Bishop and H. O. Chommie of Thief River Falls, and Nick Bundlund, J. P. Jenson and H. B. Rockne of Goodridge.

Nick Bundlund, vice president of the Farmers State bank, was named first vice president of the consolidated institution; Carl B. Larson, director of Goodridge State bank, second vice-president; J. P. Jenson, cashier of Goodridge State bank, retains his position and H. B. Rockne, cashier of the Farmers State bank is assistant. Miss Nystul and Harry Halvorson are retained as bookkeeper and teller, respectively.

The Farmers State bank building will be used as soon as repairs are completed, it is stated, the other quarters being use at present.

The consolidation, which took effect two weeks ago, results in a stronger institution for the eastern Pennington county village. The combined resources of the new bank will be close to $300,000, backed by 50 of the best farmers and prominent business men of the community. The charter of the Goodridge State bank is retained and the capital remains $15,000. It will be one of Pennington county's strongest banks, those connected with the institution declare, and will be better able to serve the community than the two banks separately.

The consolidation of the two Goodridge banks is right in line with advise given by A. J. Viegel, state superintendent of banks, in a recent letter to Minnesota bankers, which states in part: "To stabilize the financial conditions further, the department urges that wherever possible banks be consolidated so as to reduce the number in a respective territory. This action would in many instances solve the problem of making weak banks among the strongest in the state."

The Goodridge State bank was originally the Germantown State bank, first organized by Mr. Bishop in 1912. The institution was moved from Marshall county two years later, when the railroad was built to Goodridge. The second bank started up shortly afterwards. H. S. Dahlen of the First and Peoples bank in this city was president of the Farmers State bank.

HELP FOR OLD FOLKS

Old Age Should Be Happy — Not a Time of Sickness and Suffering.

Too many people begin to suffer at middle age with constant backache, urinary ills and rheumatic pains and aches. Weak kidneys are usually the cause and, if neglected, there is danger of hardened arteries, dropsy, gravel or Bright's disease. Help your weakened kidneys with a stimulant diuretic before kidney disease gets a firm hold. Use Doan's Pills. Thousands of old folks recommend Doan's. Here is Thief River Falls proof:

John Aase, farmer, says: "A cold settled on my kidneys and caused trouble when I was working. When I stooped, my back was so stiff and lame it was hard for me to get up again. I felt tired before my work was half finished. Doan's Pills, from Newell's Drug Store, cured me."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills — the same that Mr. Aase had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

RED RIVER VALLEYS BEST POTATOES
120 LBS. NET WHEN PACKED

Here is the brand and design under which the best potatoes grown by members of the Minnesota Co-operative Exchange will be sold. No other patatoes will be on the market under this name. "Gopher Brand" was selected because it is typical of Minnesota, easy to remember and short. The pride of nearly 13,000 growers is behind this brand. Potatoes from this section are also labeled "Red River Valley," the state being divided into three districts.

EVERY ONE CAN RIDE

Minnesota now has probably more than 500,000 motor vehicles; 492,000 were registered and tax paid several days ago.

The machines would carry at one time all men, women and children in the state.

End to end they would extend over 1,300 miles—make a continuous line from here to New York City.

But they would have to be spaced 60 feet apart to cover Minnesota's big 7,000-mile trunk highway system.

Let Red Crown
The High-Grade Gasoline

Save Your Car

THE batteries and starting motor of your car are the headquarters of its emotional system. A heavy engine wears out the batteries, just as it would wear out your patience and your strength should you try to turn it over with a crank.

It is not so far-fetched as it may seem, to compare engine mechanism with human mechanism. Every one who drives has remarked the individuality and responsiveness or lack of it, in the car he handles.

Red Crown Gasoline increases engine responsiveness. It vaporizes at a low temperature and burns completely to the end of the piston stroke.

The "satisfaction" service of Red Crown lies in your thrill at the ready response when you touch the starting motor—at the flexibility of your engine and the steady flow of sustained pulling power.

Satisfaction Plus Economy is this unusual combination lies the ever reason for Red Crown popularity. And remember this permanent satisfaction in a gasoline lies in never changing. Use Red Crown all the time. It's easy to do so, for Red Crown distribution is nearly 100% perfect. You can find it every where and everywhere the same.

Official Paper of Pennington County
Official Paper, City Thief River Falls
Official Paper, School District No. 18

Now and then a person is heard saying that if a big increase in dairying is made the prices of dairy products will be reduced to an unprofitable stage. These persons probably are not aware of the fact that during 1923 the United States bought more butter and cheese than it sold to foreign markets. Consumption of dairy products is on the increase both in the United States and in foreign countries, and it is not likely that anyone in this or the next generation will suffer from over-production in the dairy industry.

That the dairy cow is a real mortgage lifter is now pretty generally realized and Pennington county farmers are marching in the right direction when they get more and better dairy cattle.

A cow is no longer just a cow—she is either a good cow or else an unprofitable one. Farmers are realizing more and more that it pays to secure good stock.

The Pennington County Bankers' association set a good example with its alfalfa campaign last winter. Already similar organizations in other parts of the state are following its example in an effort to encourage the culture of this valuable crop in their respective communities. At a meeting of bankers of Kandiyohi county last week the principal topic for discussion was alfalfa, according to the Willmar Tribune.

It is firmly believed that no campaign conducted in this county is doing and will continue to do as much for the prosperity of its farmers as the alfalfa campaign. The result is clearly evident by the increased acreage and interest in the crop.

A good movement has been started. Let's keep it up.

Since its organization in this city the Parent-Teacher's association has been an active force for good, especially in creating more interest in the local educational system among parents and school patrons generally. Much has been accomplished in bringing about more co-operation between the parents and teachers, and in this way increase the efficiency of the schools. Unless the two forces pull together it is evident that little can be accomplished.

Show your interest in the persons who are in charge of your child the greater part of nine months. If you are not already a member of this worthy organization now is an opportune time to join the ranks of these fathers and mothers working for their children's welfare.

The Times joins with other business institutions and citizens of Thief River Falls in extending a hearty welcome to teachers of the Red River valley who are in the city attending the annual convention of the Northwestern Minnesota Educational association this week.

Voters of Minnesota will decide upon four amendments to the state constitution at the election Nov. 4. The texts of these amendments appears elsewhere in this issue and should be studied by every voter who intends to mark the ballot on election day.

"For the love of peat" can well be said by the Germantown farmer who raised nearly 60 bushels of rye an acre on a three-acre patch of peat land. The top surface was burned.

SLIGHT CUT IN SCHOOL LEVY IS MADE BY BOARD

sentative when interviewed on the subject.

Instead, it is the object of the school board to maintain a balance so as to have sufficent funds to meet warrants issued up to the time when the tax money is received, some time in December. This fall the district opened the term with about $16,000 in the treasury and all bills paid, the finances being in sound condition in spite of the fact that the state failed to pay the entire aid promised last year.

Members of the school board always come in for a great deal of grief, it is pointed out by a former member of the school board, and very rarely is any credit given them for the good work which they are doing and endeavoring to do even at a sacrifice of their own business.

Considerable new equipment is being installed this year, to be paid for out of the 1924 budget. A new safe cabinet for the storing of financial and scholastic records has been purchased and placed in the high school, the cost of which was $500. New chairs to the amount of $225 are being secured to replace worn out and broken chairs in the high school, while about $1500 was spent on repairing the high school gymnasium, new ceiling, floor and walls being constructed and other improvements made. An additional teacher in the normal department increases the payroll by $1750, which sum, however, is reimbursed to the district by the state.

It is estimated that receipts from outside sources will be as follows:

Apportionment	$ 8,754.00
Special Aids	25,619.62
State one mill tax	1,500.00
Total	$35,873.62

In the above figures the supplemental aid is estimated at 50 per cent, or $11,581.94.

Following is a complete table giving the actual expense for four years, beginning with 1920-1921, and the details of the estimated budget for the ensuing year:

Public Fourm

St. Hilaire, Minn., Oct. 6, 1924.
Editor, the Times:

Congressman Gilbert M. Haugen of Iowa seems to have heard the crack of the party bosses' whip and was boosting Coolidge and Dawes at the Princess Theatre in Thief River Falls last week. This looks like servility more than sincerity. He seems to have been Washingtonized in the true Republican fashion. When that process has been successfully accomplished, personal principles and consistency become secondary to party loyalty.

When the McNary-Haugen farm-relief bill was before Congress and about to be voted on, Senator Magnus Johnson went to President Coolidge and asked him to throw his influence in favor of the bill. Coolidge merely shook his head and said he didn't know what to do. He did nothing to aid, and we know how the reactionaries rejoiced and the progressives were disappointed over its defeat.

Last June 20, the Associated Press reported Congressman Haugen as having spoken at Des Moines to Polk county (Iowa) farmers, stating that: "Opposition of the grain speculators and the packing interests was largely responsible for the defeat of his bill; that 46½% of the farmers of the northwest are bankrupt and thousands are abandoning the farms; that the only cure is the enactment of laws creating a marketing corporation which will adjust prices on a more favorable basis to agriculture; that he held little hope for the enactment of his bill in the coming congress." (It should be remembered here, that Coolidge continues as President during the next session of congress.) Thus we see Haugen in June, leading us to see the hands of grain speculators and big packing concerns back of the inaction of "silent, cautious, careful Cal" Coolidge.

On Sept. 19 the "calamity-prophet" Dawes was reported to have spoken at Sioux Falls, S. D., to an audience of farmers declaring that "the agricultural crisis is so serious it must be kept away from political quack doctors," etc.

Yet here we see, Congressman Haugen, whom Dawes refers to when he calls "political quack", trotting out to do his stunt when the boss cracks the whip—boosting the very men who disagree with him in principle. How can he do it? Apparently he was either insincere about the McNary-Haugen bill and was glad to see it defeated, thus double-crossing the farmers, or he is insincere now in campaigning for Coolidge and Dawes.

It is strikingly pathetic that a man of his position and standing should consider it necessary or expedient to stoop to "farmer-baiting" for the Republican ticket.

Respectfully,
JAS. A. DAHL.

Henry Melvin Kilen

Henry Melvin Kilen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kilen of Kratka township, died at the Physicians hospital Oct. 1, from a ruptured appendix. He had a serious attack of appendicitis a week previous but was not brot to the hospital until it was too late for surgical aid. The funeral was held Monday from Telemarken church and interment made in the cemetery there.

Warns Absentee Voters

County Auditor T. P. Anderson has issued a warning to voters who plan to be out of town on election day and desire to vote. He urges all persons who expect to be away on November 4 to apply immediately for a set of vote-by-mail ballots and explains that many voters have been disappointed in former years because they were tardy in making application. All persons who have registered and made application will receive the necessary ballots after Oct. 15. The ballot can then be marked and mailed to the county auditor in a sealed envelope, where it will be counted with the ballots cast at the polls.

Fined for Using Nets

George Neierson of Deer Park township, this county, was fined $10 and costs, which amounted to $3 additional, last Friday when he plead guilty before Judge N. W. Tarrant in municipal court to a charge of fishing with nets. He was arrested by Game Warden Wm. Munch.

With all political candidates pledged to tax reduction there should be some chance for relief.

ROSEWOOD

We had another good soaker of rain on Saturday night and Sunday which will further delay all fall operation and which drove home all the threshers from Argyle, Stephen, Angus, Northland and other places. Near this place very little threshing is undone and last week being potato week most of the root crops are also in harbor by now. Potatoes on the average do not seem to yield as well as was once anticipated, but we have several reports of up to 150 bushels per acre. On the flat most spuds were somewhat small sized but as the prevailing market is very dead most of the crop will be used for stock feed. A few of the farmers who grew the flat type Burbanks have been hauling in their surplus to Thief River Falls where they are marketed at one cent per pound.

Mr. Zuckmann, the California potato buyer was in this vicinity last Tuesday investigating a few fields of flat Burbanks and contracting for the crop.

OFFICERS ELECTED IN GOODRIDGE BANK

J. M. Bishop Named President of Merged Bank—Jenson and Rockne Cashiers

Attorney J. M. Bishop of this city was elected president of the Goodridge State bank, when the new directors of the merged Farmers State bank and the Goodridge State bank met Wednesday of last week after being named by the stockholders of the two institutions. The other directors are: Carl B. Larson, Dr. H. W. Froehlich, Rasmus Oen, M. M. Bishop and H. O. Chommie of Thief River Falls, and Nick Bundlund, J. P. Jenson and H. B. Rockne of Goodridge.

Nick Bundlund, vice president of the Farmers State bank, was named first vice president of the consolidated institution; Carl B. Larson, director of Goodridge State bank, second vice-president; J. P. Jenson, cashier of Goodridge State bank, retains his position and H. B. Rockne, cashier of the Farmers State bank is assistant. Miss Nystul and Harry Halvorson are retained as bookkeeper and teller, respectively.

The Farmers State bank building will be used as soon as repairs are completed, it is stated, the other quarters being use at present.

The consolidation, which took effect two weeks ago, results in a stronger institution for the eastern Pennington county village. The combined resources of the new bank will be close to $300,000, backed by 50 of the best farmers and prominent business men of the community. The charter of the Goodridge State bank is retained and the capital remains $15,000. It will be one of Pennington county's strongest banks, those connected with the institution declare, and will be better able to serve the community than the two banks separately.

The consolidation of the two Goodridge banks is right in line with advise given by A. J. Viegel, state superintendent of banks, in a recent letter to Minnesota bankers, which states in part: "To stabilize the financial conditions further, the department urges that wherever possible banks be consolidated so as to reduce the number in a respective territory. This action would in many instances solve the problem of making weak banks among the strongest in the state."

The Goodridge State bank was originally the Germantown State bank, first organized by Mr. Bishop in 1912. The institution was moved from Marshall county two years later, when the railroad was built to Goodridge. The second bank started up shortly afterwards. H. S. Dahlen of the First and Peoples bank in this city was president of the Farmers State bank.

HELP FOR OLD FOLKS

Old Age Should Be Happy — Not a Time of Sickness and Suffering.

Too many people begin to suffer at middle age with constant backache, urinary ills and rheumatic pains and aches. Weak kidneys are usually the cause and, if neglected, there is danger of hardened arteries, dropsy, gravel or Bright's disease. Help your weakened kidneys with a stimulant diuretic before kidney disease gets a firm hold. Use Doan's Pills. Thousands of old folks recommend Doan's. Here is Thief River Falls proof:

John Aase, farmer, says: "A cold settled on my kidneys and caused trouble when I was working. When I stooped, my back was so stiff and lame it was hard for me to get up again. I felt tired before my work was half finished. Doan's Pills, from Newell's Drug Store, cured me."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mr. Aase had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Mr. Halseth has been employed in the Goodridge State bank until a short time ago when he resigned and made preparations to depart. Mr. Halseth came here from Thief River Falls a few years ago and has been well liked by everyone. He has been a good booster for the country.

Here is the brand and design under which the best potatoes grown by members of the Minnesota Co-operative Exchange will be sold. No other patotoes will be on the market under this name. "Gopher Brand" was selected because it is typical of Minnesota, easy to remember and short. The pride of nearly 13,000 growers is behind this brand. Potatoes from this section are also labeled "Red River Valley," the state being divided into three districts.

EVERY ONE CAN RIDE

Minnesota now has probably more than 500,000 motor vehicles; 492,000 were registered and tax paid several days ago.

The machines would carry at one time all men, women and children in the state.

End to end they would extend over 1,300 miles—make a continuous line from here to New York City.

But they would have to be spaced 60 feet apart to cover Minnesota's big 7,000-mile trunk highway system.

Let Red Crown
The High-Grade Gasoline
Save Your Car

THE batteries and starting motor of your car are the headquarters of its emotional system. A heavy engine wears out the batteries, just as it would wear out your patience and your strength should you try to turn it over with a crank.

It is not so far-fetched as it may seem, to compare engine mechanism with human mechanism. Every one who drives has remarked the individuality and responsiveness or lack of it, in the car he handles.

Red Crown Gasoline increases engine responsiveness. It vaporizes at a low temperature and burns completely to the end of the piston stroke.

The "satisfaction" services of Red Crown lies in your thrill at the ready response when you touch the starting motor—at the flexibility of your engine and the steady flow of [illegible] power.

Satisfaction Plus Economy is this unusual combination [illegible] reason for Red Crown popularity. Remember this permanent satisfaction in a gasoline lies in never changing. Use Red Crown all the time. It is easy to do so, for Red Crown distribution is nearly 100% perfect. You can find it everywhere and everywhere the same.

Attorney General

St. Paul, Minn., June 14, 1924.

HONORABLE MIKE HOLM,
Secretary of State, Capitol.

SIR: As required by section 46, General Statutes 1913, I have the honor to furnish you herewith, a statement of the purposes and effects of all amendments proposed to the constitution of the state of Minnesota by the legislature of 1923 and which are to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in 1924.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 1.

Chapter 447, Session Laws of Minnesota for the year 1923 proposes an amendment to section 5 of article 9 of the constitution of the state. The section now reads as follows:

"Section 5. For the purpose of defraying extraordinary expenditures, the state may contract public debts, but such debts shall never, in the aggregate, exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; every such debt shall be authorized by law, for some single object, to be distinctly specified therein; and no such law shall take effect until it shall have been passed by the vote of two-thirds of the members of each branch of the legislature, to be recorded by yeas and nays on the journals of each house respectively; and every such law shall levy a tax annually sufficient to pay the annual interest of such debt, and also a tax sufficient to pay the principal of such debt within ten years from the final passage of such law, and shall specially appropriate the proceeds of such taxes to the payment of such principal and interest; and such appropriation and taxes shall not be repealed, postponed, or diminished, until the principal and interest of such debt shall have been wholly paid. The state shall never contract any debts for works of internal improvements, or be a party in carrying on such works, except in cases where grants of land or other property shall have been made to the state, especially dedicated by the grant to specific purposes, and in such cases the state shall devote thereto the avails of such grants, and may pledge or appropriate the revenues derived from such works in aid of their completion."

If amended this section will read as follows:

"Section 5. For the purpose of defraying extraordinary expenditures, the state may contract public debts, but such debts shall never, in the aggregate, exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; every such debt shall be authorized by law, for some single object, to be distinctly specified therein; and no such law shall take effect until it shall have been passed by the vote of two-thirds of the members of each branch of the legislature, to be recorded by yeas and nays on the journals of each house respectively; and every such law shall levy a tax annually sufficient to pay the annual interest of such debt, and also a tax sufficient to pay the principal of such debt within ten years from the final passage of such law, and shall specially appropriate the proceeds of such taxes to the payment of such principal and interest; and such appropriation and taxes shall not be repealed, postponed, or diminished, until the principal and interest of such debt shall have been wholly paid. The state shall never contract any debts for works of internal improvement—or be a party in carrying on such works, except as authorized by section 16 of article 9, and by article 16 of this constitution; but it may levy an excise tax upon any substance, material, fluid, force or other means or instrumentality, or the business of dealing in, selling or producing any or all thereof, used or useful, in producing or generating power for propelling motor or other vehicles used on the public highways of this state, and shall place the proceeds of such tax in the trunk highway fund provided for in section 2 of said article 16 and further except in cases where grants of land or other property shall have been made to the state, especially dedicated by the grant to specific purposes, and in such cases the state shall devote thereto the avails of such grants, and may pledge or appropriate the revenues derived from such works in aid of their completion."

The purpose of the proposed amendment is to confer express authority upon the legislature to provide a special tax on gasoline or other substances used, or useful, for the propulsion of motor vehicles on the public highways of the state or on the business of dealing in, selling or producing such substances. The money so raised by such tax to be used for the construction and maintenance of trunk highways.

The effect of the amendment, if adopted, will be that the cost of the construction and maintenance of trunk highways, the whole of which is now paid by a direct tax on motor vehicles, supplemented by federal aid, will be borne in part by the revenue derived from such gasoline tax, so-called, as the legislature may impose.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 2.

Chapter 443, Session Laws of Minnesota for the year 1923 proposes an amendment of section 36 of article 4 of the constitution of the state. This section now reads as follows:

"Section 36. Any city or village in this state may frame a charter for its own government as a city consistent with and subject to the laws of this state, as follows: The legislature shall provide, under such restrictions as it deems proper, for a board of fifteen freeholders, who shall be and for the past five years shall have been qualified voters thereof, to be appointed by the district judges of the judicial district in which the city or village is situated, as the legislature may determine, for a term in no event to exceed six years, which board shall, within six months after its appointment, return to the chief magistrate of said city or village a draft of said charter, signed by the members of said board, or a majority thereof. Such charter shall be submitted to the qualified voters of such city or village at the next election thereafter, and if four-sevenths of the qualified voters voting at such election shall ratify the same it shall, at the end of thirty days thereafter, become the charter of such city or village as a city, and supersede any existing charter and amendments thereof; Provided, that in cities having patrol limits now established, such charter shall require a three-fourths majority vote of the qualified voters voting at such election to change the patrol limits now established. Before any city shall incorporate under this act the legislature shall prescribe by law the general limits within which such charter shall be framed. Duplicate certificates shall be made setting forth the charter proposed and its ratification, which shall be signed by the chief magistrate of said city or village and authenticated by its corporate seal. One of said certificates shall be deposited in the office of the secretary of state, and the other, after being recorded in the office of the register of deeds for the county in which such city or village lies, shall be deposited among the archives of such city or village, and all courts shall take judicial notice thereof. Such charter so deposited may be amended by proposal therefor made by a board of fifteen commissioners aforesaid, published for at least thirty days in three newspapers of general circulation in such city or village, and accepted by three-fifths of the qualified voters of such city or village voting at the next election and not otherwise; but such charter shall always be in harmony with and subject to the constitution and laws of the state of Minnesota. The legislature may prescribe the duties of the commission relative to submitting amendments of charter to the vote of the people, and shall provide that upon application of five per cent of the legal voters of any such city or village, by written petition, such commission shall submit to the vote of the people proposed amendments to such charter set forth in said petition. The board of freeholders above provided for shall be permanent, and all the vacancies by death, disability to perform duties, resignation or removal from the corporate limits, or expiration of term of office, shall be filled by appointment in the same manner as the original board was created, and said board shall always contain its full complement of members. It shall be a feature of all such charters that there shall be provided, among other things, for a mayor or chief magistrate, and a legislative body of either one or two houses; if of two houses, at least one of them shall be elected by general vote of the electors. In submitting any such charter or amendment thereto to the qualified voters of such city or village any alternate section or article may be presented for the choice of the voters, and may be voted on separately without prejudice to other articles or sections of the charter or any amendments thereto. The legislature may provide general laws relating to affairs of cities, the application of which may be limited to cities of over fifty thousand inhabitants, or to cities of fifty and not less than twenty thousand inhabitants, or to cities of twenty and not less than ten thousand inhabitants, or to cities of ten thousand inhabitants or less, which shall apply equally to all such cities of either class, and which shall be paramount while in force to the provisions relating to the same matter included in the local charter herein provided for. But no local charter, provision or ordinance passed thereunder shall supersede any general law of the state defining or punishing crimes or misdemeanors."

If amended this section will read as follows:

"Section 36. Any city or village in this state may frame a charter for its own government as a city consistent with and subject to the laws of this state, as follows: The legislature shall provide, under such restrictions as it deems proper, for a board of fifteen freeholders, who shall be and for the past five years shall have been qualified voters thereof, to be appointed by the district judges of the judicial district in which the city or village is situated, as the legislature may determine, for a term in no event to exceed six years, which board shall, within six months after its appointment, return to the chief magistrate of said city or village a draft of said charter, signed by the members of said board, or a majority thereof. Such charter shall be submitted to the qualified voters of such city or village at the next election thereafter, and if four-sevenths of the qualified voters voting at such election shall ratify the same it shall, at the end of thirty days thereafter, become the charter of such city or village as a city, and supersede any existing charter and amendments thereof; Provided, that in cities having patrol limits now established, such charter shall require a three-fourths majority vote of the qualified voters voting at such election to change the patrol limits now established. Before any city shall incorporate under this act the legislature shall prescribe by law the general limits within which such charter shall be framed. Duplicate certificates shall be made setting forth the charter proposed and its ratification, which shall be signed by the chief magistrate of said city or village and authenticated by its corporate seal. One of said certificates shall be deposited in the office of the secretary of state, and the other, after being recorded in the office of the register of deeds for the county in which such city or village lies, shall be deposited among the archives of such city or village, and all courts shall take judicial notice thereof. Such charter so deposited may be amended by proposal therefor made by a board of fifteen commissioners aforesaid, published for at least ten days in any daily newspaper of general circulation in such city or village, or if there be no daily newspaper of general circulation in such city or village then for two successive weeks in a weekly newspaper of general circulation in such city or village, and accepted by three-fifths of the qualified voters of such city or village voting at the next election and not otherwise; but such charter shall always be in harmony with and subject to the constitution and laws of the state of Minnesota. The legislature may prescribe the duties of the commission relative to submitting amendments of charter to the vote of the people, and shall provide that upon application of five per cent of the legal voters of any such city or village, by written petition, such commission shall submit to the vote of the people proposed amendments to such charter set forth in said petition. The board of freeholders above provided for shall be permanent, and all the vacancies by death, disability to perform duties, resignation or removal from the corporate limits, or expiration of term of office, shall be filled by appointment in the same manner as the original board was created, and said board shall always contain its full complement of members. It shall be a feature of all such charters that there shall be provided, among other things, for a mayor or chief magistrate, and a legislative body of either one or two houses; if of two houses, at least one of them shall be elected by general vote of the electors. In submitting any such charter or amendment thereto to the qualified voters of such city or village any alternate section or article may be presented for the choice of the voters, and may be voted on separately without prejudice to other articles or sections of the charter or any amendments thereto. The legislature may provide general laws relating to affairs of cities, the applications of which may be limited to cities over fifty thousand inhabitants, or to cities of fifty and not less than twenty thousand inhabitants, or to cities of twenty and not less than ten thousand inhabitants, or to cities of ten thousand inhabitants or less, which shall apply equally to all such cities of either class, and which shall be paramount while in force to the provisions relating to the same matter included in the local charter herein provided for. But no local charter, provision or ordinance passed thereunder shall supersede any general law of the state defining or punishing crimes or misdemeanors."

The purpose of said amendment is to change the number of newspapers in which proposed amendments of home rule charters of cities and villages must be published and the duration of such publications.

The effect of said amendments, if adopted, will be to authorize the publication of proposed amendments to the home rule charter of a city or village for ten days in one daily newspaper of general circulation therein, if there be such a newspaper, or once each week for two successive weeks in a weekly newspaper of general circulation therein, if there be no such daily newspaper, instead of publishing the same for thirty days in three newspapers of general circulation therein as now required.

The state and (or) any/of its political subdivisions, if and whenever authorized by the legislature, may contract debts and pledge the public credit for and engage in any work reasonably tending to prevent or abate forest fires, including the compulsory clearing and improvement of wild lands (whether belonging to the public or privately owned) and the assessment against such lands of the value of all benefits so conferred and the payment of damages so sustained in excess of such benefits.

Yours respectfully,
CLIFFORD L. HILTON,
Attorney General.

LETTER FROM LOCAL GIRL DESCRIBES A MALAYSIAN RESORT

Mildred Malberg, Missionary Worker at Singapore, Tells About Seaside Visit.

Outing at a summer resort near Singapore in southern Asia differs considerably from northern Minnesota, judging from a letter received by The Times from Miss Mildred Malberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Malberg of Excell township, six miles north of Thief River Falls, who is engaged in missionary work in Malaysia for the M. E. Conference of Minnesota. Miss Malberg, who is a graduate of the Warren high school and St. Cloud Normal school, is spending her third year in the mission fields and may return to her home here in the course of the coming winter or spring. She was first stationed at Penang but was later transferred to Singapore. The intense heat makes it very essential that the foreign missionary workers, not accustomed to the climate, spend brief periods at the seaside resorts, as is described in Miss Malberg's letter. She is a subscriber of The Times and appreciates the home news altho rather belated.

Following is the letter, dated Aug. 12:

For weeks we had been thinking about going to the Seaside and at last the eventful day arrived. It was Monday, Aug. 11. The day was a bright one. I had some work to finish before leaving for a month so I planned to get up at four to get it done. I got up as I planned to and found that the girls were up too, that is some of them were. At seven o'clock the first lorry (motor truck) arrived and all of the barong (things) were piled on. Three of the servants went out with the load. Each one of us had to take what clothing we would need for a month at the seaside, bedding consisting of mat, pillow, and blanket; and also the food which the matron had spent days buying. We can get fresh fish and very few things out here. The girls waited patiently for the second lorry to come and after some telephoning it came when it was nearly nine o'clock. I didn't mind for I had plenty to do to keep me busy. Fifty-two girls and eight grown persons got into the lorry. I scarcely know how it was done but the matron (Chinese) who is a wonder to me got us all in. We were packed! We must have been an interesting sight for Mrs. Mayer, who lives next door and who had heard plenty of noise that morning, came out and took a snap-shot of us as we passed her place. We waved good-bye to all of our friends as we went down Mount Sophia. Just as I asked to make sure that we had taken along the medicine that we had brot specially for the month's holiday at the seaside the lorry stopped and the medicine basket was in flames on the road. It had been put in front by the driver's feet and had caught fire from the engine. We managed to save one or two things from the burning mass. That was the only mishap the whole day and is scarcely worth mentioning.

After riding for forty minutes we turned off the seaside road and got into the beautiful country. On both sides of the road were large trees. We went up and down small hills, at least that is what the girls called them. After riding for an hour and a half we reached the Changi river. There our barong (things) were being put into a small boat to be taken to the house in which we are staying. The servants had some job carrying the heavy rice bags down the river bank and putting them into the small boat. They managed it very well for only one bag got the least bit wet.

We walked to the bungalow which is nearly a mile from where the lorry had to stop. First we crossed a bridge and walked to the sea and then followed the shore until we got to bungalow of Mr. Tan Cheng Kee. The one in which we are staying is a short distance behind the one he is occupying at the present time.

Our bungalow is right over the river and is built on piles. It was originally intended for a boat house but was enlarged and used for a bungalow. It is a very fine house for us to be in even if it does shake every time one of us walks across the floor. Yesterday afternoon when I was going to sleep I felt as if I were being rocked to sleep for the house shook so. I am wondering what it will be like if a heavy storm comes up. The girls stayed out here a month last year and every thing was all right so I expect it will be quite safe this year. The house is long and divided into two parts; half of the length is divided into three rooms and the other half which is a veranda is right over the river. At night the girls put their mats on the floor of the veranda and sleep there. They scurry to get the place next to the railing. I have a room for myself and stores. The walls are of board so the house is not as cool as Nind Home which has thick brick walls. Besides there are numerous coconut trees which shut off the sea breeze, so it is hotter here for me than it is in Nind Home but I have plenty of time to rest so I'll be able to stand it. This afternoon the sun was as dazzling on the white sand as it is on snow at home.

I wish I could really picture this place but I know I can't. The best I can do is to mention a few things. Across the river are low jungle trees with roots extending into the water like net work. On the side where we are, coconut trees have been planted. Many of them are young so that the lowest fronds are within our reach. Nearest the sea they are tall and stately for they are older.

We can see the sunset through the coconut trees, hear the birds and insects of the jungle calling, and watch the tide come in and go out. Off in the distance we can see a small Malay house built on poles. Several times a day Malays go by in small boats. Some of them carry firewood. I have been told that crocodiles have been seen in the river but I don't expect to see any. Years ago Mr. Tan Cheng Kee shot wild pigs on his place but none are to be found now.

Mr. Tan Cheng Kee, the owner of this ten-acre piece of land was the first pupil in the Methodist Boys' School in Singapore under Mr. Oldham who later became Bishop. He was one of the first five boarders in Oldham Hall where he stayed for six years. He mentioned that the only game they were allowed to play was marbles; now they have all sorts of sports at Oldham Hall, tennis, badminton, football, and whatever else they want. One thing that made an impression on him is the cold food they were served on Sundays for the servants were not permitted to work that day. He thought that rather hard. Remembering the teaching he received in school he later became a teetotaler. He likes the free and easy way of Americans and thinks that English are snobs burdened with conventionalities. Two of his nephews have been educated in America. He has now retired from active business and desires to spend the rest of his life at his seaside place which is fourteen miles from Singapore. His hobby is fishing.

Last night he hired three Malay dancing girls to entertain us. With them were three musicians; a man who played a violin, one who played a Malay drum, and a woman who struck a gong at regular intervals. Dancing consisted of walking around taking small steps and beating time to the music if it might be called that. With that were different movements of arms, head, and body. Sometimes a scarf or handkerchief was used to vary it a little. Dialogs and singing of songs in falsetto voice was an important part of the dancing. They performed from seven o'clock until ten thirty. Under the coconut trees sat a group of Malay women and children huddled together. Even tho it was away from the crowd and they were scarcely to be seen, the Malay head covering, sarong, was worn. Strolling back and forth were Malay men. These people no doubt enjoyed the performance a great deal more than I did. Malay dancing women are hired to perform at Chinese (non-Christian) weddings and at birthday parties.

We go swimming twice a day when the tide is favorable. Many of the girls know how to swim for nearly every year the Nind Home girls have spent their midsummer holiday at some seaside place. After four weeks we shall be going back to Singapore.

Farm Bureau Gets Views Of Minnesota Lawmakers

The Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation has made a survey of the attitude of members and prospective members of the Minnesota State legislature toward proposed State and Federal constitutional amendments and other measures which, in view of the coming election, are engaging public attention. The results of this survey should be of interest to voters.

The attitude of legislators was sought on four different questions: (1) the proposed amendment to the state constitution giving the legislature power to impose a tax on gasoline, the proceeds to be used for road purposes; (2) the proposed amendment to the state constitution authorizing the establishment of state owned terminal grain elevators at Minneapolis and Duluth; (3) the county area test plan for tuberculosis control; and (4) the proposed amendment to the federal constitution giving Congress the power to limit, regulate and prohibit the employment of persons under 18 years of age.

Early returns from this survey are as follows: Forty-two legislators favored the gas tax amendment and three were against it; thirty-six favored state owned elevators—six of them conditionally—and three were opposed; thirty-three favored the area test for tuberculosis—six of them conditionally—and six were opposed; seventeen favored the labor amendment and twenty-five opposed it.

High Blood Pressure
Is due to hardening of the walls of the blood vessels and they are not able to contract or expand fully. The kidneys have been overworked and are not capable of eliminating all of the impurities from the blood hence the arteries and veins have been poisoned and hardening is the result. The distance from the heart upward is for less than downward hence the resistance upward is less and high blood pressure is the result. Chiropractic adjustment for the kidneys and the nerves which control the blood vessels will get results where other methods have failed.

We are Told that Disease is something from outside that somehow gets inside, and makes us sick.
The favorite delusion at present is that somewhere in the food we eat, the water we drink, or the air we breathe, there is a little micro-organism called a germ, that causes disease.
The truth is that we live in a sea of life; that every morsel of food, every drop of water and every breath of air is teeming with germs that yield their lives to yours. If germs caused disease the human race would long since have perished from the earth.
No satisfactory explanation of why different members of the same family or community suffer from different diseases has ever been vouchsafed by those who expound the environmental theory of disease.
Why does one person in a family suffer from headaches, another from a bronchial affection, a third from stomach trouble, a fourth from rheumatism, a fifth from sciatica, and a sixth from blindness?
Can you explain it from the standpoint of germs, food, air, water or any other part of the environment?
"Like causes produce like results," is an axiom of science. How, then, if disease is produced by the environment, can you explain different diseases in the same environment?
Susceptibility?
Well, why is one person susceptible and another not susceptible?
What makes people susceptible?

Attorney General

St. Paul, Minn., June 14, 1924.

HONORABLE MIKE HOLM,
Secretary of State, Capitol.

SIR: As required by section 16, General Statutes 1913, I have the honor to furnish you herewith a statement of the purposes and effects of all amendments proposed to the constitution of the state of Minnesota by the legislature of 1923 and which are to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in 1924.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 1.

Chapter 147, Session Laws of Minnesota for the year 1923 proposes an amendment to section 5 of article 9 of the constitution of the state. The section now reads as follows:

"Section 5. For the purpose of defraying extraordinary expenditures, the state may contract public debts, but such debts shall never, in the aggregate, exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; every such debt shall be authorized by law, for some single object, to be distinctly specified therein; and no such law shall take effect until it shall have been passed by the vote of two-thirds of the members of each branch of the legislature, to be recorded by yeas and nays on the journals of each house respectively; and every such law shall levy a tax annually sufficient to pay the annual interest of such debt, and also a tax sufficient to pay the principal of such debt within ten years from the final passage of such law, and shall specially appropriate the proceeds of such taxes to the payment of such principal and interest; and such appropriation and taxes shall not be repealed, postponed or diminished, until the principal and interest of such debt shall have been wholly paid. The state shall never contract any debts for works of internal improvement, or be a party in carrying on such works, except in cases where grants of land or other property shall have been made to the state, especially dedicated by the grant to specific purposes, and in such cases the state shall devote thereto the avails of such grants, and may pledge or appropriate the revenues derived from such works in aid of their completion."

If amended this section will read as follows:

"Section 5. For the purpose of defraying extraordinary expenditures, the state may contract public debts, but such debts shall never, in the aggregate, exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; every such debt shall be authorized by law, for some single object, to be distinctly specified therein; and no such law shall take effect until it shall have been passed by the vote of two-thirds of the members of each branch of the legislature, to be recorded by yeas and nays on the journals of each house respectively; and every such law shall levy a tax annually sufficient to pay the annual interest of such debt, and also a tax sufficient to pay the principal of such debt within ten years from the final passage of such law, and shall specially appropriate the proceeds of such taxes to the payment of such principal and interest; and such appropriation and taxes shall not be repealed, postponed, or diminished, until the principal and interest of such debt shall have been wholly paid. The state shall never contract any debts for works of internal improvement, or be a party in carrying on such works, except as authorized by section 16 of article 9 and by article 16 of this constitution; but it may levy an excise tax upon any substance, material, fluid, force or other means or instrumentality, or the business of dealing in, selling or producing any or all thereof, used or useful in producing or generating power for propelling motor or other vehicles used on the public highways of this state, and shall place the proceeds of such tax in the trunk highway fund provided for in section 2 of said article 16 and further except in cases where grants of land or other property shall have been made to the state, especially dedicated by the grant to specific purposes, and in such cases the state shall devote thereto the avails of such grants, and may pledge or appropriate the revenues derived from such works in aid of their completion."

The purpose of the proposed amendment is to confer express authority upon the legislature to provide a special tax on gasoline or other substances used, or useful, for the propulsion of motor vehicles on the public highways of the state or on the business of dealing in, selling or producing such substances. The money so raised by such tax to be used for the construction and maintenance of trunk highways.

The effect of the amendment, if adopted, will be that the cost of the construction and maintenance of trunk highways, the whole of which is now paid by a direct tax on motor vehicles supplemented by federal aid, will be borne in part by the revenue derived from such gasoline tax, [illegible] the legislature may impose.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 2.

Chapter 345, Session Laws of Minnesota for the year 1923 proposes an amendment of section 36 of article 4 of the constitution of the state. The section now reads as follows:

"Section 36. Any city or village in this state may frame a charter for its own government as a city consistent with and subject to the laws of this state, as follows: The legislature shall provide, under such restrictions as it deems proper, for a board of fifteen freeholders, who shall be and for the past five years shall have been qualified voters thereof, to be appointed by the district judges of the judicial district in which the city or village is situated, as the legislature may determine, for a term in no event to exceed six years, which board shall, within six months after its appointment, return to the chief magistrate of said city or village a draft of said charter, signed by the members of said board, or a majority thereof. Such charter shall be submitted to the qualified voters of such city or village at the next election thereafter, and if four-sevenths of the qualified voters voting at such election shall ratify the same it shall, at the end of thirty days thereafter, become the charter of such city or village as a city, and supersede any existing charter and amendments thereof; Provided, that in cities having patrol limits now established, such charter shall require a three-fourths majority vote of the qualified voters voting at such election to change the patrol limits now established. Before any city shall incorporate under this act the legislature shall prescribe by law the general limits within which such charter shall be framed. Duplicate certificates shall be made setting forth the charter proposed and its ratification, which shall be signed by the chief magistrate of said city or village and authenticated by its corporate seal. One of said certificates shall be deposited in the office of the secretary of state, and the other, after being recorded in the office of the register of deeds for the county in which such city or village lies, shall be deposited among the archives of such city or village, and all courts shall take judicial notice thereof. Such charter so deposited may be amended by proposal therefor made by a board of fifteen commissioners aforesaid, published for at least thirty days in three newspapers of general circulation in such city or village, and accepted by three-fifths of the qualified voters of such city or village voting at the next election and not otherwise; but such charter shall always be in harmony with and subject to the constitution and laws of the state of Minnesota. The legislature may prescribe the duties of the commission relative to submitting amendments of charter to the vote of the people, and shall provide that upon application of five per cent of the legal voters of any such city or village, by written petition, such commission shall submit to the vote of the people proposed amendments to such charter set forth in said petition. The board of freeholders above provided for shall be permanent, and all the vacancies by death, disability to perform duties, resignation or removal from the corporate limits, or expiration of term of office, shall be filled by appointment in the same manner as the original board was created, and said board shall always contain its full complement of members. It shall be a feature of all such charters that there shall be provided, among other things, for a mayor or chief magistrate, and a legislative body of either one or two houses; if of two houses, at least one of them shall be elected by general vote of the electors. In submitting any such charter or amendment thereto to the qualified voters of such city or village any alternate section or article may be presented for the choice of the voters, and may be voted on separately without prejudice to other articles or sections of the charter or any amendments thereto. The legislature may provide general laws relating to affairs of cities, the application of which may be limited to cities of over fifty thousand inhabitants, or to cities of fifty and not less than twenty thousand inhabitants, or to cities of twenty and not less than ten thousand inhabitants, or to cities of ten thousand inhabitants or less, which shall apply equally to all such cities of either class, and which shall be paramount while in force to the provisions relating to the same matter included in the local charter herein provided for. But no local charter, provision or ordinance passed thereunder shall supersede any general law of the state defining or punishing crimes or misdemeanors."

If amended this section will read as follows:

"Section 36. Any city or village in this state may frame a charter for its own government as a city consistent with and subject to the laws of this state, as follows: The legislature shall provide, under such restrictions as it deems proper, for a board of fifteen freeholders, who shall be and for the past five years shall have been qualified voters thereof, to be appointed by the district judges of the judicial district in which the city or village is situated, as the legislature may determine, for a term in no event to exceed six years, which board shall, within six months after its appointment, return to the chief magistrate of said city or village a draft of said charter, signed by the members of said board, or a majority thereof. Such charter shall be submitted to the qualified voters of such city or village at the next election thereafter, and if four-sevenths of the qualified voters voting at such election shall ratify the same it shall, at the end of thirty days there-after always contain its full complement of members. It shall be a feature of all such charters that there shall be provided, among other things, for a mayor or chief magistrate, and a legislative body of either one or two houses; if of two houses, at least one of them shall be elected by general vote of the electors. In submitting any such charter or amendment thereto to the qualified voters of such city or village any alternate section or article may be presented for the choice of the voters, and may be voted on separately without prejudice to other articles or sections of the charter or any amendments thereto. The legislature may provide general laws relating to affairs of cities, the applications of which may be limited to cities over fifty thousand inhabitants, or to cities of fifty and not less than twenty thousand inhabitants, or to cities of twenty and not less than ten thousand inhabitants, or to cities of ten thousand inhabitants or less, which shall apply equally to all such cities of either class, and which shall be paramount while in force to the provisions relating to the same matter included in the local charter herein provided for. But no local charter, provision or ordinance passed thereunder shall supersede any general law of the state defining or punishing crimes or misdemeanors."

The purpose of said amendment is to change the number of newspapers in which proposed amendments of home rule charters of cities and villages must be published and the duration of such publications.

The effect of said amendments, if adopted, will be to authorize the publication of proposed amendments to the home rule charter of a city or village for ten days in one daily newspaper of general circulation therein, if there be such a newspaper, or once each week for two successive weeks in a weekly newspaper of general circulation therein, if there be no such daily newspaper, instead of publishing the same for thirty days in three newspapers of general circulation therein as now required.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 3.

Chapter 415 Session Laws Minnesota for the year 1923 proposes an amendment to the constitution of Minnesota by adding thereto a new article, to be known as Article 17, to read as follows:

Article 17.

"Section 1. The legislature by law may establish one state owned public terminal grain elevator at Duluth, Minnesota, and one at Minneapolis, Minnesota, acquired by purchase, lease or exercise of the right of eminent domain, sites and facilities therefor, and provide for the construction, maintenance and operation thereof by the state.

Section 2. The legislature by law may provide for the issue and sale of bonds of the state in such amount as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of Section 1 of this article.

Section 3. Any and all provisions of the constitution of the state of Minnesota inconsistent with the provisions of this article are hereby repealed, so far, but only so far, as the same prohibit or limit the power of the legislature to enact laws authorizing or permitting the doing of the things hereinbefore authorized."

The purpose of said amendment is to expressly empower the legislature to establish, construct, operate and maintain two state owned public terminal elevators.

The effect of said amendment, if adopted, will be to empower the legislature to acquire by purchase, lease or the exercise of the right of eminent domain sites for one state owned public terminal elevator at Duluth, Minnesota, and another at Minneapolis, Minnesota, to establish, construct, operate and maintain said elevators, to issue and sell bonds of the state in such amount as may be necessary to acquire said sites and to establish, construct, operate and maintain said elevators, and to repeal all provisions of the state constitution inconsistent with said amendment.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 4.

Chapter 450, Session Laws of Minnesota for the year 1923 proposes an amendment to the constitution of the state of Minnesota by adding thereto a new article, to succeed article 16, and to be appropriately numbered, to read as follows:

Article ....

"Section 1. Laws may be enacted for the purpose of encouraging and promoting forestation and reforestation of lands in this state, whether owned by private persons or the public, including irrepealable provisions for definite and limited taxation of such lands during a term of years, and for a yield tax at or after the end of such term, upon the timber and other forest products so grown.

"Section 2. Any and all provisions of the constitution of the state of Minnesota inconsistent with the provisions of this article, are hereby repealed, so far, but only so far, as the same prohibit or limit the power of the legislature to enact laws authorizing or permitting the doing of the things hereinbefore authorized."

The purpose of said amendment is to empower the legislature to enact laws to encourage and promote forestation and reforestation of publicly and privately owned lands.

The effect of said amendment, if adopted, will be to empower the legislature to enact laws to encourage and promote forestation and reforestation of publicly and privately owned lands, and to that end to enact irrepealable

Mildred Malberg, Missionary Worker at Singapore, Tells About Seaside Visit.

Outing at a summer resort near Singapore in southern Asia differs considerably from northern Minnesota, judging from a letter received by The Times from Miss Mildred Malberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Malberg of Excell township, six miles north of Thief River Falls, who is engaged in missionary work in Malaysia for the M. E. Conference of Minnesota. Miss Malberg, who is a graduate of the Warren high school and St. Cloud Normal school, is spending her third year in the mission fields and may return to her home here in the course of the coming winter or spring. She was first stationed at Penang but was later transferred to Singapore. The intense heat makes it very essential that the foreign missionary workers, not accustomed to the climate, spend brief periods at the seaside resorts, as is described in Miss Malberg's letter. She is a subscriber of The Times and appreciates the home news altho rather belated.

Following is the letter, dated Aug. 12:

For weeks we had been thinking about going to the Seaside and at last the eventful day arrived. It was Monday, Aug. 11. The day was a bright one. I had some work to finish before leaving for a month so I planned to get up at four to get it done. I got up as I planned to and found that the girls were up too, that is some of them were. At seven o'clock the first lorry (motor truck) arrived and all of the barong (things) were piled on. Three of the servants went out with the load. Each one of us had to take what clothing we would need for a month at the seaside, bedding consisting of mat, pillow, and blanket; and also the food which the matron had spent days buying. We can get fresh fish and very few things out here. The girls waited patiently for the second lorry to come and after some telephoning it came when it was nearly nine o'clock. I didn't mind for I had plenty to do to keep me busy. Fifty-two girls and eight grown persons got into the lorry. I scarcely know how it was done but the matron (Chinese) who is a wonder to me got us all in. We were packed! We must have been an interesting sight for Mrs. Muyer, who lives next door and who had heard plenty of noise that morning, came out and took a snap-shot of us as we passed her place. We waved good-bye to all of our friends as we went down Mount Sophia. Just as I asked to make sure that we had taken along the medicine that we had brot specially for the month's holiday at the seaside the lorry stopped and the medicine basket was in flames on the road. It had been put in front by the driver's feet and had caught fire from the engine. We managed to save one or two things from the burning mass. That was the only mishap the whole day and is scarcely worth mentioning.

After riding for forty minutes we turned off the seaside road and got into the beautiful country. On both sides of the road were large trees. We went up and down small hills, at least that is what the girls called them. After riding for an hour and a half we reached the Changi river. There our barong (things) were being put into a small boat to be taken to the house in which we are staying. The servants had some job carrying the heavy rice bags down the river bank and putting them into the small boat. They managed it very well for only one bag got the least bit wet.

We walked to the bungalow which is nearly a mile from where the lorry had to stop. First we crossed a bridge and walked to the sea and then followed the shore until we got to bungalow of Mr. Tan Cheng Kee. The one in which we are staying is a short distance behind the one he is occupying at the present time.

Our bungalow is right over the river and is built on piles. It was originally intended for a boat house but was enlarged and used for a bungalow. It is a very fine house for us to be in even if it does shake every time one of us walks across the floor. Yesterday afternoon when I was going to sleep I felt as if I were being rocked to sleep for the house shook so. I am wondering what it will be like if a heavy storm comes up. The girls stayed out here a month last year and every thing was all right so I expect it will be quite safe this year. The house is long and divided into two parts; half of the length is divided into three rooms and the other half which is a veranda is right over the river. At night the girls put their mats on the floor of the veranda and sleep there. They scurry to get the place next to the railing. I have a room for myself and stores. The walls are of board so the house is not as cool as Nind Home which has thick brick walls. Besides there are numerous coconut trees which shut off the sea breeze, so it is hotter here for me than it is in Nind Home but I have plenty of time to rest so I'll be able to stand it. This afternoon the sun was as dazzling on the white sand as it is on snow at home.

I wish I could really picture this place but I know I can't. The best I can do is to mention a few things. Across the river are low jungle trees with roots extending into the water like net work. On the side where we are, coconut trees have been planted. Many of them are young so that the lowest fronds are within our reach. Nearest the sea they are tall and stately for they are older.

We can see the sunset through the coconut trees, hear the birds and insects of the jungle calling, and watch the tide come in and go out. Off in the distance we can see a small Malay house built on poles. Several times a day Malays go by in small boats. Some of them carry firewood. I have been told that crocodiles have been seen in the river but I don't expect to see any. Years ago Mr. Tan Cheng Kee shot wild pigs on his place but none are to be found now.

Mr. Tan Cheng Kee, the owner of this ten-acre piece of land was the first pupil in the Methodist Boys' School in Singapore under Mr. Oldham who later became Bishop. He was one of the first five boarders in Oldham Hall where he stayed for six years. He mentioned that the only game they were allowed to play was marbles; now they have all sorts of sports at Oldham Hall, tennis, badminton, football, and whatever else they want. One thing that made an impression on him is the cold food they were served on Sundays for the servants were not permitted to work that day. He thought that rather hard. Remembering the teaching he received in school he later became a teetotaler. He likes the free and easy way of Americans and thinks that English are snobs burdened with conventionalities. Two of his nephews have been educated in America. He has now retired from active business and desires to spend the rest of his life at his seaside place which is fourteen miles from Singapore. His hobby is fishing.

Last night he hired three Malay dancing girls to entertain us. With them were three musicians; a man who played a violin, one who played a Malay drum, and a woman who struck a gong at regular intervals. Dancing consisted of walking around taking small steps and beating time to the music if it might be called that. With that were different movements of arms, head, and body. Sometimes a scarf or handkerchief was used to vary it a little. Dialogs and singing of songs in falsetto voice was an important part of the dancing. They performed from seven o'clock until ten thirty. Under the coconut trees sat a group of Malay women and children huddled together. Even tho it was away from the crowd and they were scarcely to be seen, the Malay head covering, sarong, was worn. Strolling back and forth were Malay men. These people no doubt enjoyed the performance a great deal more than I did. Malay dancing women are hired to perform at Chinese (non-Christian) weddings and at birthday parties.

We go swimming twice a day when the tide is favorable. Many of the girls know how to swim for nearly every year the Nind Home girls have spent their midsummer holiday at some seaside place. After four weeks we shall be going back to Singapore.

There's only one thing we don't like about Monarch Ranges. They last an unusually long time, and one to a household is about all we can hope to sell. A satisfied customer is worth a lot more to us than the profit on any one sale.

High Blood Pressure

Is due to hardening of the walls of the blood vessels and they are not able to contract or expand fully. The kidneys have been over-worked and are not capable of eliminating all of the impurities from the blood hence the arteries and veins have been poisoned and hardening is the result. The distance from the heart upward is far less than downward hence the resistance upward is less and high blood pressure is the result. Chiropractic adjustment for the kidneys and the nerves which control the blood vessels will get results where other methods have failed.

We are Told that Disease is something from outside that somehow gets inside, and makes us sick.

The favorite delusion at present is that somewhere in the food we eat, the water we drink, or the air we breathe, there is a little micro-organism called a germ, that causes disease.

The truth is that we live in a sea of life; that every morsel of food, every drop of water and every breath of air is teeming with germs that yield their lives to yours. If germs caused disease the human race would long since have perished from the earth.

No satisfactory explanation of why different members of the same family or community suffer from different diseases has ever been vouchsafed by those who expound the environmental theory of disease.

Why does one person in a family suffer from headaches, another from a bronchial affection, a third from stomach trouble, a fourth from rheumatism, a fifth from sciatica, and a sixth from blindness?

Can you explain it from the standpoint of germs, food, air, water or any other part of the environment?

"Like causes produce like results," is an axiom of science. How, then, if disease is produced by the environment, can you explain different diseases in the same environment?

Susceptibility?

Well, why is one person susceptible and another not susceptible?

What makes people susceptible?

SCHOOL SPIRIT

When you are at a football game you see twenty-two players out on the field fighting to put the pigskin oval across the opponent's goal line for the honor and glory of their school. Little do they care for themselves—their uppermost thought is to put that ball over! On the sidelines are two groups of students, each group yelling for its own team. This is school spirit. Not only can this spirit be shown in sports, but also in debating, declamation and all the other high school activities. Lincoln high school should not be lacking in this spirit.

Every student should attend the meeting of his or her class and in this way, help to promote the school spirit. We should all get behind and push every activity that Lincoln High undertakes.

Pep Meeting Held Friday

A pep meeting was held in the assembly last Friday for the purpose of arousing enthusiasm for the Warren game held at Warren on Saturday.

A number of speeches were given by different members of the football team. The first one was given by Captain "Mike" Parenteau followed by Lloyd Bennes, Arthur Penney and Lawrence Mulry. Lawrence favored the audience with a silent discourse. This must have been a decided hit with the students as hearty applause was given the "speaker." Principal Morris Bye commented on the speech saying, "Sometimes silence is eloquent."

After this the assembly gave a few rousing yells, led by Emmett Shanahan.

Yell Leader Elected

A short assembly was called on Wednesday forenoon for the purpose of electing a yell leader and also to hold a short pep meeting. Emmett Shanahan was unanimously elected yell leader. After the election Mr. Bye called on Emmett to lead the students in a few yells for the team and the different members. With Emmett as the leader the students should be able to do some yelling at the games this year.

Plenty of Fuel

With an abundance of coal reported on the Duluth-Superior docks, there is little likelihood that a fuel shortage will be experienced in Thief River Falls or adjacent districts this winter, according to the belief of local dealers. People are now busy filling their coal cellars with a winter supply.

H. S. GLEE CLUBS TO ENTERTAIN VISITING INSTRUCTORS HERE

Grade Pupils to Give a Group of Folk Dances Representing Foreign Countries

It is noted with interest that the Lincoln high school organizations and staff members are figuring prominently in the convention program of the Northwestern Division of the Minnesota Educational association which is being held here this week, October 8, 9 and 10.

This morning the high school Boys' Glee club gave a number of selections and in the afternoon the music will be furnished by the high school orchestra, while pupils of the public schools under the direction of Maude L. Johnson and Clara Baanrud will give folk dances and folk games of foreign countries.

Songs by the high school Girls' Glee club will be given on Friday morning. All community singing will be directed by Miss Johnson. A demonstration in music will be presented by Miss Johnson under the Music and Art Round Table Discussions. C. W. Pope is chairman of the "Agricultural and Industrial Training Discussion," while Miss Eva Earl is chairman of "Home Economics." "The Place of Definite Gymnastics as a part in Physical Education" is the problem Miss Baumann will discuss. Mrs. Blanche Korstad will give a talk on "Classroom Mathematics Technique", and Miss Mildred R. Nelson will speak on "English in Science and Mathematics."

The high school is proud of the fact that so many local people are on this convention program and feel that their efforts will go a long way in making the convention a complete success in every way.

First Business Meeting Held by Prowler Staff

Thursday evening at the high school the staff that has been selected to edit the 1925 "Prowler" held its first business meeting. The heads of the various departments gave short talks on the importance of everyone taking a cooperative attitude in the coming work. Each department seems to be so set on its particular undertaking the best it can possibly be done that it will be a hard task to determine which section of the annual will be the best. As the staff will soon learn, it is no easy matter to put out an annual similar to that put out by preceding Senior classes, and unless every member is willing to do his utmost in the work, the highest degree of success cannot be attained.

Following the talks, Lawrence Mickelson, Senior class advisor, gave a brief outline of the work each department will have in hand and stressed the point of starting early.

Personals

A large number of students motored to Warren Saturday to attend the game.

Misses Mary Alexander and Lillian Kron visited at the home of the latter at Viking during the week end.

The White Swan Patrol of Girl Scouts had a picnic supper in Lovers' Lane last Tuesday evening.

Miss Clara Gullingsrud of Gully visited the Shorthand I class Monday morning.

A Tragedy

Sunshine White stopped. To his ears came the faint click of ivory on ivory. The inspiring sounds issued from the realm of glory commonly known as "Jones' Soft (?) Drink Parlor and African Golf Course."

Sunshine reflected; he had two dollars lately deposited in his ebony hand by a white person to whom he had delivered the laundry and he could see the two dollars change to ten by the simple process of rolling two dotted ivories.

Thinking of the injuries his 200 pound wife would bestow upon him if he failed to produce the cold cash, he entered the hall and slowly gazed around and feared that his eyes might encounter Shamus O'Brien who lately had expressed his desire to cut Sunshine "ear to ear" with a Durham-Duplex unsafety. He was safe. Jim Bludso and "Barney Google" were the only occupants of the front section. They were in a heated argument over the respective merits of Jack Farpo and Luis Dempsey.

The rear (game) section was doing a rushing business. Lenney Beonard, a boxer from the U. S. Crating Co., was rolling "That Dixie pair of dice." Van Camp had just sold the Ford Co., 3,600 cans and had deposited the entire sum in the game. Archie Jiggs, Dinty Moore, and Pat Gregan were arguing with Clarence Darrow over a two-bit debt. Clarence said he didn't have to pay it as he was mentally ill at the time he lost. But Jiggs said that if he didn't pay he would be physically ill when he left. Clarence only laughed and in a brief space of time he was "drifting back to dreamland."

In one corner the "Leopold and Loeb club" were taking a course in scientific murdering with Jesse James and Cole Younger as instructors. The Smith Brothers were taking a post-graduate course in gunmanship and had lately taken their annual shave which made them very attractive.

Wrigley had just received a blue card for passing out gum samples to the pupils.

But otherwise all was well.

Sunshine deposited his cash in the game of chance and after considerable time he won his ten. He then treated his friends to a soft (?) drink (of the twenty-five cent variety) and departed for home.

He reached his dove cot and opening the door, he shouted "here ah am." Then he ducked. After the shower of cutlery and cooking utensils had abated, he entered and received a love pat from his adoring spouse that laid him out for ten minutes. When he awoke he found that his better nine-tenths had departed to Mme. Marie G. Black's Millinery. There to spend his hard earned money for personal adornment.

U. Specialist Advises to Grow Into Sheep Business

High prices for both wool and mutton have kept the sheep industry in the limelight the last two years and have caused a strong demand for breeding stock of all ages.

Some farmers who have had no experience as shepherds are rushing into sheep. Austin A. Dowell, livestock specialist with the agricultural extension service at University Farm, believes the best plan is to grow gradually into the business of sheep raising.

"Not every farmer can handle sheep successfully, and those without previous experience should go slowly in investing their funds in this class of stock," says Mr. Dowell. "It always pays to be conservative in a period of high prices, consequently we advise starting with a small flock of grade ewes and gradually getting into the business. By using purebred rams and keeping the best ewe lambs, it is possible to develop a high class flock at comparatively little expense."

Northwest Aggie School Has Record Enrollment

All previous enrollment records at the Northwest School of Agriculture, Crookston, were shattered when the fall term opened last week. Nearly 50 additional students who have reserved rooms at the school will come this week which will fill the quota for two of the three dormitories at the school. The girls' hall is already overcrowded making it necessary to place three students in many of the rooms. As soon as the most pressing fall farm work is done, the third dormitory will be filled. The school authorities state that one factor in the school's increased enrollment is the bounteous crop and good prices prevailing.

Plans are being made for the Aggie School home coming which will be held on October 18, when the Morris Aggies come to Crookston for the first inter-school football contest. The graduating classes from 1909 to 1924 will hold their reunions on that day. Quite a number of alumni are residents of Pennington county.

Take Blanket—Caught

Some automobile tourists evidently have the idea that hotels should supply them with blankets on the trip gratis. At least that must have been the case with a party lodging at the Ogahmah hotel one night last week. Following their departure in the morning Geo. Leimers, the proprietor missed one of the blankets from the room which they occupied and immediately called Sheriff O. L. Ihle, who in turn called the authorities north from here, as the tourists were known to be heading north. They were apprehended at Noyes, the affair costing them $12, the blanket being returned to its owner. Mr. Leimers states that instances of this sort have been quite numerous the past summer.

Minneapolis Station WCCO

The WLAG radio broadcasting station of Minneapolis is now WCCO, the letters being indicative of the Washburn-Crosby company which is co-operating with the twin cities in maintaining a station. Included in the daily program will be grain market reports, live stock quotations and other matters of commercial interest. A large number of radio receiving sets have been installed in Thief River Falls and some in the surrounding country districts since the inception of radio a short time ago, and judging from expressions many more will be added during the ensuing winter period. A set can now be obtained at a nominal price and victims of the "radio bug" are found in all classes, young and old.

WARREN TROUNCES LOCAL TEAM 21-0

Lincolnites Unable to Stop Warren's Vigorous Attack on the Line

If the Thief River high school foot ball team ever had the breaks of the game go against them, it was at the game at Warren. At the end of the first half Thief River had marched down the field, making first down time after time until they were in the very shadows of the goal posts (had the sun been shining), when the half ended. Identically the same thing happened when the locals were up to the five yard line at the end of the game. A fumble on the locals 20 yard line cost them another touchdown, making three touchdowns that the locals lost by hard luck. Every one will agree that the breaks were surely against the locals. However, Warren played a slashing game.

First Quarter

Locals received and Zeh returned ball to the 60 yard line. Bennes made 15 yards on a quick opening play and a pass from Parenteau to Penney netted 20 more. Wengeler gained 5 yards on a line smash, but fumbled the ball and Warren recovered on the 20 yard line. They began a steady procession down the field, and as the defense of the locals was unexpectedly weak, scored a touchdown. The try-for-point failed and the score was 6-0 in favor of Warren. The locals received and advanced the ball 20 yards. It was advanced several times until Bennes fumbled on the 35 yard line and Warren recovered. When the quarter ended, Warren had advanced the ball to their 35 yard line.

Second Quarter

Warren soon made their second touchdown and also made their try-or-point, making the score 13-0 in their favor. The locals again received, but were forced to punt. Warren took the ball for another touchdown, but were unable to make their extra point. The locals received and worked steadily to the goal line. They were within 10 yards of the goal line when the whistle blew ending the first half.

Third Quarter

In the second half the locals stiffened up on their defense and Warren was forced to punt shortly after receiving the ball on the kick-off. The Lincolnites again fumbled after advancing the ball past the middle of the field. Warren advanced the pigskin, but were held for downs on the 30 yard line. The locals tried some line smashes, but were forced to punt. The quarter ended with the ball in Warren's possession on the 40 yard line.

Fourth Quarter

Warren advanced the ball to within one foot of the goal line, but were held for downs. Thief River was tackled behind the goal line while trying to pass, giving Warren two points on a safety, making the score 21-0 in the Warrenites favor. The locals began to march down the field steadily until they were within 5 yards of the goal line. Then the whistle blew ending the game and giving Warren a victory with nothing on the side of Thief River.

The Lincoln team was very poor on the defense except at times during the second half. McCrum and Zeh played the best defensive game while Parenteau and Zeh were the most consistent ground gainers for the locals. On Warren's side much credit must be given Anderson who played the best of all.

Bemidji Wins Again

Bemidji high school football team defeated the Detroit eleven 21 to 0 Saturday, winning their third straight game this season. Bemidji plays here Saturday, Oct. 18, when a large turnout of local fans is assured.

Crookston Gridders Here Tomorrow

Tomorrow, Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock the Crookston high school football team will clash with the Thief River Falls boys at the fair grounds here, as a closing feature of the teachers convention which is held in the city this week. A record crowd of local and visiting football fans is expected as unusual interest is being taken in this contest.

Altho the Thief River Falls eleven was licked by the fast Warren team last week they will enter tomorrow's battle with a fighting determination to win. Coach Thune has developed an aggregation which is displaying a keen knowledge of the game. When they appear on the gridiron against Crookston they are going to show their mettle, as Crookston has a strong team, demonstrated when they held Grand Forks to a 14 to 7 score last Saturday.

Bleachers are now provided on the sidelines from which the crowds may witness the game.

Absentees Have to See Nurse

A new system has been developed in the high school for those who have been absent for more than three days. These students will have to see the school nurse before they will be admitted to school again. This ruling holds true unless the student has been excused from school on account of having some work to do. The purpose of this is to guard against the spreading of contagious diseases throughout the school.

Frosh Marshmallow Roast Postponed

A class meeting was held last Thursday, October 2, by the Freshmen. Two items of importance were discussed and it was decided that the class dues would be 25c a semester. It was also decided to have a marshmallow roast at the Tourist Park on Saturday, October 4, from 7 o'clock on. All the Freshmen teachers were invited.

The weatherman, however, objected to the picnic and caused it to rain Saturday evening so that the party was postponed.

Crookston High Beaten

Crookston high school was defeated on the gridiron by the Grand Forks Central team Saturday by a score of 14 to 7, an aerial attack being responsible for Crookston's only touchdown. A stiff battle is assured for Friday afternoon when the Thief River Falls gridders meet Crookston at the fair grounds here.

The Northwest Agricultural School team, which plays the locals Nov. 1, whipped Red Lake Falls 40 to 0 Saturday.

Commander Lindell at Warren

Department Commander Edwin Lindell of the Minnesota American Legion is scheduled to speak at Warren tonight, according to information received from Legion headquarters. He made a flight from Benson to Crookston with Major Ray Miller of the 109th aerial squadron for a noon talk to Rotarians and Legionnaires. Commander Lindell is making a speaking tour thru the state and will visit Thief River Falls in the near future relative to making plans and approving committees for the great 1925 state convention to be held in Thief River Falls.

Want High Producing Seed

As a result of the wide publicity given Alfred Flattum's yield of 105 bushels Minota oats from two bushels of seed on his farm near this city, inquiries are coming in from various parts of the state asking for seed for next year. Mr. Flattum expects to sow about 50 bushels of the new variety on his farm and will sell the rest for seed purposes. He also has a quantity of wilt resistant flax seed, which he harvested from seven acres seeded as a nurse crop for alfalfa. This variety was also developed at the Northwest Experiment Farm, Crookston, and is proving to be absolutely wilt resistant.

What can be done?" The essays are limited to 600 words.

High school students in the 11 Northwestern Minnesota counties will write on either of the following subjects: "History of the Red River Valley" or "History of any County in the Red River Valley." These essays will be limited to one thousand words. They are expected to bring out many new and interesting historical events regarding this section of the state.

Gum Chewing Aids the Teeth

You have the authority of doctors and dentists for this statement. Your own experience will prove it, if you will use WRIGLEY'S after every meal.

The following quotations from a recent work on teeth and health are worth remembering:

"The cleansing action of the gum between the teeth helps to keep them free from the particles which lodge in the crevices and cause decay."

The busy man—or woman either—rarely has time to clean the teeth after eating. Yet they should be cleaned, and

Hewing to the Line

With the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) industry begins with service and ends with profits. Service and profits are fundamentally two aspects of the same thing. The one contains the other.

A fair profit to the stockholders, a fair price to the consumers, a just industrial program for the workers, a clean attitude toward competitors and service for everybody, all the time, are merely different ways of saying: here is an industrial corporation which is successful.

Distinguished service medals are not awarded bankrupts. If an organization cannot make a profit, it cannot remain in business. If industry is made to suffer the wrongs of unnecessary investigations, fixed profits, fixed wages or any other fixed workings of business, the business will eventually be forced into bankruptcy, and the result will be a summary ending of its service to society.

Business is a living, growing, changing organism. It cannot be "fixed." You cannot animate by law. You can only restrain. And unwise restraint tends to lessen and limit production.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is carrying on with scientific efficiency. Its service to society, as a whole, is an inseparable part of its successful existence.

The Lamar, Missouri, Democrat says: "Every great and successful business does more to make happy homes, raise living standards, and place comforts and even luxuries at the doors of myriads, than all of the spouting declaimers that ever dwelt in the irridescent realms of fancy.

"Good wages could never be paid without creative genius to organize and carry on a successful business. And the secret of every big business success is to be able to sell things cheaper instead of higher.

"Our greatest benefactors are seldom recognized for what they are. If you'd tell the average man, for example, that the Standard Oil Company had done more for the human race than all of the ripsnorting sorts of discontent that ever tortured the air with their raucous clamor, he'd probably say you were joking."

The success of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is enduring only because its existence is profitable and serviceable to all with whom it comes in contact.

Grain Farmer Buys Dairy Cows

M. Schable of Arvilla, N. D., 22 miles west of Grand Forks, was in the city last week on his return from Bemidji where he purchased a carload of dairy cattle, having decided to enter the dairy industry. While in the city he had his animals tested. In a conversation with a local dairyman the North Dakota farmer stated that cream buyers, known as centralizers, at Arvilla were paying 33 cents a pound for butterfat while here the same concern were paying 36, the reason for the higher price here being laid to the local co-operative creamery.

Mrs. Eva Nelson

Funeral services for Mrs. Eva Charlotte Nelson, who died in this city Wednesday last week, were held at Warren Sunday afternoon, Rev. Winberg, pastor of the Norwegian Methodist church, officiating. Among those of this city who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Verner Nelson, the former a son of the late Mrs. Nelson, and Mrs. J. A. Wassgren.

Edward J. Werner, 75, resident of this vicinity for over 35 years, died at his home yesterday noon, Oct. 8, after a long illness from kidney trouble, the past year being confined to his bed.

Funeral arrangements are not quite complete but it is planned to hold services from the house Saturday at 1 o'clock and from the Presbyterian church at 2 o'clock.

Banking Department Issues Warning to State Bankers

Bankers throut the state are called upon to discontinue any practices which are not in accord with sound banking principles, in a letter to all state banks and trust companies by A. J. Viegel, state superintendent of banks. The letter states that during the World War nearly all bankers did many things which were not in accordance with sound banking principles, and that disastrous results followed.

Excessive loans to officers of the banks is held to have caused many bank failures and as a result the letter emphasizes that this practice must be reduced to a minimum. Other practices which do not meet with the approval of the department include: Large lines of unwarranted extensions of credit; outside loans; exchange paper; high interest rates on deposits; excessive number of banks in a locality; and the practice of a small capital stock. The letter also urges that officials of the bank, especially those who are active should be bonded in the interest of the bank and the clientele.

Season for Partridge Shortened to 15 Days

The partridge hunting season in Minnesota was curtailed to 15 days this year by an order issued Monday by Governor J. A. O. Preus, closing the season from October 31st to November 20. The season is open from October 15 to 31st. The governor's order also closed the season on does and fawns in Itasca county.

The governor's action was taken after it had been reported to him that such a course was necessary to preserve game.

Receives National Honors

O. H. Wedmer of Hibbing, advertising manager for the Itasca Bazaar, a brother of C. M. Wedmer of this city and a resident of Thief River Falls until eight years ago, won the third prize in the recent national window display contest conducted by the Congoleum Rug company of Philadelphia. Thousands of contestants entered, including some of the country's leading window decorators and some of the most famous national and international window display men, and this honor coming to Mr. Wedmer makes him one of the country's leading window decorators. A picture of the Itasca Bazaar window will appear in leading trade journals.

National Banks Must Pay.

National banks in Minnesota must pay personal property taxes on moneys and credits as assessed under the state laws, the same as private individuals, it was held in a decision filed recently in Ramsey county district court in a test case against the First National Bank of St. Paul. Most of the national banks in Minnesota have paid their taxes similarly and are awaiting the outcome of the test case, which it is expected will be appealed to the Supreme Court. The question raised was that the national banks, being depositories of United States funds, were not subject to state laws for taxation purposes, but were functioning as government institutions.

Urges Earlier Tax Payments

Tax payments are coming in slowly at the present time, according to reports from the office of County Treasurer John Gullingsrud. The last half of the real estate taxes are due by the first of November and payments could be taken care of much more easily if they came in soon, than if the taxpayers wait until the last few days when the rush is very great, Mr. Gullingsrud says. Penalty charges are added after Nov. 1.

Attend Meeting at Gr. Forks

H. E. Nelson, manager of the J. C. Penney company's store, Archie Dahl, B. H. Dickey and George Howe, employees of the company, motored to Grand Forks where they attended a meeting of J. C. Penney employees Thursday which was addressed by Dr. Short of New York. Dr. Short is a member of the educational department of the company and discussed various phases of merchandising.

Orders for Western Sheep Cancelled. Too High Priced

Applications for loans from the Agricultural Credit corporation for the purchase of sheep by Pennington county farmers have been cancelled, according to Albert Lonson, secretary of the local committee. A message was received last week stating that the western sheep which were to be bought for farmers throut this section would cost about $11 per head in Montana, making the final cost considerably more after handling and freight expenses were paid. Believing this to be too high a price to pay for farmers here, the committee advised the purchasing agent not to make any purchases for Pennington farmers. The same action has been taken in Roseau county and other communities. In some places an effort will be made to secure sheep locally.

The purchase of sheep was to be made by a committee headed by M. O. Grangard of Grand Forks, director of the livestock division of the corporation. "Prices of breeding ewes are higher than we anticipated and if they go still higher the number bought will be greatly reduced," the committee declared upon arriving in Montana. "Lamb and wool prices are so strong that there is a tendency for other sheep prices to go up too," they report.

Mint Machines Removed

Mint vending machines, which came under the ban of the Marshall county law enforcement officers recently as a result of orders by W. O. Braggans, county attorney, who declared them illegal, have been removed, according to the Warren Sheaf. Practically every town in the county had one or more of these machines, which were promptly removed at the order of the sheriff.

POULTRY MARKETING BECOMES IMPORTANT INDUSTRY IN T. R. F.

Center For Poultry Market in Large Territory—Growing Industry Here

Thief River Falls is rapidly becoming the poultry marketing center for Northwestern Minnesota and hundreds of farmers in this section are now raising poultry which ultimately will find its way to this city to be shipped on to the eastern markets. The best of facilities for the handling of the birds and eggs in this city and the fact that Thief River Falls is a natural marketing center for a large trritory makes this possible.

The Peterson-Biddick company recently completed the construction of a large produce building and are preparing to take care of a large volume of poultry business this fall, this concern being one of the leading poultry buyers in this section of the state. Large quantities of eggs are also being handled by this company.

The Thief River Valley Co-operative Poultry association with headquarters in this city is also prepared to take care of the big poultry business of about 1,000 members already signed up, several counties being included in the district. Special poultry days are designated when birds are received at the various stations and then trucked into Thief River Falls to be prepared for marketing. Eggs are also being received from more than 20 stations twice a week. At present the Hall Brothers building on Horace avenue is being used, altho the creamery building will be occupied as soon as the new structure is completed. The creameries are used as receiving stations.

The Northern Trading company, connected with the DeSota Creamery and Produce of Minneapolis, which has been handling a great deal of poultry here in the past, is also preparing to do an extensive business this season. The DeSota company receives poultry every day of the year and shipments are made at all times of the season.

Naturally these concerns are working for better poultry in this section and they hope to see the day when every farmer has a well bred flock. Good birds mean better quality and better quality means better prices. The heavier varieties are the best to produce as they need little or no care and will bring bigger returns.

The poultry industry is growing rapidly in this section of the state and many farmers plan now to specialize in this brand of farming, rather than to dabble in it as some of them have been doing. With the growing of the industry among the farmers of this territory will come the growing of Thief River Falls as a marketing center for this form of farm produce.

Exchange Members Shipping Potatoes—Carefully Graded

Potato growers in this vicinity are now busy hauling their 1921 crop to market and fair yields are reported. It is expected that the average will exceed 100 bushels an acre and some fields are yielding 150 bushels.

Shipping by the Pennington County Potato Growers' association with loading quarters at the Oen Machine shed on the Soo tracks, started last week, six carloads being shipped up to Tuesday. Two-three cars a day will be loaded this week, it is expected. Six men are employed at the shipping station here, of which Henry Liden is in charge. Members are urged to haul their crop now as the season has already been delayed. It is expected that growers will be given an advance on the crop about Nov. 1.

The potatoes grown here are carefully graded and put into sacks with the Gopher brand, also being designated as from the Red River Valley.

O. A. Tyssen of Fertile, field manager for the state exchange, is here this week to make arrangements for shipping stations, one of which will be opened at Hazel this week. Members are also being signed up in the exchange.

A large quantity of Burbank potatoes, of the flat type, is being purchased in this vicinity from farmers not members of the exchange by the Peterson-Biddick company, which recently completed the construction of a first class warehouse for storage purposes. This concern is filling a special order of several carloads for a California grower, much larger yields being produced from Minnesota grown seed.

Christianson to Speak in City Latter Part of Oct.

A meeting of the Republican County Central committee, of which F. F. Haynes of this city is chairman, was held here Saturday, a number of the chairmen and chairwomen of the various outlying precincts being unable to attend. Plans for handling the present campaign were talked over and arrangements made for distributing publicity matter for the mass meeting tomorrow night, at which Congressman Thos. Schall, candidate for U. S. senator, will speak. Arrangements are also being made to have Theodore Christianson, Republican candidate for governor, come to Thief River Falls to speak some time the latter part of this month, the date to be announced later.

Hauling in Beets.

Harvesting of the sugar beet crop in this community is now progressing rapidly after a delay caused by the heavy rains the past week. About 250 of the 800 acres in this vicinity have been harvested so far, says County Agent J. J. McCann. The beets are loaded and hauled to the tracks where they are weighed and piled for shipping to the Mason City factory later in the season. Beets are piled at the following points in this locality: Thief River Falls, Steiner, Silverton, Engen Spur, St. Hilaire, Rosewood and Newfolden.

High sugar contents are reported from samples sent to the factory recently. The beets are not as large as expected due to the dry season but the heavy stand will make up for size, growers report.

LARGE QUANTITY OF EXTRA FIRST EGGS RECEIVED BY CO-OP

Good Showing Made by Local Unit in First Pool—Poultry Car Loaded

Of the eggs entered by the Thief River Valley Co-operative Egg and Poultry association, with headquarters in this city, in its first pool 62½ per cent graded Extra Firsts, which is a much better showing than has been made by any other district unit in the state at its opening, says E. P. Davis, field manager for the state exchange who is spending the week here. As a rule only 47 to 50 per cent of the eggs are Extras. Of the eggs marketed here 31 per cent were Firsts and only 6½ per cent Seconds. An object of the association is to get a better price for the farmers' product thru careful grading.

Eggs are being received regularly from more than 20 local receiving stations in the district and plans are under way to open more. Manager B. O. Norby and President Olaf Neset spoke to farmers near Warren at a meeting of the Boxville Farmers club Friday evening, and they report much interest in the project in that community. A membership campaign will be put on and a station opened at Warren as soon as possible, it is announced.

A carload of live poultry was loaded here this week, but as the receipts were not quite sufficient to fill the car, it was sent to Clearbrook and Bemidji yesterday to be filled for shipment to Chicago markets. The North Central Minnesota association started operations Oct. 1, with headquarters in Bemidji and M. Taylor, former county agent of Roseau county, in charge. Ten district units are now operating in Minnesota thru the state exchange with more in the process of organization.

Newfolden is still leading in receipts at the assembling station here, Manager Norby reports. It is expected that the supply of live poultry will be increased as soon as work lets up on the farms. The prices are reported quite favorable, altho a drop is expected when the heavy rush comes in.

Manager Norby calls the attention of marchants to the following section of the Minnesota laws with regard to co-operatives:

Sec. 26. "Misdemeanor—Breach of marketing contract of co-operative associations, spreading false reports concerning associations. Any person or persons or any corporation whose officers or employees knowingly induce or attempt to induce any member or stockholder of an association organized hereunder or organized under similar statutes of other states with similar restrictions and rights and operating in this state under due authority, to break his marketing contract with the association, or who maliciously and knowingly spreads false reports about the finances or management or activity thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor for each such offense; and shall be liable to the association aggrieved in a suit in the penal sum of five hundred dollars ($500.00) for each such offense."

Noted Musicians to Give Concert in City Nov. 7th

Music lovers in the community will be given a treat Nov. 7, when a troupe of musicians consisting of Thorstein Skarning, accordion virtuoso; his wife Mrs. Anna Skarning, pianist and soloist; Nils Rein, violinist; Miss Merle Nelson, pianist; Miss Berith Rokstad, comedienne; and the two Rindlisbachs from the Swiss-Italian Alp regions, who will appear in a concert at the Sons of Norway hall in this city. The artists come here under the auspices of the Sons of Norway lodge.

Skarning, who is one of the leading accordion artists of the world, has played here before and his return to this city is awaited with much interest. The other member of the group who is known to many here is Nils Rein, who appeared in a concert in this city last summer and was accorded high praise. Both of these artists are recognized as masters in their field, Rein being given the distinction of a second Ole Bull. The others in the group are also high class entertainers. They are making a tour of the Northwest.

Road Men Do Good Work

Fifteen maintenance men under Engineer E. F. Umland's supervision are on the job keeping up the state aid roads in Pennington county and few places are to be found in the entire state where the work is so well done, according to autoists who have traveled thru many parts of the state. A crew of six men are employed under the supervision of Maintenance Superintendent Sewell of Crookston, on state trunk highways Nos. 32 and 33. They not only drag the road but also regravel wherever necessary, cut the weeds and brush and keep the roadway clear. These road patrolmen are assisting the patrons in every way possible.

HEN LAYS LARGE EGG

"Eggs is eggs", but some are larger than others. At least Geo. Charboneau has a Barred Rock hen which challenges others of her tribe to produce one as large. The other day George picked from a nest an egg weighing no less than four ounces and measuring eight inches in circumference one way and six and three-fourths inches the other way.

Poultry Show Promises To be Biggest Ever Held

Inquiries are already coming in regarding the 1921 poultry show in this city to be put on by the Pennington County Poultry association on November 19, 20 and 21, in conjunction with the Red River Valley Dairymen's association which meets here on the 19th and 20th, reports County Agent J. J. McCann. Premium lists for the poultry exhibition will be prepared and distributed in a couple of weeks, it is announced, present plans promising the biggest and best show ever staged by the local association.

The Pennington county association is gaining recognition thruout the state on account of its splendid exhibits and with the meeting of the dairy men of the valley at the same time, a large attendance is assured. Increased interest in the event is being shown by breeders, declares President Olaf Neset.

Leonard Houske, secretary of the Dairymen's association, was in the city the latter part of the week and stated to a Times reporter that the profram for the sessions is now being arranged by the directors and will be announced in the near future, a list of excellent speakers being booked.

Farmers Too Busy to Attend Holstein Sale Oct. 1

Owing to the ideal weather conditions for threshing and other farm work Wednesday of last week, the third annual sale put on by the Pennington County Holstein Breeders' association was not attended by a sufficient number of buyers to make it the success it would otherwise have been. With threshing, potato digging and other activities in full blast farmers were reluctant about taking time off.

However, a number of animals were disposed of at the auction sale and some sold individually afterwards, for which a fair price was paid, altho not up to the average of former years. A few outside buyers were present but most of the sales were made to local persons, so that these fine animals will be retained in the community. All of the 40 animals consigned were purebreds and of the best stock obtainable, and those present at the sale could not but admire the splendid collection of dairy cattle. Every animal would be a valuable addition to any herd or as foundation stock.

Instead of holding their regular weekly luncheon Thursday noon the Commercial club met at the Fair grounds, where dinner was served by ladies of the Presbyterian church. Quite a number of business men remained at the grounds thru the sale.

WELSH CHOIR WILL SING HERE OCT. 29

Great Troupe of 16 Soloists Appearing in This City Under Elks Auspices

A real musical treat is in store for music lovers in Thief River Falls and surrounding territory when the Rhondda Male Chorus, composed of 16 world renowned Welsh singers, comes here to give a concert at the auditorium Friday evening, Oct. 29. They appear here under auspices of the Thief River Falls Elks lodge. The troupe is booked in only the larger cities of the country, it being possible to secure them here on their way from Minnesota to points in Canada.

The chorus brings the goods with it when it tours a country, and that it captivates the heart of the people, needs no other certificate than the fact that the choir on its second tour is receiving a warmer reception than it ever received on its previous tour. Musical America is loud in its praise over the singing of the men from Wales, not because of any high price they had to pay to hear them, but because the singing of the choir reached the ideal of a genuinely musical people. Hence the second visit of the choir and the invariable warm reception it has met with so far at every appearance on its present itinerary over the great continent.

Pleads Guilty to Avoid Awaiting Trial in Jail

Herbert Haugen, recently brot back from the twin cities where he was evading trial on a charge of carnal knowledge after jumping bail of $500, was brot before Judge Andrew Grindeland here Thursday, Sept. 25, and plead guilty to the charge. He was given a suspended sentence to the state reformatory and Sheriff O. L. Ihle named probation officer. Recently young Haugen appeared before Judge Grindeland at Warren and bail was set at $3000, and the case scheduled for the next term of district court. Being unable to raise the required bond, Haugen asked to be allowed to plead guilty rather than await trial in jail.

N. W. MINNESOTA EDUCATORS A HEADED BY SUPT. SIMLEY--WARREN NEXT YEAR'S CONVENTION CITY

Meeting of Educational Association Here is Most Successful Ever Held

RESOLUTION URGES STATE TO PAY UP SPECIAL AID

Instructive Discussions by Leaders in Education at Divisional Meetings

With I. T. Simley, superintendent of the Thief River Falls schools as its new president and Warren as its convention city in 1925, the Northwestern division of the Minnesota Educational association on Friday afternoon what is considered the most successful gathering in the history of the organization.

A total of 484 of the teachers present enrolled as members of the association, while there were some present who did not join, making an attendance of approximately 500. Last year's enrollment was only about 300, the increase made this year showing splendid results of efforts to enlarge the membership. It is encouraging to note, say officers of the association, that instead of six Pennington county rural teachers enrolled in the association last year, this county's membership now includes practically every instructor. At the Teachers' Instute Supt. O. R. Sande signed up 72, a few of whom are from Marshall county. About 100 rural teachers from Marshall attended the convention.

The officers named at the business session Friday morning besides Mr. Simley are: Supt. B. C. Kuefler, Greenbush, vice president; Supt. G. Holmquist, Warren, secretary-treasurer; Supt. F. B. Andreen, Ada, resolutions committee of state association; Miss Myrtle Roseland, Newfolden, A. H. Larson, Crookston, and Emery Johnson, Warren, executive committee. Among the retiring officers are Morris Bye, secretary-treasurer, who was a strong factor in the success of this year's meeting, and Miss Clara Gullingsrud of Gully, formerly of this city, president. The nominee for president besides Mr. Simley was Supt. John M. Brendahl of Hallock, the former being chosen by a large majority.

Four delegates were chosen to represent this division in the assembly of the Minnesota Educational association which meets in St. Paul Nov. 6, 7 and 8. Those selected are Supt. O. R. Sande of this city, Supt. G. H. Sanberg of Crookston, Supt. Erba Pouliot of Red Lake Falls and Miss Myrtle Roseland of Newfolden.

Supt. J. W. McNeal of the Red Lake Falls schools was named delegate to the convention of the National Educational association next summer. Supt. Simley represented this division last summer and gave a report of the convention at Friday morning's session.

Warren was the only city bidding for the convention for next year, the invitation extended by Nels Eugen of that city, superintendent of the Marshall county schools, being accepted.

The following resolution adopted by the convention expresses the satisfaction felt by delegates in attendance at the meeting in this city:

"Be it resolved, That members of the Northwestern Minnesota Educational association extend their thanks and appreciation to the citizens of Thief River Falls for their hospitality, to the teachers of the city for their hearty welcome, their cordial reception, and their superb musical entertainments, to the members of the Commercial club for the very fine noon luncheon and their congenial comradeship, to the Woman's club for their rest room accommodation, to the officers of the association for their work in preparing the helpful and inspiring program."

Other resolutions adopted are:

"That the convention urges the Minnesota legislature of 1925 to pass a deficiency appropriation to redeem the moral obligation of the state to the schools, the 1923 legislature having failed to appropriate sufficient funds for the special aid to help districts with a heavy school tax.

"That American Education Week be observed thruout the country in order to secure a more united popular effort in behalf of the schools together with an enlightened comprehension of what is being done and attempted by the schools.

"That the convention endorses the principles embodied in the National Educational Bill.

"That the State Board of Education be commended for its endeavor to raise the professional preparation of all teachers and urging improving and raising of the qualifications and standard of rural teachers.

"That the state legislature be asked to enact proper remedial legislation to make it possible to observe certain holidays in the school rooms, school work at present being interrupted by a rather large number of legal holidays.

"That the convention recognizes the importance of Boys' and Girls' club work and urges its continuance.

"That the N. W. M. E. A. approves of a state wide music contest similar to the one in North Dakota.

"That the M. E. A. and state department of education be supported in securing action by the coming legislature to provide a just and adequate retirement fund, the present being only 10 per cent solvent."

"Principles of Economy in Teaching" was the subject treated by W. J. Osburn, state director of educational measurements in Wisconsin, the principal speaker Friday morning. The speaker pointed out various methods of the educational program which are increasing the efficiency of the schools, pointing out the importance of reducing the number of student failures, which he said, are caused by three main factors: Too difficult work, too easy work and lack of interest in subject matter. He emphasized the importance of a good foundation in a child's education.

The afternoon was devoted to a number of round table discussions, some groups being addressed by the special speakers secured for the convention. The various groups discussed topics pertaining to the respective departments, ideas being exchanged in this manner. Local teachers took a prominent part in the programs. Following these meetings a large number of teachers attended the Crookston-Thief River Falls football game.

The auditorium was packed Thursday evening when special entertainment in the form of folk songs and dances was provided by pupils from the city schools under the direction of Maude L. Johnson and Clara Bauman, who are deserving of much credit for the manner in which this part of the program was executed.

"Teachers' Retirement Fund" was discussed by C. G. Schultz, secretary of the Minnesota Educational association and former head of the state department of education. A sound retirement plan was urged by the veteran school man, who called attention to the fact that this is essential as the teaching profession would then attract more and abler persons and would encourage persons of ability to remain in the profession who would otherwise change to some occupation offering better assurance for old age.

The music by the Glee clubs and orchestra of the high school under the direction of Miss Johnson added greatly to the programs, as did also the vocal solos by Miss Nora Ulland and F. I. Schweppe of Crookston.

COMMERCIAL CLUB HONORS EDUCATORS

Talks by Prominent School Men Feature Luncheon at S. of N. Hall Thursday

"Do not cry 'Long Live the Teacher' but give him something to live on," Dr. Fred Engelhardt of the Minnesota university declared in a brief talk at the luncheon tendered school men in attendance at the educational convention by the Commercial Club Thursday. The affair took place at the Sons of Norway hall and was attended by about 130 persons, two-thirds of whom were invited schoolmasters. That the guests were highly pleased with the treatment accorded them by local business men was evident from the expressions heard from a number of individuals who were loud in their praise.

Dr. H. W. Froehlich, president of the club, presided and as an opening number on the program called upon F. I. Schweppe of Crookston for a vocal solo, which was well received and encored. G. A. Sanberg, superintendent of the Crookston schools, emphasized the fact that the teaching profession is becoming more and more efficient and business like. "Education has become a science in itself and we do not want dictations from other professions as to what we ought to do," the speaker asserted. "However, in order to succeed in our aims it is essential that we have the hearty co-operation of the business men of the community."

The contributions of psychology to the progress of education, business, science and other fields were briefly discussed by Prof. F. B. Knight of Iowa university, one of the principal speakers at the educational convention. He pointed out how psychology, the study of human behavior or the why's of human actions, is being applied in practically every field of endeavor where an effort is being made to increase efficiency. This science as related to advertising was stressed as of particular importance, as it has brought this form of salesmanship to a higher degree of perfection in America than in any other country in the world. The speaker brought out the fact that it is necessary for the business man to know something about the psychology of advertising in order that he may get results, as well as the employer and the teacher needs to know its principles as applied to their respective fields. Psychology is as yet only in its infancy, according to Mr. Knight, but is steadily being developed, making human relationships more understandable.

Dr. Engelhardt in pleading for greater appreciation of the work and workers in the field of education urged school patrons to keep a good teacher or superintendent when one has been secured. "Do not let a good man go just because some other community has offered him a larger salary. If that community places a higher value upon his services it is apparent that he is worth just as much to your community. We want men and women who are devoted and sincere in their service but we cannot deprive them of the right to demand a fair remuneration for their work. If well qualified educators are to be retained in the service it is necessary that they be paid a reasonable wage in proportion to other professions."

The speaker also urged that superintendents and other educators take an active part in the promotion of their communities.

Sanatorium Patients to Have Radio Program for Christmas

Patients at Oakland Park Sanatorium will be able to "listen in" by Christmas time according to the report by Mrs. J. O. Sether, president of the W. C. T. U., who is handling the subscription of a fund for the installation of a radio receiving set for that institution. The set will be fitted with head phones wired to every bed so that each patient will be able to hear as well as if it were his own private set. Thirty-three head phones will be required for the beds and one for the office for the operator to tune in on. The cost is estimated at $500 and of this $400 has already been raised. The school principal at Strandquist conducted a "penny day" among the students recently to assist in raising the remainder and each student was asked to bring one cent or more for the fund. The Newfolden schools are doing the same thing and it is expected that perhaps some of the Pennington county schools will follow suit. A considerable amount of money was raised by selling tags at the county fair this fall.

SHOW FANS EXPECT MUSICAL REVUE TO BE HIT OF SEASON

Legion Auxiliary Present Local Talent at City Auditorium Tomorrow Night

Final rehearsals for the Musical Revue that is to be given at the city auditorium tomorrow, Friday night, at 8:15 o'clock, indicate one of the snappiest, cleverest and most entertaining home talent productions ever attempted. The talent committee has made every effort to secure the best in the city and under the direction of Mrs. H. H. Hodgson of Crookston, who is directing the revue, each character is doing his and her respective part commendably.

The revue is composed of four parts and is a composite of clever dances and song hits and includes a one act farce, making a decidedly pleasing and entertaining program. The revue opens with a scene representing dawn and accompanied by Grieg's "Morning Mood." The characters in this part represent mist maidens, wood nymphs, blue birds, roses, butterflies and nosegays. In the first part there is also a dance of the grasshoppers.

The second part exhibits a toy shop and consists of the songs, "The Wooden Soldiers" by Miss Durah Kelly, and "Raggedy Ann" by Miss Ariel Kinghorn and dances of the raggedy Anns, clowns, dolls, Gold Dust twins and showing characters representing wooden soldiers in march, candy sticks, blocks and the jack-in-box. "Remember" and "Do Re Mi" from the popular musical number, Topsy and Eva, will be sung by Miss Eileen Arneson and Kern Olson and "Jealous" by Miss Kelly.

"Cinders" a one act-play will be given in the third part. The setting is the apartment of Jack Warriner, Lawrence Mickelson, in London and the characters, Jack Warriner and Cinders, Miss Lucille Roark. Solos will be sung by Herman Bischoff, Miss Anna Erickson will sing "The Grass is Always Greener" and a solo dance will be given by Milton Larson.

The fourth part will present a minstrel show featuring some of the best of recent song hits. "In the evening" by Mr. Reedy, "Sitting in the Corner" by Buel Will, "Sleep" by Mrs. Mauritz Brink, the "Maids of '24 and the Maids of '76," will furnish side splitting enjoyment, and "It Had to be You" by Miss Loraine Will and "I'm Going South" by Dave Robinson, all supported by strong choruses will conclude the evening's program.

This revue is being staged by the Legion Auxiliary to raise funds to finance the 1925 state convention.

BEMIDJI TO COME FOR TUSSLE FRI.

Date of Game Changed to Friday to Enable Business Men to Witness Contest

Contrary to the schedule of the Lincoln high school football team, the game with Bemidji will be played here on Friday afternoon, Oct. 17, at 4 o'clock, instead of Saturday, at the local fair grounds.

This game will be the best one of the season, for Bemidji—Big Bemidji—has romped away with the football teams turned out by Lincoln High for the last six years. Furthermore, the lumber jacks have not even permitted the locals to score once during this period of over half a decade. Thief River is determined to stop this onslaught of Bemidji victories. During the last few years they have picked Thief River as "easy meat" and a sure victory for them. Even though the locals have a comparatively light team, nevertheless it is fast, and almost anything can be expected at the game tomorrow at four o'clock. Bemidji held the powerful Hibbing team to a 16 to 0 score last week. Their team is not only heavy but also composed of men who are not new to the game.

CITY COUNCIL CUTS TAX LEVY FOR NEXT YEAR

Levy of $49,000 Adopted at Meeting Tuesday Shows Decrease of $6,000

NO APPROPRIATION IS MADE FOR PARK FUND

Economy Practised by Council Means Considerable Saving To Taxpayers

A ten per cent cut in the tax levy for the coming year was ordered by the city council Tuesday night at the regular monthly meeting, following preliminary meetings Monday afternoon and evening, when the matter was thoroly discussed. For the first time in four years the levy will fall below the $50,000 mark, the amount being fixed at $49,000 by the aldermen Tuesday night. A year ago it was $55,000, two years ago it was $57,200 and three years ago $55,500.

Some of the funds were cut while some were left as they were a year ago, and in two instances they were increased. The amount of the various funds as shown by the monthly report of the city clerk had quite a bearing in the matter, as the aldermen deemed it inadvisable to raise additional funds for things not absolutely necessary.

The tax levy as spread for the past year and this year is given herewith:

	1923	1924
Current fund	$32,000	$30,000
Auditorium fund	1,000	1,000
Sinking fund	500	500
Poor fund	4,000	4,000

Paving fund	6,000	6,000
Improvement fund	------	1,300
Cemetery fund	800	------
Park fund	3,000	------
Total	$55,000	$49,000

The condition of these various funds as shown by the clerk's monthly reports the past two years is also given below:

	1923	1924

The various funds marked with a * are overdrawn, according to the records of the clerk, due to various causes in years gone by.

BIBLE CONFERENCE ADDRESSED BY DR. WATT OF SCOTLAND

Bible Teacher is Heard by Many At Presbyterian Church. Meetings all Week

Sunday afternoon opened the third annual Pennington county interdenominational Bible conference, which is being held in the Presbyterian church this week. Dr. Watt, until recently pastor in Glasgow, Scotland, is the principal speaker. He is a Bible teacher of great interest as shown by the large numbers in attendance at the meetings of the conference.

He brings with him the wit of the Scot and the long standing mastery of Christian teaching. Sunday morning he spoke to the Presbyterian congregation on the text "I am not ashamed of the Gospel." He showed how it is in fact the power of God to save men from sin. Sunday afternoon he spoke about some of the disciples of Jesus, especially of Peter, the man of quicksand whom Jesus changed into a rock of faith.

In the evening it was the "Cloud of Fire of Israel" which was his message. He spoke of the double meaning of many facts in life, depending upon the point of view of the man. There is a meaning of hope and a meaning of despair to the sorrows which come to us. There is a bright or dark side to human experience as it is related to God or to man only.

The remaining meetings promise to be full of interest to those who attend, as Dr. Watt brings the chief teachings of the Bible to his audiences.

Two meetings are held each day, one at 3:00 p. m., and another at 7:45 p. m., continuing thru next Sunday.

It was hoped that Dr. Watt would be able to continue in Northern Minnesota a few weeks more to hold conferences in Red Lake Falls and other towns, but his engagement in Edmonton, Alberta, and in other large cities of Canada make this plan impossible of fulfillment. Thief River Falls is fortunate to be able to secure his services for this brief period between his engagements in Canada.

This conference is sponsored by the local Methodist, Swedish Mission, Scandinavian Evangelical, and Presbyterian churches. However, it is not denominational in character and all are welcome.

Is He or Isn't He.

John Passi, who has a farm near Pitt, is laying claim to the championship of the state as far as rye yields is concerned, according to the Baudette Region. He secured 228 bushels from three acres, or an average of 76 bushels to the acre.

Skratthult to Appear in Two Performances Sat. Night

"Olle i Skratthult", the popular Swedish comedian and his company will again appear before local enthusiasts at the Sons of Norway hall, Saturday, October 18. This is "Olle's" 19th season in this country and to all appearances he is more popular than ever. Two performances will be held this time, beginning at 7 o'clock and 9 o'clock respectively. At his appearance here last spring, only one performance was planned for but the large crowd gave evidence of the neccessity of a double program. A dance will be given after the program.

Grain Embargo Lifted

The embargo against shipments of incoming grain to Duluth was lifted Friday at midnight and the cars which filled practically every spur on the Soo line thru this city are being moved to the terminals. Shipments were reduced by the recent rains which retarded threshing.

CONTRACT AWARDED FOR GRAVELING OF TRUNK HIGHWAY 32

Work on 14.2 Miles South of City to be Started Soon by Minneapolis Contractor

A Minneapolis contractor, S. J. Reader, was the successful bidder for the graveling job on Trunk Highway No. 32, commonly known as the Jefferson Highway, between this city and St. Hilaire, and north from Red Lake Falls, bids for which were opened Oct. 7 by C. M. Babcock, state highway commissioner, St. Paul. Mr. Reader was awarded the contract for graveling the 7.4 miles between Thief River Falls and St. Hilaire at $16,739 and 6.8 miles north from Red Lake Falls, towards St. Hilaire at $11,383, the two projects amounting to slightly over $28,000.

Competition in a large field of bidders brought low prices, engineers said. Unit prices were as low as any in recent years, on the 54 miles of grading, 92 miles graveling and numerous monolethic culverts and bridges included in the 19 betterment projects on which bids were received. Among contractors entering bids was P. Roark of this city.

The contract for the graveling of T. H. No. 32 south of this city calls for completion by December 15 and work will be started next week. About thirty trucks will be used by Mr. Reader on the project. He was also awarded the contract for grading nearly 17 miles between Bena and Ball Club at $20,817.

County reimbursement bonds make the graveling project possible at this time, the attention of the state having been called to the necessity of completing this important link of the state highway system here. The work is done under the supervision of the state highway department.

Altho held up for some time by the rainy weather, work on the grading of the straightened T. H. No. 32, between this city and St. Hilaire, is progressing rapidly at the present time, and A. T. Crown, contractor, expects to have the job completed in another couple of weeks. The construction work on the grade between Red Lake Falls and St. Hilaire has been completed and is ready for graveling. Work will be started near St. Hilaire towards this city.

GAME COMMISSIONER HERE

James F. Gould, Minnesota's game and fish commissioner, is in the city today and is scheduled to address the Commercial club at its noon luncheon. Various matters pertaining to his office will be discussed according to advance information received here. Mr. Gould is said to be on his way to Roseau and other northern points in the interests of the state department.

PROMOTER OF PEA CANNERY IN CITY

Canners' Service Representative Sees Big Possibilities for Industry Here

Thomas Sullivan of St. Paul, a member of the Canners' Service company, was in the city the first of the week to get first hand information regarding the possibilities for establishing a pea canning factory in Thief River Falls.

This locality is particularly well adapted to the raising of peas, according to Mr. Sullivan, who declares that wherever alfalfa and clover grow in such abundance as here, peas will do proportionately well. Better peas can be raised in this northern section than farther south, he said in pointing out the possibilities as he had found them. Those grown here contain less starch.

Mr. Sullivan represents the same company as R. M. Sanford, who addressed the Commercial club three weeks ago. The concern is promoting the establishing of a number of canning plants in Minnesota and both Mr. Sanford and Mr. Sullivan are of the opinion that such an industry would have an excellent future here. Mr. Sullivan, who interviewed a number of business men and bankers while in the city, will return here in a short time to consider the matter further.

Mr. Sullivan is vice president of the company organized at Little Falls, where a factory will be erected to be in readiness for the 1925 season.

122 BU. OATS PER ACRE

Of the many high yields which have been reported to The Times, it is believed that the yield of Oscar N. Anderson, farmer residing three miles east and one mile south of this city, in Smiley township is the greatest. On a 16 acre field he received 1616 bushels of oats, machine measure running a little more than seven pounds to the bushel overweight, which would make a yield of more than 122 bushels to the acre on the 16 acre field. O. K. Lerol also had a small field of two acres near the yard which yielded 250 bushels, machine measure, booster yield even on a small patch. Production this year would almost warrant the change of the slogan, "Pennington County the Home of Alfalfa," to "the Home of Everything."

C. B. Bradley Released from Warren Jail After Serving 14 Months. Can't Pay Fine

After having served an eight months' jail term on a state charge and a six months' term on a Federal charge in the Marshall county jail for liquor law violations, Charles B. Bradley of this city is free, after convincing federal authorities that he was unable to pay a $500 fine that was imposed on him in addition to his jail sentences. Bradley was taken to Crookston Tuesday night of last week by a United States marshal and given a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Fossmark after he had made an affidavit that he was unable to pay a $500 fine. Bradley who formerly operated a barbershop here, figured in bribery charges against E. O. Erickson, chief of police, and was brought to this city last fall to testify. The police chief was exonerated. Bradley started serving his state charge Aug. 10, 1923, and his Federal charge Apr. 6, 1924, the jail terms being continuous. He has returned to this city.

FARM CENSUS TO BE STARTED HERE SOON

County Agent McCann to Supervise Federal Enumeration in Pennington County

Bemidji is headquarters for the agricultural census of Northern Minnesota counties which comprise districts No. 1 and 2, of the state of Minnesota, according to County Agent J. J. McCann, who is in charge of the census in Pennington county. The county agent, in counties where such an official is employed, is to have charge of the work within the county.

This farm census, which is a federal government affair conducted under the direction of the Department of Commerce Bureau with the co-operation of the Department of Agriculture is conducted every five years under the new law. Heretofore such a census has been taken every ten years, the last one in 1920.

A complete survey of agriculture will be made thruout the United States, this district being only a small portion of the task which the Census Bureau is undertaking this fall and winter. It is estimated by Hart Monson of Bemidji, supervisor for the two districts, it will take three or four months and require the work of about 150 enumerators scattered over the various sections of the districts.

Pennington county is divided into six sections, for which Mr. McCann will appoint two enumerators in each. It is Mr. McCann's plan to enlist the services of enumerators who are familiar with agriculture and in all cases local men. They are to visit every farm in their respective territory and secure full details as required by the department. Farmers will be asked to answer as many of the 158 questions as apply to their farms. Census slips will be sent out to every farmer in the near future, it is planned, so that the farmers may be prepared to give the enumerator the information desired without causing any great delay.

It is felt by the Agricultural department that a farm census is of special importance at this time inasmuch as the 1920 census was taken at a time when agriculture was greatly affected by war conditions, many changes in the situation having taken place since that time.

There are approximately 1200 farms to be covered in Pennington county.

The census will be started here about the first of November, according to Mr. McCann and is to be completed in two months.

Transient Weds Germantown Girl While Held in Warren Jail. Unable to Raise Bond

Pat Horton, 23 years old, who was arrested on the night of July 26, during a raid on the Carl Klockman farm in Grand Plain township by John P. Bordewick, Marshall county deputy sheriff, and who was married in the Marshall county jail about three weeks ago to a Germantown girl was released Tuesday after he had promised law enforcement authorities that he would leave the country. He had been an inmate of the jail ever since his arrest and had been unable to furnish bonds at $800 set at his hearing on Aug. 13 when he was bound over to the grand jury on a charge of selling liquor. The cost to Marshall county for boarding him was given as the reason for letting him go without trial.

THOMAS SCHALL MAKES STRONG CAMPAIGN TALK

Blind Congressman Declares He Has 100 Per Cent Record. Flays Opposition

OPPOSED TO CHANGING NATION'S CONSTITUTION

Appeals For Support of Coolidge Who is Not Tied by Pre-convention Promises

Pleading for the preservation of the constitution and declaring "the United States is a religion and its Bible the constitution" Thomas D. Schall, the blind congressman from the Tenth district and Republican candidate for United States senator, addressed a good-sized crowd at the auditorium Friday night. It was Schall's first appearance here in his campaign against Magnus Johnson and those present at the meeting, which was in the form of a Republican rally, listened to the fiery orator with rapt attention, the address continuing to a late hour. There was a goodly number of women in the audience.

Mr. Schall spoke at Red Lake Falls late in the afternoon before coming to this city and was delayed by the bad roads. Preceding his arrival, however, Chairman F. F. Haynes called upon F. H. Peterson, Moorhead, Republican candidate for congress from the Ninth district, who urged support of the Republican ticket not only in the state but also national. He declared himself in favor of the McNary Haugen bill as a measure to stabilize agriculture and pointed out that in his 16 years of service in the Minnesota legislature from the 49th district he had always favored measures helping labor and the farmer. He stated that he was the author of the compensation act, which has proven a boon for the working man.

The history of the two great American parties, the Republican and the Democratic, was cited, the former being styled progressive and the latter conservative. The speaker predicted that the present third party would be short-lived as had been the case with such groups in the past.

Congressman Schall in pointing to his 10-year record of service to the 10th district challenged anyone to prove that his record was not 100 per cent for labor, the farmer, the ex-service man and the common people. "I have offered in the past and still offer," he asserted, "a $1000 reward if anyone can point out a single instance where I failed to champion the cause of the laborer, the farmer, the ex-service man or the common fellow in all legislation introduced into the house of representatives during my 10 years of service. Last time I was reelected to the house by the largest majority received by any congressman in the country and my constituency, which includes all classes, is now backing me stronger than ever".

Mr. Schall denounced in scathing terms those who wish to destroy the constitution. He questioned their right to be classed as citizens, claiming that "a real citizen believes in the sacred document that has governed us in security and liberty for 140 years. "In declaring that the United States is God's chosen land the speaker said, "Our forefathers builded better than they knew when they shaped the constitution. They builded far better indeed, because the hand of God was in its making, safeguarding with checks and balances the sovereignty of the people, insuring their rights to life, liberty and happiness.

After a lengthy eulogy of the constitution the blind orator went on to explain the effect of altering it as advocated by Robert M. LaFollette amending the constitution so as to give congress the right to override the Supreme court. He pointed out that the legislatures were nothing more than arms of the people and declared that each of the systems of checks and balances employed in the constitution were restraints placed upon the activities of the other. "As an example of the power that you would vent in congress by such a change", he continued "do you realize that our supreme legislature or congress would then have the unrestricted power if it so minded, to prepetuate itself as a life-long body and even elect a president for life, and make his son successor."

From time to time thruout his talk Mr. Schall let loose with severe criticisms and denunciations of his opponent, Magnus Johnson, assailing his record and lack of ability in bitter words, intermingled with touches of scornful humor that brought peals of laughter from the audience.

"The people today are demanding a real adjustment of their financial and industrial difficulties", Mr. Schall declared, "they insist upon constructive remedies instead of loud platitudes. They must look to one of the dominant parties to bring this relief. No party which is not well represented in Congress can expect to bring any real relief for the masses.

"Today a candidate must stand forth on his own merit; must demonstrate his faith in the people; and have courage not only to denounce, but to point out a remedy against the all powerful system that has for the last thirty years been assuming control until it has in time usurped the function of government. This powerful system uses a political party only as a means to an end. By manipulation and preconvention promises in a National Convention of any party, this system has controlled and will continue to control the domestic and foreign policy of our government.

"The only brief relief the people have had from this dominant selfish

SOCIAL ITEMS

Psychologist Will Address Woman's Club Next Monday

Mrs. Evva Holbroke Chapin of New York City, who is making a survey thruout the Northwest and coming here from Bemidji, will address the Woman's club next Monday afternoon at the regular meeting place, the Commercial club rooms, speaking on psychology and application to modern day problems. Psychology is now recognized in the smallest of business enterprises and in every walk of life as a decisive factor in success and the club is to be congratulated on securing a lecture on the subject by so eminent an authority.

A short business meeting at 3 o'clock will preceed the address and community singing and music by a quartette from the club chorus will complete the program. Current topics will be discussed with Mrs. Chas. Gerlinger in charge. The Social Welfare club, until recently a section of the Woman's club but now a separate organization, will serve refreshments from 4:30 to 5:15. Mrs. E. F. Dolan, Mrs. John Bratrud and Mrs. Albert Lonson are the hostesses. The public is invited to this lunch and the proceeds will be used by the Welfare club to provide for the needy.

A full program for the season has been prepared, printed forms of which were distributed at the meeting two weeks ago. The selection of subjects for discussion, as well as the general order of work proposed, shows careful consideration on the part of those who have charge of this matter, and will provide ample scope for every activity in which the organization sees fit to interest itself.

The Thief River Falls club is recognized as one of the most active and progressive in the entire state and has received many compliments on its excellent accomplishments. The new season starts out with the promise of greater interest in the organization than has ever been shown.

Miss Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. DISEASE AND ITS CAUSE

Whenever you overdraw your supply of brain power you are laying a foundation for sickness. As the nerves lack vitality there will be nerve pressure at the spine leading to some organ or parts and unequal distribution of nerve force and sickness is the result. Chiropractic adjustments will do more to establish equilibrium than any other method known at this time and that means health.

A GOOD CITIZEN'S DUTY

In case there should be any person who has not heard about it, we would like to call attention to the fact, with all due apologies, that there is going to be an election on November 4.

The failure to vote is a constantly growing menace that threatens to sap the vitality of the nation.

As a general rule, the man or woman who neglects to qualify for voting and doesn't vote can give no valid excuse for failure to perform that important civic duty.

Responsibility rests alike upon men and women. There is no distinction as to sex, color or race, providing you are a citizen of the United States.

Find out where you vote and then vote when the time comes.

A large number of boys and girls from the rural communities surrounding Thief River Falls are attending the schools of this city. In fact in the high school approximately one-third or about 150 students come from rural homes. The majority of them are staying away from home and in many cases their new surroundings are considerably different than what they are accustomed to. It is therefore of great importance that they are given the proper consideration by those with whom they are making their homes while here.

Remember that a little encouragement helps a great deal and may mean the future of the young boy or girl. It is well for those with whom they stay to extend the same courtesies they would want extended to their own children under like circumstances.

A recent test in St. Paul showed that a large percentage of cars have faulty brakes. What about yours? A large number of accidents and minor collisions are a result of brakes which do not hold, and it would be well for many Thief River Falls motorists to safeguard themselves and others by ascertaining the holding power of their brakes.

"The one hand driver is between two dangers—matrimony and death," declares the Bemidji Pioneer.

If prohibition were as bad as it is pictured in some of the alleged funny magazines, it would be terrible.

Gasoline is produced at a loss, experts say, and it is consumed the same way.

Poor laws are not remedied by passing more poor ones.

Every person who springs a new idea is regarded as a crank until other cranks see the wisdom of it.

Silliness is overlooked in pretty women, but homely women have to have sense to get by.

The beer and light wine advocates need a miracle candidate who can turn water into wine.

Just how good a hat should be is no longer a mooted question. The new Lanphers solve the problem—the price problem also.

City Council Considers Compensation Insurance For Employees of City

Compensation insurance for the various employees of the city was practically decided upon at the regular meeting of the council Tuesday night when the aldermen listened attentively for nearly an hour to the benefits thereof as told by a representative of one of the large compensation insurance companies who happened to be in the city. The present state law does not require cities and counties to take out compensation insurance, making it optional. However, practically every city in the state in the same class as Thief River Falls carries such insurance and has found it very profitable in doing so, it was pointed out.

This city has been very fortunate in the past in not having any claims for injuries from city employees, but fearful that an accident might occur at any time the council took out a binder till the next regular meeting of the council when the matter will be definitely decided upon.

The street sweepers and the firemen are the most hazardous of the various employees, altho the men working at the electric light plant or on the light poles and wires are also greatly endangered, and they might accidentally be killed in a fraction of a second and then the city would be liable.

The total cost for the various city employees, not including the aldermen and clerk and assistant, and other appointive employees, was placed at $625.63 plus ten dollars each for the 16 firemen.

Club Workers Sell Hogs

Only a few buyers attended the annual pig club sale conducted by H. C. Fuller and R. Mayhew of Mavie at the fair grounds Friday afternoon, the heavy rains preventing many from being present. Only about a dozen of the purebred Poland China hogs distributed last spring by the Mavie breeders and taken care of by junior club workers the past summer, were sold at auction, most of them being bought by the club members themselves. A number of splendid animals are being distributed thru the county in this manner.

Sermon's on Lord's Prayer.

A series of sermon-lectures are to be preached Sunday evenings at the Trinity Lutheran church by Rev. S. L. Tallakson, commencing next Sunday at 7:45 p. m. Hymns appropriate for the special prayer topic will be sung. The pastor suggests that "in order to appreciate the sermons look up the many encouraging promises to prayer given by 'Our Father' in the Bible. The Lord's prayer shows you step by step the highway to perfect and everlasting bliss. Madame de Stael, the celebrated French woman said, 'I desire no other evidence of the truth of Christianity than the Lord's prayer'."

Pyrotol Demonstration at Holt Wednesday, Oct 29th

Three demonstrations of the use of pyrotol, the war salvaged explosive, will be made in Marshall county during the last part of October, according to information received from Clarence Johnson of the division of agricultural engineering, University Farm, St. Paul, who will be in charge of the demonstrations.

Demonstrations will be given at Holt, Oct. 29, at 9 a. m., Middle River same day, at 2 p. m., and at Stephen Oct. 31, at 2 p. m.

The shattering effect of this explosive is the same as that of 40 per cent dynamite.

Braggans, county attorney, and C. L. Spaulding, former commander of the Home Guards. A reception was given at the city hall.

Mr. Lindell and Major Ray Miller of the aviation service came to Warren by airplane, going from there to Hibbing where Commander Lindell took part in laying the cornerstone of a memorial building.

The Warren post now has 107 members and is taking an active part in all civic affairs of the community, headed by Dr. C. A. Gunnarson, commander. The post has at various times shown its spirit of co-operation by joining with buddies of this city, as for instance when the 1925 state convention was landed. Its members have also promised to assist in every possible way to make the convention here next year a success.

Stretch of T. H. 33 Near Warren to Be Graveled

Work started Monday on a four and one-half mile stretch of road on Thunk Highway No. 33, immediately east of Warren under direction of Charles Newquist of the Minnesota Highway department. This piece is the only part of the highway between Thief River Falls and Warren that is ungraveled.

Incessant rains of the last three weeks had made this stretch almost impassable. The road will be graded up to state highway standards, which calls for a 24-foot wide roadbed and will be graveled this fall after freeze-up. A state highway maintenance crew consisting of seven teams and a caterpillar tractor arrived Friday from Roseau, where a road job has been completed. The state highway department was asked this spring to grade and gravel this road, after the county board discovered that the county did not have the necessary funds.

Community Welfare Aided by its Banking Institutions

In a discussion of the value of trading at home we should not lose sight of one thing that is very vital and necessary to the prosperity of everybody in the community. And that is the maintaining of sound banking institutions. In modern banking days credit is a great engine for advancing industry and developing new enterprises. The farmer must have credit to get a start in developing his farm. The laborer must have credit to establish his home. The business man must have credit at various times to carry out his plans for a successful career.

Credit, can of course, be misused and is sometimes abused, but that does not affect the fact of its usefulness in enabling industry to go forward when properly used. In this field of financing and accommodation the bank must play the leading part. A community with a bank is a community that feels the lack of something necessary to its progress and development.

The successful banker must be a man who is not only posted thoroughly on all of the conditions of the people of the community, but he must be a good judge of human nature. He is the conservator of other peoples' money, and the entrusting of this great confidence is a responsibility that cannot be lightly considered. He must be able to secure safe and sure returns on the money intrusted to his bank, and at the same time keep the institution in condition to return the money on demand that you have deposited with him.

In order to give an idea of the condition from the bankers standpoint we have requested T. M. Thronson of The First National Bank to give us a little write up on the subject which follows:

"Notwithstanding the fact that the country banker is using every available effort to benefit the community in which he conducts his business a large majority of people fail to understand this to be a fact. It is one of the bankers problems to convince the people that the bank is not an aimpersonal corporation, that it is truly a friendly institution, one on whose success depends entirely upon the success of its customers.

"The banker must first create business and while creating business he is creating confidence and while creating confidence he must necessarily help to build the city in which he lives and the contingent territory to that city. He must be at all times mindful of the credit necessary to the merchants. He must be vitally interested in the needs of the farmers for their success is his success. The success and growth of the city is beneficial to its contingent territory. The wealth and prosperity of the country adds to the success of the village merchants and its people. In each case it is the banker's business to know and understand the needs of both in order that he can help the community grow and prosper and his success can be only measured by the success of his patrons.

"However, the banker can only help the community in the same measure that the merchant and the farmer are willing to help each other. The life blood of the community is credit. Credit is an evidence of money. We get our money from the farmers, merchants and those who live within our border. If you make your money here and spend it elsewhere we have no means of extending credit and this in turn means that we cannot give the aid that is necessary to build up a better city and a better rural community. You spend your money out of your home town and someone else gets the benefit of your labors.

"By spending your money at home you will both directly and indirectly receive benefits that you otherwise would not have. Spending your money in your home town builds up a commercial center, enabling the merchant to purchase goods in larger quantities, purchasing goods that he knows he can sell and that his customers want and by so doing be in a position to offer his customers goods at the same price that his customer would get in larger cities and in larger stores."

Four Club Workers To Attend Livestock Show

Four Pennington county junior club workers are entitled to a free trip to the Junior Livestock show in South St. Paul Nov 10 to 14. Emma Letnes, winner in the pig club, fat barrow, will make the trip, as will also Helen Satre; Estella and Gladys Hanson, sheep club winners. The prizes are awarded by livestock shipping associations and commissions.

Lawrence Letnes, who was eligible for a free trip to the National Livestock show in Milwaukee held two weeks ago offered by the Minneapolis Journal, chose the $100 scholarship to an agricultural school instead of the trip. He left a week ago Friday for Crookston to enter the Northwest School of Agriculture, where he spent one half term last year. Indications are that Lawrence will be a real booster for purebred cattle and will do his share to promote the industry in this community.

A. J. Kittleson of Crookston, district leader of junior club work who was in the city last week in attendance at the educational convention, stated in an interview that interest in club work in this section is steadily increasing. Every year more boys and girls are joining the ranks and next year promises to exceed the 1924 enrollment by a wide margin. "How does Pennington county rank in the valley district?", the Times reporter inquired, to which Mr. Kittleson replied, "It is one of the leaders and exceptionally good work is being done by members of its clubs."

Records and reports prepared by the club winners eligible to the junior show have already been submitted to Mr. Kittleson.

TEACHERS WITH ABILITY URGED BY ENGELHARDT

Prominent U. Educator Discusses Teacher and Educational Program Here

PUBLIC EDUCATION IS ECONOMICAL INVESTMENT

Higher Standards of Qualification Must be Demanded by Teaching Profession

"In spite of the progress we have made in the educational program of this country from the days when Ichabod Crane symbolized the teaching profession, we still have far to go," declared Dr. Fred Engelhardt of the University of Minnesota, in an inspirational address to teachers and others in attendance at the Thursday morning session of the Northwestern Minnesota Educational association's convention in this city.

"In 1900 the total monies expended by the several states and local districts in the Union," continued Mr. Engelhardt, "amounted to about $215,000,000 while in 1920 this amount increased to $1,045,000,000. That is to say of all the monies expended by state and local government the percentage of the total paid out for education had increased from 24 per cent in 1900 to about 28 per cent in 1920. The total expenditures per child per day in 1900 for the country as a whole was 11 cents while in 1920 it was 29 cents.

"In Minnesota the percentage of all state and local expenditures for governmental purposes expended for education has decreased from 34 per cent in 1910 to 28.9 per cent in 1920. That is to say of all the revenue raised the schools are getting relatively less in 1920 than in 1910.

"The schools are becoming the most costly undertaking of the state and public is convinced that the success of our form of government depends upon the schools whatever the cost.

"No argument is necessary to prove that public education is economically productive. Education produces technical skill and increases productive capacity. The discoveries of Pasteur's silkworm disease and chicken cholera added annually to the wealth of France equivalent to indemnity of the Franco-German War of 1870. It has been estimated that the discoveries of one professor at Columbia University has added more wealth to the United States than total cost of entire university from its beginning to date.

"As the cost of education increases where will money come from? These factors are basic.

"1. More money will be available for education as public appreciates value of education.

"2. More money will be available as public becomes more productive.

"3. More money will be available as public appreciate that education has greater values than other things for which they spend money.

"Our program and its success depends upon these three factors.

"The productiveness of public education depends largely on the educational program and the educational program is the last analysis on the skill and training of the teacher. Pasteur as a teacher not only made important discoveries, but through his skill and training made it possible for others to benefit and put to use his technique and methods of research.

"So it must be in public education, better trained and better qualified teachers.

"In part the awakening of the public to realize that due to low salaries many competent teachers were leaving the profession came through the teachers and their organizations. Most of our states then passed minimum salary laws. To make the profession more attractive teachers demanded pensions. But rarely demands for increased qualifications come from our teachers. They have usually been by-products of demands for salaries, pensions and tenure. The day must come and come soon when the teachers and administrators demand higher standards for themselves and insist that these standards be attained by all.

"The democratization of our schools means greater participation of pupils and teachers in the administration of our schools. Teachers must know the limitations of this participation, must understand the problems of the Superintendent and Board and fully appreciate that participation does not remove the Superintendent final and full responsibility.

"With teachers better trained technically means increasing responsibilities, a voice in the formulating of education programs and policies. The schools are too large a problem for one man to decide alone. Here again relationships must be understood in order that the professional cooperation of teacher, principal and superintendent be a maximum.

"Then again if the public is to be informed as to the advocacy of a program planned for the community she must know the financial condition of the community, she must be in a position to defend and intelligently set forth to the citizen the plan, its purpose, why it is sound.

"The teacher is no longer just a class room teacher, doing just what she is told without initiative and being responsible for teaching her subject. She is a trained professional worker, trained to do her teaching better and trained to view her job and its relationship to the rest of the school and the community.

"Although there have been great strides in education we who are on the job often think they are slow in coming about. We are often prone to think that progress is inevitable, automatic, bound to come. This philosophy is a sort of superstition, a sort of fatalism. Yes, change will come but change is not progress.

"Progress will come only as we have an aim and as we set to accomplish that aim. Where we are willing to assume the responsibilities and the hard work necessary to insure our development. We must plan for the future, be guided by knowledge of the past. We must not only consider the living children of today, but must plan for those of the future.

"The world looks to us for the plan. It has intrusted in the hands of the educator its wealth and its children. We must keep the faith. We are as strong as our weakest teacher. Let's always realize that. Progress will come with increasing standards and we in the future will be responsible for the standards set."

Executive Committee Named By Legion Post. Armistice Day Program Being Prepared

Dr. A. W. Swedenburg, Morlan H. Bishop and Oscar Paulson were elected members of the executive committee of the Elmer J. Eklund post of the American Legion to serve together with four officers heading the post, as a result of action taken at the regular meeting Friday night. The post officers who are members of the committee are Commander Oscar R. Smith, Vice Commander D. W. Robinson, Adjutant Ole R. Sande and Finance Officer Verner Nelson. This board, which was created at a meeting of post members four weeks ago, will direct legion activities and act upon matters which may come up outside of the regular meetings.

Among other matters considered at the meeting last week was the observance of Armistice Day, Nov. 11, for which a program is being arranged by a committee composed of Rev. Charles Gerlinger, in charge of the forenoon program, and Oscar Paulson and D. W. Robinson, in charge of the evening festivities. An effort is being made to get State Commanded Edwin Lindell of Minneapolis as the speaker of the day.

Following the business session Friday night a social time was enjoyed jointly with Auxiliary members, who also held their regular meeting at that time. No matters of special importance were taken up at the Auxiliary meeting, details connected with the "Musical Revue" to be presented tomorrow being the chief topic of discussion.

INTRODUCTION

Pardon me, if you think I may seem
Just a little bit proud of our team.
As a fact it's rare
To see one so fair,
That I'm almost afraid it's a dream

That flash out yonder is Penney
Those faster than he are not many.
He thrills every lass
When completing a pass,
For he seldom "incompletes" any.

Parenteau, the galloping quarter,
The fleet footed, fighting, rip-snorter;
Personified pep
Wide spreading rep—
Sweet food for the daily reporter.

There's Bennes, who's game to the core
The boy whom the fans adore,
With tactics elusive
Confusing, conducive
To many a point in the score.

Look at Wengeler, hard hitting back;
Watch him make the opposing line crack.
A "go-get-'em", slam—
He hits with a resonant whack.

That's Thune, the coach, over there—
A regular two-fisted bear.
The fellow that takes 'em,
And molds 'em, and makes 'em
The foes' everlasting nightmare.

Then let's step out and do what we know
To give, and not get, all the woe.
The noise is what tells,
So say it with yells!
Let 'em have it, fellows, let's go.
—Watch.

They All Have Uniforms

With the purchase of 18 new outfits for the football men this fall, the Lincoln high representatives are well equipped, there being sufficient regalia for nearly four teams. Being allowed the use of a full outfit encourages candidates to go out for practise, no outlay for this item being necessary on the part of the student. The equipment is purchased by the high school athletic association, which had an unusually successful season last year.

CROOKSTON-T. R. F. GAME ENDS IN TIE

Locals Outplay Opponents in Stiff 12-12 Battle—Passes Feature Game

Battling on a muddy field the Thief River Falls and Crookston high school football team played a 12-12 tie Friday afternoon, the locals making both touchdowns in the first quarter during which time Crookston made no threats to cross their line. The Thief River Falls boys played a strong game, showing much improvement in their defensive playing over the Warren fracas.

Friday's contest was featured by a spectacular aerial attack, first on the part of the locals with Crookston coming back in the same style, but less successful. Four passes out of four attempts were completed by the Lincolnites in the early part of the game and considerable ground was gained by this form of playing.

Parenteau, quarterback, and Zeh, halfback, were consistent ground gainers for the locals, ably assisted by McCrum and Penney, ends. The outstanding member on the Crookston team was Geer, who made several gains thru the line and showed unusual ability to break the defense.

It is the belief of many fans that the Thief River Falls team outplayed its opponents, Crookston's second touchdown being made when the visitor's kicked off over the line and the locals failed to fall on the ball, thinking that it would be taken back on the 20 yard line. Instead, a Crookston man took possession of the oval and after considerable consultation of the rules it was found that Crookston was entitled to six points.

First Quarter

Thief River kicked off and Crookston made three yards, but fumbled on the second down. Locals recovered the fumble. On a line buck they made two yards, then Mike made four, while Dutch reeled off three more. Then the Lincolnites made first down on a pass to McCrum. Thief River continually worked the ball to a touchdown which was registered by Bjorkman on a quarter back sneak. A try-for-point failed, making the score 6-0. The locals kicked off again and on the next play intercepted a pass and Thief River put the ball over for the second touchdown with a pass to Penney. The try-for point, a drop kick, struck the cross bars and did not count, making the score 12 to 0. Locals kicked again to Crookston, who seemed to have tightened up a little, and the quarter ended with the ball in their hands.

Second Quarter

Crookston tore off for first downs three times, but failed on a pass on their fourth down. Locals got the ball, gained five yards but lost this for being off side. They punted. Crookston fumbled and Thief River received the ball, but were forced to punt. Visitors tried to pass, but Zeh intercepted it. The locals were also forced to punt. Crookston was going great when the half ended.

Third Quarter

Crookston kicked off. Locals gained a little on it, and time was called because Mulry was hurt. In a few minutes play was started but the Lincolnites were forced to punt. Then Crookston tore down the field on passes, line bucks, and end-runs, until they made a touchdown. They, too, failed to get their extra point, on a line buck. Then Crookston kicked off again and the ball went over the local's line. A Crookston player fell on the pig-skin and they were given another touchdown. They failed again on a line buck to put the ball over for an extra point. Now the score was tied. After kicking off again Crookston tried a passing game, some times making ground and other times not, but they were forced to punt and the locals lost the ball on downs.

Fourth Quarter

Crookston was forced to punt and so was Thief River. Then the visitors started a march which ended with a fumble. Thief River Falls tried a passing game, but a pass was intercepted. Crookston lost the ball on downs. After this the ball see-sawed back and forth until the final whistle blew.

An unusually large crowd witnessed the game and made good use of the bleachers which had been provided on the side lines.

Following is the line-up for the locals:

CHILD PSYCHOLOGY DISCUSSED BY PASTORS AT INSTITUTE

Importance of Religious Instruction to Nation's Welfare is Emphasized

Devoted interest and knowledge of child nature as necessities in religious instruction were brot out by the Revs. S. T. Sorenson of Moorhead and J. Linnevold of Glenwood at the two-day institute and school of instruction for pastors and Sunday school teachers held at the Trinity Lutheran church auditorium under the auspices of the elementary board of education of the Lutheran church Sunday and Monday afternoon and evening. Eight lectures were given at the four sessions. A large number of parents also turned out for the meetings and men and women from other congregations interested in religious training in the homes attended.

Such topics as teachers' qualifications, methods of instruction, child study, the Lutheran conception of the Sunday school, how to use the catechism, the teachers' training class, how to prepare and teach the lesson, the week day religious school and the importance of the work of the teacher of Christianity were discussed and elaborated on by the pastors in charge.

"Religious instruction is one of the most important pillars on which modern society must depend for support," said Rev. Sorenson. "There are three vital institutions that are upholding the high ideals and civilization of the American people, the home, the public school and the Christian church. We must not minimize the importance of any one of these but as the church is looked to for moral and spiritual education and edification, the strength of the home and, consequently the strength of the school, is dependent on the efficiency of the church. And in as much as the future of the church is dependent on the rising generation, proper instruction and enlightment of the children and young people of the congregation is a factor of vital importance."

Rev. Linnevold stressed the power of the method of instruction of making the pupil answer his own question by answering another question put by the teacher. This method makes the pupil reason out the situation and apply it to actual daily problems. Association of the lessons to acts in the pupil's own daily existence was also stressed as a means of "driving the lesson home" and thus increasing its effectiveness. He also showed where a plan of so relating the lessons of each week to those of the preceding and succeeding week so that they would form a logical succession of lessons that can be recalled step by step by the pupil and have a significance not otherwise possible.

Among delegations which came to this city for the lectures on one or both of the days were Rev. and Mrs. Stormo and six teachers of Roseau; Rev. H. H. Hagen and four teachers of Greenbush; Rev. Stortroen and two teachers of Middle River; Rev. M. B. Ordahl and three teachers of Holt; Rev. C. M. Grimsrud and four teachers of St. Hilaire; Rev. E. O. Sabo of Mavie and Rev. V. O. Ankre and seven teachers of Goodridge, the only village in the circuit that had a hundred per cent representation of its Sunday school faculty.

Rev. and Mrs. Stormo favored those present at the Monday sessions with vocal and pipe organ solos, respectively, and Rev. Ankre and Rev. Stortroen assisted with the opening and closing of the Monday sessions. Rev. S. L. Tallakson, pastor of the Trinity church of this city is largely responsible for the institute being held here at this time and those who were able to take advantage of the instruction offered feel amply repaid for their effort. Rev. Tallakson presided at all sessions.

Out of town delegates were entertained at supper Sunday evening at the church parlors by the instructors of the Trinity Sunday school and those who stayed over night were housed by members of the congregation.

The cooking I classes are going to begin serving breakfast the latter part of the week.

Assembly Scene of Pep Meet for Crookston Game

Last Thursday morning a general stir prevaded the air all over the high school building; there seemed to be something in the air. Perhaps this, in part, was due to the many posters placed around the halls announcing a glorious mass meeting. At any rate the time for general assembly could not come too soon to satisfy the students. All their pent-up enthusiasm came out in bounds during the yells which opened the session.

After the yelling, "pep" speeches were given by Michael Parenteau, Arthur Penney, Donald McCrum, Leonard Thune and Esther Crown.

As a special entertainment to the student body, a member of the Freshman class Joseph Collins, and Leonard Knadle, a Sophomore, put on a very amusing stunt—in other words Joe jigged to the tune of Leonard's mouth organ.

The following rousing yells given for the team and coach in turn showed the attitude the school is taking in backing its team.

Coolidge Leads

As is a custom prevailing all over the country, a straw vote was held in each of the four American History sections in high school, all the members of these classes are Seniors. This straw vote was real and it reached every individual in the classes. Also these various "voters" knew who they were voting for and why. This vote bore out the possibilities of a deadlock, for Colidge, the leading candidate, did not have a majority of votes. Davis polled a very meagre vote, but this was expected, because Minnesota has not been Democartic for many years. The LaFollette dope was upset—nearly everyone expecting him to poll the largest number of votes. Following is the vote:

	Cool.	Davis	LaFol.
Division I	12	--	12
Division II	8	3	6
Division III	7	5	10
Division IV	15	1	9
Totals	42	9	37

Senior Lead in Averages

After the averages of the different classes for the minimum essential tests in English had been computed and compared, the Senior class was found to lead the rest. The class is ahead of their nearest followers, the Juniors, by five points. The average score of the Seniors is 86. The Freshmen have the lowest, 60. Following are the average scores for the respective classes:

Freshmen	60
Sophomores	76
Juniors	81
Seniors	86

Normal Notes

The students in the teachers' training department attended the county institute and the Northwestern Convention last week. Everyone states that the time was well spent.

This week the future pedagogues begin their practice teaching in the third and fourth grades. They will teach in the Washington, Knox, and Northrop schools.

Tuesday afternoon, October 7, the Normalites entertained the rural and the high school teachers at a party in the American Legion rooms. A series of stunts were given and also a few games were played. After the entertainment a lunch was served about five-thirty o'clock.

A Live School

Among those in attendance at the teachers' convention in this city last week was Elmer Tandberg, superintendent and athletic coach of the Middle River school. Judging by the school news appearing each week in the Middle River Record, this institution is 100 per cent activity and is taking an active part in promoting the best interests of the community.

ATHLETIC DISTRICT DIVIDED—SIMLEY IS SELECTED CHAIRMAN

Eight Schools in District No. 1 According to New Arrangement—Schedule Fixed

Superintendents and principals of the Minnesota State High School Athletic association district No. 1 met Thursday afternoon during the educational convention here and elected Supt. I. T. Simley of this city chairman of the executive committee. The other two members of the board are Supt. A. C. Peterson of Argyle and Supt. K. A. Rygh of Roseau.

The former district No. 1, of which Supt. M. C. Hayes of East Grand Forks was chairman the past year, has been divided into two districts. No. 1 now includes Thief River Falls, Argyle, Baudette, Hallock, Red Lake Falls, Roseau, Stephen and Warroad, while district No. 2 takes in Ada, Crookston, East Grand Forks, Fertile, Halstad, Fosston, McIntosh and Warren. By the new arrangement it is a certainty that the district basketball tournament will be held in this city.

The basketball schedule for the season was considered and for the local team includes games with Argyle, Roseau, Stephen, Fosston, McIntosh, Warren and the Crookston Aggies.

County Has Large Supply of Teachers Records Show

Pennington county supplies over two-thirds of its own rural school teaching personnel and a large number of Pennington county instructors are engaged in other counties, according to the county superintendent of schools, O. R. Sande.

There are 74 rural districts in the county, of which 50 are being taught by Pennington county residents this year. Of the other 24 teachers, 11 are from Marshall county, eight from Red Lake county, two from Polk, and one from each of Roseau, Todd and Hubbard. There are 10 Pennington county teachers engaged in Marshall county rural schools.

In addition to this there are a large number of local instructors teaching in other surrounding counties. School records show that a large percentage of Marshall county girls received their high school and normal training education in the Thief River Falls schools.

All rural schools have now secured teachers for the ensuing term and those not previously reported are dist. No. 5, Anna Rude; J17 Alice Patnode, of Red Lake Falls, 66; Petra Larson; 69, Borghild Johnson; J124 Evelyn Patnode, Red Lake Falls and J227, Nettie Johnson.

Among the best teachers the county boasts are three sisters, the Misses Milda, Ruth and Mabel Shefveland, Marshall county girls, the latter two of whom received their normal training instruction in this city. They are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Shefveland of Newfolden. Milda who has taught for 12 years, is now teaching in district No. 2, near this city; Mabel is spending her third year in district No. 30, Kratka; and Ruth is spending her second year in district No. 147, near this city.

The Pennington county teachers who are engaged in Marshall county schools are the Misses Amanda Klungness, Mamie Zavoral, Florentine Hance, Evelyn Saugen, Anna Harder, Thea Gutterud and Constance Klungness and the Messrs. Arlie H. Peterson, Harvey Olson and A. E. Mostue. They were among those who attended the meeting of the educational association in this city last week.

Miss Gladys Kolden, of the class of '24, visited school Tuesday forenoon.

Miss Alice Borby resumed her school work Monday after an absence of two weeks.

Schoolmasters Make Merry at Annual Banquet Held at Hotel Evolyn Thursday Eve

Schoolmen from the entire northwestern section of the state enjoyed a social time at the annual Schoolmasters' banquet held at the Hotel Evelyn Thursday evening in connection with the educational convention. A splendid dinner was served to about 70 persons at 6 o'clock, the toastmaster, Supt. I. T. Simley of this city, calling upon a number of speakers for brief remarks after the repast. Mr. Simley officiated in his usual humorous manner and created much merriment by his unique introductions.

Among those who responded to the toastmaster's call were Prof. B. F. Knight, University of Iowa; Dr. Fred Engelhardt, University of Minnesota; S. A. Challman, state inspector of school buildings; C. G. Schultz, secretary Minnesota Educational association; Supt. Wendtland of Fosston, Supt. A. C. Peterson of Argyle, Supt. J. A. Rygh of Roseau, T. M. McCall of the Northwest School of Agriculture and P. F. Schmidt of Crookston. Their remarks were confined largely to humorosities.

A feature of interest at the banquet was the presentation of a horse shoe to Mr. Peterson, as the winner of the "barnyard golf" tournament conducted during the convention, the presentation being made by Mr. Schmidt, who was in charge of this sport as a part of play ground work in the Crookston park the past summer. It is planned to make a horse shoe tournament a regular event, and Mr. Schmidt also urged that it be made a part of high school sports.

Delma Dols spent the week end at her home in Rosewood.

George Gunderson entered school on Monday as a Freshman.

Teachers' League Elects

Miss Lilly Gunstad of St. Hilaire, instructor in district No. 154, was elected president of the Pennington County Teachers' Progressive league at its meeting during Institute Week here last week. S. G. Tharaldson of district No. 68 is vice-president and Miss Rose Oski, district No. 99, secretary. Play days and spelling contests were among the important matters taken up, those present agreeing that they should be encouraged. Reading circle work was also considered and sectional leaders selected.

Miss Melvina Rupprecht visited with Miss Maverette Hilson over the week end.

Margaret Ronk visited the home of her parents in this city. She is attending St. Benedict's at Crookston.

Miss Marie Blaska visited her home in St. Hilaire Saturday and Sunday.

Sidney Fladeland and Ervin Nygaard visited their parents' home.

Pulling Together

THE outward and visible manifestations of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) organization consists of certain refineries, buildings, storage depots, service stations, tank wagons and quantities of crude petroleum and its products.

These tangible things any oil company may copy. The refineries of this Company, efficient as they now are, nevertheless may be copied by others. Its system of distribution may be copied. The design of its service stations, with their infinitely practical arrangements for service, may be copied. For all these things are but the work of hands.

But back of all these material possessions is something else—something fundamental, intangible—whose workings cannot be imitated. This is the will and the energy to create; the ideal which inspires and animates intrinsic service. This determination, this will and enthusiasm of heart cannot be copied. It is the unique possession which gives character to the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

This character is expressed in ideals of management. A prominent industrial engineer well says: "It is the part of management to manage. It is the part of science to overcome difficulties. Anybody can accept things as they are."

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has never been content to "accept things as they are." It will never be satisfied until petroleum is made to yield the greatest possible number of products which shall render a useful service to society.

This Company believes that an industrial organization exists and is permanent only because it renders an essential service.

It is the enthusiastic, wholehearted determination to serve, on the part of the 27,160 employes, which has made this Company a constructive force.

It is the harmonious pulling together of this industrial army that has enabled the Company to build a great business upon a foundation of fundamental service.

This spirit, which is imbued in the heart of every Standard Oil employe, is the key to the success of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana). You will find it manifest at every point. It is inherent. It is inimitable.

HONORABLE MIKE HOLM,
Secretary of State, Capitol.

SIR: As required by section 46, General Statutes 1913, I have the honor to furnish you herewith, a statement of the purposes and effects of all amendments proposed to the constitution of the state of Minnesota by the legislature of 1923 and which are to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in 1924.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 1.

Chapter 447, Session Laws of Minnesota for the year 1923 proposes an amendment to section 5 of article 9 of the constitution of the state. The section now reads as follows:

"Section 5. For the purpose of defraying extraordinary expenditures, the state may contract public debts, but such debts shall never, in the aggregate, exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; every such debt shall be authorized by law, for some single object, to be distinctly specified therein; and no such law shall take effect until it shall have been passed by the sevenths of the qualified voters voting at such election shall ratify the same, it shall, at the end of thirty days thereafter, become the charter of such city or village as a city, and supersede any existing charter and amendments thereof: Provided, that in cities having patrol limits now established, such charter shall require a three-fourths majority vote of the qualified voters voting at such election to change the patrol limits now established. Before any city shall incorporate under this act the legislature shall prescribe by law the general limits within which such charter shall be framed. Duplicate certificates shall be made, setting forth the charter proposed and its ratification, which shall be signed by the chief magistrate of said city or village and authenticated by its corporate seal. One of said certificates shall be deposited in the office of the secretary of state, and the other, after being recorded in the office of the register of deeds for the county in which such city or village lies, shall be deposited among the archives of such city or village, and all courts shall take judicial notice thereof. Such charter so deposited may be amended by proposal therefor made by a board of fifteen commissioners aforesaid, published for at least thirty days in three newspapers of general circulation in such city or village, and accepted by three-fifths of the qualified voters of such city or village voting at the next election and not otherwise; but such charter shall always be in harmony with and subject to the constitution and laws of the state of Minnesota. The legislature may prescribe the duties of the commission relative to submitting amendments of charter to the vote of the people, and shall provide that upon application of five per cent of the legal voters of any such city or village, by written petition, such commission shall submit to the vote of the people proposed amendments to such charter set forth in said petition. The board of freeholders above provided for shall be permanent, and all the vacancies by death, disability to perform duties, resignation or removal from the corporate limits, or expiration of term of office, shall be filled by appointment in the same manner as the original board was created, and said board shall always contain its full complement of members. It shall be a feature of all such charters that there shall be provided, among other things, for a mayor or chief magistrate, and a legislative body of either one or two houses; if of two houses, at least one of them shall be elected by general vote of the electors. In submitting any such charter or amendment thereto to the qualified voters of such city or village any alternate section or article may be presented for the choice of the voters, and may be voted on separately without prejudice to other articles or sections of the charter or any amendments thereto. The legislature may provide general laws relating to affairs of cities, the application of which may be limited to cities of over fifty thousand inhabitants, or to cities of fifty and not less than twenty thousand inhabitants, or to cities of twenty and not less than ten thousand inhabitants, or to cities of ten thousand inhabitants or less, which shall apply equally to all such cities of either class, and which shall be paramount while in force to the provisions relating to the same matter included in the local charter herein provided for. INTRODUCTION

Pardon me, if you think I may seem
Just a little bit proud of our team.
As a fact it's rare
To see one so fair,
That I'm almost afraid it's a dream

That flash out yonder is Penney
Those faster than he are not many.
He thrills every lass
When completing a pass,
For he seldom "incompletes" any.

Parenteau, the galloping quarter,
The fleet footed, fighting, rip-snorter;
Personified pep
Wide spreading rep—
Sweet food for the daily reporter.

There's Bennes, who's game to the core
The boy whom the fans adore,
With tactics elusive
Confusing, conducive
To many a point in the score.

Look at Wengeler, hard hitting back;
Watch him make the opposing line crack.
A "go-get-'em", slam—
He hits with a resonant whack.

That's Thune, the coach, over there—
A regular two-fisted bear.
The fellow that takes 'em,
And molds 'em, and makes 'em
The foes' everlasting nightmare.

Then let's step out and do what we know
To give, and not get, all the woe.
The noise is what tells,
So say it with yells!
Let 'em have it, fellows, let's go.
—Watch.

They All Have Uniforms

With the purchase of 18 new outfits for the football men this fall, the Lincoln high representatives are well equipped, there being sufficient regalia for nearly four teams. Being allowed the use of a full outfit encourages candidates to go out for practise, no outlay for this item being necessary on the part of the student. The equipment is purchased by the high school athletic association, which had an unusually successful season last year.

Jokes

Horace: What did your wife say when you came in at four this morning?

CROOKSTON-T. R. F. GAME ENDS IN TIE

Locals Outplay Opponents in Stiff 12-12 Battle—Passes Feature Game

Battling on a muddy field the Thief River Falls and Crookston high school football team played a 12-12 tie Friday afternoon, the locals making both touchdowns in the first quarter during which time Crookston made no threats to cross their line. The Thief River Falls boys played a strong game, showing much improvement in their defensive playing over the Warren fracas.

Friday's contest was featured by a spectacular aerial attack, first on the part of the locals with Crookston coming back in the same style, but less successful. Four passes out of four attempts were completed by the Lincolnites in the early part of the game and considerable ground was gained by this form of playing.

Parenteau, quarterback, and Zeh, halfback, were consistent ground gainers for the locals, ably assisted by McCrum and Penney, ends. The outstanding member on the Crookston team was Geor, who made several gains thru the line and showed unusual ability to break the defense.

It is the belief of many fans that the Thief River Falls team outplayed its opponents, Crookston's second touchdown being made when the visitor's kicked off over the line and the locals failed to fall on the ball, thinking that it would be taken back on the 20 yard line. Instead, a Crookston man took possession of the oval and after considerable consultation of the rules it was found that Crookston was entitled to six points.

First Quarter

Thief River kicked off and Crookston made three yards, but fumbled on the second down. Locals recovered the fumble. On a line buck they made two yards, then Mike made four, while Dutch reeled off three more. Then the Lincolnites made first down on a pass to McCrum. Thief River continually worked the ball to a touchdown which was registered by Bjorkman on a quarter back sneak. A try-for-point failed, making the score 6-0. The locals kicked off again and on the next play intercepted a pass and Thief River put the ball over for the second touchdown with a pass to Penney. The try-for point, a drop kick, struck the cross bars and did not count, making the score 12 to 0. Locals kicked again to Crookston, who seemed to have tightened up a little, and the quarter ended with the ball in their hands.

Second Quarter

Crookston tore off for first downs three times, but failed on a pass on their fourth down. Locals got the ball, gained five yards but lost this for being off side. They punted. Crookston fumbled and Thief River received the ball, but were forced to punt. Visitors tried to pass, but Zeh intercepted it. The locals were also forced to punt. Crookston was going great when the half ended.

Third Quarter

Crookston kicked off. Locals gained a little on it, and time was called because Mulry was hurt. In a few minutes play was started but the Lincolnites were forced to punt. Then Crookston tore down the field on passes, line bucks, and end-runs, until they made a touchdown. They, too, failed to get their extra point, on a line buck. Then Crookston kicked off, again and the ball went over the local's line. A Crookston player fell on the pig-skin and they were given another touchdown. They failed again on a line buck to put the ball over for an extra point. Now the score was tied. After kicking off again Crookston tried a passing game, some times making ground and other times not, but they were forced to punt and the locals lost the ball on downs.

Fourth Quarter

Crookston was forced to punt and so was Thief River. Then the visitors started a march which ended with a fumble. Thief River Falls tried a passing game, but a pass was intercepted. Crookston lost the ball on downs. After this the ball see-sawed back and forth until the final whistle blew.

An unusually large crowd witnessed the game and made good use of the bleachers which had been provided on the side lines.

Following is the line-up for the locals:

Penney, r. e.; Froseth, r. t.; Elofson, r. g.; Sorenson, c.; Mulry, l. g.; Holzknecht, l. t.; McCrum, l. e.; Bjorkman, qt. b.; Parenteau, r. h. b.; Wengeler, f. b.; Zeh, l. h. b.

CHILD PSYCHOLOGY DISCUSSED BY PASTORS AT INSTITUTE

Importance of Religious Instruction to Nation's Welfare is Emphasized

Devoted interest and knowledge of child nature as necessities in religious instruction were brot out by the Revs. S. T. Sorenson of Moorhead and J. Linnevold of Glenwood at the two-day institute and school of instruction for pastors and Sunday school teachers held at the Trinity Lutheran church auditorium under the auspices of the elementary board of education of the Lutheran church Sunday and Monday afternoon and evening. Eight lectures were given at the four sessions. A large number of parents also turned out for the meetings and men and women from other congregations interested in religious training in the homes attended.

Such topics as teachers' qualifications, methods of instruction, child study, the Lutheran conception of the Sunday school, how to use the catechism, the teachers' training class, how to prepare and teach the lesson, the week day religious school and the importance of the work of the teacher of Christianity were discussed and elaborated on by the pastors in charge.

"Religious instruction is one of the most important pillars on which modern society must depend for support," said Rev. Sorenson. "There are three vital institutions that are upholding the high ideals and civilization of the American people, the home, the public school and the Christian church. We must not minimize the importance of any one of these but as the church is looked to for moral and spiritual education and edification, the strength of the home and, consequently the strength of the school, is dependent on the efficiency of the church. And in as much as the future of the church is dependent on the rising generation, proper instruction and enlightment of the children and young people of the congregation is a factor of vital importance."

Rev. Linnevold stressed the power of the method of instruction of making the pupil answer his own question by answering another question put by the teacher. This method makes the pupil reason out the situation and apply it to actual daily problems. Association of the lessons to acts in the pupil's own daily existence was also stressed as a means of "driving the lesson home" and thus increasing its effectiveness. He also showed where a plan of so relating the lessons of each week to those of the preceding and succeeding week so that they would form a log-

Assembly Scene of Pep Meet for Crookston Game

Last Thursday morning a general stir prevaded the air all over the high school building; there seemed to be something in the air. Perhaps this, in part, was due to the many posters placed around the halls announcing a glorious mass meeting. At any rate the time for general assembly could not come too soon to satisfy the students. All their pent-up enthusiasm came out in bounds during the yells which opened the session.

After the yelling, "pep" speeches were given by Michael Parenteau, Arthur Penney, Donald McCrum, Leonard Thune and Esther Crown.

As a special entertainment to the student body, a member of the Freshman class, Joseph Collins, and Leonard Knadle, a Sophomore, put on a very amusing stunt—in other words Joe jigged to the tune of Leonard's mouth organ.

The following rousing yells given for the team and coach in turn showed the attitude the school is taking in backing its team.

Coolidge Leads

As is a custom prevailing all over the country, a straw vote was held in each of the four American History sections in high school, all the members of these classes are Seniors. This straw vote was real and it reached every individual in the class. Also these various "voters" knew who they were voting for and why. This vote bore out the possibilities of a deadlock, for Calidge, the leading candidate, did not have a majority of votes. Davis polled a very meagre vote, but this was expected, because Minnesota has not been Democartic for many years. The La Follette dope was upset—nearly everyone expecting him to poll the largest number of votes. Following is the vote:

	Cool.	Davis	LaFol.
Division I	12	--	12
Division II	8	3	6
Division III	7	5	10
Division IV	15	1	9
Totals	42	9	37

Senior Lead in Averages

After the averages of the different classes for the minimum essential tests in English had been computed and compared, the Senior class was found to lead the rest. The class is ahead of their nearest followers, the Juniors, by five points. The average score of the Seniors is 86. The Freshmen have the lowest, 60. Following are the average scores for the respective classes:

Freshmen	60
Sophomores	76
Juniors	81
Seniors	86

Normal Notes

The students in the teachers' training department attended the county institute and the Northwestern Convention last week. Everyone states that the time was well spent.

This week the future pedagogues begin their practice teaching in the third and fourth grades. They will teach in the Washington, Knox, and Northrop schools.

Tuesday afternoon, October 7, the Normalites entertained the rural and the high school teachers at a party in the American Legion rooms. A series of stunts were given and also a few games were played. After the entertainment a lunch was served about five-thirty o'clock.

A Live School

Among those in attendance at the teachers' convention in this city last week was Elmer Tandberg, superintendent and athletic coach of the Middle River school. Judging by the school news appearing each week in the Middle River Record, this institution is 100 per cent activity and is taking an active part in promoting the best interests of the community.

ATHLETIC DISTRICT DIVIDED--SIMLEY IS SELECTED CHAIRMAN

Eight Schools in District No. 1 According to New Arrangement—Schedule Fixed

Superintendents and principals of the Minnesota State High School Athletic association district No. 1 met Thursday afternoon during the educational convention here and elected Supt. I. T. Simley of this city chairman of the executive committee. The other two members of the board are Supt. A. C. Peterson of Argyle and Supt. K. A. Rygh of Roseau.

The former district No. 1, of which Supt. M. C. Hayes of East Grand Forks was chairman the past year, has been divided into two districts. No. 1 now includes Thief River Falls, Argyle, Baudette, Hallock, Red Lake Falls, Roseau, Stephen and Warroad, while district No. 2 takes in Ada, Crookston, East Grand Forks, Fertile, Halstad, Fosston, McIntosh and Warren. By the new arrangement it is a certainty that the district basketball tournament will be held in this city.

The basketball schedule for the season was considered and for the local team includes games with Argyle, Roseau, Stephen, Fosston, McIntosh, Warren and the Crookston Aggies.

County Has Large Supply of Teachers Records Show

Pennington county supplies over two-thirds of its own rural school teaching personnel and a large number of Pennington county instructors are engaged in other counties, according to the county superintendent of schools, O. R. Sande.

There are 74 rural districts in the county, of which 50 are being taught by Pennington county residents this year. Of the other 24 teachers, 11 are from Marshall county, eight from Red Lake county, two from Polk, and one from each of Roseau, Todd and Hubbard. There are 10 Pennington county teachers engaged in Marshall county rural schools.

In addition to this there are a large number of local instructors teaching in other surrounding counties. School records show that a large percentage of Marshall county girls received their high school and normal training education in the Thief River Falls schools.

All rural schools have now secured teachers for the ensuing term and those not previously reported are dist. No. 5, Anna Rude; J17 Alice Patnode, of Red Lake Falls, 66; Petra Larson; 69, Borghild Johnson; J124 Evelyn Patnode, Red Lake Falls and J227, Nettie Johnson.

Among the best teachers the county boasts are three sisters, the Misses Milda, Ruth and Mabel Shefveland, Marshall county girls, the latter two of whom received their normal training instruction in this city. They are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Shefveland of Newfolden. Milda who has taught for 12 years, is now teaching in district No. 2, near this city; Mabel is spending her third year in district No. 30, Kratka; and Ruth is spending her second year in district No. 147, near this city.

The Pennington county teachers who are engaged in Marshall county schools are the Misses Amanda Klungness, Mamie Zavoral, Florentine Hance, Evelyn Saugen, Anna Harder, Thea Gatterud and Constance Klungness and the Messrs. Arlie H. Peterson, Harvey Olson and A. E. Mostue. They were among those who attended the meeting of the educational association in this city last week.

Miss Gladys Kohlen, of the class of '24, visited school Tuesday forenoon.

Miss Alice Bothy resumed her school work Monday after an absence of two weeks.

Schoolmasters Make Merry at Annual Banquet Held at Hotel Evelyn Thursday Eve

Schoolmen from the entire northwestern section of the state enjoyed a social time at the annual Schoolmasters' banquet held at the Hotel Evelyn Thursday evening in connection with the educational convention. A splendid dinner was served to about 70 persons at 6 o'clock, the toastmaster, Supt. I. T. Simley of this city, calling upon a number of speakers for brief remarks after the repast. Mr. Simley officiated in his usual humorous manner and created much merriment by his unique introductions.

Among those who responded to the toastmaster's call were Prof. B. F. Knight, University of Iowa; Dr. Fred Engelhardt, University of Minnesota; S. A. Challman, state inspector of school buildings; C. G. Schultz, secretary Minnesota Educational association; Supt. Wendtland of Fosston, Supt. A. C. Peterson of Argyle, Supt. J. A. Rygh of Roseau, T. M. McCall of the Northwest School of Agriculture and P. F. Schmidt of Crookston. Their remarks were confined largely to humorosities.

A feature of interest at the banquet was the presentation of a horse shoe to Mr. Peterson, as the winner of the "barnyard golf" tournament conducted during the convention, the presentation being made by Mr. Schmidt, who was in charge of this sport as a part of play ground work in the Crookston park the past summer. It is planned to make a horse shoe tournament a regular event, and Mr. Schmidt also urged that it be made a part of high school sports.

Delma Dols spent the week end at her home in Rosewood.

George Gunderson entered school on Monday as a Freshman.

Teachers' League Elects

Miss Lilly Gunstad of St. Hilaire, instructor in district No. 154, was elected president of the Pennington County Teachers' Progressive league at its meeting during Institute Week here last week. S. G. Tharaldson of district No. 63 is vice-president and Miss Rose Oski, district No. 99, secretary. Play days and spelling contests were among the important matters taken up, those present agreeing that they should be encouraged. Reading circle work was also considered and sectional leaders selected.

Miss Melvina Rupprecht visited with Miss Maverette Hilson over the week end.

Margaret Roark visited the home of her parents in this city. She is attending St. Benedict's at Crookston.

Miss Marie Blaska visited her home in St. Hilaire Saturday and Sunday.

Sidney Fladeland and Ervin Nygaard visited their parents' home.

GET POSITIONS WITHOUT DELAY

Pupils attending Dakota Business College, Fargo, do not have to face the bugbear of job-hunting. Before finishing their courses, Florence Tingdahl was sent to the Millarton State Bank, Dan Jacobson was placed with the Garfield (Minn.) State Bank. On their very graduation day, Grace Adams went to the Northern School Supply Co., Mary Brudevold to the First National Bank of Tower City.

Such results speak for themselves. Watch each week. "Follow the Succe$$ful." Begin next Monday. Write F. L. Watkins, Pres., 806 Front St., Fargo for terms, etc.

STATE OF MINNESOTA

CLIFFORD L. HILTON
Attorney General

St. Paul, Minn., June 14, 1924.

HONORABLE MIKE HOLM,
Secretary of State, Capitol.

SIR: As required by section 46, General Statutes 1913, I have the honor to furnish you herewith, a statement of the purposes and effects of all amendments proposed to the constitution of the state of Minnesota by the legislature of 1923 and which are to be submitted to the electors of the state at the general election in 1924.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 1.

Chapter 447, Session Laws of Minnesota for the year 1923 proposes an amendment to section 5 of article 9 of the constitution of the state. The section now reads as follows:

"Section 5. For the purpose of defraying extraordinary expenditures, the state may contract public debts, but such debts shall never, in the aggregate, exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; every such debt shall be authorized by law, for some single object, to be distinctly specified therein; and no such law shall take effect until it shall have been passed by the vote of two-thirds of the members of each branch of the legislature, to be recorded by yeas and nays on the journals of each house respectively; and every such law shall levy a tax annually sufficient to pay the annual interest of such debt, and also a tax sufficient to pay the principal of such debt within ten years from the final passage of such law, and shall specially appropriate the proceeds of such taxes to the payment of such principal and interest; and such appropriation and taxes shall not be repealed, postponed, or diminished, until the principal and interest of such debt shall have been wholly paid. The state shall never contract any debts for works of internal improvements, or be a party in carrying on such works, except in cases where grants of land or other property shall have been made to the state, especially dedicated by the grant to specific purposes, and in such cases the state shall devote thereto the avails of such grants, and may pledge or appropriate the revenues derived from such works in aid of their completion."

If amended this section will read as follows:

"Section 5. For the purpose of defraying extraordinary expenditures, the state may contract public debts, but such debts shall never, in the aggregate, exceed two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; every such debt shall be authorized by law, for some single object, to be distinctly specified therein; and no such law shall take effect until it shall have been passed by the vote of two-thirds of the members of each branch of the legislature, to be recorded by yeas and nays on the journals of each house respectively; and every such law shall levy a tax annually sufficient to pay the annual interest of such debt, and also a tax sufficient to pay the principal of such debt within ten years from the final passage of such law, and shall specially appropriate the proceeds of such taxes to the payment of such principal and interest; and such appropriation and taxes shall not be repealed, postponed, or diminished, until the principal and interest of such debt shall have been wholly paid. The state shall never contract any debts for works of internal improvement, or be a party in carrying on such works, except as authorized by section 16 of article 9, and by article 16 of this constitution; but it may levy an excise tax upon any substance, material, fluid, force or other means or instrumentality, or the business of dealing in, selling or producing any or all thereof, used or useful, in producing or generating power for propelling motor or other vehicles used on the public highways of this state, and shall place the proceeds of such tax in the trunk highway fund provided for in section 2 of said article 16 and further except in cases where grants of land or other property shall have been made to the state, especially dedicated by the grant to specific purposes, and in such cases the state shall devote thereto the avails of such grants, and may pledge or appropriate the revenues derived from such works in aid of their completion."

The purpose of the proposed amendment is to confer express authority upon the legislature to provide a special tax on gasoline or other substances used, or useful, for the propulsion of motor vehicles on the public highways of the state or on the business of dealing in, selling or producing such substances. The money so raised by such tax to be used for the construction and maintenance of trunk highways.

The effect of the amendment, if adopted, will be that the cost of the construction and maintenance of trunk highways, the whole of which is now paid by a direct tax on motor vehicles, supplemented by federal aid, will be borne in part by the revenue derived from such gasoline tax, so-called, as the legislature may impose.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 2.

Chapter 448, Session Laws of Minnesota for the year 1923 proposes an amendment of section 36 of article 4 of the constitution of the state. This section now reads as follows:

"Section 36. Any city or village in this state may frame a charter for its own government as a city consistent with and subject to the laws of this state, as follows: The legislature shall provide, under such restrictions as it deems proper, for a board of fifteen freeholders, who shall be and for the past five years shall have been qualified voters thereof, to be appointed by the district judges of the judicial district in which the city or village is situated, as the legislature may determine, for a term in no event to exceed six years, which board shall, within six months after its appointment, return to the chief magistrate of said city or village a draft of said charter, signed by the members of said board, or a majority thereof. Such charter shall be submitted to the qualified voters of such city or village at the next election thereafter, and if four-sevenths of the qualified voters voting at such election shall ratify the same it shall, at the end of thirty days thereafter, become the charter of such city or village as a city, and supersede any existing charter and amendments thereof: Provided, that in cities having patrol limits now established, such charter shall require a three-fourths majority vote of the qualified voters voting at such election to change the patrol limits now established. Before any city shall incorporate under this act the legislature shall prescribe by law the general limits within which such charter shall be framed. Duplicate certificates shall be made setting forth the charter proposed and its ratification, which shall be signed by the chief magistrate of said city or village and authenticated by its corporate seal. One of said certificates shall be deposited in the office of the secretary of state, and the other, after being recorded in the office of the register of deeds for the county in which such city or village lies, shall be deposited among the archives of such city or village, and all courts shall take judicial notice thereof. Such charter so deposited may be amended by proposal therefor made by a board of fifteen commissioners aforesaid, published for at least thirty days in three newspapers of general circulation in such city or village, and accepted by three-fifths of the qualified voters of such city or village voting at the next election and not otherwise; but such charter shall always be in harmony with and subject to the constitution and laws of the state of Minnesota. The legislature may prescribe the duties of the commission relative to submitting amendments of charter to the vote of the people, and shall provide that upon application of five per cent of the legal voters of any such city or village, by written petition, such commission shall submit to the vote of the people proposed amendments to such charter set forth in said petition. The board of freeholders above provided for shall be permanent, and all the vacancies by death, disability to perform duties, resignation or removal from the corporate limits, or expiration of term of office, shall be filled by appointment in the same manner as the original board was created, and said board shall always contain its full complement of members. It shall be a feature of all such charters that there shall be provided, among other things, for a mayor or chief magistrate, and a legislative body of either one or two houses; if of two houses, at least one of them shall be elected by general vote of the electors. In submitting any such charter or amendment thereto to the qualified voters of such city or village any alternate section or article may be presented for the choice of the voters, and may be voted on separately without prejudice to other articles or sections of the charter or any amendments thereto. The legislature may provide general laws relating to affairs of cities, the application of which may be limited to cities of over fifty thousand inhabitants, or to cities of fifty and not less than twenty thousand inhabitants, or to cities of twenty and not less than ten thousand inhabitants, or to cities of ten thousand inhabitants or less, which shall apply equally to all such cities of either class, and which shall be paramount while in force to the provisions relating to the same matter included in the local charter herein provided for. But no local charter, provision or ordinance passed thereunder shall supersede any general law of the state defining or punishing crimes or misdemeanors."

If amended this section will read as follows:

"Section 36. Any city or village in this state may frame a charter for its own government as a city consistent with and subject to the laws of this state as follows: The legislature shall provide, under such restrictions as it deems proper, for a board of fifteen freeholders, who shall be and for the past five years shall have been qualified voters thereof, to be appointed by the district judges of the judicial district in which the city or village is situated, as the legislature may determine, for a term in no event to exceed six years, which board shall, within six months after its appointment, return to the chief magistrate of said city or village a draft of said charter, signed by the members of said board, or a majority thereof. Such charter shall be submitted to the qualified voters of such city or village at the next election thereafter, and if four-sevenths of the qualified voters voting at such election shall ratify the same it shall, at the end of thirty days thereafter, become the charter of such city or village as a city, and supersede any existing charter and amendments thereof: Provided, that in cities having patrol limits now established, such charter shall require a three-fourths majority vote of the qualified voters voting at such election to change the patrol limits now established. Before any city shall incorporate under this act the legislature shall prescribe by law the general limits within which such charter shall be framed. Duplicate certificates shall be made setting forth the charter proposed and its ratification, which shall be signed by the chief magistrate of said city or village and authenticated by its corporate seal. One of said certificates shall be deposited in the office of the secretary of state, and the other, after being recorded in the office of the register of deeds for the county in which such city or village lies, shall be deposited among the archives of such city or village, and all courts shall take judicial notice thereof. Such charter so deposited may be amended by proposal therefor made by a board of fifteen commissioners aforesaid, published for at least ten days in any daily newspaper of general circulation in such city or village, or if there be no daily newspaper of general circulation in such city or village then for two successive weeks in a weekly newspaper of general circulation in such city or village, and accepted by three-fifths of the qualified voters of such city or village voting at the next election and not otherwise; but such charter shall always be in harmony with and subject to the constitution and laws of the state of Minnesota. The legislature may prescribe the duties of the commission relative to submitting amendments of charter to the vote of the people, and shall provide that upon application of five per cent of the legal voters of any such city or village, by written petition, such commission shall submit to the vote of the people proposed amendments to such charter set forth in said petition. The board of freeholders above provided for shall be permanent and all the vacancies by death, disability to perform duties, resignation or removal from the corporate limits, or expiration of term of office, shall be filled by appointment in the same manner as the original board was created, and said board shall always contain its full complement of members. It shall be a feature of all such charters that there shall be provided, among other things, for a mayor or chief magistrate, and a legislative body of either one or two houses; if of two houses, at least one of them shall be elected by general vote of the electors. In submitting any such charter or amendment thereto to the qualified voters of such city or village any alternate section or article may be presented for the choice of the voters, and may be voted on separately without prejudice to other articles or sections of the charter or any amendments thereto. The legislature may provide general laws relating to affairs of cities, the applications of which may be limited to cities over fifty thousand inhabitants, or to cities of fifty and not less than twenty thousand inhabitants, or to cities of twenty and not less than ten thousand inhabitants, or to cities of ten thousand inhabitants or less, which shall apply equally to all such cities of either class, and which shall be paramount while in force to the provisions relating to the same matter included in the local charter herein provided for. But no local charter, provision or ordinance passed thereunder shall supersede any general law of the state defining or punishing crimes or misdemeanors."

The purpose of said amendment is to change the number of newspapers in which proposed amendments of home rule charters of cities and villages must be published and the duration of such publications.

The effect of said amendments, if adopted, will be to authorize the publication of proposed amendments to the home rule charter of a city or village for ten days in one daily newspaper of general circulation therein, if there be such a newspaper, or once each week for two successive weeks in a weekly newspaper of general circulation therein, if there be no such daily newspaper, instead of publishing the same for thirty days in three newspapers of general circulation therein as now required.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NO. 4.

SERVED WITH COMPLAINT FROM CO-OP

Temporary Injunction Halts Purchase of Pool Wheat by Private Company

On the complaint of the Minnesota Wheat Growers Co-operative Marketing association, District Judge C. M. Tifft has granted a temporary injunction, restraining the Commander Elevator company, a private concern at LeSueur, from purchasing the grain of members of the Minnesota Wheat Growers association. The complaint was filed by W. J. Brown, general counsel for the association.

The Minnesota association claims in its petition to the court that the Commander Elevator company has knowingly purchased wheat from more than fifty different members of the Minnesota association, contrary to the terms of the marketing agreement between the Minnesota association and its several members, and claims that this action violates the provisions of Sections 26 and 27 of the Co-operative Marketing Act of the State of Minnesota, which act fixes a penalty in the sum of $500 for each such offense and the payment of expenses connected with the litigation.

The Minnesota association also in its petition asks damages in the sum of $25,000 against the Commander Elevator company.

W. H. Frederick, secretary of the Minnesota association, says that "the board of directors of the Minnesota association has considered the matter of the violation of the marketing contract by some of the members, and the act of some of the elevators of the state in inducing the members of the Minnesota association to sell grain outside of the pool, and that the board of directors has directed the legal department to bring action for damages against all elevators of the state which has purchased the wheat from members of the association, and to ask the court for injunctions restraining further violations of the contract, and to enforce the membership contract in all its terms."

City's Coal Supply to be Furnished by Prichard Co.

The city will pay only $9.40 a ton for the best grade of soft coal to heat the various public buildings this winter, according to the acceptance of the bid of The Prichard Company, whose bid was considered the lowest when heat units and steam producing qualities were taken into consideration at the opening of bids for the supply for this winter at the meeting of the City Council Tuesday night. The coal will be Youghioghany lump and is a standard grade and well known to many fuel users in this city.

Bids were received from the following six fuel dealers: The Prichard Company, Minneapolis Bridge company, Christiansen Hardware Company, Andy Solberg, Ed O'Hara and Edison Gannon. Variations of bids were more as to the kind of coal rather then in price.

Last season the city used about 150 tons during the winter but in anticipation of a more severe season the council deemed it expedient to contract for 175 tons, or five cars of 35 tons each, to be delivered from time to time thruout the winter. The above prices all included delivery in the bins of the city.

The free use of the auditorium for the Bible conference being held in the city was granted for Sunday forenoon, afternoon and evening, the meetings being held by four of the local churches.

Three building permits, two for garages and one for remodeling of a residence, were granted unanimously, as were also four milk licenses, these being to V. C. Neper, Jacob Hermanson, Mrs. J. O. Dahl and A. D. Peterson, following due approval of the dairy inspector.

The other matters coming before the council included the monthly reports, the opening and acceptance of coal bids, the consideration of compensation insurance for city employees and the fixing of the annual tax levy for the coming year, all of which are covered elsewhere in The Times. Aldermen T. A. Fossum and H. A. Brumund were not present at the meeting Tuesday night.

Renowned Welsh Chorus Coming to City Oct. 29

The local Elks lodge is busy making arrangements for the grand concert to be given at the auditorium Wednesday evening, Oct. 29, by the Rhondda Male Chorus, composed of 16 vocalists of Wales who are making a tour of the United States and Canada. This will be an unusual treat for Thief River Falls music lovers and expectations are that a large number of out-of-town people will be in attendance.

Continued Rains Cause Delay in Work on Farms

With a rain of nearly one and a half inches during the weekend on the heels of a heavy downpour the previous week, the fields were given a further soaking and threshing consequently delayed for several days. However, the violent wind on Sunday did much to dry up the ground and grain so that threshing was resumed by some on Tuesday. Considerable loss is reported in the grades of unthreshed grain. A surprisingly large amount of grain is yet unthreshed in the Red River valley, it is reported, as is also the case in parts of North Dakota. A considerable portion of what is left in this territory, however, has been stacked and will not suffer much.

Potato digging has also been seriously retarded by the frequent rains the past three weeks. Members of the Potato Growers' Exchange are busy hauling the crop to the shipping stations and quite a number of cars have been shipped from this city. Farmers are urged to dig their potatoes as soon as possible to avoid frosts. The market is very low at the present time and unless conditions change materially before the end of the season the price may be expected to increase slightly more than the usual amount, says the Minnesota Potato Market letter. The price has stood nearly unchanged the past three weeks.

Altho unable to haul the sugar beets crop to the piling stations for several days on account of the heavy rains, about one-half of the acreage here has been harvested, topping having been practically completed, County Agent J. J. McCann says. A large quantity has been piled near the Soo tracks in this city ready for shipping when orders are received and where fields have been too wet for hauling beets have been piled temporarily in the fields.

Argyle Farmer Must Vacate Dwellings as Result of Violations of Volstead Laws

Moonshining in Marshall county seems to be a rather hazardous occupation. The farm dwellings occupied by Alfred LeBlanc, near Argyle, have been ordered closed for one year by Judge Andrew Grindeland of Warren, as a result of violations of the prohibition laws on the grounds. This is believed to be the first abatement proceeding in Minnesota where farm buildings are included. The case was appealed to the supreme court last week. The LeBlanc case is the first of three of its kind to be tried in Marshall county this fall, abatement proceedings having also been started against Walter Gajeski and Mr. and Mrs. Appolus Poitras of Wright township. The hearing on the former was held Thursday, the latter being slated for Nov. 4. The Gajeski farm of 400 acres and dwellings will be closed without notice for one year if the owner is caught at further violations of the liquor laws.

Village May Bond to Pay Damage Claim to Mrs. Goar

In order to pay an $8,500 judgment granted Mrs. Gunda Goar of Grand Forks, a daughter of Mrs. Anna Wedmer, until recently of this city, and pay a portion of the cost of litigation, the village of Stephen may have to bond itself to the extent of $9,000. Officers of the village have called a special election for October 22 to vote on the proposition. In fighting the case the village, losing in the lower courts, carried it to the supreme court incurring a cost, including the judgment, of approximately $11,000. All but $9,000 of this has been paid. H. O. Chommie of this city and the Olson and Hage law firm of Warren represented Mrs. Goar in the case.

The judgment grew out of injuries sustained by Mrs. Goar on Aug. 10, 1922, when she was burned by a high voltage of electricity while at work in her home in Stephen. She was using an electric iron in which a circuit was formed, burning her arm and hand causing the loss of four fingers.

Following the completion of the damage suit, Mrs. Goar's husband, E. E. Goar, at present an employee of the Robertson Lumber company in Grand Forks, entered suit for $4,500 for "loss of services." He won this action in the lower courts, but the village of Stephen appealed it and it is now pending. Village officers claim they will take the case to the supreme court if necessary.

control has been through the providential projection of the Vice President into the President's chair, free from preconventional promises.

"Until a law can be had for the control of our national conventions, the people cannot hope to win their government. Government ownership of industries is not the remedy, but government ownership of our government is the essential requirement for the preservation of our representative government, our traditions and our sacred personal liberty.

"President Coolidge, having come into the President's chair through an act of Providence, is free to act for the American people as his conscience and better judgment dictates. No finger of suspicion can be pointed at our President, who has obtained his nomination without trading away his political anatomy. He is fitted, as no man since Theodore Roosevelt, to give the American people an administration that will do credit to our country."

Opposition to the League of Nations and the World Court was expressed by the speaker, who said he had been offered a campaign fund of $25,000 if he would advocate the world court. "There is a concerted move to get the United States into the World Court," he said. "The Third party is to split the vote, throw the election into Congress where Davis or Bryan will be elected president and then entry into the World Court arranged. This would throw us into a chaos of entangling alliances.

"Foreign influence at the present time prevents the development of an American merchant marine, and secures the payment by American vessels of tolls for using the Panama canal for coast-wise traffic."

In reviewing his personal record Mr. Schall cited his membership on the rules committee in the House, controlled by Republicans, and defied anyone to prove that he is not true to the principles of the Republican party. He told his hearers that a number of "hard-shelled" and "gang" Republicans are repudiating him on account of his fearlessness in attack where he finds wrong and his refusal to grant favors.

In this connection he made a bitter attack on J. S. Arneson of this city.

Mr. Schall is accompanied on his tour thru the state by his wife and by his publicity director, Leo Blank. They left Saturday for Badger.

Sorenson Bound to Dist. Court on Serious Charge

Stanley Sorenson, who was arrested Friday by Chief of Police A. D. Ralston on a charge of indecent assault on complaint of Miss Myrtle Kolberg of Greenbush, was bound over to the next term of district court on bonds of $500 by Judge N. Tarant in municipal court Saturday afternoon.

According to the complaint, young Sorenson took indecent liberties with Miss Kolberg at a vacated farm house three miles west of this city on Thursday afternoon. He was held in the city jail until Saturday afternoon when he was brot before Judge Tarant in municipal court for a hearing and was bound over to the district court. Bonds were furnished.

Rev. Kreidt at Conference

Rev. E. H. Kreidt of the St. John's Lutheran church left Tuesday for Radium to attend the North Park Region conference of the Missouri Synod of the Lutheran church which convened Tuesday and Wednesday. About 20 pastors were in attendance. One of the congregations served by Rev. Martin Hauser of Warren was host to the visiting delegates. Exegitical and dogmatical papers were read and special services conducted.

State Tax Rate for '24 Is Fixed at 5.78 Mills. 28% Cut From Last Year

A 28 per cent reduction in the Minnesota state tax rate under that of last year has been announced by Ray P. Chase, state auditor. The revenue from this tax is used for the maintenance of state government, the schools and universities. The rate this year is 5.78 mills or 2.32 mills below the 1923 tax rate.

Of the total rate, 4.5 mills is credited to state tax, 1.23 mills to school and university tax, and .05 mills to teachers' insurance and retirement fund tax.

The state's total assessed valuation is $1,976,549,250. On the basis of this valuation, $11,424,454.66 is to be raised for state purposes.

Tax is apportioned as follows: .001, soldiers relief fund; .001, state road and bridge fund; .0013 soldiers bonus fund; .00004, historical society building fund; .00004 national guard armories; .0003 university building fund; .0001 forest fire relief fund; and .00012 state teachers college fund.

The levy for the general revenue fund, with the exception of the years 1921 and 1922 is the lowest for several years with the exception of 1920, when .8 mills was levied for that purpose.

Pennington county this year pays a state tax totalling about $41,000, which will be reduced more than $12,600 by the new levy.

Many Take Examination

A dozen applicants for appointment as rural carrier on a route out of Grygla were given a civil service examination in this city Saturday, Thos. H. Chittick, clerk at the local post office being in charge. Competition for rural carrier jobs in this section has been exceptionally keen this summer, judging by the large numbers who have taken the examinations.

Three Cars Without License To be Sold by Sheriff Sat.

Three automobiles, a Buick, Studebaker and Maxwell, for which the owners have not secured a 1924 license, will be sold Saturday by Sheriff O. L. Ihle. The owners are all residents of Thief River Falls and are the only three delinquents out of 50 in Pennington county submitted by Secretary of State Mike Holm for collection, which have not been cleared up. This is considered a good record on the part of the local authorities. The costs placed against the cars which will be sold by the sheriff average about $40. The machines may be redeemed by the owners upon payment of this sum.

Committed to Asylum

Dreng Anderson, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Anderson of Hamre township, Beltrami county, and east of Grygla was on Saturday taken by local officials to Fergus Falls for treatment at the state hospital. He was taken into custody by Sheriff O. L. Ihle Friday, having come to his office asking him to remove an instrument from his back, which he thought was causing him trouble and acting peculiar. The sheriff realizing that the young man was mentally unbalanced gave him a hearing before Judge of Probate Lars Backe. Hope is held for his recovery.

GOULD PLEADS FOR GAME AND FISH IN STATE

Extensive Program of Conservation Needed, State Commissioner Tells Club.

MORE FUNDS NEEDED TO CARRY ON WORK

Game and Fish Department More Than Selfsustaining. Advocates Changes

"Minnesota must adopt a strict program of conservation of wild game and fish if it is to retain its place as the popular playground of thousands of tourists from all parts of the country," declared James F. Gould, commissioner of the state game and fish department, in an address at the Commercial club luncheon Thursday noon. The meeting was well attended and everyone listened attentively to the message from Commissioner Gould, who made a special trip to this city to address the club gathering, a contemplated tour of northern Minnesota having been postponed.

The state game and fish department is more than self-sustaining, Mr. Gould asserted, but is financed practically entirely by special appropriations by the legislature. "There is an erroneous impression among people in general that all license money, fines and other money collected by the department goes into the department's treasury," Mr. Gould explained. "Such is not the case, however. At the present time the bulk of the moneys taken in by the fish and game department goes to the general funds of the state and the department is seriously handicapped in carrying out its program of propagation and conservation." Only nonresident fishing and resident spearing license money is paid direct to the department, fine money being paid into the county treasuries.

Wants More Funds

Mr. Gould expressed himself in favor of the plan that all moneys accruing to the state from licenses and fines be used by the department for the establishment of more game farms and fish hatcheries, so that the propagation and distribution of young game, birds and fish fry may be carried on to such an extent that the supply in Minnesota lakes and woods will be gradually built up instead of depleted and facing extinction as it now does.

The speaker pointed out the fact that Minnesota is practically the only state in the union having wall-eyed pike, for which there is a tremendous demand on the market.

Bass, crappies and sunfish are three popular species which cannot be propagated artifically but must be allowed to spawn under natural conditions. It is therefore necessary to set aside an area as a refuge or increase the number of hatcheries. The fish supply this year was reduced on account of the unfavorable season for spawning, Mr. Gould said.

Most wall-eyed pike spawns in the headwaters of the Mississippi but the dams constructed at various places down thru the state are operated in such a manner as to be destructive to spawning. The river is under federal control and Mr. Gould urged in his talk that the congressional act under which these dams are established be amended so as to make it possible to maintain a constant and uniform level at the headwaters upon the advice of the state department and government engineers. By so doing the spawning beds could be protected he said. He cited how fish was destroyed by the low water levels at Federal Dam this season, on account of the dam operations.

Mr. Gould reviewed the efforts of the department to propagate the Chinese ring-necked pheasant and the wild turkey, the latter of which has been extinct here the past 40 years. The state now has one game farm but needs more to efficiently carry on the work, he said.

FRIENDLY WRESTLE RESULTS IN DEATH

Paul Schenkey, Marshall County Farmer, Dies From Rupture Opened in Scuffle

Paul Schenkey, 59, pioneer farmer of Marshall county residing three miles north of Rosewood, died at the Physicians' hospital Sunday morning from a rupture incurred Tuesday morning last week in a friendly wrestle with a fellow worker, J. J. Serbus. The rupture was one of 12 years standing and thru over exertion in the wrestle, one side opened up. He was rushed to the Physicians hospital in this city but little could be done, save to alleviate the suffering. No blame is attached to Mr. Serbus. However, it was a deplorable accident and the entire community sympathizes with the grief stricken family.

He was born in Germany and imigrated to this country at the age of 19 years. The past 25 years he has been a resident of Marshall county. To mourn his passing he leaves his wife, nine children, Edward, Mathilda, Elizabeth, Agnes, Frances, Paul and Herman at home and Theresa and Martha, who are employed in this city, four brothers, Theodore and Oscar of Middle River, and Richard and Reinart of Canada and two sisters, Mrs. J. Sinholt and Mrs. Charles Langevin, the latter of this city.

The funeral services were held yesterday morning from St. Bernard's church and interment made in the Catholic cemetery.

Fleet of Gravel Trucks is Used on Highway 32 South of City. Work Starts Today

Work on the graveling project between this city and St. Hilaire on Trunk Highway No. 32 is being started today by Contractor S. J. Reader of Minneapolis, who was recently awarded the contract by the state department. A fleet of 16 trucks has been brought here already and more will be added, the contractor expecting to finish the graveling of the 7.4 miles south from here in about ten days, it is reported. Crews will work night and day, using large trucks holding up to three and one half yards of gravel in a load.

Hauling is started from the Patten pit, about half ways from this city to St. Hilaire. The work is carried on under the supervision of State Highway Engineer Ronkin, who has headquartered in this city the past summer months.

Mr. Reader also has the contract for graveling the same highway north from Red Lake Falls, which will complete a most important part of the great trunk highway system of the state in this section. When completed it will be one of the finest pieces of road in Minnesota, it is indicated.

GREAT WELSH MALE CHORUS COMING TO THIS CITY OCT. 29

World Famed Rhondda Glee Singers to Give Concert at Auditorium Wednesday

An exceptional opportunity to hear the best in music will be given Thief River Falls citizens and music lovers in the surrounding communities when the world renowned Rhondda Welsh Male Singers appear in concert at the city auditorium Wednesday evening, Oct. 29. This wonderful chorus, composed of 16 members, each one a talented soloist, will appear here under the auspices of the local Elks lodge.

The Rhondda singers come to this city on their way to Canada after having made a tour of the larger cities in the United States. Concerts are held in only four Minnesota cities. Everywhere the highest praise is accorded them. "They charm an audience with their singing," says one musical critic, "as Orpheus of old charmed creation with his lute. There is a fascination in the singing of the wonderful singers from Wales, that makes the listener spellbound while he is transported on the pinions of inspiration into realms he never explored before. It is worth a whole lifetime to spend an hour under the influence of the music of this magnificent organization."

The program includes solos, duets, trios, quartettes, double quartettes, choruses and glees.

The fame of Welsh choral singing became world wide, when in 1872 a mixed choir consisting mainly of Welsh village folk, under the leadership of Caradog (Griffith Rhys Jones) won the Crystal Palace Company's $5,500 challenge trophy, and a cash prize of $500. This fame was enhanced in the following year, when the same choir under the same leader again won the trophy, beating the London choir, known then as the Paris Prize Choir, under the leadership of Mr. Poudman. The sons of the principality have ever since maintained the fame and ever enhanced the standard established and set by the Crystal Palace victories.

Of all the Welsh musical organizations, the Rhondda Chorus is first and foremost.

The visit of the Rhondda Choir to America is by no means a matter of history. Americans were thrilled by these wonderful singers when they appeared at the Pittsburgh, Pa., Great International Song Festival, where 53 choirs of all classes competed, making it the greatest musical festival ever held in any country. The Rhondda Chorus won first prize with $1,000 cash in the male chorus contest.

Tickets will be sold in advance by members of the Elks lodge here, a large attendance being assured from nearby towns and country.

Reserved seats will be secured at Lambert's drug store beginning Friday.

The committee in charge of the event includes W. W. Prichard, Jr., Roy Brown and Rolf Rasmusson.

This is part of the Elks' program in raising annual Christmas charity funds.

Sugar Beet Expert Invited To Speak Here. Predicts a Great Future for Industry

Kurt Grunwald of New York, a consulting agricultural engineer and a member of the board of governors of the International Farm Congress, has been invited by the Commercial club to come to Thief River Falls to address a meeting of farmers on the importance and possibilities of the sugar beet industry. Mr. Grunwald, who has spoken at Crookston and other valley towns, is a national authority on beet cultivation. He is making a survey of Minnesota and North Dakota.

The object of his visit will be to encourage the farmers of this community to interest themselves in beet culture as the most profitable branch of agriculture that has ever been introduced in the Red River valley.

In his talk at Crookston Mr. Grundwald said that this section is peculiarly adapted to the raising of sugar beets, owing to the fact that the soil content is such that beets raised here yield a higher proportion of sugar than those of practically all other states. He predicted a great future for the refinery being established at East Grand Forks and urged increased acreage in the future.

His report to eastern financiers who are interested in the sugar industry may lead eventually to a great expansion of the industry in the Northwest, as great reliance is placed on his views.

FARMER-LABORITES SPONSOR SERIES OF POLITICAL RALLIES

Wefald Speaks at Goodridge and Grygla—Naplin and Trovaton Campaigning

A series of Farmer-Labor rallies are being held thruout this territory in an effort to arouse interest among voters prior to election day, Nov. 4.

A well attended meeting was held at Goodridge, Sunday night, at which Congressman Knud Wefald of Hawley, Farmer-Labor candidate for re-election, was the principal speaker. In his talk he charged the opposition with spreading misleading propoganda regarding the party and its candidates. He made a strong plea for Senator Magnus Johnson, whom he said is being abused and lied about more than any other candidate on the Farmer-Labor ticket. He also urged the support of LaFollette for president, pointing out the necessity of a new deal, and asked his hearers to support the entire Farmer-Labor ticket. The activities of the administration and congress the past year was also discussed.

Andrew Trovaton, chairman of the Pennington County Farmer-Labor committee, also spoke, declaring that Wefald has stood absolutely true to the principles of the party which sent him to congress. He also urged that people cast their vote on election day and that they familiarize themselves with the candidates and issues of the campaign.

Others who addressed the meeting were P. B. Mulberg of Excel township, Marshall county, candidate for the legislature, and R. O. Gordon of Rhoda, legislative candidate from this district. Thomas Vollum presided at the meeting.

Congressman Wefald also spoke to a large audience at Grygla Sunday afternoon, a number of other speakers also appearing on the program. Mr. Trovaton spoke at a festival in Terrebonne Sunday and on Monday he and O. A. Naplin of this city addressed a meeting at St. Hilaire. Tuesday evening Mr. Trovaton, Mr. Gordon and Peter Wold, candidate for judge of probate, spoke at the Lockrem school house, and last night a meeting at Viking was addressed by Mr. Naplin.

Other meetings scheduled are: Rosewood, tonight; Holt, Friday night; Highlanding, Saturday night Hazel on Monday night, and Plummer Tuesday.

Congressman Wefald is making an extensive speaking tour of the Ninth district and may speak in Thief River Falls just prior to election day.

ABLE PREACHER HEARD BY MANY AT BIBLE CONFERENCE

Dr. G. Watt of Scotland Speaks to Hundreds at Closing Sessions Sunday

Encouraged by the greater enterdenominational interest shown in the third annual Pennington County Bible conference held in this city last week, closing with meetings at the auditorium Sunday, those sponsoring the movement are planning to make next year's event bigger than ever.

Those who heard Dr. Gordon Watt, the Scottish preacher and author from Aberdeen, Scotland, who spent last week in the city as the principal speaker at the conference, are well pleased with his work. He proved to be a charming old man; a speaker of power who held his audience for many successive meetings. Prior to Sunday the meetings were held in the Presbyterian church.

Sunday closed the Bible conference with three services in the auditorium. Dr. Watt spoke on "The Cross" at these meetings, dealing with the subject from various angles. His afternoon meetings were devoted to discussions of "Prayer", showing the nature and value and authority of prayer. The evening meetings were spent in discussions of "The Cross of Christ", showing how the Cross is the central fact of Christianity and how powerful it is to change the lives of men and women who come under its influence.

Dr. Watt left Sunday night to meet his wife and daughter in Winnipeg and from there continue his tour of America. His next engagement is in Edmonton, Alberta, and Calgary. From there he will visit the cities of the Pacific coast where he will hold similar conferences.

This was the third of such Bible conferences held here during past years. Everyone connected with them has seemed well pleased with the interest shown and the support given. It is hoped that work may be continued in future years and that the interdenominational character may be extended by having more churches included in the conferences. The churches co-operating in sponsoring the conference this year are the local Presbyterian, Methodist, Swedish Mission and Scandinavian Evangelical.

"There is a dire need of such Bible conferences at this time", declare the pastors in charge.

Lancaster Attorney Will Speak Here Saturday Nite

Wm. L. Peterson, prominent Lancaster attorney, will speak at a Republican rally Saturday night at 8:30 on the Farmers & Merchants State bank corner, Labree and Third street, it is announced by the Republican County Central committee. Mr. Peterson, who has been heard here a number of times previously, is an able speaker and promises to give his hearers a sane discussion of the issues.

Oh for the good old days when a spare bedroom instead of a spare tire was the mark of affluence.

New Creamery Building in This City Takes Definite Form as Frame is Finished

Thief River Falls citizens and visitors can now view the new creamery building erected by the local co-operative creamery association as it will appear in completeness, the entire framework having been constructed. The crew of about 15 workmen under Contractor Bert Norby is now completing the partitions, the roof being finished the first of the week. It is expected that the new plant will be ready for occupation about the middle or latter part of December, a number of delays having held up the rapid progress of the work during the early part of the project.

The 72x72 foot structure is an imposing building and will be a splendid monument to the dairy industry in this community. It is constructed of excellent material and according to the most modern and convenient plans. The new building provides for the installation of cheese manufacturing facilities when demand calls such an industry and will also be the home of the recently organized Thief River Valley Co-operative Poultry association.

BEET GROWERS TO BE ALLOWED LARGE ACREAGE

County Agent McCann Signing Up Growers For 1925 Acreage Of Sugar Beets

4,000 ACRES EXPECTED IN DISTRICT NEXT YEAR

Local Business Men Show Interest in Factory Being Built In East Grand Forks

Applications for 1925 sugar beet acreage are now being received from farmers in this locality by J. J. McCann, county agent and representative of the Red River Valley Sugar company which is erecting a refinery in East Grand Forks. Contract forms have already been received and farmers thruout this community wishing acreage for next year should make it a point to see Mr. McCann as soon as possible. With a factory in the valley all the acreage desired will be allotted, according to Mr. McCann.

Demand For Acreage

This year the territory known as the Thief River Falls territory of which this city is the center, was allowed an acreage of only 800 acres, while applications called for nearly 4,000. It is predicted that there will be a demand for at least that much for next season and it is urged that farmers make reservations for acreage early so as to be assured of an allotment.

Farmers intending to grow beets next year are urged to get their land plowed this fall. Heavy soil which will hold moisture well is the most desireable and the land should not be badly infested with weeds. The growing of beets benefits the soil, it is pointed out.

The shorter haul of the crop to East Grand Forks will make it possible for growers to realize at least 50 cents per ton more than by the present arrangement, declares Mr. McCann.

Factory Promoter Here

Business men of Thief River Falls in attendance at a meeting in the Commercial club rooms Tuesday night approved of the solicitation of $4,000 for stock in the new East Grand Forks refinery. This action followed a talk by J. D. Markwood of Mason City, Ia., representing the sugar company, who was formerly a Crookston business man.

It was explained by Mr. Markwood that the promoters of the new factory in the valley have ample funds for financing the enterprise but desire some local assistance to assure interest in the industry in the future. Communities thruout the valley are subscribing for stock.

Attention was also called to the fact that the acreage allotted in this vicinity will not be affected by the sale of stock here, and has nothing to do with the stock subscription. The allotments have already been made and persons may buy stock if they wish but it will not determine the acreage.

Business Men Subscribe

A committee composed of Alderman Oscar Paulson, G. M. Wilson and Mr. Markwood was selected to call upon local business men in an effort to sell the $4,000 of stock. Farmers will also be offered stock to be financed thru the Agricultural Credit Corporation, according to Mr. Markwood, plans being to have a committee call upon them later in the season.

The new factory will be equipped with most up-to-date equipment obtainable and will have a capacity estimated at 1,000 tons of beets per day. It is expected to refine the crop from about 12,000 acres the first year.

In speaking of the factories at Chaska, Minn., and Mason City, Ia., Mr. Markwood said that the Chaska factory is slicing over 1,000 tons of beets a day and is putting out 1,700 bags of granulated sugar daily. The Mason City factory is slicing a daily average of 1,500 tons of beets with the daily output of sugar being 4,000 bags.

The season's output at Chaska is estimated at 25,000,000 pounds and at Mason City approximately 40,000,000 pounds of sugar will be manufactured this season. The Chaska factory has been in operation for 17 years while the Mason City plant was established eight years ago. Both are exceedingly profitable enterprises.

Nelson on Buying Trip

H. E. Nelson, manager of the local branch of the J. C. Penney company left Saturday night for St. Paul to attend the annual convention of managers of the J. C. Penney company stores of the middle western states. After the convention he leaves for points in the East on a buying trip, expecting to spend about two weeks.

SENATOR HOWELL OF NEBRASKA TO SPEAK HERE OCTOBER 31ST

National Issues to be Discussed At Republican Rally at Princess Theatre

Senator Beecher Howell, of Nebraska is slated to speak at a Republican rally at the city auditorium in Thief River Falls on Saturday evening, November 1.

"The meeting will open at 8 o'clock, according to F. F. Haynes, chairman of the Pennington County Republican Central committee. Mr. Howell is a prominent member of the senate and has taken an active part in national politics in recent years. It is expected that a large audience will hear his address in this city as he is regarded as one of the best drawing cards in the present campaign, according to information received here.

The Corn Husker Senator's speech will be the final gun for the Republican 1924 campaign in Thief River Falls. He has been speaking under the auspices of the Republican national speaker's bureau in various parts of the country during the present campaign, discussing the various national issues.

Besides Thief River Falls, Senator Howell will address a gathering in Crookston on Thursday, October 30. The Crookston speech will be his first address in Minnesota.

After his meeting in this city the senator will have completed his speaking campaign and will return to his home in Nebraska.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY IN CITY YESTERDAY

Robert C. Bell, Candidate For Attorney General, Flays Present Administration

A Democratic candidate spoke in Thief River Falls for the first time in this campaign when Robert C. Bell of Detroit, candidate for attorney general of Minnesota, addressed a street crowd yesterday afternoon, in which he emphatically denounced the leadership of the Republican party, charged the present administration with corruption unparalleled in history.

Mr. Bell was assistant attorney general of the United States during the Wilson administration and came to Minneapolis in 1916 to take charge for the government of litigation involving White Earth Indian lands. He cited that he furnished the public lands committee of the U. S. Senate the information on which the Teapot Dome investigation was based.

In assailing the leaders of the Republican party and the present administration Mr. Bell pointed out that he did not believe there would be a change should Coolidge be re-elected president. In charging corruption he cited the Tea Pot Dome scandal, the debauchery of the Veteran's by Forbes, the Daugherty disgrace, the Newberry case and others, uring the voters to "clean house on such a mess on Nov. 4." The president, altho aware of what was being done did not make any efforts to stop the corruptness in which his cabinet members were connected according to testimony in the investigations, the speaker said.

That President Coolidge is on the side of the protected interests of the east was brought out by Mr. Bell, who cited his position in favor of the Mellon tax bill which would benefit only 81 Minnesota taxpayers, while 125,000 were benefited by the Garner bill, a Democratic measure, which was passed. He also cited Coolidge as having said that the tariff has been productice of abounding prosperity, while the Fordney McCumber tariff, termed the "Robber's tariff" only aided industries which were already fully protected. "The common people of the country are being robbed of $4,000,000,000 annually as a result of this measure," he said.

In speaking of General Dawes, Republican candidate for vice president, the speaker charged him with his connections in the lorimer bank deal, in which the Supreme Court of Illinois held that the Dawes bank owed the money to the depositors whose funds were lost. The Dawes plan, he said is not his plan, but merely a plan worked out by men in the League of Nations, later modified and accepted by the committee of which Dawes was chairman.

"There is no danger that LaFollette will destroy the constitution or urin this country if elected president," he said. "Changing the constitution is no one-man job but the Republicans are making this appear the leading issue to divert the attention of the people. We need not fear 'the sinking sands of socialism which is being warned against as the great danger."

The stringent conditions the past three and a half years were charged to the Republican administration, while the high prices for grain at the present is merely a result of crop failures in other countries, Mr. Bell declared.

Support of the Democratic state ticket headed by Carlos Avery was urged and members of party urged to keep up the organization, that it may be one of the two great parties to survive.

Women Open Republican Headquarters This Week

Republican headquarters have been opened in the building formerly occupied by the J. C. Penney store on the corner of Main avenue and Second street, with Mrs. J. H. Hardisty in charge, assisted by a number of other ladies affiliating with the Republican party. The place will be maintained until after election, and will be open every afternoon.

The world is more interested in what you do than what you say you will do.

Wheat Growers Directors Hold Meeting Here. Brown Resigns as American Head

Directors of the Minnesota Wheat Growers' association which now has its headquarters in Minneapolis, met in Thief River Falls Tuesday to consider various routine matters connected with the pooling of the 1924 crop and organization work.

Present at the meeting was W. J. Brown, president of the American Wheat Growers' Associated and counsel for the Minnesota association. In an interview with a Times reporter Mr. Brown stated that he is resigning as president of the American association, his resignation taking effect Oct. 29, when a special meeting of the association's directors will be held. Mr. Brown will continue his services as counsel for the Minnesota association, being particularly active at this time in starting litigations against firms and growers violating the co-operative contracts.

"Prospects for the 1924 pool look very encouraging," said Mr. Brown, "and the organization is enjoying a steady growth."

TREATMENT RESULTS IN DEATH CORONER'S JURY VERDICT SAYS

Inquisition Taken Regarding the Death of Aged Cass County Man Treated by Kirby

Anton Linneberg of Hackensack, this state, died in this city Saturday after a brief illness, death being due to peritonitis. Deceased was 65 years of age and a native of Norway. He came here a week ago Sunday to receive treatments from S. R. Kirby, healer near the city.

At an inquisition taken before Dr. H. W. Froehlich, coroner of Pennington county, Monday a coroner's jury rendered the following verdict: "According to the evidence given we, the jury, find that the deceased, Anton Linneberg, came by his death as the direct result of treatment administered by S. R. Kirby of Thief River Falls, Minnesota, or under his direction."

The coroner's jury was composed of the following local citizens: W. H. Akre, George Curran, F. F. Haynes, C. H. Porter, C. W. McDaniel and O. L. Bakken.

The deceased leaves two minor children to mourn his passing.

The remains were shipped Tuesday to Hackensack for burial.

EDUCATION WEEK TO BE OBSERVED HERE

Several Features Planned By Supt. Simley For Annual Event—To Stage Parade

National Education Week, Nov. 17 to 23, will be observed by the Thief River Falls schools in an elaborate manner, somewhat in the same manner as last year, according to tentative plans made by Supt. I. T. Simley and his staff of instructors.

A huge parade with about 1400 marchers and a reviewing stand, special visiting days in the schools and other events are included in the leading features planned. Last year a parade in which about 1500 pupils participated passed thru the main streets of the city and many school patrons realized for the first time the magnitude of the Thief River Falls school system.

Parents will be specially urged to visit the schools to see them in action during the week, in an effort to arouse greater interest in school activities among the parents.

The days of National Education Week, which is being sponsored by the American Legion in an Americanization program, have been designated as follows: Monday, constitution day; Tuesday, patriotism day; Wednesday, school and teacher day; Thursday, illiteracy day; Friday, physical education day; Saturday, community day, and Sunday, for God and country day. Ministers of all denominations are urged to preach a sermon on "Education" in their services on Nov. 23.

It is likely that the local post of the American Legion will co-operate with the schools in an appropriate observance of this special week, definite plans for which will be announced by The Times as soon as they have been completed.

Absent Voter's Ballot Can Be Secured From Auditor

Anyone who expects to be absent from the county Nov. 4, election day, may cast his vote by means of the absent voter's ballot, according to T. P. Anderson, county Auditor. This privilege cannot be extended to anyone except those who will be absent from the city or county on November 4, it is pointed out. Prescribed forms or absent voter's blanks can be obtained now or at any time until Oct. 28 from the county auditor's office. The absent voter must mail his ballot so as to get it into the hands of the auditor in time to have it delivered to the election precinct in which the voter is a resident by election day. The application for absent voter's blanks should be accompanied by a fee of 35 cents.

Persons who happen to be in Thief River Falls or Pennington county on election day, and whose home is outside of the county can get these blanks from the county auditor of their home county.

Quite a number of requests for absent voter's ballots have already been received by the auditor, who received his supply of ballots Tuesday.

An Indiana man weighing 410 pounds and a woman weighing 390 pounds got married. Here are prospects of some weighty arguments.

CAMPAIGN GETS SPIRITED WITH ELECTION NEAR

Voters Urged to Study Ballot Published in The Times This Week

POLITICAL SPEAKERS APPEAL TO CITIZENS

Indications Point to Growing Interest in Election Throughout Community

On another page The Times prints samples of the four official ballots which Pennington county voters will be called upon to mark on election day, Nov. 4. From the list of 36 candidates for national and state offices, whose names appear on the ballot to be used at the general election, voters will select 11, while six will be selected from the 12 names appearing on the county ballot.

With four ballots to be handed them on which to express their preference voters will not have an easy time of it when they enter the voting booths November 4.

In the first place they will select the presidential electors. In doing so they will practically be voting for the nominees for president or vice-president. All are grouped together so that a single "X" mark will show the voter's preference for presidential candidate and his running mate and will cast a ballot for presidential electors favoring his candidacy.

Many State Officers

On the state ballot there will be listed nominees for United States senator, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, state treasurer, attorney general, railroad and warehouse commissioner, chief justice of supreme court, and two associate justices of the supreme court.

The voters will also pass judgment on five proposed amendments to the state constitution. These have been published in previous issues of the Times.

The county ballot will give the voter a chance to register his or her vote for a member of congress from the Ninth district, two representatives in the legislature from the 65th district, clerk of court, judge of probate and county commissioners in the Second and Fourth districts. The only office which is not contested is that of clerk of court, Adolf Eklund being the only candidate for that position whose name appears on the ballot.

Vote in Past Light

While the vote in the past few elections has been comparatively light in this city and county, it is anticipated that a heavy vote will be recorded on Nov. 4 this year. Altho the majority of voters have shown a spirit of apathy up to this time, interest is now growing and voters are doing more to familiarize themselves with the issues of the day and the candidates who aspire to the various offices. With a speaker on every stump and the newspapers filled with political dope, however, the average voter will find it quite a formidable task to select the candidate for his vote.

Every effort will be made to get every voter to the polls Tuesday, Nov. 4. The American Legion thru its state organization is doing a great deal in arousing interest among its members. Political speakers in every camp are putting special emphasis on the importance of turning out on election day. In order to stir up the women and in an effort to get out a heavier vote than has been the case here in the past, the Republican committee has opened a Women's headquarters in the building formerly occupied by the J. C. Penney store.

Of the 36 candidates for national and state officers, only nine have been heard by the voters of this county. They are: Magnus Johnson, Farmer-Labor, Thomas Schall, Republican and Thomas Keefe, Independent, candidates for senator; Theodore Christianson, Republican, and Floyd Olson, Farmer-Labor, candidates for governor; W. I. Nolan, republican candidate for lieutenant governor; Mrs. Susie Stageberg, Farmer-Labor candidate for secretary of state and Thomas Sullivan, Farmer-Labor, and R. C. Bell, Democrat, candidates for attorney general.

With the 1924 state and national campaigns drawing to a close Minnesota this week will see one of the busiest periods in its political history, it is predicted.

MAHNOMEN TO PLAY LOCALS HERE SAT.

Fast Game Promised Fans in First Gridiron Contest With Mahnomen

On Saturday afternoon, October 25, the local high school gridiron team will meet the Mahnomen team on the local's grounds. Little is known of the outside team, but it is significant that they have the same outfit that held the strong Ada team to a tie last year. This is he first time that Thief River Falls has had a chance to play Mahnomen in a football contest. They are coming here with the intention of avenging themselves for the defeat of their basketball team when it played the locals. The Lincolnites are also out for victory, and they intend to get it. The local team has not won a game yet this season although the boys did play Crookston on even terms.

If the townspeople and the students want to see a real battle they should be present at the game here next Saturday.

When a political speaker runs out of ammunition he can always fall back on lower taxes.

SERVED WITH COMPLAINT FROM CO-OP

Temporary Injunction Halts Purchase of Pool Wheat by Private Company

On the complaint of the Minnesota Wheat Growers Co-operative Marketing association, District Judge G. M. Tifft has granted a temporary injunction restraining the Commander Elevator company, a private concern at LeSueur, from purchasing the grain of members of the Minnesota Wheat Growers association. The complaint was filed by W. J. Brown, general counsel for the association.

The Minnesota association claims in its petition to the court that the Commander Elevator company has knowingly purchased wheat from more than fifty different members of the Minnesota association, contrary to the terms of the marketing agreement between the Minnesota association and it, several members, and claims that this action violates the provisions of Sections 26 and 27 of the Co-operative Marketing Act of the State of Minnesota, which act fixes a penalty in the sum of $500 for each such offense and the payment of expenses connected with the litigation.

The Minnesota association also in its petition asks damages in the sum of $25,000 against the Commander Elevator company.

W. H. Frederick, secretary of the Minnesota association, says that "the board of directors of the Minnesota association has considered the matter of the violation of the marketing contract by some of the members, and the act of some of the elevators of the state in inducing the members of the Minnesota association to sell grain outside of the pool, and that the board of directors has directed the legal department to bring action for damages against all elevators of the state which has purchased the wheat from members of the association, and to ask the court for injunctions restraining further violations of the contract, and to enforce the membership contract in all its terms."

City's Coal Supply to be Furnished by Prichard Co.

The city will pay only $9.40 a ton for the best grade of soft coal to heat the various public buildings this winter, according to the acceptance of the bid of The Prichard Company, whose bid was considered the lowest when heat units and steam producing qualities were taken into consideration at the opening of bids for the supply for this winter at the meeting of the City Council Tuesday night. The coal will be Youghioghany lump and is a standard grade and well known to many fuel users in this city.

Bids were received from the following six fuel dealers: The Prichard Company, Minneapolis Bridge company, Christiansen Hardware Company, Andy Solberg, Ed O'Hara and Edison Gannon. Variations of bids were more as to the kind of coal rather then in price.

Last season the city used about 150 tons during the winter but in anticipation of a more severe season the council deemed it expedient to contract for 175 tons, or five cars of 35 tons each, to be delivered from time to time thruout the winter. The above prices all included delivery in the bins of the city.

The free use of the auditorium for the Bible conference being held in the city was granted for Sunday forenoon, afternoon and evening, the meetings being held by four of the local churches.

Three building permits, two for garages and one for remodeling of a residence, were granted unanimously, as were also four milk licenses, these being to V. C. Noper, Jacob Hermanson, Mrs. J. O. Dahl and A. D. Peterson, following due approval of the dairy inspector.

The other matters coming before the council included the monthly reports, the opening and acceptance of coal bids, the consideration of compensation insurance for city employees and the fixing of the annual tax levy for the coming year, all of which are covered elsewhere in The Times. Aldermen T. A. Fossum and H. A. Brumund were not present at the meeting Tuesday night.

Renowned Welsh Chorus Coming to City Oct. 29

The local Elks lodge is busy making arrangements for the grand concert to be given at the auditorium Wednesday evening, Oct. 29, by the Rhondda Male Chorus, composed of 16 vocalists of Wales who are making a tour of the United States and Canada. This will be an unusual treat for Thief River Falls music lovers and expectations are that a large number of out-of-town people will be in attendance.

With a rain of nearly one and a half inches during the weekend on the heels of a heavy downpour the previous week, the fields were given a further soaking and threshing consequently delayed for several days. However, the violent wind on Sunday did much to dry up the ground and grain so that threshing was resumed by some on Tuesday. Considerable loss is reported in the grades of unthreshed grain. A surprisingly large amount of grain is yet unthreshed in the Red River valley, it is reported, as is also the case in parts of North Dakota. A considerable portion of what is left in this territory, however, has been stacked and will not suffer much.

Potato digging has also been seriously retarded by the frequent rains the past three weeks. Members of the Potato Growers' Exchange are busy hauling the crop to the shipping stations and quite a number of cars have been shipped from this city. Farmers are urged to dig their potatoes as soon as possible to avoid frosts. The market is very low at the present time and unless conditions change materially before the end of the season the price may be expected to increase slightly more than the usual amount, says the Minnesota Potato Market letter. The price has stood nearly unchanged the past three weeks.

Altho unable to haul the sugar beets crop to the piling stations for several days on account of the heavy rains, about one-half of the acreage here has been harvested, topping having been practically completed, County Agent J. J. McCann says. A large quantity has been piled near the Soo tracks in this city ready for shipping when orders are received and where fields have been too wet for hauling beets have been piled temporarily in the fields.

Argyle Farmer Must Vacate Dwellings as Result of Violations of Volstead Laws

Moonshining in Marshall county seems to be a rather hazardous occupation. The farm dwellings occupied by Alfred LeBlanc, near Argyle, have been ordered closed for one year by Judge Andrew Grindeland of Warren, as a result of violations of the prohibition laws on the grounds. This is believed to be the first abatement proceeding in Minnesota where farm buildings are included. The case was appealed to the supreme court last week. The LeBlanc case is the first of three of its kind to be tried in Marshall county this fall, abatement proceedings having also been started against Walter Gajeski and Mr. and Mrs. Appolus Poitras of Wright township. The hearing on the former was held Thursday, the latter being slated for Nov. 4. The Gajeski farm of 400 acres and dwellings will be closed without notice for one year if the owner is caught at further violations of the liquor laws.

Village May Bond to Pay Damage Claim to Mrs. Goar

In order to pay an $8,500 judgment granted Mrs. Gunda Goar of Grand Forks, a daughter of Mrs. Anna Wedmer, until recently of this city, and pay a portion of the cost of litigation, the village of Stephen may have to bond itself to the extent of $9,000. Officers of the village have called a special election for October 22 to vote on the proposition. In fighting the case the village, losing in the lower courts, carried it to the supreme court incurring a cost, including the judgment, of approximately $11,000. All but $9,000 of this has been paid. H. O. Chommie of this city and the Olson and Hage law firm of Warren represented Mrs. Goar in the case.

The judgment grew out of injuries sustained by Mrs. Goar on Aug. 10, 1922, when she was burned by a high voltage of electricity while at work in her home in Stephen. She was using an electric iron in which a circuit was formed, burning her arm and hand causing the loss of four fingers.

Following the completion of the damage suit, Mrs. Goar's husband, E. E. Goar, at present an employee of the Robertson Lumber company in Grand Forks, entered suit for $4,500 for "loss of services." He won this action in the lower courts, but the village of Stephen appealed it and it is now pending. Village officers claim they will take the case to the supreme court if necessary.

control has been through the providential projection of the Vice President into the President's chair, free from preconventional promises.

"Until a law can be had for the control of our national conventions, the people cannot hope to win their government. Government ownership of industries is not the remedy, but government ownership of our government is the essential requirement for the preservation of our representative government, our traditions and our sacred personal liberty.

"President Coolidge, having come into the President's chair through an act of Providence, is free to act for the American people as his conscience and better judgment dictates. No finger of suspicion can be pointed at our President, who has obtained his nomination without trading away his political anatomy. He is fitted, as no man since Theodore Roosevelt, to give the American people an administration that will do credit to our country."

Opposition to the League of Nations and the World Court was expressed by the speaker, who said he had been offered a campaign fund of $25,000 if he would advocate the world court. "There is a concerted move to get the United States into the World Court," he said. "The Third party is to split the vote, throw the election into Congress where Davis or Bryan will be elected president and then entry into the World Court arranged. This would throw us into a chaos of entangling alliances.

"Foreign influence at the present time prevents the development of an American merchant marine, and secures the payment by American vessels of tolls for using the Panama canal for coast-wise traffic."

In reviewing his personal record Mr. Schall cited his membership on the rules committee in the House, controlled by Republicans, and defied anyone to prove that he is not true to the principles of the Republican party. He told his hearers that a number of "hard-shelled" and "gang" Republicans are repudiating him on account of his fearlessness in attack where he finds wrong and his refusal to grant favors.

In this connection he made a bitter attack on J. S. Arneson of this city.

Mr. Schall is accompanied on his tour thru the state by his wife and by his publicity director, Leo Blank. They left Saturday for Badger.

Sorenson Bound to Dist. Court on Serious Charge

Stanley Sorenson, who was arrested Friday by Chief of Police A. D. Ralston on a charge of indecent assault on complaint of Miss Myrtle Kolberg of Greenbush, was bound over to the next term of district court on bonds of $500 by Judge N. Tarant in municipal court Saturday afternoon.

According to the complaint, young Sorenson took indecent liberties with Miss Kolberg at a vacated farm house three miles west of this city on Thursday afternoon. He was held in the city jail until Saturday afternoon when he was brot before Judge Tarant in municipal court for a hearing and was bound over to the district court. Bonds were furnished.

Rev. Kreidt at Conference

Rev. E. H. Kreidt of the St. John's Lutheran church left Tuesday for Radium to attend the North Park Region conference of the Missouri Synod of the Lutheran church which convened Tuesday and Wednesday. About 20 pastors were in attendance. One of the congregations served by Rev. Martin Hauser of Warren was host to the visiting delegates. Exegitical and dogmatical papers were read and special services conducted.

State Tax Rate for '24 Is Fixed at 5.78 Mills. 28% Cut From Last Year

A 28 per cent reduction in the Minnesota state tax rate under that of last year has been announced by Ray P. Chase, state auditor. The revenue from this tax is used for the maintenance of state government, the schools and universities. The rate this year is 5.78 mills or 2.32 mills below the 1923 tax rate.

Of the total rate, 4.5 mills is credited to state tax, 1.23 mills to school and university tax, and .05 mills to teachers' insurance and retirement fund tax.

The state's total assessed valuation is $1,976,549,250. On the basis of this valuation, $11,424,454.66 is to be raised for state purposes.

Tax is apportioned as follows: .001, soldiers relief fund; .001, state road and bridge fund; .0013 soldiers bonus fund; .00004, historical society building fund; .00004 national guard armories; .0003 university building fund; .0001 forest fire relief fund; and .00012 state teachers college fund.

The levy for the general revenue fund, with the exception of the years 1921 and 1922 is the lowest for several years with the exception of 1920, when .8 mills was levied for that purpose.

Pennington county this year pays a state tax totalling about $44,000, which will be reduced more than $12,000 by the new levy.

Many Take Examination

A dozen applicants for appointment as rural carrier on a route out of Grygla were given a civil service examination in this city Saturday, Thos. H. Chittick, clerk at the local post office being in charge. Competition for rural carrier jobs in this section has been exceptionally keen this summer, judging by the large number who have taken the examinations.

Three Cars Without License To be Sold by Sheriff Sat.

Three automobiles, a Buick, Studebaker and Maxwell, for which the owners have not secured a 1924 license, will be sold Saturday by Sheriff O. L. Ihle. The owners are all residents of Thief River Falls and are the only three delinquents out of 50 in Pennington county submitted by Secretary of State Mike Holm for collection, which have not been cleared up. This is considered a good record on the part of the local authorities. The costs placed against the cars which will be sold by the sheriff average about $40. The machines may be redeemed by the owners upon payment of this sum.

Committed to Asylum

Dreng Anderson, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Anderson of Hamre township, Beltrami county, and east of Grygla was on Saturday taken by local officials to Fergus Falls for treatment at the state hospital. He was taken into custody by Sheriff O. L. Ihle Friday, having come to his office asking him to remove an instrument from his back, which he thought was causing him trouble and acting peculiar. The sheriff realizing that the young man was mentally unbalanced gave him a hearing before Judge of Probate Lars Backe. Hope is held for his recovery.

GOULD PLEADS FOR GAME AND FISH IN STATE

Extensive Program of Conservation Needed, State Commissioner Tells Club.

MORE FUNDS NEEDED TO CARRY ON WORK

Game and Fish Department More Than Selfsustaining. Advocates Changes

"Minnesota must adopt a strict program of conservation of wild game and fish if it is to retain its place as the popular playground of thousands of tourists from all parts of the country," declared James F. Gould, commissioner of the state game and fish department, in an address at the Commercial club luncheon Thursday noon. The meeting was well attended and everyone listened attentively to the message from Commissioner Gould, who made a special trip to this city to address the club gathering, a contemplated tour of northern Minnesota having been postponed.

The state game and fish department is more than self-sustaining, Mr. Gould asserted, but is financed practically entirely by special appropriations by the legislature. "There is an erroneous impression among people in general that all license money, fines and other money collected by the department goes into the department's treasury," Mr. Gould explained. "Such is not the case, however. At the present time the bulk of the moneys taken in by the fish and game department goes to the general funds of the state and the department is seriously handicapped in carrying out its program of propagation and conservation." Only nonresident fishing and resident spearing license money is paid direct to the department, fine money being paid into the county treasuries.

Wants More Funds

Mr. Gould expressed himself in favor of the plan that all moneys accruing to the state from licenses and fines be used by the department for the establishment of more game farms and fish hatcheries, so that the propagation and distribution of young game, birds and fish fry may be carried on to such an extent that the supply in Minnesota lakes and woods will be gradually built up instead of depleted and facing extinction as it now does.

The speaker pointed out the fact that Minnesota is practically the only state in the union having wall-eyed pike, for which there is a tremendous demand on the market.

Bass, crappies and sunfish are three popular species which cannot be propagated artifically but must be allowed to spawn under natural conditions. It is therefore necessary to set aside an area as a refuge or increase the number of hatcheries. The fish supply this year was reduced on account of the unfavorable season for spawning, Mr. Gould said.

Most wall-eyed pike spawns in the headwaters of the Mississippi but the dams constructed at various places down thru the state are operated in such a manner as to be destructive to spawning. The river is under federal control and Mr. Gould urged in his talk that the congressional act under which these dams are established be amended so as to make it possible to maintain a constant and uniform level at the headwaters upon the advice of the state department and government engineers. By so doing the spawning beds could be protected he said. He cited how fish was destroyed by the low water levels at Federal Dam this season, on account of the dam operations.

Mr. Gould reviewed the efforts of the department to propagate Chinese ring-necked pheasant and the wild turkey, the latter of which has been extinct here the past 40 years. The state now has one game farm but needs more to efficiently carry on the work, he said.

FRIENDLY WRESTLE RESULTS IN DEATH

Paul Schenkey, Marshall County Farmer, Dies From Rupture Opened in Scuffle

Paul Schenkey, 59, pioneer farmer of Marshall county residing three miles north of Rosewood, died at the Physicians' hospital Sunday morning from a rupture incurred Tuesday morning last week in a friendly wrestle with a fellow worker, J. J. Serbus. The rupture was one of 12 years standing and thru over exertion in the wrestle, one side opened up. He was rushed to the Physicians hospital in this city but little could be done, save to alleviate the suffering. No blame is attached to Mr. Serbus. However, it was a deplorable accident and the entire community sympathizes with the grief stricken family.

He was born in Germany and immigrated to this country at the age of 19 years. The past 25 years he has been a resident of Marshall county. To mourn his passing he leaves his wife, nine children, Edward, Mathilda, Elizabeth, Agnes, Frances, Paul and Herman at home and Theresa and Martha, who are employed in this city, four brothers, Theodore and Oscar of Middle River, and Richard and Reinart of Canada and two sisters, Mrs. J. Sinholt and Mrs. Charles Langevin, the latter of this city.

The funeral services were held yesterday morning from St. Bernard's church and interment made in the Catholic cemetery.

Fleet of Gravel Trucks is Used on Highway 32 South of City. Work Starts Today

Work on the graveling project between this city and St. Hilaire on Trunk Highway No. 32 is being started today by Contractor S. J. Reader of Minneapolis, who was recently awarded the contract by the state department. A fleet of 16 trucks has been brought here already and more will be added, the contractor expecting to finish the graveling of the 7.4 miles south from here in about ten days, it is reported. Crews will work night and day, using large trucks holding up to three and one half yards of gravel in a load.

Hauling is started from the Patten pit, about half ways from this city to St. Hilaire. The work is carried on under the supervision of State Highway Engineer Ronkin, who has headquartered in this city the past summer months.

Mr. Reader also has the contract for graveling the same highway north from Red Lake Falls, which will complete a most important part of the great trunk highway system of the state in this section. When completed it will be one of the finest pieces of road in Minnesota, it is indicated.

GREAT WELSH MALE CHORUS COMING TO THIS CITY OCT. 29

World Famed Rhondda Glee Singers to Give Concert at Auditorium Wednesday

An exceptional opportunity to hear the best in music will be given Thief River Falls citizens and music lovers in the surrounding communities when the world renowned Rhondda Welsh Male Singers appear in concert at the city auditorium Wednesday evening, Oct. 29. This wonderful chorus, composed of 16 members, each one a talented soloist, will appear here under the auspices of the local Elks lodge.

The Rhondda singers come to this city on their way to Canada after having made a tour of the larger cities in the United States. Concerts are held in only four Minnesota cities. Everywhere the highest praise is accorded them. "They charm an audience with their singing," says one musical critic, "as Orpheus of old charmed creation with his lute. There is a fascination in the singing of the wonderful singers from Wales, that makes the listener spellbound while he is transported on the pinions of inspiration into realms he never explored before. It is worth a whole lifetime to spend an hour under the influence of the music of this magnificent organization."

The program includes solos, duets, trios, quartettes, double quartettes, choruses and glees.

The fame of Welsh choral singing became world wide, when in 1872 a mixed choir consisting mainly of Welsh village folk, under the leadership of Caradog (Griffith Rhys Jones) won the Crystal Palace Company's $5,500 challenge trophy, and a cash prize of $500. This fame was enhanced in the following year, when the same choir under the same leader again won the trophy, beating the London choir, known then as the Paris Prize Choir, under the leadership of Mr. Poudman. The sons of the principality have ever since maintained the fame and ever enhanced the standard established and set by the Crystal Palace victories.

Of all the Welsh musical organizations, the Rhondda Chorus is first and foremost.

The visit of the Rhondda Choir to America is by no means a matter of history. Americans were thrilled by these wonderful singers when they appeared at the Pittsburgh, Pa., Great International Song Festival

FARMER-LABORITES SPONSOR SERIES OF POLITICAL RALLIES

Wefald Speaks at Goodridge and Grygla—Naplin and Trovaton Campaigning

A series of Farmer-Labor rallies are being held thruout this territory in an effort to arouse interest among voters prior to election day, Nov. 4.

A well attended meeting was held at Goodridge, Sunday night, at which Congressman Knud Wefald of Hawley, Farmer-Labor candidate for reelection, was the principal speaker. In his talk he charged the opposition with spreading misleading propoganda regarding the party and its candidates. He made a strong plea for Senator Magnus Johnson, whom he said is being abused and lied about more than any other candidate on the Farmer-Labor ticket. He also urged the support of LaFollette for president, pointing out the necessity of a new deal, and asked his hearers to support the entire Farmer-Labor ticket. The activities of the administration and congress the past year was also discussed.

Andrew Trovaton, chairman of the Pennington County Farmer-Labor committee, also spoke, declaring that Wefald has stood absolutely true to the principles of the party which sent him to congress. He also urged that people cast their vote on election day and that they familiarize themselves with the candidates and issues of the campaign.

Others who addressed the meeting were P. B. Malberg of Excel township, Marshall county, candidate for the legislature, and R. O. Gordon of Rhoda, legislative candidate from this district. Thomas Vollum presided at the meeting.

Congressman Wefald also spoke to a large audience at Grygla Sunday afternoon, a number of other speakers also appearing on the program. Mr. Trovaton spoke at a festival in Terrebonne Sunday and on Monday he and O. A. Naplin of this city addressed a meeting at St. Hilaire. Tuesday evening Mr. Trovaton, Mr. Gordon and Peter Wold, candidate for judge of probate, spoke at the Lockrem school house, and last night a meeting at Viking was addressed by Mr. Naplin.

Other meetings scheduled are: Rosewood, tonight; Holt, Friday night; Highlanding, Saturday night Hazel on Monday night, and Plummer Tuesday.

Congressman Wefald is making an extensive speaking tour of the Ninth district and may speak in Thief River Falls just prior to election day.

ABLE PREACHER HEARD BY MANY AT BIBLE CONFERENCE

Dr. G. Watt of Scotland Speaks to Hundreds at Closing Sessions Sunday

Encouraged by the greater enterdenominational interest shown in the third annual Pennington County Bible conference held in this city last week, closing with meetings at the auditorium Sunday, those sponsoring the movement are planning to make next year's event bigger than ever.

Those who heard Dr. Gordon Watt, the Scottish preacher and author from Aberdeen, Scotland, who spent last week in the city as the principal speaker at the conference, are well pleased with his work. He proved to be a charming old man; a speaker of

Thief River Falls citizens and visitors can now view the new creamery building erected by the local co-operative creamery association as it will appear in completeness, the entire framework having been constructed. The crew of about 15 workmen under Contractor Bert Norby is now completing the partitions, the roof being finished the first of the week. It is expected that the new plant will be ready for occupation about the middle or latter part of December, a number of delays having held up the rapid progress of the work during the early part of the project.

The 72x72 foot structure is an imposing building and will be a splendid monument to the dairy industry in this community. It is constructed of excellent material and according to the most modern and convenient plans. The new building provides for the installation of cheese manufacturing facilities when demand calls such an industry and will also be the home of the recently organized Thief River Valley Co-operative Poultry association.

BEET GROWERS TO BE ALLOWED LARGE ACREAGE

County Agent McCann Signing Up Growers For 1925 Acreage Of Sugar Beets

4,000 ACRES EXPECTED IN DISTRICT NEXT YEAR

Local Business Men Show Interest in Factory Being Built In East Grand Forks

Applications for 1925 sugar beet acreage are now being received from farmers in this locality by J. J. McCann, county agent and representative of the Red River Valley Sugar company which is erecting a refinery in East Grand Forks. Contract forms have already been received and farmers thruout this community wishing acreage for next year should make it a point to see Mr. McCann as soon as possible. With a factory in the valley all the acreage desired will be allotted, according to Mr. McCann.

Demand For Acreage

This year the territory known as the Thief River Falls territory of which this city is the center, was allowed an acreage of only 800 acres, while applications called for nearly 4,000. It is predicted that there will be a demand for at least that much for next season and it is urged that farmers make reservations for acreage early so as to be assured of an allotment.

Farmers intending to grow beets next year are urged to get their land plowed this fall. Heavy soil which will hold moisture well is the most desireable and the land should not be badly infested with weeds. The growing of beets benefits the soil, it is pointed out.

The shorter haul of the crop to East Grand Forks will make it possible for growers to realize at least 50 cents per ton more than by the present arrangement, declares Mr. McCann.

Factory Promoter Here

Business men of Thief River Falls in attendance at a meeting in the Commercial club rooms Tuesday night approved of the solicitation of $4,000 for stock in the new East Grand Forks refinery. This action followed a talk by J. D. Markwood of Mason City, Ia., representing the sugar company, who was formerly a Crookston business

SENATOR HOWELL OF NEBRASKA TO SPEAK HERE OCTOBER 31ST

National Issues to be Discussed At Republican Rally at Princess Theatre

Senator Beecher Howell, of Nebraska is slated to speak at a Republican rally at the city auditorium in Thief River Falls on Saturday evening, November 1.

The meeting will open at 8 o'clock, according to F. F. Haynes, chairman of the Pennington County Republican Central committee. Mr. Howell is a prominent member of the senate and has taken an active part in national politics in recent years. It is expected that a large audience will hear his address in this city as he is regarded as one of the best drawing cards in the present campaign, according to information received here.

The Corn Husker Senator's speech will be the final gun for the Republican 1924 campaign in Thief River Falls. He has been speaking under the auspices of the Republican national speaker's bureau in various parts of the country during the present campaign, discussing the various national issues.

Besides Thief River Falls, Senator Howell will address a gathering in Crookston on Thursday, October 30. The Crookston speech will be his first address in Minnesota.

After his meeting in this city the senator will have completed his speaking campaign and will return to his home in Nebraska.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY IN CITY YESTERDAY

Robert C. Bell, Candidate For Attorney General, Flays Present Administration

A Democratic candidate spoke in Thief River Falls for the first time in this campaign when Robert C. Bell of Detroit, candidate for attorney general of Minnesota, addressed a street crowd yesterday afternoon, in which he emphatically denounced the leadership of the Republican party, charged the present administration with corruption unparalleled in history.

Mr. Bell was assistant attorney general of the United States during the Wilson administration and came to Minneapolis in 1916 to take charge for the government of litigation involving White Earth Indian lands. He cited that he furnished the public lands committee of the U. S. Senate the information on which the Teapot Dome investigation was based.

In assailing the leaders of the Republican party and the present administration Mr. Bell pointed out that he did not believe there would be a change should Coolidge be re-elected president. In charging corruption he cited the Tea Pot Dome scandal, the debauchery of the Veteran's by Forbes, the Daugherty disgrace, the Newberry case and others, uring the voters to "clean house on such a mess on Nov. 4." The president, altho aware of what was being done did not make any efforts to stop the corruptness in which his cabinet members were connected according to testimony in the investigations, the speaker said.

That President Coolidge is on the side of the protected interests of the east was brought out by Mr. Bell, who cited his position in favor of the Mellon tax bill which would benefit only 81 Minnesota taxpayers; while 125,000 were benefited by the Garner bill, a Democratic measure, which was passed. He also cited Coolidge as having

Directors of the Minnesota Wheat Growers' association which now has its headquarters in Minneapolis, met in Thief River Falls Tuesday to consider various routine matters connected with the pooling of the 1924 crop and organization work.

Present at the meeting was W. J. Brown, president of the American Wheat Growers' Associated and counsel for the Minnesota association. In an interview with a Times reporter Mr. Brown stated that he is resigning as president of the American association, his resignation taking effect Oct. 29, when a special meeting of the association's directors will be held. Mr. Brown will continue his services as counsel for the Minnesota association, being particularly active at this time in starting litigations against firms and growers violating the co-operative contracts.

"Prospects for the 1924 pool look very encouraging," said Mr. Brown, "and the organization is enjoying a steady growth."

TREATMENT RESULTS IN DEATH CORONER'S JURY VERDICT SAYS

Inquisition Taken Regarding the Death of Aged Cass County Man Treated by Kirby

Anton Linneberg of Hackensack, this state, died in this city Saturday after a brief illness, death being due to peritonitis. Deceased was 65 years of age and a native of Norway. He came here a week ago Sunday to receive treatments from S. R. Kirby, healer near the city.

At an inquisition taken before Dr. H. W. Froehlich, coroner of Pennington county, Monday a coroner's jury rendered the following verdict: "According to the evidence given we, the jury, find that the deceased, Anton Linneberg, came by his death as the direct result of treatment administered by S. R. Kirby of Thief River Falls, Minnesota, or under his direction."

EDUCATION WEEK TO BE OBSERVED HERE

Several Features Planned By Supt. Simley For Annual Event—To Stage Parade

National Education Week, Nov. 17 to 23, will be observed by the Thief River Falls schools in an elaborate manner, somewhat in the same manner as last year, according to tentative plans made by Supt. I. T. Simley and his staff of instructors.

A huge parade with about 1400 marchers and a reviewing stand, special visiting days in the schools and other events are included in the leading features planned. Last year a parade in which about 1500 pupils participated passed thru the main streets of the city and many school patrons realized for the first time the magnitude of the Thief River Falls school system.

Parents will be specially urged to visit the schools to see them in action during the week, in an effort to arouse greater interest in school activities

CAMPAIGN GETS SPIRITED WITH ELECTION NEAR

Voters Urged to Study Ballot Published in The Times This Week

POLITICAL SPEAKERS APPEAL TO CITIZENS

Indications Point to Growing Interest in Election Throughout Community

On another page The Times prints samples of the four official ballots which Pennington county voters will be called upon to mark on election day, Nov. 4. From the list of 36 candidates for national and state offices, whose names appear on the ballot to be used at the general election, voters will select 11, while six will be selected from the 12 names appearing on the county ballot.

With four ballots to be handed them on which to express their preference voters will not have an easy time of it when they enter the voting booths November 4.

In the first place they will select the presidential electors. In doing so they will practically be voting for the nominees for president or vice-president. All are grouped together so that a single "X" mark will show the voter's preference for presidential candidate and his running mate and will cast a ballot for presidential electors favoring his candidacy.

Many State Officers

On the state ballot there will be listed nominees for United States senator, governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, state treasurer, attorney general, railroad and warehouse commissioner, chief justice of supreme court, and two associate justices of the supreme court.

The voters will also pass judgment on five proposed amendments to the state constitution. These have been published in previous issues of the Times.

The county ballot will give the voter a chance to register his or her vote for a member of congress from the Ninth district, two representatives in the legislature from the 65th district, clerk of court, judge of probate and county commissioners in the Second and Fourth districts. The only office which is not contested is that of clerk of court, Adolf Eklund being the only candidate for that position whose name appears on the ballot.

Vote in Past Light

While the vote in the past few elections has been comparatively light in this city and county, it is anticipated that a heavy vote will be recorded on Nov. 4 this year. Altho the majority of voters have shown a spirit of apathy up to this time, interest is now growing and voters are doing more to familiarize themselves with the issues of the day and the candidates who aspire to the various offices. With a speaker on every stump and the newspapers filled with political dope, however, the average voter will find it quite a formidable task to select the candidate for his vote.

Every effort will be made to get every voter to the polls Tuesday, Nov. 4. The American Legion thru its state organization is doing a great deal in arousing interest among its members. Political speakers in every camp are putting special emphasis on the importance of turning out on election day. In order to stir up the women and in an effort to get out a heavier vote than has been the case here in the past, the Republican committee has opened a Women's headquarters in the building formerly occupied by the J. C. Penney store.

Of the 36 candidates for national and state officers, only nine have been heard by the voters of this county. They are: Magnus Johnson, Farmer-Labor, Thomas Schall, Republican and Thomas Keefe, Independent, candidates for senator; Theodore Christianson, Republican, and Floyd Olson, Farmer-Labor, candidates for governor; W. I. Nolan, republican candidate for lieutenant governor; Mrs. Susie Stageberg, Farmer-Labor candidate for secretary of state and Thomas Sullivan, Farmer-Labor, and R. C. Bell, Democrat, candidates for attorney general.

With the 1924 state and national campaigns drawing to a close Minnesota this week will see one of the busiest periods in its political history, it is predicted.

MAHNOMEN TO PLAY LOCALS HERE SAT.

Fast Game Promised Fans in First Gridiron Contest With Mahnomen

On Saturday afternoon, October 25, the local high school gridiron team will meet the Mahnomen team on the local's grounds. Little is known of the outside team, but it is significant that they have the same outfit that held the strong Ada team to a tie last year. This is he first time that Thief River Falls has had a chance to play Mahnomen in a football contest. They are coming here with the intention of avenging themselves for the defeat of their basketball team when it played the locals. The Lincolnites are also out for victory, and they intend to get it. The local team has not won a game yet this season although the boys did play Crookston on even terms.

If the townspeople and the students want to see a real battle they should be present at the game here next Saturday.

When a political speaker runs out of ammunition he can always fall back on lower taxes.

Woman's Club Addressed by Psychologist; New Form of Program Proves Acceptable

This season's first regular meeting of the Woman's club was held in the Commercial club rooms Monday evening and the new form of program which will be used thruout the coming year, proved very acceptable. Mrs. H. W. Froehlich was in charge of Monday's program, which included an address on applied psychology by Mrs. Eva Thurston Chapin of New York City, the current events topics by Mrs. Charles Gerlinger and a musical number by Herman Bischoff, which was very well received.

As a current event topic Mrs. Gerlinger chose to give a paper on the history of the three major political parties which are a factor in present day politics, and which was a very timely topic.

In her address Mrs. Chapin, eminent psychologist who has spent some time in this vicinity, discussed the science of psychology from the viewpoint of its practical application to everyday life and ways in which the proper observance of the correct principles will alleviate the duties, cares and responsibilities of day to day existence and make for a fuller and richer life.

The talk was divided into two parts. In the first part she discussed the importance of forming correct habits, "It is of more consequence when we eat and how than what we eat, and the importance of drinking more cannot be over emphasized," she said. "We should cultivate the habit of putting ourselves in the right frame of mind when we retire and resolve to sleep better rather than longer. In our exercises there should be an objective. This has not only its effect on the completeness of the results from a physical standpoint but has a mental effect far more important.

"Habits of healthy mindedness that we must follow are constructive thinking, reading less but more carefully and above all, thinking more. We build our lives with thots and we are free to choose those thots, and it then follows that what we want to make our lives is a matter wholly within our own power. There must be life in the mind if there shall be growth. The habits of dissipation of the mind, such as dreaming and wishing must be overcome. This does not mean that we shall not cultivate the powers of imagination and visualization, as these are invaluable to progress, but we must create an attitude of willing and doing, and expect more of ourselves. We must form the habit of using our best thots everyday and not only Sundays and holidays."

In the second part she gave the application to club work. "Why a club?" querred Mrs. Chapin. "To promote higher ideals and make for a better, finer and more beautiful civilaztion and the correct methods must be followed in club work as in any other endeavor. More initiative, courage, enthusiasm, co-operation and vision is necessary to accomplish these things and we must pull hard and pull together and only by application of the correct principles can we get the best results. Every individual in the world is destined to make a unique contribution and we must make the most of ourselves if we hope to fill our place in the great mosaic of life.

"This is equally true of each organization, each nation, each civilization that would survive. You may grow as a club into a tremendous power for good in your community, your state, you may become an influence in the nation, you may make a contribution in international affairs, but you will only do this thru unified purpose.

"Resolve to win a distinctive position for the Woman's club of Thief River Falls."

Mrs. Chapin was a guest of Mrs. H. W. Froehlich while in this city.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT PRESENTATION OF MUSICAL REVUE

Local Talent Appears in Entertaining Program of Songs, Dances and Dialogues

That Thief River Falls citizenry is giving their whole-hearted support to the Legion Auxiliary in helping them raise funds for the 1925 Legion convention was evidenced by the splendid patronage at the presentation of the "Musical Revue" at the city auditorium Friday evening. The program was of a varied nature, including songs, dances, humorous and witty remarks interspersing the musical numbers and in addition a one act play, and was enjoyed by the large audience, which nearly filled the spacious auditorium.

The opening scene exhibited a group of mist maidens, beautifully costumed and posed. Then entered in groups the wood nymphs, bluebirds, roses, butterflies, nosegays, and grasshoppers depicting the order of the awakening of dawn. The costuming was correct and pleasing and the music, being Greig's "Morning Mood", lent a realistic touch to the whole. Dances by the various groups followed.

The toy shop was especially entertaining. The march of the wooden soldiers brot much approval from the audience and "The Wooden Soldiers" sung by Miss Durah Kelly was well received. Following in succession were the blocks, candysticks, dolls and clowns, all of whom delighted the audience. The Raggedy Anns succeeded in bringing an encore and were accompanied by the songs "Raggedy Ann" by Ariel Kinghorn. "Remember" was sung by Miss Elleen Arneson and Kern Olson, and brot a double encore, followed by the song, "Oh Baby" by Mr. Olson. The second part closed with the song, "Jealous" by Miss Durah Kelly, also accorded with much applause.

A one act play, "Cinders", was presented with Lucille Roark in the title role and Lawrence Mickelson playing opposite as Jack Warriner, an English gentleman. The play contained a great deal of pathos. The plot was simple but rather interesting and the players took their respective parts very creditably.

Following the play the songs "Do Re Mi" and "The Grass is Always Greener" by Kern Olson, as a chorus girl, and Mrs. Anna Erickson, respectively, were received with much applause. Milton Larson was scarcely recognizable in chorus girl attire in his solo dance.

"Resignation", "Smilin' Through" and "The End of a Perfect Day" by Herman Bischoff, blind soloist of this city, were received with enthusiasm by the audience. Mr. Bischoff is gifted with an exceptional voice and his rendition of the songs named was greatly appreciated. In the metropolitan press he has been named the "Harry Lauder of the Northwest" and his songs Friday night would not disprove it.

The Minstrel Chorus was the last part of the program and was very entertaining. The songs included "In the Evening" by R. Reedy, "Sittin' in a Corner" by Buel Will, as a woman, "Sleep" by Mrs. Helen Brink, "The Maids of '76" and "The Maids of '24" by two quartettes, with solo parts sung by John Sether, "It Had to Be You", by Lorraine Will and "I'm Goin' South" by Dave Robinson, and were interspersed with jokes and witty dialogues by other members of the chorus. "Sleep", by Mrs. Brink, was especially well received.

A selection was given by the Legion orchestra, at the opening of the program, which was well received.

The committee in charge of the Revue wish to thank the members of the cast and all those who assisted with the presentation. Much credit is due to Miss Mildred Engen for her able assistance at the piano.

The entire program was directed by Mrs. H. H. Hodgson of Crookston.

OLD FAVORITES BY PROMINENT READER

Grace Whitridge of Macalaster College to Give Program Tomorrow Eve

Miss Grace B. Whitridge, popular reader, who gives a program of "Old Favorites" at the Presbyterian church auditorium tomorrow, Friday, evening, at 8:15 o'clock, is an interpreter of rare power. A member of the Century Club of St. Paul writes, "Your choice of 'Old Favorites' was more than a program, it was a triumph." Her experience on the stage and her long experience as a coach of amateur plays in the twin cities and in Macalester college testify to her remarkable voice work which no lover of beautiful things can afford to miss.

Miss Whitridge is a close friend of several Thief River Falls people and comes rather as a guest than as a professional reader and interpreter. It is hoped by those influential in persuading her to appear here that this program will receive the hearty support it deserves, that others may be encouraged to bring talent to this city.

Brage Male Chorus Makes Hit in Concert at Gully

The concert given by the Brage Male chorus of this city at Gully on Wednesday night of last week was a decided success and much praise was given the Thief River Falls organization for their splendid musical entertainment. Besides the chorus numbers solos were given by Roy M. Prytz and Dr. J. N. Nesse, which were well received. The concert was given under auspices of the Lovland lodge of the Sons of Norway of which Bj. Bjornaraa of Wanke is president.

Those who made the trip to Gully are: Dr. P. L. Vistaunet, director; Leonard Hanson, B. Dan Bjorkman, and S. R. Dahlen, second tenors; Prof. Ovrebo of Goodridge, Bernhard Knudsen and Dr. J. N. Crowds Fill S. of N. Hall Twice to Hear Skratthult

Packed houses with many standing at the entrance greeted the "Olle i Skratthult" company at the two performances in the Sons of Norway hall in this city Saturday night. As usual when "Olle" appears in Thief River Falls people from the entire surrounding community come to hear and see him and his company of entertainers. Some of those who attended the program last Saturday came a distance of more than 50 miles, in spite of bad roads. The popular Swedish entertainer has made repeated appearances in this city and each time he is met with increased interest.

The entire performance was in Swedish and was fully appreciated by those who understand the language, the musical and singing numbers as well as the folk dance being among the features of the program. Everyone laughed heartily at "Olle", Hjalmar Peterson, who appeared in a number of characteristic monologues, and his songs were accorded much applause.

Mrs. Peterson, "Olle's" wife, attired in a pretty Swedish costume, sang a number of folk songs, some in duets with Annar Myhre, well known to local people. They also presented a lively folk dance, which was greatly enjoyed. The duets by Arthur Martinson, violin, and Thure Anderson, accordion, were exceptionally pleasing as was also the piano solo by Harry Swanson, accompanist thruout the program. Dancing followed the regular program.

The troupe motored here from Clarissa and continued the next day on their way westward on a tour thru to the west coast. This is the 10th season that "Olle i Skratthult" is visiting American cities and everyhere he meets with splendid success, he stated to a Times representative.

Woman's March of Allegiance

The March of Allegiance is an earnest and dignified expression by women voters of faith in and determination to support and defend the Constitution of the United States.

This March is strictly non-partisian, non-sectarian. It appeals to every woman voter for surely there is no American woman who is not ready to support the Constitution of the United States.

This March is no idle gesture, no sentimental or emotional appeal. It is a call to other voters to join you at the ballot box.

Women of Thief River Falls—The members of the Women's Committee for a March of Allegiance to the Constitution invite you to unite with the score of women who love our country in a March of Allegiance on Nov. 4, 1924, at 2:30 p. m., at Central School. The opportunity to march among the ranks of women is one that may never come your way again. The glory of it is something you must experience to appreciate. —Committee.

"Right" Means "Go" To Your Telephone Operator

Trained runners, keenly alert, eager to leap in a spirited dash to the goal, await the crack of the pistol to start them off in the race.

In like manner, your telephone operator, after repeating the number you call, is alert for your acknowledgment before speeding your call through the maze of wire and other equipment to the person you want.

By saying "Right," if your number is repeated correctly, you let her know that she has understood the number. But if your operator repeats the number incorrectly, a wrong number is avoided by saying, "No," and giving her the number again.

The thoughtful cooperation of each telephone user makes the service more valuable to all.

Scarcity of Partridges Reported by Hunters Here

Thief River Falls hunters who have been out in their quest for partridges report little success, this specie being found in smaller numbers than first anticipated, altho some of the more fortunate have been able to fill their limit of five in a day. State Game and Fish Commissioner J. F. Gould who visited Thief River Falls last week stated that a reason for the scarcity of partridges this year was the unfavorable hatching season, and reports of limited numbers in the northern part of the state led him to urge an order by the governor shortening the season, the last day of which is Oct. 31. Ducks are now reported in greater numbers as they begin winging southward.

Hunters are requested to bear in mind that partridges cannot lawfully be shot along highways.

Official Paper of Pennington County
Official Paper, City Thief River Falls
Official Paper, School District No. 18

In less than two weeks the people of the country must go to the polls and choose another set of federal lawmakers and executives, as well as an army of state and local officials. The progress and prosperity of the land depends in a degree upon the decision made at the polling booths on November 4.

Many people speak contemptuously of politicians and government and groan about high taxes and legislative inaction or wrong doing, yet to practically nothing to improve these conditions under which they fret. Not merely do they take no part in the political organizations, but they will not read carefully the political developments, study of which will enable them to act at least somewhat intelligently in selecting public officials.

Too many people decide how to cast their ballot by the talk on the street. Others vote for a candidate because his picture makes him look like a capable fellow. Still others let an ardent handshake and a genial appearance become deciding factors. Many opinions are formed merely from brilliant oratory, often times misleading.

The country will have a good government only when its citizens form the habit of attentive reading of good newspapers and magazines so that they will be informed on the big question of the campaign and the records of the various aspirants to public office.

Go to the polls on November 4 having some definite knowledge as to what the various parties and candidates stand for and aim to do.

This week the complete ballot—national, state and local—appears in The Times. It makes an excellent assignment for study for the next ten days.

Every dollar of auto and truck taxes paid now in Minnesota is used to improve and maintain the main roads. If a tax is placed on gasoline, without adoption of Amendment No. 1 the money will go toward the general expenses of the state government and car and truck owners will have other bills to pay besides the road bills. If you think the road bills enough, you'll want to vote 'yes' on Gas Tax Amendment No. 1.

California air may be alright but only a real Californian can live on it and like it. Every now and then we see news stories telling of the return of the Northwest's prodigal sons, many of them broke and looking for a job. They are satisfied that Minnesota isn't such a bad place in which to live after all. At least that has been the experience of quite a few from this community.

There is some difficulty in keeping the Shenandoah tied. It's not the only big gas bag that has the same dereliction, as the political campaign is amply revealing.

We note with interest that "Bill" Noonan of the Baudette Region is back in the harness with his column of witticisms.

It is fortunate that the World Series are not held on Election day. People might forget about the polls.

Among needed reforms might be mentioned censors for politicians and newspapers.

The first step in getting rid of a fault is to admit it.

Minnesota's most recent industry, sugar beet raising, has grown by leaps and bounds during the last four years, during which a 400 per cent increase was made in the acreage planted, according to survey made in the office of N. J. Holmberg, state commissioner of agriculture.

The report shows that 28,000 acres of beets were planted in 1924, as compared with 7,000 in 1920. This year eight counties in the Red River Valley took on the new industry and planted about 7,300 acres, or more than the total for the state in 1920, the survey shows.

Polk county was the only county in the Red River valley growing beets in 1920, the report claims, but it is of interest to note that Pennington county in 1919 marketed the crop from 51 acres, seed having been brought here from Wisconsin by County Agent J. J. McCann. A few small plots were also tried out in 1918. With this early start Pennington ought to be entitled to claim the leadership in the industry among valley counties.

From the few small patches in 1918 the acreage in the Thief River Falls district increased to 2,250 acres last year, while this year applications called for nearly 3,800 acres, of which only 800 could be allotted due to the lack of factories to absorb the product, which is the only thing checking expansion at the present time.

The large sugar beet yield this year affords another illustration of the suitability of the soil and climate of this section of the state to sugar beets. The fact that beets raised in this northern section have a higher percentage of sugar contents also makes it a favorite territory for this crop.

With a factory being built at East Grand Forks the industry will grow manifold thruout the valley, and it is safe to say that it will not be long before more factories will be established. Enterprising Thief River Falls citizens are pleased to see this first valley factory being built and altho it is not located in this city, are boosting the project, as it will benefit growers in this community by affording an outlet for their product and a lower freight cost. Let us co-operate in enterprises which will benefit this community.

Interest in the "World Series is not confined to adults. Many a school boy's knitted brow is only a ruse to conceal his thoughts. Instead of Euclid's propositions, his meditations may be on his baseball heroes and their chances for victory. And why not? Play, games, and athletics are a recognized part of the school's physical education program. These activities offer, without doubt, one of the best opportunities for the development of good conduct and healthful habits. Are their possibilities realized?

The teacher-coach should, by example and attitude, inculcate the ideals of fair play. Pupils should learn to despise everything tricky or mean, to abide by the rules and the spirit of the game, to strive to win by their own superior athletic prowess, and to recognize it appropriately in others. They should learn to be sportsmanlike. This implies, when winners, the lack of undue boasting; and, when losers, the first in congratulating their successful opponents.

Well-planned athletics contribute immeasurably to physical fitness, happiness, honesty, co-operation, consideration for others, sense of fair play, and character. Each and all of these are worthy goals. Should this highly desirable type of education be confined to the few already physically fit?

Undue concentration on "the team" may well be supplanted by interesting the pupils in the organization and development of a number of play groups and teams within the school. Interclass games and contests between the school's teams are highly desirable and to be preferred to inter-school contests if both can not be provided. Well-directed participation by the many is essential to the greater good to the greater number, which idea is being carried out by Coach Thune in his program of athletics in the Thief River Falls schools.

Sportsmen should keep in mind the law which provides that within thirty days after the expiration of their hunting license report must be made in writing to the state game and fish commissioner, the licensee failing to conform with this rule being barred from getting a license the following year. A large number of Pennington county hunters as well as nimrods in other parts of the state were delinquent in this respect last fall but thru a loophole in the wording of the law many were able to secure permits this year by signing an affidavit that they had turned in their report before making application for their 1924 license. It is not likely that such a loophole will exist next year, so the safest thing to do is to send in your report as required by law.

There are 23,500,000 families in the United States and 13,457,000 passenger automobiles. The automobile manufacturers ought to be told of their shortcomings and be made to understand that they are expected to bring the ratio up to one to a family.

Believing what the campaign managers and the football coaches say about their prospects are real tests of faith. Yes, and believing all that the candidates say about each other would be impossible.

Americans Printed First Postage Stamps for King

The first British postage stamps were made at 69 Fleet street, London, over eighty years ago.

About 1819 two men came over from the United States and started a printing and engraving business which to this day is known as Perkins, Bacon & Co., Ltd. They were Jacob Perkins, an inventor, and Gideon Fairman, an engraver, and with them were associated the two sons of James Heath, R. A.

The famous Perkins process of engraving on steel was applied and when millions of postage stamps were first required the Perkins method was adopted and proved to be just what was wanted.

Credit for the invention of the adhesive postage stamp has been claimed both for Sir Rowland Hill and for James Chalmers, a bookseller of Dundee.

The first British postage stamp was black and was introduced in 1841. It was a queen's head designed by Henry Corbould and engraved by Frederick Heath.—London Tit-Bits.

Janiculum Is a Famous Hill

Janiculum is a famous hill in the city of Rome, situated on the right bank of the Tiber, and south of St. Peter's church. It affords a fine prospect of the city and its environs and derives its name, according to tradition, from Janus, the sun god of the Latins.

Numa Pompilius, the second king of Rome, was buried there; and Ancus Martius, the fourth king, fortified the hill and connected it with the city by means of the Pons Sublicius, the first Roman bridge. This is the bridge that was so valiantly defended by Horatius Cocles against the Etruscans commanded by Porsena.

The Janiculum is not one of the "Seven Hills of Rome."—Detroit News.

IRRIGATION WHEELS USED IN CALIFORNIA

Water Device Used to Irrigate Lands.

In certain portions of northern California there are still sections that can be rendered very fertile only by the addition of water. There are as yet no government reclamation projects in operation in such districts on any great scale and land owners in many cases must rely upon their own resources to improvise adequate irrigation facilities. Particularly is this true along one narrow valley near the Klamath river.

Along that stream have been placed a number of "irrigation wheels" that, in the aggregate, furnish an adequate supply of water for all kinds of crops—grains, grasses, orchards, vegetables, etc. Generally, these wheels are about 80 feet in diameter, and are strongly built of wood. Along the outer circumference are placed "float boards" or paddles. The wheel is immersed several yards in the water and the impulse of the current keeps the huge wheel slowly revolving most of the time. Placed at the interval of every few yards on the outside of the wheel are large boxlike metal buckets. These are filled as they dip into the water, are hoisted by the revolving wheel to the top and the contents poured into troughs on each side. These timber water flumes lead into ditches dug along the steep banks of the stream. Many of these ditch flumes are miles in length.

As these wheels run perpetually, great stores of water are thus collected and distributed among the thirsty crops of the ranchers for leagues on both sides of the narrow winding valley.

The only expense of the rancher is the construction of these wheels and the digging of the irrigation ditches. The system furnishes its own power as well as the life-sustaining element at the same time.

According to Hoyle

As Hiram Jones came into town he saw a sign in a store advertising a shoe sale. Shoes were hung all around the window in pairs, and in the center, on a small table, were laid three silver dollars, with the sign: "Get your shoes now. Three of a kind takes them."

Hiram needed a pair of shoes; so he entered the store, and said to the clerk: "I see you're selling shoes according to poker rules."

"Yes."

"Well, give me two pair."

"What size?"

"Number nine."

When the clerk returned with the shoes Hiram passed over three silver dollars and started to grab the shoes, but the clerk stopped him.

"Two pair of shoes at three dollars is six dollars."

"Didn't you say you sold shoes on poker rules?"

"Yes."

"Well, don't three of a kind take two pairs?"

"Sure," replied the clerk, "but it won't take four nines."—Judge.

Flea-Bitten America

Not being enough of an entomologist to know the designation for a large body of fleas, whether flock, covey, herd, band, or what not, I cannot set down precisely the term for these, in the aggregate, but it is descriptive enough to say that this country of ours, the United States of America, is at present infested with more critical, censorious, propagandist, revolutionary, reformatory, professional, puritanical, cult, quack, political, economic, salvationist, empiritical, intelligentistic, visionary, literary, artistic, financial and theological fleas than have ever infested any other country since the dawn of time. That is a considered statement, and made with full knowledge that from the beginning of organized society until now each phase has had its pest of similar fleas.—Samuel G. Blythe, in McNaught's Monthly.

succeed Carlos Avery in August, 1923, there were only 46 salaried game wardens in the 87 counties of the state. This number has been increased to 76 at present, each receiving an average salary of $120 a month. The average salary last year was only about $100 per month, Mr. Gould stated. "We ought to have between 150 and 200 game wardens in Minnesota to properly take care of the work," the commissioner maintained.

It was pointed out that the department's funds are practically depleted and in order to keep up its activities it will be necessary for the legislature to make an emergency appropriation. This the department has coming, Mr. Gould declared, as the money turned over to the state is considerably more than the regular appropriations.

Residents as well as non-residents should be required to secure fishing licenses, the commissioner said.

In speaking of drainage Mr. Gould deplored the fact that tracts thruout the state which would have been natural breeding places for birds have have been drained, altho they have become of no agricultural benefit. He advocated that legislation be passed calling for approval of all drainage projects by not only the drainage commission but also the timber board, forestry and game and fish departments. In being questioned about the Mud lake project Mr. Gould stated that he had found general favor of contemplated legislation to appropriate money for the payment of ditch liens and closing up of the ditches so as to allow water to gather in the drained basin. Many are of the belief that this lake should be restored to its former status.

Must Preserve Forests

Recognizing a mutual interest in the forests of Minnesota, the state game and fish department and state forest service are working hand in hand to protect this common resource, said Mr. Gould in urging his hearers to vote for the proposed Amendments 4 and 5 relating to reforestation, which will help in preservation of game and other wild life in Northern Minnesota. "Game wardens at all times are alert to protect Minnesota's forests, and rangers and patrolmen are pledged to assist in the enforcement of the game laws," he asserted. "The future of game depends on the forests."

Mr. Gould commended Thief River Falls citizens upon their enterprising spirit in developing the Red Lake narrows as a summer resort. He described the state fishery established at Redby in 1917, where a certain quantity of fish is bought each season from the Indians, stored and sold to the public. A hatchery has also been constructed and the fish supply in the lake is continually being restocked, Mr. Gould stating that fish would remain plentiful in Red Lake even without artificial propagation.

A plea was made to all true sportsmen to co-operate with the state department in every way possible to conserve Minnesota's natural resources of fish and game.

Game Warden Wm. Munch of Crookston was in attendance at the meeting.

Credit Bureau Exposes Loan Shark Practises

The Minnesota Rural Credit Bureau sounds a warning against fradulent individuals who charge farmers exorbitant fees for helping them make out applications for loans from the bureau.

It appears that in some cases these individuals pose as agents of the bureau. In other cases they lead farmers to believe that they have a "pull" and that for a consideration they can get loans through the bureau in a very short time. For such services they sometimes demand a fee of from one to two hundred dollars.

In a communication to the Minnesota Farm Bureau federation, E. J. Oppliger, chairman of the State Credit bureau writes: "Quite a few farmers have complained about the cost of securing a loan from this bureau. The bureau has no agents and no one receives any special favors from it.

"The only charge made by the bureau is the application fee of $10 for a loan of $2000 or less and $15 for loans between $2000 and $15000.

"Many farmers have been able to get the work in connection with our loan application done for an expenditure of $5 or less. A charge of $10 is not exorbitant and in rare cases the work may be worth $25.

"When we find that a farmer has promised to pay an unreasonable fee for work he could do himself or have done at a reasonable figure, we are inclined to turn his loan down, with the feeling that he is not competent and would not be able to take care of his property."

Legion to Open Hallowe'en Season with Dance Friday

Various organizations of this city are making preparations for Hallowe'en dances, the first one to be staged at the city auditorium by the Elmer Eklund post of the American Legion and the Auxiliary on Friday night of this week. It will not be a masquerade as previously announced. First class music by the snappy Legion orchestra will be provided. The money raised will go towards the 1925 convention. On Monday night members of the Degree of Honor lodge and their friends will make merry at the Sons of Norway hall.

The 13th annual Benefit Ball by the local council of the United Commercial Travelers is scheduled for Friday night, Oct. 31 at the auditorium and tickets are now being sold by members of the organization. The proceeds are used for charity funds.

A high school is not only proud of its scholarship and athletics, but it is also proud of its appearance. When a person from another town comes to Thief River Falls and passes by the high school, if he does not have a chance to go into the building, so he forms his opinion of the school by its appearance. The looks of the school depends upon the look of the building and the appearance of the lawn about the building. This article is for the purpose of having the lawn look good because our school building is built all right and it is very good looking. The only way the lawn can be made good is to keep off it. Anyone [illegible] cannot continue to retain its color and life, if it is tramped over hundreds of times each day. The lawn is walked over the most during dismissal at noon and at four o'clock. There is no need of this traffic on the grass because there is a sidewalk to accommodate the students. In the future let's have the students (and perhaps teachers) take a little more time and keep off the school lawn.

BEMIDJI AGAIN DEFEATS LOCALS THIS TIME BY 39-0 SCORE

Lincolnites Hold Strong Bemidji Eleven Scoreless During Last Half

History repeated itself Friday afternoon when Thief River Falls high school football team was again defeated by the heavy and aggressive Bemidji aggregation on the local grounds, this time to the tune of 39 to 0. For a number of years past the Bemidji eleven has been victorious in battle with the locals, who played a good game in holding the visitors as they did. Bemidji was prevented from scoring a single point during the last half, altho a number of gains were made thru the Thief River line. However, the locals had the ball within 15 yards from their goal when the final whistle blew and had the ball in their territory at various intervals during the game. They showed expert tutelage under the direction of Coach L. A. Thune.

This was Bemidji's fourth victory this season in which the opposition failed to score, being defeated only by Hibbing 10-0. Altho they outweighed the locals considerably and were more experienced a number of regulars were unable to remain thruout the contest. Following is the game by quarters:

First Quarter

Thief River Falls received and advanced the ball to their 70 yard line. Unable to make any gains thru the line or by circling ends, they had to punt. Bemidji was downed without gain but an end run netted a touchdown, the try-for-point failing. Again the locals received and made some gains, Wengeler making about 20 yards by completing a pass. Bemidji getting possession of the oval tried a series of varied plays with little success and punted. Thief River taking the offense on the 20 yard line. A Bemidji man intercepted a pass and made a dash of 40 yards over the goal line, which together with the extra point, gave Bemidji a total of 13 points. The first quarter ended with Bemidji in possession of the ball in the center of the field.

Second Quarter

Shortly after the opening of the second period Simons, star quarterback on the Bemidji team, caught a pass and crossed the line after racing 60 yards down the field. Zeh attempted to stop him but failed. No extra point was made.

Bemidji kicked off again and the locals opened play on the 20 yard line, losing the ball in a fumble in the second play. In a series of plays the visitors were again successful in carrying the ball over the line, altho the line stiffened in an effort to hold back the onslaught of the lumberjacks. The extra point was also made.

The husky visitors went on a rampage and before the half ended the ball had been taken across the goal line two times, no extra points being made. Hickerson showed up well for Bemidji in a number of passes. When the whistle blew for the first half Bemidji had piled up 38 points to Thief River's goose egg.

Third Quarter.

The locals received but were forced to punt in the fourth play. Altho Bemidji made a strong offense the locals met them with a stiffened defense, compelling the visitors to punt after a few gains. Considerable time was taken out delaying the game. The quarter came to a close with Bemidji in possession of the ball in mid-field.

Fourth Quarter

The last period opened with a pass intercepted by a Thief River Falls player but the locals were again forced to punt, being unable to make any gains. After regaining the ball again the Lincolnites started a passing game, Penney making a substantial gain to the opposition's 25 yard line. However, they were unable to break thru Bemidji's line before the final whistle blew, altho it looked as if the local warriors would have scored had the game lasted a little longer.

Between halves the High School band with 20 members under the direction of U. H. Reque, played a number of selections which were well received by the large crowd of fans.

Special Assembly

Before dismissal for noon last Friday a special assembly was held for a dual purpose. First and foremost the talk on scholarship given by Principal Morris Bye. He stated that the fundamental object of a school was scholarship and in connection with this he read the honor roll which is published elsewhere in this issue.

The topic of the next importance was the fact that Bemidji was to play the Lincolnites in the afternoon. Then Mr. Bye called upon three football players: Sylvester Kengeler, Russel Ellofson and Richard Zeh. These three gave short but peppy speeches, urging the students to see the game. After this Hilda Ness gave a very interesting talk for the purpose of exciting interest in the coming game. Then a few yells were given, which fairly raised the roof off the building.

"My dear man, you'd better take the trolley car home."

"Ish no use, my wife,—hic-hic—wouldn't let me keep it in the house."

Honor Roll Students For First Six-Week Period Announced—Juniors Lead

When a person does good work in his studies the school is proud of him, and in order to show him that he has done exceptional good work there is an honor roll. To get on this honor roll the student must have ten or more honor points. This is the way the grades count. A—three points, B—two points, C—one point, D—no point, and anything below that is worse yet. There are 438 pupils in the school, 43 of these are on the honor roll, showing that ten percent of the student body have been doing real good work.

Local Girl Pledged to Kappa Delta Sorority

Irene Stewart of Thief River Falls was pledged to Kappa Delta Sorority at the University of Minnesota Friday, Oct. 3.

During the week of September 19-22 the eighteen sororities at the university held their rushing parties at which the Freshman rushees were feted. Monday, September 22, was open house. Each sorority, following Pan-Hellenic rules, gave ten parties during the week, consisting of teas, luncheons, and dinners.

Bids were sent out Tuesday, and on Friday afternoon sorority row was on tiptoes with excitement as the girls in the various chapters awaited the arrival of the rushees whom they had bid for membership. At five o'clock, the rushees marched to the sororities of their choice amid the loud cheers and applause of the fraternity men.

Pledging followed, after which the pledges were entertained by dancing, theatre parties and the like. One hundred and twenty-five girls were admitted as pledges into the Greek sisterhood.

Down in Mobile

The day broke—but no one was injured. The sun rose behind the back fence—quite a long distance behind it, and a dogwood tree, awakened by the light, began to bark loudly.

John Harrison Abraham White, who contrary to his name, was not white, was in the arms of Morpheus. In other words he was "dead to the world" which is the way tough guys have of saying,—sleep. A noise composed of a mixture of sirens, buzz saws, wornout street cars and automobile exhausts issued from the interior of his cavernous mouth. It was evident from the pauses in his broadcasting that he was dreaming and the smile on his face gave sufficient proof for this theory.

He wandered down a lane in the Garden of Eden. Behind him stretched mile upon mile of ripe juicy watermelons planted between innumerable rows of trees containing the most delicious fruits he had ever seen or heard of. Everything was beautiful. He lolled along carelessly; eating his fill of watermelons, ripe pears, peaches, and all the other fruits he could find.

He rounded a bend in the road and came upon an aged man bending over a 1924 Ford. The old gentleman was plainly irritated. "Lizzie" refused to move. The gentleman turned, and the colored boy recognized dear old Adam, the first hen-pecked husband. Adam shook hands and said, "Welcome here, old thing. The Fordson is at the poultry yard and I started after it, but this tin can of mine stopped. I forgot the can opener so I can't get inside and see what's wrong." Sunshine loaned Adam his can opener and soon they were on their way.

They arrived home and were welcomed by Eve. She was attired in the latest Fifth Avenue style with a three dollar Marcelle. She also was very polite and refined, because she came from the oldest family in Eden. The cook had been given the air, but Eve prepared supper very nicely.

After supper Adam tuned in on the radio. His two sons, Cain and Abel were promising pugilists and they that very night were matched against each other. Adam was very excited over the outcome of the fracas as he had placed a large amount on Cain. He finally tuned in on the arena and the results were: a no decision fight. Cain won.

Then to White's ears came a low rumbling which gradually increased to a roar. He had visions of cyclones and earthquakes. The very ground began to tremble.

He awoke with a start and encouraged by a two pound flatiron on the jaw nearly went back to sleep. His brawny wife, failing to wake him by calling had resorted to force.

The aims of the organization are selfimprovement and mutual helpfulness in social and educational activities.

Eleanor Carlson, Donald Fuller, Lester Haraldson, Ruth Johnson, Alice Larsen, Evelyn Whiting, Laura Nelson, Grant Mickelson, Alpha Ness, Dorothy O'Hara, Dorothy Tyrer, Lillian Rupprecht and Robert Booren. L. H. Hermanson Gives Talk on Banking Mon.

L. H. Hermanson, cashier of the First and Peoples State bank, gave a very interesting and instructive talk on the principles of banking to the bookkeeping classes, Monday morning.

He spoke briefly on the following topics:

1. The reason for banks being started and how they are organized.
2. How to make a deposit properly.
3. The various kinds of deposits.
4. The clearing house.

The fact that everyone comes in contact with some phase of banking during some period of his life is ample reason why the talk was well taken. It also helped point out how the study of bookkeeping is of value because of its close relationship to actual business affairs. The speech was received with much enthusiasm by the students.

Decrease in Grade Schools But High School Has 47 More Than Last Year

Enrollment in the grade schools of Thief River Falls at the close of the first six-weeks' period shows a decrease from 1039 pupils last year to 953 this year, a drop of 86, according to figures submitted by Supt. E. F. Simley. This decrease is largely due to the smaller number of beginners this year, there being only 31 in the Knox building this year, compared to 45 last year. This year there are 30 beginners in the Northrop school while last year there were 46 at the end of the first six weeks.

However, the high school has the largest enrollment in history, its total of 428 at the closing of the first period exceeding last year's enrollment at a corresponding time by 47 students. On Monday two more were enrolled at the high school making the total 440, which is apportioned among the various classes as follows: Freshman, 147; sophomores, 88; junior, 73; senior, 98 and postgraduate or normal department, 34.

Enrollment in the grades according to schools and sex is as follows:

	Boys	Girls	Total
Central	111	101	212
Knox	118	127	245
Northrop	158	133	291
Washington	106	99	205
	493	460	953

The total enrollment in the five schools of the city at the end of the first six weeks last year was 1430 compared to 1391 this year, a drop of 39.

The question of holding a basketball tournament in Thief River Falls this season was brought up but no definite action was taken upon the matter.

C. J. Chapman of the Crookston high school is chairman of the executive committee in district No. 2 of the Minnesota Athletic association which also held its meeting during the convention, the former district No. 1 of which Thief River Falls high school was a member, having been divided. Supt. F. B. Andreen of Ada and Supt. C. H. Orrison of McIntosh are the other members of the board.

Mark Twain's Answer

Mark Twain, in his early days worked on a Missouri newspaper. A superstitious subscriber wrote in, saying that he had found a spider in his paper, and asked whether that was a sign of good or bad luck. The humorist wrote this answer and printed it.

"Old Subscriber: Finding a spider in your paper was neither a good nor bad luck for you. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which merchant is not advertising, so that he can go to that store, spin his web across the door, and live a life of undisturbed peace ever afterwards."

EGG POOL RETURNS RECEIVED BY CO-OP

Producers Get Checks for First Shipments—More Receiving Stations Added

Returns from the first egg pool and the first car of live poultry shipped by the Thief River Valley Co-operative Poultry association were received last week and the checks sent out to producers from the headquarters in this city Friday. The largest individual check was paid to Mrs. George Breitsprecher of St. Hilaire, who received $61.63 for the eggs delivered during the last two weeks of September.

Producers received a net average of 36.25 cents a dozen for eggs shipped to New York markets from September 15 to 30 thru the association, according to figures submitted by B. O. Norby, manager of the association. The net returns on Extra Firsts was 42 cents a dozen, on Firsts 31 cents and on Seconds 22 cents. An unusually large average of Extra Firsts eggs are being received by the local association, namely 62 per cent; 32 per cent Firsts and only six per cent of Seconds. All grades were accepted by New York buyers as made here.

October prices promise to be considerably stronger, according to Manager Norby, who urges producers who are not yet members of the co-operative organization, to join as soon as possible. It is pointed out that as the volume increase the overhead expense is lowered in proportion.

The net prices to producers for poultry shipments in September is given as follows: Heavy hens, 19½ cents; light hens, 13¾ cents; springs, 19¼ cents; Leghorn springs, 14¾ cents; cocks, 11¼ cents and geese, 13½ cents.

Organization work is still going on, a campaign being carried on in communities in the northern part of the district this week. Manager Norby visited Lancaster, Halma, Orleans, Noyes, Hallock, Kennedy, Bronson and Northcote on a tour of northern points last week, returning Thursday. Receiving stations have already been opened at Lancaster and Orleans, while arrangements are now under way for starting the others shortly. Much interest in the poultry association is shown by Kittson county farmers, says Mr. Norby.

A meeting was held at Halma Monday night, addressed by H. A. Palmquist, foreman of the receiving station in this city. On Saturday night Mr. Norby met with directors of the Plummer creamery association to consider matters regarding the handling of eggs and poultry at that creamery. Roseau and Warroad were visited on Monday by Mr. Norby, who will speak at the poultry show at Roseau tomorrow.

A poultry car was started at Lancaster this week, loadings here being started yesterday and continuing thru today. The car will be shipped on to Erskine Friday to be filled. This is the second carload shipment of live poultry made by the association, increased shipments being anticipated from now on.

The contract with the association provides that those signing it agree to deliver and sell all marketable surplus eggs and poultry which they produce except such eggs as may be suitable for hatching or sold for incubation, poultry raised and sold for breeding stock, or sales of either eggs or poultry direct to a consumer by a member. The only limitations in selling which the association places on the producers is that they do not sell to dealers.

Britain Growing Tobacco

As a matter of civic pride and in the interest of industrial development, Great Britain is making strenuous effort to grow tobacco on a commercial scale and to inculcate into the British inhabitants a taste for the local weed. Great Britain, since the day when Sir Walter Raleigh introduced smoking, has been getting her tobacco mainly from Havana, Jamaica, Nigeria and Virginia plantations. In fact, Great Britain once got finer leaf than did any American cigar makers.

POTATO GROWERS HAULING IN CROP

Exchange Members Expect to Ship 30 Carloads From This City This Fall

Eleven carloads of potatoes had been shipped by the Pennington County Co-operative Potato association from the Thief River Falls shipping station up to Monday, according to H. C. Liden, who is in charge of the local station. Two cars were shipped Tuesday and several others are now about to be loaded, weighing and loading being done in the Oen Machine shed at the Soo tracks. It is expected that about 30 cars will be shipped from the station here this season.

Exchange members are also shipping from St. Hilaire, Hazel and points along the Electric line. Five cars loaded on the Electric line were shipped last week. A. C. Rasmusson of this city is in charge of the Electric line stations.

Potatoes shipped by Exchange members are carefully graded into five grades, shipments from here being made to Oskoloso, Iowa. The 1924 crop is said to be of a good grade but not as abundant as was hoped. However, some yields of from 150 to 200 bushels an acre of Cobblers and Burbanks are reported, Early Ohios averaging from 75 to 100 bushels to the acre. Harvey Copp hauled in 400 bushels from a two-acre field of Cobblers, many of the potatoes weighing more than three pounds each, according to Manager Liden.

R. Oen has dug about 2000 bushels from his 25-acre field contracted with the Exchange and Chas. W. Correll, who has 45 acres of Burbanks and Early Ohios will ship about four carloads of certified seed. The capacity of a carload is about 600 bushels. A number of growers are storing their crop on their farms.

Six men are employed at the shipping station in this city besides Manager Liden, namely Oscar O. Weberg, Alfred Gulseth, Bernt Wold, L. Weslin, Peter Paulson and O. A. Kinley.

John Engelstad of Neilsville, field man for the exchange in this district, was in the city Monday.

Digging will be well advanced by the end of this week and growers are urged to get their crop out of the ground as soon as possible to avoid damage from frost, the season being unusually late.

A large quantity of flat type Burbanks has been bought by the Peterson-Biddick company at a good price, this concern having made arrangements to supply seed to a California grower.

A Doctor's Life

The doctor sent a bill for $10 to the terrible tempered Mr. Bangs. The bill read, "Two visits—$10."

"You're a robber," said Mr. Bangs. "Five dollars a visit! It isn't worth it."

"I'll rewrite the bill," said the doctor, and Bangs smiled. They couldn't put anything like that over on him.

Then the doctor wrote: "To getting out of bed at 2 a. m., answering phone, disturbing my wife, dressing, going to garage, cranking 'tin Lizzie,' two-mile drive in the cold, saving baby's life, return to garage, waking wife, undressing, getting back into bed—$10."

He said to Bangs: "I won't make any charge for the second visit, and you need not pay for the first unless you feel I have earned the money."

Mr. Bangs paid the bill.

By Compressed Air

Nowadays, in sinking caissons for bridges over certain rivers it is possible to make compressed air do the work of shovels in removing the sand, through a thick stratum of which, in some cases, the caisson is forced down toward the bedrock deep beneath. The sand is sometimes so pure and loose that the force of the compressed air supplied for the workmen in the caisson suffices to drive it up through blowpipes inserted in the caisson for the purpose. Jets of water are directed against the sand around the bottom of the blowpipes, and when thus dislodged the sand readily passes up through the pipes with the strong air currents that are continually pouring into them from the compressed atmosphere of the caisson.

Portraits of Shakespeare

Two portraits of Shakespeare are sufficiently diverse to add piquancy to the problem, "What did Shakespeare really look like?" The painting called the Felton portrait, first discovered in a broker's shop in the Minories in 1788, by "a gentleman of fashion," shows him beardless except for a slight tuft of hair under the lower lip and a small fair mustache. The Lumley portrait, which was originally in possession of Lord Lumley, a contemporary of the poet's, is more in keeping with the generally accepted fancy of Shakespeare's appearance. He is shown with a florid complexion, a close-cropped beard and small brown mustache.

Stop That Backache!

Many Thief River Falls Folks Have Found the Way.

Is a dull, nerve-racking backache wearing you out? Do you feel older and slower than you should? Are you tired, weak and nervous; find it impossible to be happy, or enjoy the good times around you? Then there's something wrong and likely it's your kidneys. Why not get at the cause? Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Your neighbors recommend Doan's. Read what this Thief River Falls resident says:

Mrs. P. Eberhardt, 211 Atlantic Ave., says: "My back was weak and lame and ached badly. When I did any heavy work, I suffered the worst. Doan's Pills rid me of all the trouble." THREE YEARS LATER, Mrs Eberhardt said: "Doan's are the best remedy I ever used for the kidneys."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills — the same that Mrs. Eberhardt had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Radio Used by Police

When the telephone was perfected it was considered a valuable ally of the police in apprehending escaping criminals, but the automobile has largely spoiled its usefulness. One person can only phone to one place at one time, while a bandit in an automobile may be going elsewhere in any direction. Police departments are now adopting printing telegraphs and the radio as a supplement to the phone. Outlying and suburban police stations are equipped with receiving apparatus, and one operator at the central station can flash the description of the fleeing criminal in all directions instantly, laying down a barrage of publicity through which it is more difficult to escape.

He Was Game

There was a very pretty nurse passing in and out. The patient eyed her with admiration. By way of a pleasantry the doctor said: "Be a good boy and I'll prescribe a kiss for you at four o'clock."

But at four o'clock an extremely homely nurse came on duty, as the physician knew she would. However, the next day he ventured to ask the patient how things had gone.

"I took my medicine," briefly reported the young man.

SUGAR BEETS YIELD AVERAGE OF 9 TONS AN ACRE IN STATE

Harvesting of 1924 Crop Here Nearly Completed—Large Returns Indicated

Sugar beet harvesting is now well under way in this locality and the crop is rapidly being hauled to the various shipping points. In this city the roots are being piled along the Soo tracks where there is already more than 1000 tons. It is expected that about 2,500 tons will be piled here to be shipped to the refinery at Mason City, Iowa. On Saturday 72 loads were weighed and piled at the local station, each containing approximately two tons. About ninety per cent of the crop on the 800 acres in this vicinity will be pulled by the end of the week, some of it being piled in the fields. Freezing does not damage the beets.

The average yield of fields in this whole area is estimated at about nine tons an acre, while many growers are reporting 10, 11 and 12 tons, which is considered a very good yield, according to County Agent J. J. McCann, who is in charge of field work here. Nine tons an acre seems to be the average yield of Minnesota's 28,000 acres, according to information sent out by H. A. Douglas, president of the Minnesota Sugar company, which has contracted for the beets grown here, altho shipments will be made to the Northern Sugar corporation's factory in Mason City.

Present indications are that the price will range between $7 and $8 a ton, according to Mr. Douglas, who points out that this season farmers of Minnesota and a few on the North Dakota side of the Red River are harvesting a $2,000,000 sugar beet crop from a mere morsel of land. He estimates that the yield will be 243,000 tons of beets.

The cost of shipping the beets to Mason City, Iowa, is $2.25 a ton, which is a reduction from the regular rate of $7.50 a ton. With a factory in East Grand Forks transportation costs will be greatly reduced, the distance to Mason City being about 700 miles while it is only 70 miles to East Grand Forks.

Sugar beet tops are used for cattle feed by all growers here, this part of the crop being valued at about $10 an acre. About two tons of dry matter per acre of tops is secured from a good yield.

Local Men Take Part in Roseau Co. Poultry Show

County Agent J. J. McCann is at Roseau today to serve as judge at the Roseau County Poultry show there today and tomorrow. B. O. Norby, manager of the Thief River Valley Cooperative Poultry association with headquarters in this city, is scheduled to speak tomorrow afternoon. Indications are that last year's show will be surpassed both in the number and quality of exhibits, said the Roseau Times-Region last week. "Interest in poultry is increasing in the county year by year, and with the new poultry marketing association under way, the progress will be more marked." The Roseau County Poultry association is headed by G. M. Stebbins of Roseau.

Rural Carrier Examination

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination to be held at Thief River Falls on Saturday, Nov. 8, to fill the position of rural carrier at Gatzke, and vacancies that may later occur on rural routes from that post office. The salary of a rural carrier on a standard daily wagon route of 24 miles is $1,800 per annum, with an additional $30 per mile per annum for each mile or major fraction thereof in excess of 24 miles. The examination will be open only to citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of the post office where the vacancy exists and who meet the other requirements set forth.

Finishing Threshing

Threshing operations in this locality will be practically completed this week, continued favorable weather making it possible for farmers to hurry up belated farm work. Some damage to grain in shocks during the series of rains has been reported.

Pyrotol Demonstration at A. Hoverstad Farm Tues.

A demonstration of the use of pyratol, the war salvaged explosive, will be made at the Andrew Hoverstad farm, three miles east of Thief River Falls on the Elwell road, on Tuesday, October 28, at 1:30 p. m., according to announcement by County Agent J. J. McCann. Information has been received from Clarence Johnson of the division of agricultural engineering, University Farm, St. Paul, who will be in charge of the demonstration.

Demonstration will also be given at Holt on Wednesday at 9 a. m.; Middle River, same day, at 2 p. m., and at Stephen, Oct. 31, at 2 p. m.

Pyrotol is a high explosive prepared from surplus war material. It is composed largely of ground smokeless powder and sodium nitrate. It is furnished by the United States Department of Agriculture at the cost of cartridging, packing and shipping. Pyrotol is about one-third stronger than ordinary dynamite, pound for pound. The shattering effect of this explosive is the same as that of 40 per cent dynamite.

A great deal of this explosive has been used in Beltrami county for clearing timber lands, but here it would be used largely for blasting rocks.

For the convenience of those farmers living in districts where it is impossible to get enough orders to make a carload, the University is maintaining distributing points at St. Paul, Bemidji and Virginia. Pyrotol will be shipped direct to any farmer in Minnesota in even 100 pound quantities up to 1000 pounds from the nearest of these three points. The price when ordered in small quantities is $8.60 per 100 pounds f. o. b. St. Paul, Bemidji or Virginia. In carload lots it costs only seven cents per pound plus freight from Barksdale, Wis., where it is being cartridged.

EXCHANGE TO STORE 5,000 CARS SPUDS

Deal Closed to Enable Association to Avoid Present Glutted Market

The Minnesota Potato Growers Exchange has closed a deal which will enable it to store, in the terminal markets, at least 5,000 cars of potatoes. This storage is in addition to that which it has acquired at shipping points and centers in the producing district.

By reason of its enormous volume of business, the Exchange obtained a rate that is less than half that usually paid. Storage obtained is supplied with every known equipment for keeping the potatoes in the best possible condition.

"With the potato market as low as it is, the Exchange was obliged to make arrangements for holding the bulk of its crop off the present market," said H. C. Posseht of Baker, member of the executive board. "Independent buyers are laying in stocks at 30 to 35 cents a hundred; a price that spells ruin for the grower. The association will not be a party to further flooding the present demoralized market."

The full weight of its enormous tonnage was being felt by the exchange this week. Receipts passed 1,500 cars and the Exchange enjoyed the distinction of receiving more than a tenth of all potatoes delivered in United States.

The low market is making itself felt in the association's membership, which is growing at the rate of nearly 100 a day. Last week the membership passed 13,000 and is steadily climbing toward 14,000. Quite a few have been signed up in Pennington county.

Large growers of the state who elected not to join the Exchange during the organization campaign are now signing the contract. Many contracts covering 50 to 100 acres are being received.

The organization's membership books will remain open and the membership fee will continue at $5 at least for the time being, according to S. G. Rubinow, general manager.

Scanlon Given Recognition

Scanlon of this city, receiving vocational training in the law department of the University of Minnesota, has been appointed a member of the student editorial board of the Minnesota Law Review, published by the university law students, for another term. The board consists of 14 members. Election to the student editorial board is based entirely upon scholastic record in the Law School and proven ability to do constructive legal research, states the Minnesota Daily, official university publication. Mr. Scanlan is a son of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Scanlan of this city, and will complete his course next spring.

SEVENTEEN YOUTHS FROM PENNINGTON AT NORTHWEST A. C.

County Leads in Representation At Agricultural School, Enrollment Shows

Pennington county is well represented at the Northwest School of Agriculture, Crookston, this year. There are seventeen from this county, which is the largest number since 1922. In proportion to some of the other counties nearby this county is first, with Marshall county second with fifteen, Kittson county third with twelve, and Roseau county fourth with eleven. The Northwest School has a record enrollment for the first term.

The list of Pennington county youths attending are:

First year: Arnold Aakre and Ralph Erickson, Goodridge; Sophie Breiland, Hazel; Gunda Gullingsrud, Kratka.

Second year: Alfred Dybvik, Tlen Gullingsrud, Rose Kozojed and Lawrence Letnes, Thief River Falls; Mathilda Kotrba and Alice Parnow, Erie.

Third year: Helen Flekke, Thief River Falls, Odelia Johnsrud, Erie; Elmer Miller, Goodridge; Emma Satre, St. Hilaire.

Fourth year: Theresa Aakre, Myrtle Erickson and Oliver Howard, Goodridge.

Last Saturday was Home Coming Day at the Northwest School, at which time the first athletic contest was held between the agricultural schools of Crookston and Morris. Crookston won by a score of 34 to 0 before a large crowd of alumni and former students. Among those who took a prominent part in the game was Elmer Miller, who played right guard. Oliver Howard, who lives close to Highlanding is showing up well with the reserves and while he did not get into the Saturday game, will undoubtedly play in some of the games left on the schedule. During the evening the get-to-gether dinner was held for the students and guests. Arnold Aakre of Goodridge was on the program for a violin solo and accordion duet with Einar Loven of Gatzke playing the accordion.

Some of the important events planned for the remainder of the first term will be the exercises on Armistice Day, the Thanksgiving Day program and the Annual Song Contest in December. Two musical artists from the University of Minnesota will appear before the students during the term and in addition there will be two Lyceum numbers. During the assemblies held each week prominent speakers are brought to the school. Thus far some of the speakers have been Ed Lindell, State Commander of the American Legion, Hugo Thompson, State Student Y. M. C. A. Secretary, and J. R. Brittain, former United States Consul General at Winnipeg.

Checks For Income Tax Refund are Held by Collector

Two thousand Government checks, amounting to a fortune, are being held by Collector of Internal Revenue L. M. Willcuts until they are claimed by Minnesota taxpayers, according to a statement received from the department, St. Paul.

These checks are for the 25 per cent income tax refund and over 42,000 refund checks were mailed to taxpayers at the address given on their income returns. Evidently they have moved, for over 2,000 checks were returned by the Post Office marked "Gone."

Collector Willcuts said that $2,381,759.20 in cash refunds and credits on their income tax bills payable this year have been made to Minnesota taxpayers under the new Revenue Act signed by President Coolidge on June 4. The checking up and payment of this immense refund to 42,000 taxpayers has set a new record in point of time in the government's history, Collector Willcuts said.

The Collector said that 2,000 perfectly good checks on Uncle Sam's treasury were awaiting claimants. He advised all taxpayers who paid their income taxes in full this year to notify his office of any changes in their address since March 15 if they have not received refund checks. Better still, call at the Internal Revenue office and see if your check is among the 2,000 returned in the mails because of wrong address given.

Organize Warehouse Corporation

The Western Warehousing corporation, one of three being organized throughout the state under direction of the Minnesota Potato Exchange will have charge of Exchange warehouses in the Red River Valley, according to announcement this week from the headquarters of the Exchange. The men who will have charge of incorporation for the corporation are F. A. Green of Stephen, Frank Kiene and S. E. Olson of Ada. The corporation will assist the exchange in financing its work, as with separate warehousing corporations it will be able to obtain warehouses receipts for potatoes in storage.

Counties comprising the Western district are Pennington, Marshall, Roseau, Red Lake, Kittson, Ottertail, Wilkin, Becker, Clay, Mahnomen, Norman and Polk.

Clean Wheat

The cleanliness of a number of wheat fields in Pennington county this year is indicated in reports from various grain dealers in Thief River Falls. In a number of cases wheat has been purchased from farmers where no dockage has been made, these instances being much more numerous this year than is usually the case. In every instance the yield has been unusually heavy and of the best quality.

When somebody discovers a way to utilize the parked chewing gum, the pinnacle in retrieving junk will have been reached.

Simple Mixture for Gas on Stomach

Simple buckthorn bark, magnesium sulph. c. p., glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adlerika, helps any case gas on the stomach, unless due to deep-seated causes. The pleasant and QUICK action will surprise you. Because Adlerika is such an excellent intestinal evacuant it is wonderful for constipation—it often works in one hour and never gripes. F. J. September Reports Heard By City Council Last Week

The monthly report of the city librarian for the month of September as submited to the city council Tuesday nidht, Oct. 14, showed that 489 juvenile fiction books were loaned out; 261 juvenile non-fiction, 793 adult fiction and 109 adult non-fiction, a total of 1,652 books being called for. The estimated reading room atendance was placed at 3,250, while the report also showed 34 new adult patrons and 14 juvenile, a gain of 48 during the month.

The report of the clerk for the past month indicated earnings in the electric light fund of $3,895.04, while the balance on hand the first of the month was $7,582.34 as compared to $12,312.21 a month previous. The receipts for September were $4,492.97 and the disbursements $9,222.84. The report also showed that there were outstanding warrants of $20,410.68 so that the actual cash on hand was about $25,000.

The report of the dairy inspector showed that he had inspected all of the sources of milk supply of regular milk producers, there being 187 cows furnishing the milk. The samples of milk and cream tested for various purposes were all O. K., according to the report, which also brought to light that the inspector was starting a crusade against cracked milk bottles. Arrangement of the ventilating systems in the barns of milk producers to insure a good supply of fresh, pure air during the winter has also been instituted.

The fees collected in the municipal court, as shown by the report of Judge N. W. Tarrant, were $25.65 for September. The chief of police had no report for last month, there having been no arrests made during that time.

CENSUS BLANKS ARE BEING DISTRIBUTED

Bureau of Farm Census Circulating Advance Sheets Thru Rural Carriers

Census blanks for use in taking the regular farm census by the department of agriculture this fall were last week distributed to farmers by rural carriers from the local post office, in conformity with an act of congress in 1919 providing for the taking of a census every five years. These blanks are to be filled out by the farmers, giving certain information asked for by the census bureau, but are not to be returned to the postmaster but retained until the local enumerator calls upon them, which will be some time next month.

Very complete data is called for by the blanks, which cover such matters as ownership, tenure, acres cropped, acres pasture, acres woodland, value of land and buildings, farm debt, expenses in 1924, kinds and amounts of crops grown on farm in 1924, forest products, livestock and livestock products, poultry, etc. The blanks contain a total of 158 questions.

The information reported on the blanks will be treated as strictly confidential under all circumstances.

A farm, for census purposes, is all the land which is directly farmed by one person, either by his own labor alone or with the assistance of members of his household, or hired employees. The land operated by a partnership is likewise considered a farm. To be reported as a farm the tract must be three acres, unless its products in 1924 were valued at $250 or more.

Following is a list of enumerators for Pennington's six districts suggested to the department by County Agent J. J. McCann, who is in charge of census work in this county: District No. 63—Black River, River Falls and Rocksbury townships, and St. Hilaire village—S. E. Hunt and Henry Oen, Thief River Falls; district No. 64—Bray, Numedal, Polk Centre and Sanders townships—R. J. McKercher and Alfred Benson, St. Hilaire; district No. 65—Clover Leaf, Kratka, Silverton and Smiley townships—Thomas Smith of Mavie and Chas. Thompson of Goodridge; district No. 66—Deer Park, Mayfield, Hickory and Wyandotte townships—Wm. Wilde of Oklee and Paul Borgie of Hazel; district No. 67—Goodridge, Highlanding, Reiner and Star townships and Goodridge village—Stuart McLeod and Osmond Urdahl, Goodridge; district No. 68—Norden and North townships and city of Thief River Falls—G. M. Wilson and Edwin Christensen, Thief River Falls.

Will Move to City

L. W. Knadle, farmer in Silverton township the last 13 years, this week announces that he will sell out all his farm property next Thursday, Oct. 30, and expects to move his family to Thief River Falls about the middle of November. He intends to leave for Texas to spend some time this winter with an uncle, while his family will remain in the city.

Rheumatism

is an inflamatory condition caused by the retention of some forms of acid in the blood. The kidneys are at fault and under Chiropractic that is the principle adjustment, together with the local nerve impingements. SEPTEMBER CREAM CHECKS ARE LESS THAN FOR AUGUST

Total For Last Month Nearly $17,000—Drop From $23,000 In August

As usual the creamery receipts slumped considerably during September compared to the previous month, as is shown by figures submitted by Thos. H. Bjerke, secretary of the Thief River Falls Co-operative creamery. During September patrons received a total of $16,702.77 while in August they were paid $23,205. This drop was partly due to the reduced price paid for butterfat, the average paid during the month being 37 cents for sour cream and 40 for sweet cream. Most of the cream received here is sweet. In September last year patrons received $20,000.

Of the total paid out last month $10,482.49 went to monthly patrons and $6,219.29 was paid in cash. Following is a list of patrons getting $50 or more during September:

Want Old Clothes

The Salvation Army of this city reports that demands for old clothes at present exceed the supply and would appreciate gifts of old clothes of any kind. They should be brought to the Salvation Army hall on Main avenue north.

Rev. Dixon Attends M. E. Conference at Crookston

Rev. T. J. Dixon of the local Methodist church returned Friday from Crookston where he attended sessions of the Fergus Falls conference of the Methodist church Thursday and Friday. Various routine matters of the church body were discussed, past activities reviewed and plans for the coming year considered. A deputation from Hamline university attended in the conference in behalf of a drive to raise a $1,500,000 fund for the expansion of that institution. Various department heads of the national church body were present. A public lecture was given by Bishop Brenton T. Badley of India on missionary work. Rev. Edwards of St. Paul succeeds Dr. J. C. Craig as superintendent of the district, which includes about 60 pastorates.

Sorrow was brought upon the gathering Thursday evening when it was learned that Mrs. S. Waite, wife of Rev. S. Waite, pastor of the M. E. church at Deer Creek, died in a Crookston hospital as a result of injuries received a few hours previously when the Waite automobile went into the ditch on trunk highway No. 8, two and one-half miles east of Crookston. The accident happened when the car skidded in loose gravel while attempting to pass a road scraper.

Registration cards are handed to tourists availing themselves of the free tourist camp at Chippewa Falls Wisconsin, with the request that they set down the number of nights spent at the camp and the amount of money they expended in the city. Figures for July show that the encamped tourists left an average of $160.80 a day or $4,060.70 for the month with the business men of the city.

Obtain Plenty Evidence

More than 1,500 gallons of mash, 90 gallons of moonshine liquor, 539 bottles of beer, nine stills and eight humans constituted the proceeds of several raids conducted by federal and local authorities in the vicinity of Bemidji the last week or two, it is reported. Five farms were raided. This is one of the biggest hauls ever made in this section.

TUESDAY NEXT ENDS SUSPENSE OF CANDIDATES

Interest in Candidates and Issues Increasing Pointing to Heavy Vote

AUDITOR SENDS OUT 100 ABSENT VOTER'S BLANKS

List of Candidates and Amendments Published For Final Study by Voters

Before The Times again reaches its readers the people of the United States will have selected national, state and local officials to have charge of affairs during the ensuing term. A last appeal is now made to the voters by speakers and writers representing different shades of political opinion during the few remaining days of the campaign.

On Tuesday, Nov. 4, the voters will render their verdict and predictions as to what this will be are rife. Most of the prognostications are so biased to conform with the preferences of the prophets that an impartial view is hard to secure. In a number of instances the race is expected to be very close.

With increased interest in candidates and issues and with political discussions the order of the day, it is predicted that Thief River Falls and Pennington county voters will turn out in full number. Altho a large portion of the qualified voters have failed to go to the polls in recent elections it can be said with safety that there is sufficient interest in this election to roll up a heavy vote. The numerous political meetings have helped to stimulate the voting desire and various civic organizations are making special efforts to bring out the voters next Tuesday.

Voters who will be absent from their home precincts on election day will not lose their vote if they have made application to their county auditor for absent voter's blanks. The number of these ballots sent out by Auditor T. P. Anderson totals about 100, more than usual. Several requests came from the country districts, he says.

School teachers and students who have not established a residence in the election district in which the schools are located, are not entitled to cast their vote in that district, but must return to their place of residence, according to an opinion given by Clifford L. Hilton, attorney general.

Three Ballots

Each voter will get three ballots, a white ballot will carry names of the presidential candidates and their electors, the party candidates for United States senator and state office, and the supreme court candidates. There are 75 names on the state ballot, of which 39 are the names of presidential electors, and 11 crosses will be enough to mark a complete state and national ticket.

The pink ballot contains five proposed amendments to the state constitution.

On the blue ballot will be the nominees for congress, for district judgeships, for the lower house of the legislature and for county offices.

A cross marked for one of the presidential candidates means voting for a list of electors pledged to support the respective candidates.

Tuesday was the only registration day in this city, but voters may swear in their votes on election day in cities of this class.

There is but little interest in local politics, there being only two candidates for judge of probate, Lars Backe, present incumbent, and Peter C. Wold of Kratka, former county commissioner; one candidate for clerk of district court, Adolf Eklund, present incumbent; two candidates for commissioner in the second district, R. McGinn, present incumbent, opposed by Andrew Ness, former alderman of this city; and two candidates

PARENT-TEACHERS MEETING NOV. 3RD

Talk by School Nurse and Open Forum Discussion Will Feature Gathering

A regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers association will be held next Monday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock at the high school auditorium, according to announcement by Mrs. R. Arnold, president of the organization. This will be the second gathering this season and a large turnout is expected.

Following a brief business session an interesting program will be given, including vocal solos by Mrs. M. W. Brink and Cleon Bottelson and a drill by the "Nosegnys," a group which appeared in a beautiful scene of the Musical Revue recently put on by the Legion Auxiliary.

"Health Work in the Public Schools" will be discussed by Miss Ida Dahl, the school nurse, who has had several years' experience and is active in bettering health conditions of the city, especially among the school children.

There will also be an open forum in which anyone may bring up questions for discussions. It is hoped that this feature will prove of much benefit to parents and teachers who will thus be given opportunity to talk about mutual problems.

A Huge Business

That the business of the Minnesota Cooperative Creameries association is making gratifying progress is shown by the report of its September business when the association sold 3,766,471 pounds of butter at a gross return of over $1,450,000.

Fleet of 23 Trucks Rushing Graveling of Highway 32

Ideal weather is aiding in the graveling project which is now under way on the new Babcock highway between this city and St. Hilaire. Work has been carried on with a fleet of 16 trucks the past week under the supervision of E. S. Rankin, state highway engineer. Several more trucks were added yesterday making a total of 23 now hauling. Gravel is now taken from the Patton pit and if the weather continues favorable the south half of the project will be finished in about 10 days. The trucks do not pass over the road after the gravel has been laid and every precaution is taken so as not to cut up the road bed.

Gravel will be taken from the Funnesdahl pit for the north half of the 7.4 miles stretch, south from this city when crews will be out to work night and day. It is planned to finish the entire road between this city and St. Hilaire within three-four weeks, Mr. Rankin states. As soon as this piece is completed the fleet of trucks will be moved to the stretch of about seven miles north from Red Lake Falls.

The completion of the two pieces of road will mean that tourists and others using the road between Red Lake Falls and this city will not have a single railroad crossing, except that just inside the city limits of Red Lake Falls, and will have one of the finest stretches of highway in the state. Seven railroad crossings are eliminated and the route considerably shortened.

The new route is now open to traffic, the regular highway signs having been put up Tuesday.

BAGLEY IS FUTURE HOME OF BOX FACTORY BEGUN HERE

C. M. Carlson, Local Contractor, Joins Korstad Bros. In Operation of Plant

The Messrs. Karl and William Korstad and C. M. Carlson have begun work of the establishing of a lath and box factory at Bagley, having purchased the lath factory of the Tollefson Manufacturing company and begun additions for the installation of the box manufacturing machinery used in the plant operated in this city the past year.

The factory at Bagley is complete and has an output of 60,000 lath per day. It was erected three years ago and having been used only half the time, is considered to be a first class plant. The plans are to build an addition to the building of 40 by 100 feet for the box plant. A veneering machine has been purchased and a nailing machine and other up-to-date equipment will be installed in addition to the equipment used in the factory here, which was shipped a week ago Saturday.

The handicap in this city was in securing raw timber for which can be had in any quantity at the new location. The power plant at the present factory includes a 125 h. p. steam boiler and steam engines of 65 and 12 h. p. About 30 h. p. of electrical power will be used in addition. According to present plans, operations will begin about December first.

The Messrs. Korstad and Carlson have had years of experience in work similar and closely allied to lath and box manufacture. If timber could have been secured here the industry would have been a fine thing for Thief River Falls.

Car Tips Into Ditch on New Highway Between This City And St. Hilaire. None Hurt

While on their way to visit friends in Grygla, Gunder Thompson of Crookston and two Charleyson brothers of East Grand Forks miraculously escaped death in an auto accident on Saturday when the Ford touring car in which they were riding tipped into the ditch from the new high grade between this city and St. Hilaire. They were badly shaken up but were otherwise uninjured, altho the side curtains were on, preventing jumping out, and the top was crushed in the tumble.

The accident occurred at about seven o'clock when the driver, one of the Charleyson brothers, while making some adjustment on the car, did not watch the road and came too close to the edge, resulting in the tipover. When the machine left the road it tipped against the high bank on the other side of the ditch but altho the occupants were unable to get out before the crash no one was hurt. Practically the only damage to the car was a broken top. A passerby took one of the men to this city for assistance and the machine was pulled out of the ditch, the trip to Grygla being continued after the necessary repairs were made.

Many Farmers See Pyrotol Demonstration Here Tues.

A carload of pyrotol, the war salvaged explosive, may be ordered by farmers of Pennington and an adjoining county as a result of a rock blasting demonstration at the Andrew Hoverstad farm, east of Thief River Falls, Tuesday afternoon. A large number of farmers attended the demonstration, which was put on by Clarence Johnson and an assistant of the division of agricultural engineering, University Farm, St. Paul.

The demonstrators used an explosive which is comparatively new in this section and showed that excellent results can be obtained both in lifting the rocks of the ground and blasting them into pieces. It is cheaper than dynamite usually used and affords an economical method of ridding the fields from rocks. A demonstration was given at Holt yesterday, which was also well attended.

INSURANCE TAKEN UP AT MEETING OF COUNCIL TUESDAY

Aldermen Decide to Cancel Compensation Insurance For City's Workmen

For the past two weeks the various city employees were protected by compensation insurance as the result of action taken Oct. 14 favorable thereto, but this action was rescinded at the regular meeting held Tuesday night this week.

Some of the aldermen believe that an annual premium of $700 to $800 is excessive in proportion to the risk involved and that the city better put that sum aside into a separte fund and carry its own insurance, while others think that the city does not need compensation insurance as there have been no instances during the past that really caused the city any bad setback from damages. Other aldermen think that as long as there are less than six cities of a similar size in Minnesota without compensation insurance that this city should not be negligent in this respect.

After considering the matter for nearly an hour Tuesday night the four aldermen present, Aldermen T. A. Fossum and Oscar Paulson being absent, voted to cancel any existing policies or riders covering compensation insurance on city employees, and to again take the matter up at the special meeting of the council called for next week Friday.

Little else of importance was transacted at the meeting Tuesday night, the other matters receiving attention being the granting of refreshment licenses to T. A. Tasa and Hans Finsand, a dance permit to the U. C. T. for their annual ball to be given in the auditorium Friday night this week, the allowance of the customary grist of bills, and the adoption of a resolution authorizing the clerk to issue a warrant for $2,136.11 to J. G. Robertson as final payment for the installation of the machinery in the filteration plant.

A special meeting of the city council is scheduled for Friday night, Nov. 7, at which time the bondsmen of the Citizens State bank guaranteeing the city's funds will meet with the council to arrange for the payment to the city of the funds that were on deposit at the time the bank closed Jan. 5 last.

DANGERS OF THIRD PARTY POINTED TO BY WM. L. PETERSON

Lancaster Attorney Discusses Campaign Issues From Republican Standpoint

A good sized crowd heard the campaign talk by Wm. L. Peterson, Lancaster attorney, at the street meeting in this city Saturday night, in which he urged the support of Republican issues and candidates.

In his instroductory remarks, Mr. Peterson stated that it was not his intention or his custom to attack the character of any candidate for office, that he believed all the candidates be men of high moral character and that the question before the people is not one of personality but one of issues upon which the parties differ as to their policies.

The Democratic candidates were disposed of briefly, and the point made that the fight in Minnesota is between the Republicans and the Third party.

He discussed the attack made upon the supreme court and the constitution, pointing out the danger to the rights of the people as a whole if the third party is allowed to prevail and attempt to destroy this part of the judicial power of the government.

The record of the Republican party in the past was discussed and it was pointed out that in all the leading issues the Republican party had been right and had proved their leadership to be sound and safe.

In summarizing the issues in the national campaign, the speaker dwelt briefly with the state issues and candidates. He pointed to Christianson's record in the legislature, and showed how as chairman of the appropriations committee, Christianson had worked for economy at all times.

The speaker dwelt upon the promises that Olson has made and stated that Floyd Olson has failed to give any definite plan for economy and has failed to show where he would reduce taxation in any particularity and that he has made sweeping statements and promises that he cannot fulfill.

In discussing the Farmer-Labor party the speaker claimed that it is controlled not by or in behalf of the farmers but that it is controlled by the radical labor element of the Twin Cities and that Olson's representative on the state committee, Alderman Scott, is an avowed I. W. W. with no sympathy for the farmers.

In conclusion the speaker urged the people that if they want a continuation of the present renewal of prosperity, instead of a return of hard times, they should go to the polls and vote the Republican ticket straight.

Tax Rate In Pennington May Remain Same in 1925

Indications are that tax rates in Pennington county will remain about the same as last year, according to County Auditor T. P. Anderson. Altho the budgets of the various units such as township, school, village, city, county and state, have been reduced, there will be little likelihood of a cut in the rate as the assessed valuation of the county is nearly half a million dollars less than two years ago. Work of preparing the tax rate in the county will be started in the auditor's office as soon as the complete returns have been received from the various units.

Marking of Jefferson Highway is Started This Week

Marking of the new Jefferson highway route from Red Lake Falls thru this city to Hallock as determined by directors of the highway association, is started this week, this city's quota towards the funds for the project having been raised, following action taken at last Thursday's meeting of the Commercial club. The committee first appointed some time ago having failed to raise the necessary amount a special committee composed of President H. W. Froehlich and F. H. Herrick took a hold of the matter to complete the solicitation. The work will be done under the supervision of Daniel Shaw, a director of the Minnesota association.

With the marking of this national trail thru this city and north an important task will have been completed, and the towns along the line assured of the good faith of this city in co-operating in this effort to direct the traffic on the new route. With the completion of the stretch between this city and Red Lake Falls it is hoped to greatly increase the tourist traffic thru Thief River Falls, which fell off considerably the past summer on account of the detours necessary while the road was being constructed. Graveling of the highway route thru Kittson county will also tend to increase traffic on the JH.

LEGION PLANS OBSERVANCE OF ARMISTICE DAY

Sixth Anniversary To Be Observed With Exercises at the Auditorium Nov. 11

RED WING PASTOR WILL DELIVER MAIN ADDRESS

Football Game in the Afternoon And Dance Will Conclude Celebration

Plans are now practically completed for the observance of Armistice Day, November 11, in Thief River Falls under auspices of the Elmer J. Eklund post of the American Legion. The festivities arranged for the occasion will include a public observance at the auditorium in the morning, honoring those who took part in the great World War, and also a jollification in the evening to celebrate the signing of the armistice six years ago.

Exercises in tribute to those who gave their lives in the service of their country will take place at the auditorium beginning at 10:30 a. m. Rev. Joe Barnett of Red Wing, former Minnesota department chaplain, has been secured as the principal speaker. Local Legionaires who have heard Rev. Barnett are unanimous in saying that he is a brilliant speaker and has a message worth hearing. The post committee considers itself very fortunate in being able to secure such an able speaker for the occasion.

Mrs. O. F. Mellby will sing "In Flanders Fields." Other numbers are being arranged by the program committee of which Rev. Chas. Gerlinger, post chaplain, is chairman. The usual silent tribute will be given.

Previous to the public exercises early services will be held for the children in the grades at the auditorium shortly after 9 a. m., the pupils to march to the auditorium in a body. A program is being arranged by Supt. I. T. Simley. Students in the high school and junior high school will attend the public service at 10:30.

In the afternoon citizens are urged to attend the football game at the fair grounds, at which East Grand Forks and Thief River Falls high school teams will vie for honors. This is the last game scheduled on the home grounds this season and indications are that it will be a pitched battle.

A feature of the evening's entertainment, of which Oscar C. Paulson and Dave Robinson are in charge, will be a big carnival dance, for which elaborate preparations are being made, including a most attractive decoration of the auditorium and a splendid orchestra.

It is anticipated that a large number of out-of-town people in addition to Thief River Falls citizens will join the Legion boys in celebration of the event.

HOWELL, NEBRASKA SOLON HERE NOV. 1

Prominent Senator Will Discuss National Issues In Final Big G. O. P. Rally

Senator Robert B. Howell of Nebraska, a speaker of national repute and one of the leading members of the senate, will address Pennington county voters at what will be the last big Republican rally here at the auditorium Saturday evening, Nov. 1, as was announced in last week's issue of The Times. The meeting will open at 8 o'clock, according to F. F. Haynes, chairman of the Pennington Central committee of the Republican party.

The Nebraska senator, who is speaking under the auspices of Republican national speaker's bureau in various parts of the country, is declared to be a very capable speaker and is expected to outline the issues in a very forceful way. The meeting undoubtedly will be largely attended, since it comes just before election day.

Before coming to this city Senator Senator Howell defeated Gilbert H. Hitchcock, senate floor leader and spokesman for the League of Nations during the Wilson administration. Howell will speak at Crookston today and at Bemidji tomorrow. After his meeting in this city he will have completed his speaking campaign and will return to his home in Nebraska.

COST OF HIGHWAY IMPROVEMENTS EXCEED MOTOR TAXES

State Highway Disbursements In Marshall and Pennington $135,000 Over Taxes Paid

The charge is often made that motor vehicle taxes paid in Pennington and Marshall counties exceed state highway disbursements in these two counties. However, a statement from the highway department points out that upon the completion of pending projects this year, state highway disbursements in Marshall and Pennington counties will exceed the motor tax paid by nearly $135,000.

Following is an explanation of the matter by E. M. Richter, who is in charge of the news service of the Minnesota highway department:

"Estimated in the absence of official figures by counties, but on a liberal basis, Marshall county motor vehicle tax payments have approximated $217,000 during the first four years under the new plan, 1924 included. Marshall county reimbursement bonds of $218,975 have been certified and charged against the trunk highway fund. Four years' maintenance expenditures on the 63.3 miles of trunk routes in the county make an additional item of $132,188. Thus the outlays total $351,163 against receipts of $217,975, making an excess of $133,720.

"Likewise, the Pennington county motor vehicle tax total is $114,700. Reimbursements of $18,848 and about $14,000 of bonds have been allowed but the latter item is included in construction expenditures of $53,471. The net outlay in reimbursement and extra construction is $72,319 and with $43,336 maintenance on 31.4 miles of trunks in the county makes $115,655. The excess of $1,151 in highway outlays over motor vehicle tax receipts in Pennington county is smaller than in most other cases for the reason that Pennington has not taken advantage of the bond authorization to any extent."

We are told that we should vote on election day and a good many people are engaged in the job of telling us how to do it.

VOTERS HERE WILL HEAR CONG. WEFALD AT MEETING NOV. 2

Final Gun in Farmer-Labor Camp Will Be Fired at Rally Sunday Afternoon

Congressman Knud Wefald of Hawley, candidate for re-election in the Ninth district, will address voters of Pennington county in the final big Farmer-Labor rally before election, at the Princess theatre in this city next Sunday afternoon, Nov. 2, at 2:30 o'clock, it is announced by the local central committee of the Farmer-Labor party. Mr. Wefald has been making an active campaign thruout the district the last few weeks and comes here to discuss the issues on the eve of election. This will be Wefald's third appearance in Thief River Falls this summer, having spoken at the county fair and at a Farmer-Labor rally together with Floyd Olson and Thomas Sullivan.

The Ninth district congressman, who is an interesting speaker, has been heard by good-sized audiences in other towns and cities of the district and it is expected that a large number will turn out to hear him in this city, as it will give opportunity for voters to hear the final discussion in the campaign. Mr. Wefald's opponent, F. H. Peterson of Moorhead, has been heard twice in the present campaign.

A series of meetings to arouse interest in the party and politics in general have been held by leaders of the Farmer-Labor group in Pennington county, Andrew Trovaton, chairman of the county central committee, and Attorney O. A. Naplin, former state senator, being the principal speakers. Meetings were held at Holt Friday night; Highlanding, Saturday; Hazel, Monday; Plummer, Tuesday. Good attendance is reported at the meetings. Tonight a meeting will be held at the Silverton town hall and another at Wylie tomorrow, Friday. A rally is scheduled at Oslo Saturday and on Sunday evening, following his talk here Mr. Wefald will address a meeting at Middle River.

President's Personal Friend Urges Support of G. O. P.

Charles L. Drake, a personal friend of President Calvin Coolidge, spoke at a street meeting in this city Wednesday of last week under the auspices of the local Republican Central committee. Being personally acquainted with the president, Mr. Drake told of a number of his characteristics which particularly qualify him as head of the nation's government.

Coolidge grew up on a farm like thousands of other American boys, fighting his own battles thru life, the speaker said, and fully understands the problems of the common people, the farmer and the laborer. Mr. Drake emphasized that in whatever capacity Coolidge had served, either in business or politics, he had always proved honest.

It was pointed out by the speaker that there would be a grave danger in electing to the presidency a man who wants to take away from the supreme court the power to declare laws unconstitutional. Various ways in which the rights of the people might be infringed upon in case such a change were made, were cited by the speaker, who urged his hearers to vote for Coolidge and assure "the steady return of prosperity."

It is also announced that live and dressed turkeys will be received in Thief River Falls on Nov. 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 10. Turkeys weighing eight pounds or over dressed for the Thanksgiving trade. They will be graded and packed here to meet the requirements of the state association. Instructions for dressing turkeys for the holiday market are being sent out to members of the association. Turkeys will be received at 22 stations thruout the district besides this city.

Next Wednesday a car of live poultry will be loaded on the Great Northern tracks by the Peterson-Biddick company, which is handling a large volume of produce in this section.

Much interest in the poultry association was shown at the Roseau poultry show last week, at which Manager Norby spoke. It was reported by producers in that community that the September price received for eggs thru the association exceeded local prices by about 11 cents a dozen in some instances.

S. R. KIRBY LOCAL HEALER, DEFENDANT IN DAMAGE CLAIM

Cass County Man Enters Suit For $7,500 as Result of Brother's Death

"Dr." Samuel R. Kirby, well known healer near this city is defendant in a claim suit in which Frederick F. Linneberg of Hackensack, this state, special administrator of the estate of Anton Linneberg, his brother, who died in this city Oct. 18, is suing for $7,500, the action arising from the allegation that Linneberg came by his death as a result of improper treatments administered by Kirby.

The complaint and summons prepared by H. O. Chommie of this city, attorney for the plaintiff, was served by Sheriff O. L. Ihle Friday. Defendant has 20 days in which to file an answer. A coroner's jury after an inquisition following Linneberg's death rendered a verdict to the effect that he died as a result of Kirby's treatments, which verdict has been filed with the clerk of court in this city.

Linneberg, who was 65 years of age at the time of death, is survived by two minor children, Alfred and Mabel, 14 and 16 years old.

A case in which Kirby is defendant is at present pending in district court in which a Mrs. Carrie Olson of Cass Lake is claiming damages of $5,000 for alleged injuries to her health as a result of treatments by Kirby. The case was tried during the June term but was continued until the next court session.

Anton Jenson Will Exhibit Mammoth Potatoes at State Show. Display at The Times

Pennington county will be represented at the first state potato show which will be held in St. Paul Nov. 18 to 21, Anton Jenson, prominent farmer two miles north of the fair grounds, having announced his intentions of entering an exhibit of flat type Burbanks.

Mr. Jenson, who has harvested 600 bushels of screened potatoes from five acres, has some specimens of prodigious dimensions, as can be seen in The Times window where Mr. Jenson is displaying a number of "big ones." He is selling his crop thru the Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange, of which he is a member, for seed purposes, having sold to western growers in former years. Three years ago a grower in Idaho raised 701 bushels an acre from seed secured from Mr. Jenson, which speaks well for the yielding possibilities of the type. Mr. Jenson is storing about 250 bushels on his farm to be sold for seed purposes next spring.

Mr. Jenson was awarded first place for his potato exhibit at the Winter Crop Shows in this city last winter and expects to make a good showing at the state show. His potatoes shipped thru the exchange were among the finest seen this season at the station here.

Mr. Jenson not only raises mammoth potatoes but is also actively engaged in dairying, supplying milk to a large patronage in the city.

MANY FARMERS ASK FOR 1925 BEET ACREAGE

Applications For 1500 Acres in This District Already Received by McCann

STOCK SALE ENDORSED BY COMMERCIAL CLUB

Shipping of 1924 Crop to Mason City Factory Will Be Started Next Week

That farmers in this locality are interested in the culture of sugar beets is clearly demonstrated by the number of applications for 1925 acreage already received by County Agent J. J. McCann, who is representing the Red River Sugar company in distributing acreage in the section known as the Thief River Falls district with this city as the center. Up to this time applications have been made for about 1500 acres and continue to come in steadily every day.

It is pointed out that farmers desiring sugar beet acreage next year should make their applications at once so as to assure themselves of an allotment. As was stated in last week's issue of The Times it is likely that about 4,000 acres will be placed in the Thief River Falls territory, which includes the communities surrounding about 12 towns in the district. However, applications last year called for nearly 4,000 acres and it is predicted that more will be applied for this year.

Urge Buying of Stock

The Commercial club in session last Thursday passed a motion recommending and urging citizens of Thief River Falls and surrounding community to purchase stock in the proposed sugar factory in East Grand Forks, construction of which is started this fall. J. D. Markwood of Mason City, Iowa, who was in the city last week in the interest of the sugar factory promoters, signed up $1,400 among local business men and more has been spoken for since he left on Wednesday night of last week. He expects to return here some time this fall to dispose of more stock, which, altho it does not determine the acreage to be allotted here, nevertheless shows that the people of this community are backing the enterprise and will aid in making it a success. The factory promoters do not need the money to finance the plant, it is pointed out, but want assurance of interest in the industry in the future. The stock is declared to be of the best investment obtainable, factories elsewhere being decided profitable enterprises.

It is likely that Mr. Markwood will be in charge of a campaign to place $100,000 in stock with beet growers in the valley, the money to be loaned to farmers thru the Agricultural Credit corporation. It was announced by Mr. Markwood here last week that an effort may be made to place some of this among growers in this locality.

Will Ship Next Week

Shipping of beets grown by Pennington county farmers will be started from here some time next week, it is announced by Mr. McCann, field man representing the Minnesota Sugar company of Chaska. Altho contracts were made with the Chaska concern, shipments will be made to the Northern Sugar company's factory in Mason City, Iowa, the former being unable to handle the crop.

Practically all the beets in this vicinity have been dug now altho a portion remains to be hauled to the various shipping stations. In this city the beets are being piled along the Soo tracks, ready for loading on cars. It is expected that more than 2,000 tons will be shipped from this city.

Cars Collide

The cars driven by Miss Signo Austad and Helmer Ostrom collided on the intersection of Labree avenue and Third street yesterday afternoon, with minor damages to the Austad Ford.

Rasmus Breistein, Norse Entertainer, Comes to Sons of Norway Hall Tomorrow

"Fante-Anne," a Norwegian film, will be shown at the Sons of Norway hall tomorrow, Friday night under the auspices of the local Sons of Norway lodge, by the Norwegian entertainer, Rasmus Breistein, who is making a tour of this country showing this moving picture and giving a program of violin music and lecturing.

The picture is a film version of one of Kristofer Jansson's stories from Gudbrandsdalen, Norway, and is said to be a most interesting and vivid reproduction of everyday life as it is found on the old "Gudbrandsdalsgaarde" where people go about their work in quite a different way than they do here. Of much interest, particularly to people of Norwegian descent, are the scenes from this community where the old style of architecture is seen in the buildings, the "saeters" and other characteristic features. The beautiful scenes are cleverly worked into a story which is certain to interest everyone.

Introducing the picture Mr. Breistein will bring greetings from the "land of the midnight sun" and describe some of its later developments and present conditions. He is said to be a talented musician and will give his hearers a varied program of folksongs, "slaatter" and other characteristic Norwegian selections.

Mr. Breistein showed the film and gave a program to a packed hall in Minneapolis when he appeared recently in Norway hall and the performance was highly praised.

Membership Question Again Taken by Community Club

The membership question was the main issue at the business session at the regular meeting of the Girls community club Monday night. The rule made some time ago that all persons, married or single, who had been admitted to the club whether they had paid their dues or not, by paying up could retain membership, was modified to the extent of declaring that all married persons who were not members before the recent contest could not be accepted as members whether paid up in membership or not. But married persons who were members before the contest, whether paid up or not, would be retained by paying their current dues. No married person will be accepted as a member in the future.

Miss Emily Fossum, president, tendered her resignation, which was accepted. Miss Carolyn Melby, vice president, presided at the meeting in her stead. A nominating committee of five persons was appointed to make nominations for president for election at the next meeting. The invitation to join women voters in their march of allegiance was accepted. Talented Reader Delights Audience With Old Poems

Miss Grace B. Whitridge of St. Paul delighted her audience of poetry lovers at the Presbyterian church last Friday evening. She gave a program of "Old Favorites" by which she showed it is still possible to present the good poetry of the past to a modern audience and find appreciation.

Miss Whitridge who is a pupil of a famous New York teacher is a master in her art. Her voice work and her interpretations were without flaw. Members of her audience stated they had never spent a more profitable hour in any auditorium. Those who heard her will never forget the philosophy and dreams of "Carcassonne," her interpretation of "My Last Duchess," the power of Shelly's "Cloud." She brought rare treats from Robert and Elizabeth Browning, Shelly, Millet, Sidney Lanier, Alfred Noyes, and many other famous poets.

Miss Whitridge is not only an artist in voice work but also as a teacher of her method. Her pupils find positions open to them in prominent places, in New York University, in high schools of the Middle West, and in private work.

DON'T BE A SLACKER

Any American who fails to cast his or her vote on Tuesday next will have no complaint to make if things are not run in accordance with what they consider the best interests of the country and state in this trying period. Failure to take sufficient interest in the persons and policies by which we will be guided for some time shows a lack of the qualities absolutely necessary in the best form of citizenry and fundamental in our form of government.

Voting is not only a privilege, but also a duty every man and woman owes to himself and herself and the nation.

The man or woman who is too busy or too indolent to attend to this important matter is not placing a very high value upon citizenship. In but rare instances is an excuse for failure to go to the polls presented that is sufficiently good to be acceptable.

The issues have been discussed in one form or another for months. The candidates and their attitude towards the big questions now confronting the people are well known. Every person will vote for the things considered best for the present and future welfare of the country. Opinions will differ as to the policies to be pursued, but this is inevitable and even desireable.

It is said that not for half a century have voters faced so important an election as is placed before them for decision in this national campaign, and a great deal of interest centers around the state ticket and the congressional candidates as well. Altho there is not such a heated campaign in the contest for local offices it is nevertheless of importance that the voters inform themselves as to the fitness and character of the men for whom they cast their ballot.

Go to the polls on Tuesday and express your preference by means of the ballot. Don't let George do it on election day—cast your own vote.

Help Pennington county poll a record vote this year.

The legislature now has power to impose a gasoline tax, but without an amendment the proceeds of the tax will go into the general revenue fund of the state and cannot be used on the roads. With the constitutional amendment the legislature can provide for the money being used for trunk highway purposes. The object of the amendment is to have the gasoline tax money, which will in fact be paid by car owners, spent on the highways they use.

If the amendment is adopted the legislature may provide such funds by either a so-called gasoline tax or by a vehicle tax or by both, fixing rates as they deem just and reasonable. Those in favor of giving the legislature power to place any gasoline tax proceeds in the highway fund will vote YES on amendment No. 4 when they go to the polls Tuesday.

A surprise was sprung on many of the pro-wets last week when the province of Ontario voted to stay in the dry column, after a spirited fight. It looks as tho the bottle isn't so very popular after all.

Some folks are wondering what people will talk and write about after election.

From All Over the Globe

From the four corners of the earth—north, south, east and west—comes the news that is offered by your newspaper for your enlightenment and entertainment.

You read not only that which transpires in your own community and elsewhere, but also the information which the advertising columns give you that is just as interesting and even more valuable to you—news of the things which have to do with your personal, everyday life.

The advertisements spread out for your inspection the products of progressive manufacturers the world over—the comforts and conveniences that play such a big part in modern life.

The wares of every progressive merchant in town are laid attractively before you. From your easy chair you read the offerings, compare values, check the statements against your previous experience and then make your selections.

Thus you save time, money and effort in useless "shopping around." And you gain in the satisfaction that comes from a purchase well made. Keep up on the shopping news. Read The Advertisements Before You Buy—It Pays.

Quite often some individual is heard speaking in rather scornful terms about the local personal items appearing in the columns of the weekly newspapers published in the villages and smaller cities. Items of the same nature which appear in the metropolitan dailies, regarding persons who are absolutely strangers to them, are read with awe and reverance by these same individuals.

Truly, the weekly in the small country town does not often chronicle the arrival or departure of ambassadors, movie stars, military attaches or social celebrities, for the simple reason that there are no such individuals in the community. Nevertheless, there is no more dignity or news value to the oftentimes silly paragraphs about these personages than in the personal items concerning the men and women of our own community.

The Bemidji Pioneer in discussing the "free publicity" problem opines as follows: "Probably no concern is asked to give more of its stock in trade to charity than newspapers. Promoters of entertainments of every kind feel perfectly free to demand advertising thinly disguised as news matter, space that they could not buy and pay for because it is not sold. These same good folks, animated no doubt by the best of motives, would not think of going to the dry goods store and asking for a bolt of silk or a pair of shoes. Yet space in a newspaper is regarded as legitimate prey. We have always done our part for charity and always will, but if charity is to entirely take the place of business, as seems to be the present tendency, very soon we will have to go out begging too."

There is more truth than poetry to that.

Five amendments to the state constitution will be submitted to the voters of Minnesota next Tuesday. It should be remembered that these amendments to be adopted must secure a majority of all the votes cast in the election. It is not sufficient that the amendment receive more "yeas" and "nays," but it must receive the majority of all the votes cast on Nov. 4. This means that if you do not vote at all upon an amendment your action is equivalent to voting against it.

Many people are always ready to criticise everything and everybody but generally they are always lacking in co-operation. They criticise the newspapers, the school board, the city officials, state and government officials and almost everything under the sun, and top it off by failing to vote at nearly every election. Mighty poor citizenship.

Our country subpoenas every citizen—man and woman—to cast his or her ballot on election day. It is your duty as a member of this great republic to perform this duty, the principle upon which it is founded.

Very soon there will be nothing for golf players to do but talk about the way they are going to improve their game next summer.

At least the modern wife can no longer complain about the time her husband wastes in the barber shop.

Some whirlwind campaigns stir up so much dust that the fellow at the helm can't be seen for the dust.

There is one thing to be said in favor of silence; it never talks a man out of a job or into trouble.

They say nobody loves a fat man, but he seems to get a lot of pleasure out of life just the same.

In the long run interest in the bank will net you more than interest in a race track bet.

Some folks never exercise their judgment enough to keep it in training.

You can't get the better of an argument with a man who refuses to talk.

The outlook for the success of any business depends largely on the intake.

Plans for entertaining the delegates to the annual convention of the Red River Valley Dairymen's association in this city Nov. 19 and 20 are being considered by the Commercial club at its noon luncheon today. A smoker or some other event is planned for the occasion. An attendance of perhaps 500 dairymen and other farmers from all parts of the valley are expected to attend. Directors of the association are now working out details of the program of the convention, which will be held in conjunction with the annual poultry show of the Pennington County Poultry association.

A. J. Anderson is Candidate

It will be of interest to local friends of A. J. Anderson, Lockhart banker, formerly with the Citizens State bank of this city and later engaged in banking in Grygla, to know that he is a candidate for the legislature in the 66th district composed of Norman and Mahnomen counties, according to an item in the Mahnomen Pioneer. He will go on the ballot by stickers, his opponent being the present incumbent, G. A. K. Anderson, who was unopposed at the primaries. A. J. Anderson served Mahnomen county as treasurer for four years. He left the Grygla bank about two years ago.

Mayhew To Sioux City, Ia.

WEEKLY SERMON

Following is the first of a series of short sermons by pastors of Thief River Falls which will appear in the columns of The Times from time to time. Thru these sermonettes the church leaders of the city will discuss various questions and problems of the day, specially as pertaining to the spiritual and religious phase of life, and in this manner readers will be given opportunity to learn the views and opinions of pastors besides their own. The Times is glad to give space to these messages, which it is hoped will be read with a great deal of interest, and the ministers are pleased to co-operate in the matter.

In this first message from Rev. J. T. Dixon of the Methodist church, he discusses "The Privileges of Christian Citizenship," urging citizens to exercise their vote on election day:

"A writer to the Christian Jews of the first century calls attention to the fact that the upright men of old were deprived of every blessing of life, for the Truth's sake. He speaks of them as, 'of whom the world was not worthy.' The same thing is applicable to the church itself, whose martyr blood flowed so freely and profusely as to change the world empire Rome pagan to Rome Christian. Even that was not the end; dark and stormy days passed before the millenium in which we now live dawned for the Christian world. Pagan ideas were deep rooted in the human heart and the great principle of the kingdom of Heaven were but slowly adopted. The equality of women with men; the consideration for children and the invalided; the oneness of humanity notwithstanding racial distinctions; and community responsibility for the drunkard; have all been revolutionary principles of Christian origin.

"Strange as it may seem this is what Christ came to bring His own words are, 'Think not that I am come to send peace on earth; I came not to send peace but a sword.' Not that the Christian should use carnal weapons. This has been the curse and failure of the church, but rather that the sword is the awakening of the human soul to realize itself, and, what shall a man give in exchange for himself? The slave would not accept the certainty of food and clothes, hence the American civil war. The smaller peoples would not accept the theory of the 'survival of the fittest' or 'might is right,' hence, the world war.

"The warfare of tyranny, injustice, and selfishness against equality, equity and love has been waged with no small success for the latter, so that Christian citizenship is an established fact in the lands where God's word is made 'the rule of faith and practise.' The privileges thus so dearly bought should not be allowed to slip away from us. We should use them to the full.

"The most practical at the moment is casting the vote. By carelessness in the matter, or refusal to exercise the right of citizenship ought we to be surprised that as in the case of an arm unused, it thru time becomes useless. God wants to bring His kingdom on earth, and if we object to the method which, so clearly by evidence is His, delay must result, and another generation do what we leave undone. The objection has been raised that diplomacy hides the wolf in sheep clothing. That is quite true but overcome that by weighing the issues well. Go to the polls and return men of sterling character like the great leaders of the past, true, fearless, and Godfearing. Then in the most practical manner you are shaping the answers to your own prayer:

Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King."

LARS BACKE

Candidate for re-election to the office of
JUDGE OF PROBATE

TO THE VOTERS OF PENNINGTON COUNTY:

Grateful for past favors, I hope I may again receive your vote and support for a second term at the General Election Nov. 4th, 1924, which, I assure you, will be greatly appreciated.

VOTE FOR

Robert J. McGinn

Candidate for re-election for County Commissioner
Second District, Pennington County

As a member of the board of county commissioners I have endeavored to serve the people of Thief River Falls and Pennington county to the best of my ability.

I have constantly worked for economy and efficiency in the conduct of the business affairs of the county and will continue to do so if re-elected.

Your vote will be appreciated.

PublicFourm

To My Many Good Friends in Pennington County:

We are standing on the threshold of a big day. I feel that November 4th, 1924, will go down in history as the day when the people of this country took back the government from the special interests.

To make sure of this great event it is up to us all to see that every progressive vote is cast and counted. We must also make sure that we vote for the entire ticket. I know and feel sure that we will sweep clean in this state, beginning with LaFollette, Wheeler, Magnus Johnson and Floyd Olson. But we must continue down the line. We must not forget Holmes, Sullivan, Stageberg and the rest of the state ticket. Then by all means remember Wefald. He must be returned to congress. And then the legislative candidates. You will, of course, return Day, but be sure to put the other X for R. O. Gordon. Unless you do that the representation from your district will pair off on the important issues. Gordon is true-blue. He is a man that can be depended on to go straight down the line for us common folks. He has a backbone that will not be found wanting.

And then, remember P. C. Wold for judge of probate. You all know Wold better than I do, but I know him well enough to be convinced that he should be elected to the office he is seeking. I have found Wold to have as his main fundamental the inborn idea of service to his fellowman.

Again, vote the ticket straight. Let us carry on to victory all along the line this time and again establish government of, by and for the people.

Yours for clean politics and clean officials,

Thomas Vollom.

Child Eats Poison

MARIUS WALDAL

Candiate for reelection for

Representative of the 65th District

His record shows that he has worked in the interests of the state and community in a commendable manner. He is independent, free from party influence and consequently is free to serve you to your best interests. He is a farmer and knows the farmers' problems. Having served one term as your representative his experience will prove a valuable asset in furthering your interests if re-elected. There are three candidates from this district, two to be elected. Day is unopposed from Clearwater county, Gordon and Waldal are from Red Lake county and the contest is between them. Anyone who wishes to vote for Waldal should not vote for Gordon.

GREAT NORTHERN VALUATION SHOWS NO "WATER"

In response to assertions that railroad stocks were watered and that the investments carried in the companies' books were inflated, Congress, in 1913, by the LaFollette Act, directed the Interstate Commerce Commission to determine, among other things, the cost of reproduction new, cost of reproduction less depreciation, and the value of the various railroads in the United States.

The corporate assets of the Great Northern Company consist of two classes of property: One is the physical property used for transportation and located in the United States; the other consists of investments in stock and bonds of other companies, including lines located in Canada, and other miscellaneous property used for non-carrier purposes. The Interstate Commerce Commission recently has completed its tentative valuation of the first of these, that is, the physical property used for transportation purposes and located in the United States. It has not valued the second class of property because not required to do so by the terms of the Act.

The value as found by the Commission for Great Northern properties used for transportation purposes and located in the United States as of June 30, 1915, was as follows:

Total owned	$391,740,302.00
Total used	395,353,655.00

In arriving at these figures, the Interstate Commerce Commission deducted $65,140,474.00 from the cost of reproduction new on account of assumed depreciation. The Company, of course, contends that the depreciation of certain parts of the properties, such as the aging of its roadbed, is more than offset by the appreciation of the property as a whole, as it is well known that a railroad property in use for several years is better and worth more for transportation purposes than a newly built property.

Included in the second class of property and not valued by the Commission is:

604 miles of railroad in Canada.
Nearly 49 per cent of the Stock of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad.
One-half of the stock of the Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railway.
Also the stocks of some other smaller railway companies, and the stocks of coal, lumber, land and other subsidiary corporations.

The investment in securities not valued by the Commission amounts to $227,076,312.83. Other property not used for transportation purposes amounts to $24,315,418.31, so that the Commission's value on the first class of property, plus the value of the second class of property, which the Commission did not value, amounts to $643,132,033.14.

Since the valuation date, June 30, 1915, there has been added $104,881,141.26 which brings the total value of Great Northern property to July 1, 1924, up to $748,013,174.40. The total par value of stocks and bonds of the Great Northern as of July 1, 1924, was $563,258,165.16 showing an excess of $184,755,009.24 of value above the total capitalization. The following table makes these statements clear:

PROPERTY		CAPITALIZATION
Portion of owned property value by the Commission as of June 30, 1915	$391,740,302.00	Great Northern Stock	$249,477,150.00
Stocks, bonds and other properties not valued by Commission as of June 30, 1915	227,076,312.83	Great Northern Bonds	313,781,015.16
Other property as of June 30, 1915	24,315,418.31	EXCESS OF PROPERTY OVER CAPITALIZATION ON JULY 1, 1924	184,755,009.24
Property added since June 30, 1915	104,881,141.26
Total	$748,013,174.40		$748,013,174.40

This furnishes a most conclusive answer to the charge of watered stock.

The Great Northern never did have and never will have a dollar of watered stock.

Pep Meeting

Friday afternoon there was a short assembly for the purpose of holding a pep meeting. Lawrence Mickelson was in charge. The program consisted of several selections by the High School band and speeches by Birdie Pierson and Ward Mathewson. As usual the program ended with a group of yells led by Emmett Shanahan.

Club Work Urged

Friday morning the students had the pleasure of hearing Miss Maybohn tell about club work. She encouraged the boys and girls to take part in some club work as it is very interesting and also very instructive. It helps to prepare for the future just as much as other school subjects. Two members of the high school, Grace Mostue and Randall Noper, attended the state fair this fall. The State of Minnesota ranks among the first in club work and it is hoped that she can hold this place.

Partly to help the school and partly to help the pupils learn library science, the following students are at the present time assisting Miss Minnie Leavitt in the library: Bernice Erickson, Ansof Dahlen, Ruth Mellby, Esther Bennes, Anna Wedul, Lylian Arnold, Ersyle Anderson and Hilda Ness.

ENROLLMENT SHOWS GIRLS OUTNUMER BOYS BY 2-1 RATIO

Figues Show That There is Increase of 47 Over Last Year's Enrollment

It has long been a question, how many boys and girls there are in high school. That is, how great a percentage of the enrollment are boys and how great girls? This article is for the purpose of answering that question. Last year at the end of the first six weeks there were 391 students enrolled. Of these 119 were boys and 272 were girls. That is, there were approximately one-third boys and two-thirds girls. In the Freshman class there were a total of 112, of which 41 were boys. Here one-third of the class was boys. The Sophomore class had an enrollment then of 103; 33 were boys comprising about one-third also. The Junior class enrollment was 93; 65 were girls and 28 boys. This figures out to be about 30 per cent of boys and 70 per cent of girls. Again the boys made up one-third of the total. The Senior class had 65 in it. Seventeen were boys and 48 were girls. This makes about 40 per cent boys and 60 per cent girls. Here the percentage of boys was larger than in other classes. In the post graduate course there were 18, all of which were girls.

At the end of the first six weeks there were 438 students enrolled; 295 girls and 143 boys. As last year the boys comprise nearly one-third of the enrollment. The enrollment last year was 391, this year 438, a difference of 47. The number of boys has increased to 143 from 119, and the girls have increased to 295 from 272. This means that there are 24 more boys and 23 more girls than there were last year at the end of the first six weeks. This year there are 8 post graduates of whom four are boys, making one-eighth of the enrollment boys. In the Senior class there is 98, 33 are boys, which number comprises one-third of the enrollment. The Juniors have an enrollment of 73, of which 24 or one-third are boys. In the Sophomore class, whose enrollment is 88; 25 are boys. In this class a little better than one-third of the membership are boys. There are 146 Freshman, 57 of whom are boys. Thus in all the classes in high school there are approximately twice as many girls. Where are the boys?

Schoolmate of Thune's on Minn. Team

It is of interest to those who are following the activity of the Minnesota University football team, that the 190 pound halfback, Clarence Schutte of Aberdeen, S. D., was a member of the same gridiron team that Coach Leonard Thune played on during his stay in South Dakota State University. During the game with Iowa, played last Saturday, Schutte was classed as one of the stars of the game.

Debates are Held in Public Speaking Classes Tuesday

In order to obtain a more experienced and a practicable working knowledge of the art of debating two debates were held in each of the public speaking classes Tuesday. The question for debate was "Resolved that the United States should join the League of Nations." The members of the teams were: affirmative, Evelyn Barringrud, Paul Olstad and Maxine Johnson; negative, Katherine Barzen, Emmett Shanahan and Ward Mathewson. Francis Gimm was the presiding officer. The judges were Mrs. B. G. Korstad, Mr. O. C. Matheson and Mr. Lawrence Mickelson. Their decision was two to one for the affirmative. In the afternoon section the debaters were affirmative, Anna Wedul, Lucille Roark and Lylian Arnold; negative, Jo[illegible] Joyce and Thomas Melsgaard. The chairman was Clarence Dehan. The class acted as the judge. Their decision was ten to two for the negative. There were only two debaters on the negative because one, Esther Crown, could not come to school.

A keen spirit of competition and good sportsmanship was displayed during these debates, and the class as well as the debaters feel that their knowledge of debating was vastly improved. It has been stated by good authority that the debates held this year in the public speaking classes are superior to the debates last year in public speaking.

Masquerade Party to Be Held in Gymnasium Fri.

At a meeting of the social committee of the high school on Tuesday after school, it was decided that a masquerade party would be held in the high school gymnasium on the night of Hallowe'en. The members of the committee are: Faculty, Miss Monica Bambrick, Miss Lorretta Kopriva, Miss Minnie Leavit, Mr. Clarence Pope, and Principal Morris Bye; Classes: Seniors, Esther Crown; Juniors, Margaret Brown; Sophomores, Dorothy Shirley; Freshman, Harriet Mattison; and Post-graduates, Camille Warren. During the evening there will be different stunts given by the classes in the various class rooms. After this there will be a general program given in the gymnasium, also there will be a surprise which is stored up for those who come to the party. After this refreshments will be served, there will be a low price of admission of ten cents to offset the cost of the eats. There will be no dancing, but everyone is asked to come masked, there is no special costume to be worn.

Yucatan's Vehicles

Yucatan clings to antiquated means of transportation, which include the carreta, the coche, the volan and the volante, although the introduction of automobiles bids fair to eliminate these vehicles. The carreta is a heavy two-wheeled truck; the coche, a light four-wheeled, rubber tired, rigid topped carriage, with body supported on heavy leather straps, for travel on the rocky country roads, similar to the stage coach of America's old west, and the volante, a very heavy fourwheeled vehicle somewhat like a victoria, but with the body supported on heavy leather straps, used for rough travel in the rural districts.

Solving the Problem

A young salesman had embezzled from his kind hearted employer a considerable sum of money, and had lost every cent of it on the races. He was apprehended, and the boss didn't know just what to do about it.

"Keep him on the job and deduct what he owes you from his pay," counseled the adviser.

"But," wailed the victim, "the amount is too large. He could never make it up that way. His wages are too small."

The other ruminated for a moment. Then his face cleared.

"Well, then, raise his salary," he suggested.

The Problem

She was bidding her lover a fond farewell, for he was going on a prolonged trip around the world.

Tearfully she clung to him and asked: "My dear Adolf, will you be true to me when you are far away? Promise me that you will write to me from every town you visit!"

And as he gathered her in his arms, he cried: "Oh, Ada, is it love that prompts you to say this? Ada, swear to me, do you really love me—or are you merely collecting foreign postage stamps?"—Calgary Daily Herald.

MAHNOMEN BEATEN BY LOCALS 53 TO 6

Mahnomen Puts Over Their Counter in Last Part of Game Using Queer Formation

The Thief River Falls football team romped away with their first victory of the season when they played Mahnomen last Friday, with the overwhelming score of 53 to 6. The locals scored first after two minutes of play with an end run, Bjorkman carrying the ball. A very small crowd witnessed the game, the only thing that marred the day. All through the game the locals played a very fine brand of football.

The visitors didn't show anything until in the last few minutes of play when they had a peculiar formation which baffled the Lincolnites. They then, with this formation and some brilliant passing, put over their only touchdown. They failed, however, in trying for their extra point. The star of the game on Thief River's side was Zeh, who gave the crowd many thrills with his long end-runs. Penney also deserves a great deal of credit for snagging passes which seemed impossible and for making the greatest number of points scored by any individual during the game. The Mahnomen fullback showed up the best. He deserves much credit for the manner in which he returned the ball off the kickoff, and also for the way in which he caught passes. Following is the game by quarters:

First Quarter

Mahnomen received the ball on the kickoff but did not return it very far, the ball see-sawing back and forth for about two minutes on the visitors' 20 yard line. Then the locals got the ball and in a short time they went over for a touchdown with an end-run by Bjorkman. Mike Praenteau kicked for the other point. Score: locals 7, visitors 0. The visitors again received, and brought the ball back to the 60 yard line. Here they made first down twice. Once during this time they fumbled but recovered the ball. They lost the ball to the locals on downs. Thief River lost 13 yards on the first three downs and were forced to punt. The punt landed out of bounds. Mahnomen then opened up with a series of passes, but were only allowed to have the ball in their possession for two first downs when they were forced to punt to the locals 70 yard line. Mahnomen was penalized for off-side and the locals made 4 yards. Then Zeh ran around end for 30 yards., but on the next play they lost twenty yards when one of the backs was tackled behind the line. On the next down this loss was set right by a 20 yard gain. Then three yards were made.

Second Quarter

The locals made first down three times, then a touchdown was registered when a pass was completed by Penney. The try-for-point was made. Score: T. R. F., 14; Mahnomen, 0. The visitors received and returned the ball a little ways, but were unable to gain very much, Thief River getting the ball when Sorenson intercepted a pass. Bennes then put the ball over for another touchdown. The try-for-point was made. Score: T. R. F., 21; Mahnomen, 0. The visitors received and advanced the ball 20 yards, but their march was stopped again by the interception of a pass by Bjorkman. The ball was gradually worked up to the opponent's goal line, and "Mike" took it over for another touchdown. The try-for-point failed. Score: T. R. F: 27; Mahnomen, 0. They received and the ball was advanced a little, but fumbled and the locals got the ball and a pass to Penney put the locals six more points ahead. The try-for-point was made, a pass to Penney. Score: T. R. F., 34; Mahnomen, 0. Mahnomen received and returned the ball to their 80 yard line. They lost the ball on downs, and Bjorkman brot it over the line. The try-for-point failed. Score: T. R. F., 40; Mahnomen, 0. End of half.

Third Quarter

Mahnomen received, but brought the ball back only a little ways. The two teams tried a great number of passes, one of these resulting in a touchdown by Penney. The try-for-point failed. Score: T. R. F., 46; Mahnomen, 0. They received and the locals put over another touchdown by a series of line plunges. The score: T. R. F., 53; Mahnomen, 0.

Fourth Quarter

The visitors again received and Mahnomen opened up with a queer formation, which coupled with a rally, enabled the visitors to put over a touchdown. The try-for-point failed. Shortly afterwards the whistle blew and the game ended. The final score was 53 to 6 in favor of the locals.

Lincoln Football Team to Clash With Aggies Nov. 1

The local gridiron squad will leave for Crookston next Saturday, November 1, where they will clash with the strong Aggie team. The locals now have a percentage of .666, and they are determined to raise it in the game Saturday. The present A. C. team is reported to be the strongest football squad in the history of the school. Up to this time they have played four games, losing but one.

Thief River, by defeating Mahnomen 53 to 6 last week, seem to have hit their stride and declare they are going to give the Aggies a memorable defeat.

A good game is assured, as the distance is not far, a large number of rooters are expected to accompany the team on this trip.

Seniors Discuss Photos for Annual

In the course of the last week the Senior class has held two class meetings, at the first one a member of the class to serve on the social committee for the year was elected. That member was Esther Crown. Also a committe was selected to look after the taking of the individual pictures of the Seniors for the "Prowler," and to select three folders to be voted upon by the class at a later meeting. The persons who were elected to do this work are: Esther Bennes, Thomas Melgaard, and Maurice Holzknecht. At the meeting called on Tuesday, the folder the class thought was best was selected. This folder is a very nice one, and its cost is $4.95 a dozen. The Seniors are to have their pictures taken at the beginning of the week and all the pictures have to be taken before the end of the third week in November.

Jokes

Mother: "Dennis, why did teacher keep you after school?"

Dennis: "It wasn't my fault, mother. Somebody tied my coat-tails to the seat when we were ready to sing 'The Star Spangled Banner.'"

Betty, taken to the country, had been having a run around the village. She saw many things that were strange to her, but a passing glimpse of the blacksmith's shop filled her with wonder. When she got back to the cottage she burst into the parlor in a state of great excitement. "Daddy," she said, "I've just seen a man who makes horses!"

"Nonsense," said daddy, "you've made a mistake."

"No, I haven't," she persisted. "I saw him. He had one nearly finished. He was just nailing on its back feet."

—London Telegraph.

Mr. Thune: "But why didn't you study that man's life?"

G. G. (under her breath): "I just thought that page was an ornament."

Miss Ingebretson (in Political Economics): "Ole, what do you get when you give some money to the Red Cross?"

Ole: "The only thing I ever received was a little button."

No Cases of Contagious Disease in Thief R. Falls

Excellent health conditions are being enjoyed by Thief River Falls citizens, there not being a case of contagious disease in the city, according to a report by Dr. H. W. Froehlich, local health officer, and Miss Ida Dahl, school nurse. This condition seldom prevails and is attributed to the consistent and rigid program of health work carried on by the health authorities in the city. Every case is carefully quarantined immediately and if attending school the child is not permitted to return until a permit is received from the health officer, thus preventing further spread of the disease.

Leaving Health Service

Dr. D. C. Lochead, for the past two years field secretary and clinician for the Minnesota Public Health association, will sever his connections with the association in November, having accepted the position of deputy health officer of Rochester, tendered him by Dr. Chas. H. Mayo, the health officer. Dr. Lochead, who has won a statewide reputation as a health lecturer and Christmas Seal organizer for the state, was in charge of the Traveling Public Health Clinic held in this city during the Pennington county fair recently, inaugurated to encourage periodic examination of apparently well persons.

Aggies Lose to E. G. Forks

East Grand Forks high school team defeated the Crookston Aggies by a 14 to 0 score last Thursday. The Northwest School team will clash with the locals on the former's field Saturday.

Crookston Defeats Bemidji

The strong Bemidji eleven, which trounced the locals 39 to 0 two weeks ago, was defeated by the Crookston high school team Saturday by a score of 12 to 0. This was a distinct surprise as the Thief River Falls team held Crookston to a 12 to 12 tie and would have won the game but for a technical error.

"Where is my whisk broom, Mary?" asked the professor.

"You ate it for breakfast, sir," replied the maid. "The other cereal was all gone."

Aggie School Accepts New Students Until November 3

The late fall season has prevented many young people in Pennington county who have planned to attend the Northwest Agricultural School, Crookston, from beginning their work there. Through arrangements perfected by the school authorities, they may enter on November 3 as extra classes will be arranged to assist them in making up the back work. This will be welcome news to many who have written in that they cannot leave home until the fall work is done. The school has now the largest fall term enrollment in its history. Seventeen from this county are enrolled already.

Football Player Blinded

Louis Neuman, Bemidji high school football star who played on the local gridiron two weeks ago, was still in a Crookston hospital, blind as a result of injuries suffered Saturday in the football game between Bemidji and Crookston schools, it was reported Tuesday. In the second half of the game, Neuman, while attempting to stop the line plunging of Crookston players, suffered a blow on the head. Attending physicians were unable to say whether his skull was fractured, or whether or not he would regain his sight.

Passive vs. Active Wealth

"MEN who want both to succeed and to render service should strike out on new lines rather than travel the worn paths of accepted success. It requires a better type of mind to seek out and support or create the new — —" — Albert W. Atwood.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) always has sought to create the new—to add to the tangible wealth of the community—to make new values, thus leading in service and gaining leadership through service.

Petroleum in the ground is potential and passive wealth. Petroleum on the highways, in service stations, in tractors, trucks and automobiles, is active, usable wealth, rendering a distinct and important service to humanity.

Before the organization of great companies to transport and refine crude petroleum and to make the resulting products available to all the people, this vast, potential wealth was not worth a cent.

Today, with the machinery of industry in place and hundreds of millions of barrels of crude passing in an unceasing stream from oil wells to consumer, this passive wealth has become active—and what was valueless before is now worth billions of dollars.

This is service—the most real and fundamental kind of service. It is service due to leadership—to keeping always "a little in front o' the next". And in return for its part in this service, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has taken but a tiny fraction of the new national wealth which it has created.

People in general think of wealth in terms of money—but, wealth is not money. It is merchandise—it is products which add comfort, luxury and satisfaction to life.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has taken the initiative in rendering this great service to humanity—it has converted passive wealth into hundreds of useful products which are prominent factors in the industrial and agricultural development of the nation—it has made petroleum products of every description available to the thirty millions of people in the Middle West.

ALL OUT OF SORTS?

So Was This Thief River Falls Woman Who Tells Her Experience.

All too often women accept their pains and aches as natural to their sex. They fail to realize that weak kidneys are often to blame for that backache, those headaches, dizzy spells and that tired depressed feeling. Thousands have found new health and strength by helping the weakened kidneys with Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic. This Thief River Falls case is one of many:

Mrs. Chas. Alexander, 216 Conley Ave., says: "I had an attack of kidney complaint. My kidneys didn't act as they should and I felt miserable all over. Severe pains across my back kept me from doing my work. My head swam with dizziness and I was afraid to walk across the room. Doan's Pills, from Dottleson's Drug Store, rid me of the trouble."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills — the same that Mrs. Alexander had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

INDEBTEDNESS OF SCHOOL DISTRICT WILL BE REDUCED

State Bond Issue of $23,000 Will Be Retired Without Special State Tax Levy

Thru a carefully outlined program of financing the school board of Independent District No. 18 will reduce its bonded indebtedness to the extent of $23,000 next year without a special state loan tax levy by the state investment board, provision having been made whereby it will be possible to retire this bond issue coming due in July, 1925 by using a portion of the sinking fund of the district together with money in the county treasury collected for that purpose.

There are two means of raising funds for school purposes—one by local levy and the other by state levy. The $23,000 bonds due next year are state bonds and if taken care of by the state a levy of perhaps 50 per cent more than the actual amount required would be made to allow for delinquents and other emergencies. This would cause a heavy drain on the district at this time, it is pointed out by the school authorities.

However, in order to save the taxpayers the burden of this extra levy the school board at a recent meeting decided to set aside $10,000 from the district's sinking fund, which together with about $6,000 already on hand for state bond purposes in the county treasury and additional tax money for that purpose in the November settlement will take care of this obligation. By the retiring of these bonds the annual interest payment will be reduced approximately $1,000.

At present the district has obligations of $200,000 in state bonds and $86,000 in private bonds, on which 4 per cent interest is paid. Without any special state levy the state bonds next year will be reduced to $177,000. The school board is making an effort to reduce the bonded indebtedness as much as feasible from time to time in order to cut down the interest, which at the present time takes quite a large amount each year. A total of nearly $12,000 in interest is paid each year on the present indebtedness which by this action of the school board will be reduced one-twelvth. This step, it is believed by the school authorities, is in the right direction as it reduces the bonded indebtedness by $23,000 which in turn lessens the annual interest payments on bonds to the extent of nearly $1,000 as previously mentioned. It is pointed out that a vast amount of interest money has been paid in past years and that the only way to provide for the future is to make provisions for the retiring of these bonds as soon as possible.

Last Half of Taxes Are Due Before November 1

Money is now flowing quite freely into the coffers of Pennington county, reports Treasurer John Gullingsrud. The reason for this is that the last half of the real estate taxes for the year are due and payable before November 1, and hundreds of Pennington county citizens are taking advantage of this final opportunity to pay their taxes. This week is an unusually busy one in the treasurer's office.

A ten per cent penalty will be attached to all taxes not paid before Saturday, and most people who can pay now will do so in order to escape this penalty. Another penalty of five per cent is added to the total if the taxes are not paid by January 1.

Tax payments this year will be better than for some time, it is predicted by Mr. Gullingsrud, who states that so far money seems to be more plentiful than in recent years and a large number will make their settlement today and tomorrow.

WILL RECEIVE BIDS ON ROAD GRAVELING

State Highway Department Will Gravel Many Northern Minnesota Roads

Contractors' bids on 130 miles of gravel surfacing for state trunk highways and 3 miles of grading, all to be paid for with automobile taxes, will be opened publicly Nov. 18 at the St. Paul office of the Minnesota Highway Department, under a call made this week by Commissioner Charles M. Babcock.

Preliminary round-figure estimates on the first list of proposed winter highway improvements total $375,000, the gravelling to cost $325,000 or less than $2,500 a mile. The grading job is for the 3-mile section of T. H. No. 34 between Walker and the State Sanitarium and is estimated at $25,000. The graveling projects follow:

T. H. No. 1—Two Harbors-Beaver Bay, 25.2 miles at $45,000.

T. H. No. 2—Glyndon-Hawley, 8.1 miles at $10,000.

T. H. No. 2—Bluffton-Wadena, 4 miles at $5,000.

T. H. No. 6—Crookston-Euclid, 14.2 miles at $35,000.

T. H. No. 6—Hallock-Donaldson, 17.6 miles at $65,000.

T. H. No. 6—Noyes-Hallock, 20.4 miles at $60,000.

T. H. No. 8—Deer River-Ball Club, 7.2 miles at $20,000.

T. H. No. 15—New Ulm-La Fayette, 10.7 miles at $25,000.

T. H. No. 64—Barnesville-Moorhead 23.1 miles at $60,000.

Gravel surfacing is being pushed during winter months, it was officially explained, because it can be done with less damage to the roads with hauling when they are frozen hard and also at less expense, contractors usually bidding low to obtain winter employment for their organizations. Local contractors near various projects are asked for figures and it is predicted that farmers in some localities may band together to compete for contracts.

The work listed above will take nearly $50,000 of reimbursement funds from bonds issued by Clay, Nicollet and Wadena counties. The entire cost must be paid eventually under the law, however, from automobile tax funds.

Completion of the winter graveling, engineers said, will leave comparatively small mileage of new highway grades unsurfaced.

The goose that lays the golden egg never makes much noise about it.

GRAIN SHIPMENTS TO DULUTH AGAIN ORDERED STOPPED

Embargo Ordered Monday Night Will Be Lifted Nov. 1—Yards Are Filled

An embargo on all grain billed to the Head of the Lakes went into effect 11:59 Monday night, according to P. J. Keating, local superintendent of grain inspection. The embargo will be in force until 11:59 Saturday, Nov. 1. This is the second embargo this month.

With the elevator capacity in Duluth and Superior practically filled and the reshipping demand was necessary in order to avoid a complete tie up of railroad equipment and passing tracks with grain laden cars, it is pointed out.

North Dakota shippers are advised to make use of storage capacity in the state as much as possible. It was reported that 15,011 loaded grain cars were at the terminal at the Head of the Lakes or in transit there. An average of 1,805 cars were loaded daily for that terminal during the seven days preceeding the embargo.

An unusually large volume of grain has been shipped thru Thief River Falls this fall and the local yards are rapidly being filled with cars during the embargo period. Practically every available trackage is used to relieve the congestion at the terminals, which is also reported to be quite serious in Minneapolis. Shippers have been compelled to bill a certain amount of grain to Minneapolis, altho the market there is lower. The difference in Minneapolis and Duluth prices has held an average of six cents a bushel, the Duluth price being higher. There is a storage in transit charge of approximately three cents a bushel.

There has been some agitation for closing the Minneapolis market, but as the movement of grain to that terminal market is much less than to the Head of the Lakes it is not likely that such action will be taken. With threshing nearly completed in North Dakota the peak movement should subside by the end of this week, it is pointed out by P. A. Lee, secretary of the North Dakota Grain Dealers' association.

Repr. M. Waldal Addresses Voters of 65th District

Marius Waldal, farmer near Plummer, candidate for re-election as representative from the 65th legislative district, was in the city Monday on his way to points in Clearwater county to spend a few days this week campaigning. He spoke at a meeting at Clearbrook Monday night.

He returns to address voters of this county at Goodridge tomorrow, Friday night and on Saturday night he will speak at Hazel.

Mr. Waldal last Thursday addressed a meeting at St. Hilaire, explaining the issues of the campaign from a non-partisan standpoint, not being affiliated with any particular party. He explained various measures taken up at the last session of the legislature of which he was a member and called attention to various misunderstandings regarding his record which he said were current in the district. In speaking of his record he pointed out that he had helped put thru the bill for the promotion of co-operative enterprises, the rural credits act, the bill giving congressional representation on the university board of regents, and other measures of interest to the farmer.

He declared that the rural credits act may have been misused in some instances but has been of great benefit to farmers and bankers of the state and that he would work for its continuation by favoring further appropriations for carrying on a program of credit to the farmers of the state. He also stated that as member of some of the most important committees of the house he would be able to serve in an important capacity if returned for another term.

Two representatives will be selected in the 65th district comprising Pennington, Red Lake and Clearwater counties. The candidates besides Mr. Waldal are Walter E. Day of Bagley, present incumbent, and R. O. Gordon of Oklee, the contest in this part of the district centering between Waldal and Gordon.

Salvation Army Meetings

A series of 10 Young Peoples' Congresses will be held in the northern division of the Salvation Army, beginning Nov. 22, according to announcement by Colonel Wm. S. Barker, head of the Army in Minnesota, North and South Dakota. The series will open in Minot, N. D. At each city where the Congress convenes, delegates from neighboring Salvation Army corps will attend. The other cities in the division selected for a Congress are Bismarck, St. Cloud, Deadwood, Fargo, Grand Forks, Duluth, Rochester, Huron and Minneapolis. Members of the Thief River Falls corps will attend at Grand Forks. It was explained that the object is to bring young people together for educational advancement in Salvation Army work. Applications are taken from those who wish to become candidates for commissions. At the last conference in Minneapolis 52 such applications were received. "While we are vitally interested in the reclamation of souls," Mr. Barker said, "we are also interested in preventative measures among the younger people."

Begins New Contract

A. P. Crown, who just completed the grading contract on the new road between this city and St. Hilaire, left Saturday night with his crew of a dozen men and equipment for Halma to begin work on a two mile grading job. The new job requires a large amount of overhaul and a big yardage of excavation but with favorable weather Mr. Crown expects to finish this fall.

Crookston Woman Killed

Blinded by the dust of a passing car H. O. Dalsness, employed in the Great Northern round house at Crookston, Sunday afternoon lost control of his automobile and went into the ditch near Fisher, the car crushing the life out of Mrs. Dalsness, who died of internal injuries shortly afterward. Mr. Dalsness suffered several ribs broken and numerous injuries.

New World Record Set by Marshall County Holstein

Queen Bessie Pieterje Ormsby, the senior two-year old heifer owned and raised by C. L. Spaulding of Warren has broken the world's record for butterfat production in her class for one year, it was announced last week by H. M. Gardner, superintendent of the advanced registry of the Holstein Friesian association of America. She is credited with 1,119.54 pounds of butter and 24,583 pounds of milk, which is one of the most sensational productions records in years. The former record of 1,102.69 pounds butter held by the Michigan heifer, Pontiac Irene, has stood for nearly six years and is one of the very few that has not been beaten during this period.

The average cow in Minnesota produces about 200 pounds butter annually, and the average cow in the United States less than this amount. Lady Bruce of Clovercrest, one of the highest producing Guernseys in the four-year old class in the world, last year produced a total of 777 pounds butter.

EXCHANGE SPUDS GO INTO STORAGE

Potato Digging Being Completed Here—Program Part of Orderly Marketing Plan

Potato digging is now practically completed in this vicinity according to H. C. Liden, in charge of the local shipping station of the Pennington County Potato Growers' association. Fifteen carloads were shipped up to Monday. Five will be shipped this week, with more following next week. Five cars had been shipped from Mavie up to Monday. The excellent weather the past couple of weeks has helped the farmers in getting their crops properly garnered.

Potatoes delivered by members of the Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange are going into storage just as fast as possible, according to S. E. Olson of Ada, a member of the executive board.

"The Exchange has negotiated for terminal storage space in which 5,000 cars can be held, in addition to the room it has at its shipping point and concentration houses," said Mr. Olson. "We are prepared to hold the bulk of our deliveries this fall in order to give prices a chance to recover. In addition to this, thousands of our members are helping us in our orderly marketing plan by storing potatoes in their own root houses.

"The extent to which the market has fallen is indicated by the fact that non-members are selling potatoes for as low as 12 cents a bushel and we have one report of growers being paid 9 cents. The more potatoes we are able to hold off the present market the better it will be for our membership, as well as the industry as a whole."

The Exchange is being loyally supported by practically the entire membership, according to S. G. Rubinow, general manager. Thus far, he has received but 28 reports of contract violations and in only a few of these instances is there evidence which warrants steps toward court action.

The association membership is growing at the rate of 50 new contract signers a day. Last week, the 13,350th agreement was registered. Among the new members are some of the largest growers in the state, who are coming into the association because they realize that its orderly marketing plan offers them their only chance of obtaining fair prices. Among new members from Pennington county are mentioned Chas. C. Schuster, Oscar J. Peterson and D. W. Ayers.

Attorney General Upholds Co-operative Contract Law

Two opinions of unusual moment to cooperative associations operating under the Minnesota Cooperative Marketing Act of 1923, were recently given by the office of the attorney general of the State.

One of these concerns the constitutionality of sections 17 and 18, chapter 264 of the Act, which provide for a contract between cooperative associations and their members, and permit associations to collect damages from and secure injunctions against members who violate their contracts. The other covers sections 26 and 27 of the Act which provide for an action for damages and for an injunction against a third party, who induces or encourages a member of a cooperative association to break his marketing contract, or "who maliciously and knowingly spreads false reports about the management" of such an association. The constitutionality of the four sections of the Act, as outlined, is upheld by the attorney general's office.

The opinions in question were written by Victor F. Anderson, assistant attorney general, in response to a request from A. A. McPheeters, manager of the Minnesota Cooperative Egg and Poultry Exchange.

Commenting on the opinion of the attorney general's office, Mr. McPheeters in a statement to the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation said: "We sought the opinion of the attorney general's office on the points in question on behalf of some of our members who had been advised that the cooperative marketing law was not constitutional."

Cooperative organizations active in this community are the Thief River Valley Cooperative Poultry association, the Potato Growers' Exchange and the Wheat Growers' association.

Grows Sweet Clover Seed

Martin Mathson, farmer near Hazel, this fall harvested a large quantity of sweet clover seed, having threshed 10,000 pounds, machine measure, from 12 acres. The plants were unusually tall, making it almost difficult to go thru with a binder. At current prices Mr. Mathson will realize a neat return on this crop.

LOCAL MEN INVENT STOVE FOR BURNING PEAT AND LIGNITE

New Invention Patented by Hager and Flynn May Solve Fuel Question Here

After several years of experimenting two Thief River Falls men, J. E. Flynn and H. N. Hager have perfected a stove that burns peat and lignite fuel successfully. The method followed by them in the construction of this stove is inexpensive and simplicity itself and can be used in heating stove, cook stove and furnace.

A heating stove of this kind can be constructed along the lines of any ordinary heater, from the cheapest and most inexpensive to the higher priced and most costly styles with peat and lignite burning improvements attached. In a heating stove of this kind a magazine is used similar to the magazine of a hard coal stove with the exception that it has a closed, oval shaped bottom and inside this magazine sets a fuel container made to hold any desired quantity of fuel in proportion to size of stove. Then there is a gas pipe of proper size leading from the top of fuel container out through the drum and follows down the outside of stove to bottom where it again enters stove underneath grate, coming up through center of same with ordinary gas burner attached.

All that is necessary to put this stove in operation is to get kindling and other fuel in fire pot, fill fuel container in magazine with peat or lignite, to which, if dry 25 to 30 per cent water is added, then start the fire in fire pot and as temperature in fuel magazine becomes high enough the fuel in container begins to generate gas which goes through gas pipe underneath fire on the grate. In this way all the gas is utilized and burned, thus giving off more heat and the most wet, soggy peat right from the field or green, sappy wood can be used and burned in fire pot with this gas.

When all the gas is removed from peat or lignite in the fuel container the residue that is left is in the form of coke, or coke charr which can be emptied into the fire pot and used for fuel as another container full of peat or lignite replaces it in fuel magazine. In this way it is a continuous process of manufacturing gas and coke, or charr and using this along with what little additional fuel is needed in the fire pot to make more. Thus it can be seen that this stove will mean a big saving to the people of the north and west for high priced fuel when they can get all the fuel they want by hauling the raw peat from the bog or by using lignite and get as much or more heat as from the better grades of soft coal.

Anyone who has had experience in burning peat and lignite knows that the great drawback in burning these fuels in the past has been that when the fire gets down low or smoldering over night or during the day one cannot poke or shake the grate as the fuel will all go down into the fire pot and all one can do is to open up drafts and wait an hour or two for heat to come up to the temperature desired. This stove overcomes this inasmuch as when fire becomes low one has only to put some kindling and other fuel in the fire pot and when this starts to burn it will only be a few minutes until it will start generating gas in the fuel container, which as explained before is carried down underneath the fire on the grate and by regulating stove drafts and flow of gas one can soon have a steady, even fire of any desired degree of heat.

There is a check valve in gas pipe to regulate flow of gas from fuel container to gas burner in grate as desired and to overcome any danger there might be at any time of an over accumulation of gas in fuel container there is a pressure gauge which lets all surplus gas escape direct into the smoke pipe which eliminates any trouble from that source.

Messrs. Flynn and Hager are looking for great results from this invention, a patent for which they were allowed a short time ago. They are already corresponding with stove concerns about manufacturing and marketing this stove for them and if a satisfactory agreement cannot be made will form a company and put this stove on the market themselves.

Manager of Minneapolis Theatre

Word has been received from John Brumund, son of H. A. Brumund of the Thief River Falls Theatre company, that he is now manager of the Emerson theatre in Minneapolis, a movie house operated by the Steffes Amusement Enterprises which has a chain of theatres. He left this city about three weeks ago and entered upon his new duties last week. Mr. Brumund formerly assisted his father in the movie business here and was in charge of the Thief River Poster Advertising company.

Decision for County

Ben Benson, who lost one leg in an injury in a Marshall county gravel pit in December, 1922, and who sued the county for $3,800 and lost the case conducted before a member of the State Industrial commission, lost another decision when the commission again decided in favor of the county at a hearing held in St. Paul two weeks ago, states the Warren Sheaf. The case may be appealed to the supreme court.

St. Hilaire Creamery Manager Director of State Body

J. H. Hed, manager of the St. Hilaire Co-operative creamery, was elected a director of the Minnesota Creamery Operators' and Managers' association at its 31st annual convention in St. Paul Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Delegates from District No. 2, in which Thief River Falls is included, was represented by Albert Martin of Plummer, Egan Durham of Karlstad and Paul Hanson of Karlstad, who were named delegates at a meeting in this city. Five hundred creamery men were in attendance at the convention of which M. F. Gardner of Waseca is president. St. Paul was selected as next year's meeting place. The directorship was the only office to be filled this year.

Local creamery men showed up well in the butter scoring contest in which 403 tubs from creameries all over the state were entered. The tub entered by Manager John Neuland scored 92¾ and that entered by Gunsten Bergland, another employee of the local plant, scored 92½. First place was won by R. J. Anderson of Belgrade whose butter score was 95½, an exceptional record.

Two Pennington Men Are Taken to State Hospital

Charles Olson, about 40 years of age, son of Mrs. Julius Olson of Hickory township, was on Friday taken by the local authorities to Fergus Falls to receive attention at the state hospital. He was not adjudged insane but was in a bad physical condition and mentally unbalanced at times. He asked the authorities to take care of him.

His condition first became known when he walked into the office of the Marshall county sheriff in Warren and told J. P. Bordewich, deputy sheriff, that all the people in Warren were watching him and that he wanted protection. He was placed in the jail pending the arrival of Sheriff O. L. Ihle who took him to this city to be examined. Mr. Olson, who is a widower and has one son, had worked on a farm near Warren, but has been farming in the eastern part of the county in past years. His mother was called to the city at the time of the examination.

Nels Knutson, a resident of this city for many years, was also taken to the asylum Friday, having been pronounced mentally defective. He is about 70 years of age and is harmless but needs attention.

Otto Swan of Newfolden, who was taken in custody at Grand Forks and who is being held in the Marshall county jail, may go to a government hospital, the Warren post of the American Legion having taken a hand in his case. He is a former service man and demented on the subject of electricity.

Many Business Changes

Three important business changes have occurred in Red Lake Falls during the past week. A. E. Anderson, proprietor of the New Variety Store is closing out his business, having lost his lease. W. H. Krueger, former proprietor of the Grand View hotel has opened up a new grocery store in the building vacated by Anderson. Lee Theroux has sold a half interest in the Theroux & Riendeau barbershop to Ernest Patnode who just opened up a new shop here two weeks ago. Patnode came from Coleraine, but was formerly located at St. Hilaire and he has lived in Red Lake Falls for many years. Theroux has purchased an interest in the Palace barbershop at Crookston.

An object of considerable curiosity in The Times window this week is a mammoth rutabaga, which was brot to this office by John Gran, farmer one-half mile south from the Greenwood cemetery. It is of unusual proportions and would undoubtedly prove a strong contender at any garden show.

THIEF RIVER FALLS TIMES

Volume 14. Thief River Falls, Pennington County, Minnesota, Thursday, Nov. 6, 1924 Number 40

OBSERVANCE OF ARMISTICE DAY IN CITY TUESDAY

"Minnesota's Fighting Parson" Will Speak at Auditorium Exercises Nov. 11

BUSINESS PLACES WILL BE CLOSED FROM 10:30

Delegations from Nearby Towns Coming—Football at 3 p. m., Banquet and Dance

Everything is now in readiness for the proper observance of Armistice Day in Thief River Falls next Tuesday. It is planned by the Elmer J. Eklund post of the American Legion sponsoring the celebration, that a large number of out-of-town ex-service men as well as the general public will be entertained here on that day.

All business places in the city which can conveniently do so are requested to close at 10:30 and remain closed thru the remainder of the day, a proclamation to that effect having been issued by Mayor J. S. Arneson.

A feature of the observance which promises to attract a large attendance of local citizens and from the surrounding community is the public program at the auditorium which will start at 10:30 a. m. A splendid program has been arranged for the occasion in tribute to those who take part in the late war and many of whom gave their lives in the service of their country.

Brilliant Speaker

Rev. Joe Barnett of Red Wing, past chaplain of the Minnesota department of the American Legion and known as "Minnesota's Fighting Parson," will give the address of the day. He is a brilliant speaker and promises to have a real message for his hearers. It is said that Rev. Barnett is the most popular chaplain the Minnesota Legion has had, and Legionaires thruout this section are expected to come to this city to hear him on this occasion. Members of the local Legion post who have heard Rev. Barnett declare that no one should miss this opportunity to hear an address by this excellent speaker.

The full program at the morning exercises are as follows, with Mayor J. S. Arneson in charge:

"Star Spangled Banner" ---- Audience
"America The Beautiful" ---- Woman's Club Chorus
America Enters the War ---- Rev. S. L. Tallakson
Announcements ---- Oscar Smith
The Roll of Honor ---- Rev. J. T. Dixon
Silent Tribute ---- (Audience Standing)
"In Flanders Fields" ---- Mrs. O. F. Mellby
Address ---- Rev. Jos. Barnett
"America" ---- Audience

Delegations From Other Towns

Music may also be furnished by the local band and members of the Warren band. In an interview Dr. C. A. Gunnarson, commander of the Warren post, declared that a large delegation of Warren Legionaires will attend the festivities here. Indications are that many will come to this city from Holt, Middle River, Newfolden, Goodridge, Grygla, St. Hilaire, Plummer, and other points.

Football Game at 3 p. m.

The afternoon hours will be given over to the football game between the Thief River Falls and East Grand Forks high school teams at the fair grounds at 3:00 p. m. This will be the last game of the season and promises to be a lively contest. A large crowd will undoubtedly be on the grounds to witness this contest. The locals so far this season have won three games, lost three and tied one and are bent on winning this final battle. They will rely mainly on passes and trick plays in Tuesday's game, according to Coach Leonard Thune, who is putting his proteges thru strenuous practice this week.

Following the football game at 6:30 a banquet in honor of Rev. Barnett will be served by the Auxiliary at the Legion club rooms in the basement of the First and Peoples State bank building. The general public is invited to participate, the charges being $1.00 per plate. A special invitation is extended to all ex-service men. A program of toasts and entertainments is being arranged for this event and a thoroly enjoyable time is assured.

Dance in Evening

The feature of the evening will be the carnival dance which starts at 9 o'clock sharp at the auditorium, for which elaborate preparations are being made, including attractive decorations, stands and music by the ten-piece Legion orchestra.

Resolution by Commercial Club Urges New Quarters for Post Office in T.R.F.

At the regular noon-day luncheon of the Thief River Falls Commercial club last Thursday, the following resolution, calling upon the post office department to provide better quarters for the local post office, was offered by F. H. Herrick and unanimously adopted:

"That, Whereas, the room occupied by the local post office has been used by it for more than twenty years without any increase in space or facilities for doing the public business satisfactorily.

"And Whereas, the population of the territory served has increased more than fourfold during this period with presumably a like increase in post office business,

"And Whereas, the sanitary conditions of the room now in use with its very evident congestion is such as does not conduce to the health or well-being of the employees, of whose excellent service in the past no criticism is offered,

"Therefore, be it resolved that this Club urge upon the proper authorities of the post office department that if possible, better and more commodious quarters be provided, commensurate with the steadily growing needs of the office. Further that the Secretary be instructed to forward a copy of this resolution to the First Assistant Postmaster General."

LEGION CONVENTION HERE IN 1925 WILL BE HELD AUG. 11-13

Minnesota Legion Leaders Rap U. S. Veterans Bureau at Committee Meeting

August 11, 12 and 13 are the convention dates for the 1925 state meeting of the Minnesota department of the American Legion in Thief River Falls. This decision was made by the state executive committee in session in St. Paul Sunday, at which the Elmer J. Eklund post of this city was represented by Adjutant Ole R. Sande.

State Commander Edwin Lindell will visit Thief River Falls in the near future to meet with local legionaires to consider plans for the convention next year and line up committees.

Inefficiency in the United States veterans bureau in the 10th district was rapped in reports made to the executive committee by the special investigating committee appointed to probe bureau affairs.

Definite action on the reports was postponed pending the filing of further information against various individual officers of the veterans bureau. Two recommendations adopted as a result of the charges filed with the executive committee are:

Urging establishment of an attitude in the United States veterans bureau which would give the personal element preference over legal technicalities in relations with the service man.

Urging that the burden of proof in all claims of service men be thrown on the veterans bureau rather than on the disabled claimant as at present.

The investigations are expected to effect a number of local cases which have been delayed, according to officials of the post here.

A total of 31,000 was established as the membership goal for 1925, the present membership in Minnesota being 28,000. A budget of $25,000 was established.

Establishment of the "penny fund" to provide $100,000 for a national legion children's hospital, inaugurated by St. Paul Post No. 8, was approved.

Senator Hansen Back from Tour of European Countries

Senator C. L. Hansen returned Saturday morning from a three-months' trip to Europe, during which he traveled in Denmark, Norway, Germany, France and England. He spent some time in Denmark visiting with his mother in Copenhagen. Conditions abroad are considerably improved, according to the senator, who states that particularly is this evident in Germany. The trip was a very pleasant one in every respect, he says. He returned on the Atlantic transport liner "Minnetonka" from London.

Mr. Hansen will remain in the city altho he does not expect to enter active business until after the completion of the next session of the legislature, which commences January 2. He contemplates a land, mortgage, insurance and bond business. Mr. Hansen who was formerly president of the First National bank of this city sold out his interest in that institution this summer.

COUNTY SCHOOLS PLAN TO OBSERVE EDUCATION WEEK

Arrangements Made For Appropriate Programs During Week of Nov. 17-23

PURPOSE TO INCREASE EDUCATIONAL INTEREST

Parade of 1400 Pupils Will Feature Observance by Thief River Falls Schools

Arrangements are now being completed for the observance of National Education Week in the local schools November 17 to 22 and pupils are busy preparing posters and getting the parents interested in the event. A program similar to that executed last year has been prepared and will include a big parade in which all the pupils of the Thief River Falls schools together with their teachers will march thru the principal streets of the city and before a reviewing stand. This feature proved to be a decided hit when it was inaugurated last year and will undoubtedly draw an even greater crowd of spectators this year. The exact day has not been set yet but will be announced later.

Neither the preparatory work nor the special week itself will take time from the regular school activities, it is pointed out by those in charge.

Visiting Schools Urged

Visiting of the schools by the parents is particularly urged during this week, which is being sponsored by the National Educational association, the American Legion and other organizations. It is hoped that every parent and every other person interested in education will make it a point to visit the schools during this week specially, certain visiting days having been designated for each school. Visitors will be welcomed at any time, but should it suit the patrons' convenience, they will be particularly welcomed on Monday at the Knox, Tuesday at the Central, Wednesday at the Washington, Thursday at the Northrop and Friday at the high school.

The regular work is to be carried on, the only deviation in the grades being the convening for 15 minutes each day, stressing the theme that has been assigned for special consideration on that day. In high school a brief, appropriate educational program will also be conducted each morning.

Special Topics for Day

The days of the week have been designated as follows: Monday, "Constitution Day"; Tuesday, "Patriotism Day"; Wednesday, "School and Teacher Day"; Thursday, "Illiteracy Day"; Friday, "Physical Education Day"; Saturday, "Community Day"; and Sunday, "For God and Country Day."

All the ministers of the city have been invited to touch upon the importance of education in their sermons on Sunday, Nov. 23.

Arrangements have been made with Manager Brumund of the Thief River Theatre company for the appearance of two four-minute speakers at the show each evening during the week. Students from the public speaking classes of the high school and representatives of various civic organizations will appear in the programs. The school board, Parent-Teachers association, American Legion post, Commercial club, Woman's club, the city schools and the faculty will be represented.

Meetings Thruout County

To properly observe the week in the rural schools of the county it is planned to conduct a series of meetings in the various sections into which the county is divided, according to Supt. O. R. Sande. The gatherings held last year proved very successful and stimulated a great deal of enthusiasm and interest along educational lines among Pennington county school patrons.

ARMISTICE DAY PROCLAMATION

Six years ago the din of battle was hushed. Men taxed almost beyond human endurance, laid aside the armament of devastation—glad to return to their families and former occupations.

Next Tuesday, November 11th, on the occasion of this momentous anniversary, this nation pays homage to the 70,000 men who fell on the field of honor. Those men did not die or suffer in vain, for since that memorable November day of 1918 great strides have been made toward universal peace.

Let us be happy in the thought that while our sacrifice was severe, the marks of battle were not indelible, and let us all—men, women and children—pay due homage and respect to the men of the colors, both living and dead, by a proper observance of Armistice Day.

Therefore, I respectfully request that all places of business in Thief River Falls be closed on Tuesday, November 11, 1924, at the hour of 10:30 A. M., and remain closed during the remainder of said day, in order that all citizens may join in an observance of the day by attending the exercises which will be held at the Auditorium under the auspices of the American Legion.

Given under my hand this 3rd day of November, 1924.

J. S. ARNESON, Mayor.

MANY PROMINENT MEN TO ADDRESS DAIRY SESSIONS

Extensive Programs Prepared for Convention of Red River Valley Dairymen

POULTRY SHOW TO BE HELD AT SAME TIME

Indications of Large Attendance from Entire Valley—Trophies Offered

One of the most instructive and interesting programs in the history of the organization is being prepared for the Red River Valley Dairymen's association's convention in Thief River Falls Nov. 19 and 20, according to Leonard Houske of Halstad, secretary who was in the city during the past week making arrangements for the event together with Stuart McLeod of Goodridge, president. These men are working hard looking after details of this gathering, which portends to be the biggest ever held in the valley.

Among the prominent dairy and farm authorities scheduled to speak are: Chris Heen, state dairy and food commissioner; L. Jensen of Clearbrook, president of the Minnesota Dairymen's association; A. J. McGuire, manager of the Minnesota Cooperative Creamery association; C. G. Selvig, superintendent of the Northwest School of Agriculture, Crookston; L. D. Wilson, dairy specialist of the University of Minnesota who will discuss cow testing and make an effort to organize a cow testing association in the county; James Sorenson, secretary of the Minnesota Creamery Operators' and Managers' association; Dr. C. P. Fitch, veterinarian at the university; A. J. Kittleson of Crookston, district club leader; O. M. Kiser, dairy specialist at the Northwest School; F. McPheeters, manager of the state egg exchange.

The Red River Valley association embraces 17 counties and more than 500 dairymen are expected to attend. To encourage attendance a trophy will be awarded the co-operative creamery association having the largest number of patrons present. Other contests will also feature the meeting.

The eighth annual poultry show put on by the Pennington County Poultry association will be held during the convention days and also on the 21st. Premium lists have been prepared and are being distributed this week. Same may be had by calling on Secretary J. J. McCann. A great deal of interest is already being shown in this exhibition and it promises to be even better than in years past.

COOLIDGE ELECTED PRESIDENT BY BIG MAJORITY--SCHALL AND CHRISTIANSON LEADING AT NOON

Republican Landslide Gives President Huge Lead Over Davis and LaFollette—Election of Schall and Christianson Conceded in Noon Bulletin. Congressman Wefald Winner Over Peterson and Waldal Likely to be Returned to Legislature—Backe, Ness and Roy Elected in County Contests.

St. Paul, Nov. 6, (Special Noon Bulletin to The Times)—Morning bulletins show Coolidge Approximately 380 votes in electoral college. Wisconsin only state sure for LaFollette with North Dakota still uncertain. Christianson conceded elected as Governor. In 2724 precincts out of 3607 total Christianson has lead of slightly over 40,000. His election is assured by better than 25,000 majority. Schall leading Johnson by 17,887 votes with 777 precincts to hear from. Schall will be elected with a majority of around 10,000. Sorlie, Nonpartisan wins in North Dakota. Brookhart defeated in Iowa. Minnesota Congressional Delegation will remain same. Wefald and Kvale, Farmer-Labor candidates in Ninth and Seventh are winners. Gas tax Amendment carried. Republican state ticket all elected with Wilson chief justice, Holt and Stone associate justices.

Altho returns from many states still are incomplete today, President Coolidge apparantly has been elected over his opponents by a large plurality, present indications being that LaFollette will carry only his home state, Wisconsin. United Press reports give Coolidge 379 electoral votes, Davis 139 and LaFollette 13. A Republican landslide thruout the nation similar to that in 1920, is indicated by reports received here today.

Mounting pluralities as belated returns come in assure a strong majority for Coolidge in Minnesota, 2933 of the 3600 precincts in the state giving him a lead of 96,000, according to a report received here at 11:15 from the state Republican headquarters.

For governor Theodore Christianson is leading Floyd B. Olson, Farmer-Labor, by 43,000 in the 2930 precincts heard from, according to the same report. Thomas Schall, Republican candidate for senator, had a majority of 19,000 over Magnus Johnson, Farmer-Labor.

Maintaining the same ratio as the remaining returns come in the Republican state ticket is certain of victory, the other candidates holding a safe margin, according to reports at noon today.

United Press reports were received from various parts of the nation over radio on election night and interest ran high among local citizens.

A big vote was polled thruout the nation and state, it is said, altho the total of about 3700 in Pennington this year is below the 1920 figures of 4200. Ideal weather conditions prevailed during election day.

F.-L. Leading in County

Farmer-Labor candidates led the Republicans about two to one in Pennington county, as the complete tabulation will show. Magnus Johnson polled the highest vote of any candidate on the state ticket with 2653 votes, while Mike Holm, candidate for secretary of state, received 1436, the highest polled by any Republican in the county. Holm carried six precincts altho the Farmer-Laborites were ahead in each precinct.

Cong. Wefald Winner

Reports from the Ninth district congressional contest are to the effect that Knud Wefald, Farmer-Laborite and present incumbent, has been returned, defeating F. H. Peterson, Republican. Wefald was next to Magnus Johnson in popularity in Pennington county, polling 2564 votes.

With half of the precincts in Marshall county reported at 11 o'clock today, the following results are given: President, LaFollette 1527 and Coolidge 1515; governor, Olson 2111 and Christianson 1354; senator, Johnson 2111 and Schall 1079; congressman, Wefald 1865 and Peterson 1479; representative, Greene 1828 and Malberg 1438; judge of probate Holm 2217 and Gubrud 1160.

Judge Backe Returned

In the race for judge of probate, the only contest besides that of county commissioners, Lars Backe of this city, present incumbent, won out by a majority of 300 over his opponent, Peter C. Wold of Kratka, backed by the Farmer-Labor organization. Judge Backe received 1940 votes to Wold's 1640, this city giving the former a strong endorsement as seen by the detailed table elsewhere in this issue.

Adolf Eklund, clerk of the district court, had no opposition.

Repr. Waldal Leading

It appears that Marius Waldal of Plummer will be returned as one of the representatives in the 65th legislative district, leading his nearest opponent, R. O. Gordon of Oklee by 176 votes with three precincts in Clearwater county remaining to be heard from. Gordon was endorsed by the Farmer-Labor group. Walter E. Day, Farmer-Labor, was returned with a good majority.

The vote by counties is as follows:

	Day	Waldal	Gordon
Pennington	1874	1666	1607
Red Lake	805	987	790
Clearwater	1606	981	1061
Total	4280	3634	3458

Ness Defeats McGinn

Andrew Ness, former alderman of this city, defeated Robert McGinn for county commissioner in the Second district, comprising the city of Thief River Falls, winning by a margin of 56 votes. This is considered one of the surprises of the election. Mr. McGinn has served on the board 10 years. The following shows the vote by wards:

	Ness	McGinn
First ward	217	248
Second ward	183	207
Third ward	118	137
Fourth ward	284	166
Total	802	758

Comm. Roy Keeps Job

Ness will be the only new member of the county board, J. S. Roy being returned in the Fourth district, where he defeated Gilbert Haavi by a majority of 58 votes. Roy has served as commissioner for eight years. Following is a tabulation showing the vote in each precinct:

	Haavi	Roy
North township	147	35
River Falls township	42	69
Rocksbury township	84	88
St. Hilaire village	17	156
Total	290	348

COMMERCIAL CLUB LAUNCHES DRIVE FOR MORE MEMBERS

Committee Will Call on Nonmembers in Effort to Strengthen Ranks of Club

Membership in the Commercial club of Thief River Falls is expected to be greatly augmented during the ensuing week as a result of action taken at the weekly luncheon Thursday, when it was decided to put on an intensive membership campaign. Postmaster Daniel Shaw, E. O. Mogensen, Anton Langseth, F. L. Christenson, Nels Christianson and F. J. Stebbins volunteered to comprise a team which will make an effort to call upon everyone in the city eligible to membership in the club. At a meeting of this group following the luncheon Mr. Christenson was named chairman and a decision made to open the campaign immediately after election.

The club, which is now one of the most active and widely known in the state, at present has a large membership, but it is desired to enroll a still greater number of business and professional men, laborers and farmers. The weekly luncheons are proving a popular feature and are well attended, everyone taking a part in the discussions of questions pertaining to the welfare and the progress of this city and community.

Census Work in Pennington County Started This Week

The work of taking the farm census in Pennington county is being started this week. Six enumerators for an equal number of districts in the county have been engaged, according to County Agent J. J. McCann, who is in charge of the census work here.

There are 158 questions on the census forms and the farmers will be required to answer as many of them as apply to their farms. It is pointed out that the information given by the farmers in the census is not available to the tax department. It is confidential to the census department, Mr. McCann said. The reason for the census at this time is that it will be a true index of existing conditions, provisions for such census having been made by congress ordering the taking of a census every five years.

Census blanks have already been distributed among the farmers. Mr. McCann asks that these blanks be studied and the answers prepared in order to help the enumerator when he comes.

PLEASING PROGRAM BY WELSH SINGERS

Concert of Outstanding Merit Is Presented by Rhondda Male Chorus Last Week

Music lovers of this city and community were given a treat which will be long remembered when the Rhondda Welsh Male chorus was heard at the auditorium Wednesday night of last week. The concert, given under the auspices of the local Elks lodge, was easily the most outstanding and enjoyable musical event presented in Thief River Falls for some time.

The general opinion of the audience at the close of the evening's program was one of unqualified approval and admiration for the excellent renderings offered under the direction of Professor Tom Morgan of Porth, Wales, who has ably led the songsters to fame on two continents. Every one of the fourteen singers under Mr. Morgans direction is an artist and soloist and a master at the piano in the person of Professor Emlyn Jones A. R. C. M. furnished the accompaniment. Their fame is world wide, especially as a result of their winning first place at the Great International Song Festival in Pittsburgh, Pa., where 53 choruses of all classes competed.

Solos, duets, quartettes and choruses were received with the same continued applause during the entire concert and altho the demand for encores was insistent, the chorus was compelled to dispense with many to complete the program. Songs of their homeland, the classics and lighter songs were included.

The opening number, "March of the Men of Harlech", sung by the entire chorus in the Welsh language displayed a volume of buoyant rhythm and dashing clearness seldom heard. Other numbers by the entire chorus were Beethoven's "Where Is He," a powerful interpretation of a dramatic scene from biblical history when David and his followers were pursued by the hosts of King Saul; "Mulligan Musketeers" by Atkinson; "Italian Salad", musical jest by Genee; "The Sandman", Dr. D. Prothero; "On the Sea", Dudley Buck; "O Peaceful Night", German; "The Gipsy Chorus", "Kilkarney", "The Soldiers Chorus", and "Old Black Joe", the last two by request.

Solo numbers were sung by Stephen Jenkins, Richard Owen and Sydney Charles, tenors; Robert Hopkins, baritone; David Rees and Edward Hopkins, bass. A pleasing variety of solo selections interspersed the chorus numbers.

"Tenor and Baritone" by Wilson was given as a duet by Mr. Owen and Mr. Evans, quartette numbers being "A Catastrophe" by Sprauge and "Every Rustling Tree" by Kuhlan, all of which were greatly enjoyed.

At the end of the performance the chorus sang the Welsh national anthem, "Land of My Fathers" and the American national anthem, "America."

The chorus came here from Crookston and continued to Winnipeg. They started from Wales on Aug. 25, their concert here being the 53rd. They have given a concert practically every night since they arrived in this country and are booked until May, 1925.

Republican Women Active In Campaign. Headquarters is Popular Meeting Place

The Republican women of this city did their share of the campaign in this community. Besides assisting in handing out literature and advocating Republican principles, they kept an open house at the former J. C. Penney building at Main and Second street, serving coffee and lunch daily and furnishing technical information on voting and the election, in general. Many city and rural residents came to the Women's headquarters to learn whether they were eligible to vote in the district they were in and such other questions as fill the minds of the voter as election approaches. Mrs. J. H. Hardisty was general chairman of the committee with Mrs. F. M. Bennes, Mrs. Gaston Ward, Mrs. Geo. Streeter and Miss Emily Fossum as ward chairmen, and worked faithfully for their party interests. Election returns were received by radio Tuesday night and yesterday.

Stationed at the auditorium door were women who pinned "I have voted have you?" tags on each person after he or she had voted, thus helping to get people to the polls.

Norwegian Scenes in Film Shown by Breistein Enjoyed

A good sized audience saw the Norwegian movie film, "Fante-Anne", shown at the Sons of Norway hall on Friday night by Rasmus Breistein, who is making a tour of this country. The film was presented at St. Hilaire Saturday night.

The film was an interesting depiction of home life in Gudbrandsdalen, a valley community of Norway, as portrayed in a story by Kristofer Janson. The beautiful scenes from that part of Norway, the birthplace of some of those in attendance at the showing here, were particularly interesting, those present declare.

Norwegian-Americans were greeted from their friends across the waters in a brief talk by Mr. Breistein, in which he used the "Landsmaal". During the performance Norwegian folk melodies and "slaattar" were played by Mr. Breistein on his Hardanger violin. He has visited practically every community in Norway and brought personal greetings to many Norwegians in this country, whom he meets on his travels.

Lutefisk and Goose Supper

The annual Lutefisk and Goose supper given by the men of the Trinity Lutheran church tomorrow evening will, to all indications, prove as popular as in previous years and the usual large crowd is being prepared for. Whether it is who serves or what they serve that makes these suppers so popular is a good betting guess but each year the event is well patronized. Serving will begin at five o'clock.

MEN'S CLUB HOLDS INTERESTING MEET

Reports and Discussions of Vital Topics Feature Gathering of Presbyterians

The Men's club of the Presbyterian church held its second monthly supper of this season in the parlors of the church Friday evening, with a good attendance of the members of the club. The meeting was presided over by O. R. Sande, the president. Fellowship singing was a new feature introduced at this meeting which was greatly enjoyed by the men as evidenced by their response to the old songs suggested.

Reports were given on the work of the club. F. F. Haynes outlined the plan by which the club would conduct the suppers in the future, committees being in charge of the invitations to the men. Bert Umland reported on the Men's Bible class and urged all the men to take advantage of this opportunity to hold an open discussion on religious subjects. Mr. Gerlinger reported plans for the Boy Scout troop of the church, the only active troop in the city at present.

The subject for the evening was announced as "Our Home Town." Morlan Bishop gave an interesting talk on the social life of the community and suggested ways in which it could be improved. He urged co-operation between various social organizations to raise the standards of social life. He was followed by C. J. Wedge, vice president of the First National bank, who spoke on "First Impressions of Thief River Falls." He spoke highly of the progressive spirit of the city and marked it as truly "Western" in that respect.

At the next Fellowship Supper on Nov. 28, the subject was announced as "Education." The subject will be treated from the various aspects of intellectual, moral, and religious.

Official Paper of Pennington County
Official Paper, City Thief River Falls
Official Paper, School District No. 18

Considerable thought and consideration has been given the establishment of a canning factory in Thief River Falls by a number of enterprising citizens the past few weeks particularly. The possibilities for such an industry have been presented to local business men by a representative of the state department of agriculture and experts in the canning business and the matter is now in the hands of a committee of the Commercial club for further investigation.

It has been pointed out by persons who are thoroly familiar with the culture of peas for canning purposes that this community is specially well adapted for this crop and that everything indicates that a factory could be made a success here.

Other cities in the valley are making efforts to get promoters interested in the proposition and it is up to the people of Thief River Falls to be on the job to watch for their opportunity. A canning factory would without a question be a splendid agency for greater agricultural returns and would add materially to the prosperity of the community. Farmers would welcome the enterprise as another opportunity to branch out in their farming program, especially inasmuch as crop failures are seldom experienced in the raising of peas. Decidedly profitable returns are being realized nearly every year by farmers of other communities where there is a factory to care for the crop.

The vegetable canning industry in Minnesota is new, altho there are already twenty-nine canning factories in the state, with two more being constructed and a third planned for next year, according to a recent editorial in the St. Paul Dispatch. During the past decade the annual pack has nearly quadruped itself. The factory at Le Sueur, which began as a $10,000 enterprise and now is rated as a $1,600,000 corporation, is turning out 175,000 cans of corn daily and during the pea season had a daily pack of 150,000 cans.

Developed in Minnesota to the extent that it is in Wisconsin the vegetable canning industry would prove a great stimulate to agriculture, the Dispatch continues.—A yield of $150 an acre from peas is not rare. A Minnesota grower this year harvested seventeen tons of sweet corn from three acres. Five hundred to 600 cans of corn per ton are the usual returns. It would not be surprising if the next ten years should see the industry enlarged to several times its present capacity in Minnesota.

VISIT THE SCHOOLS

The week of November 17-23 has been set aside as American Education Week. The week will be appropriately celebrated locally, as announced elsewhere in this issue. Every parent and taxpayer in Thief River Falls should participate in this celebration by visiting school. Every parent may well use Education Week as the opportunity to start a regular visiting program for the entire year.

Among the many reasons why parents should visit the schools are:

To keep in touch with the work of their children.

To encourage the teachers.

To get first-hand information about the work of the school.

To show their willingness to cooperate with the administration of the school.

For the moral effect it will have on the pupil to know that parents and teachers are pulling together in his training and discipline.

To become acquainted personally with teachers and principals.

To learn at first-hand the conditions under which their children live in school.

To learn the problems children must meet, course of study, easy studies, difficult studies, time schedules, and so on.

Some of the things to observe upon visiting school are:

The sanitary condition of the school building.

The general discipline and management of the school.

The attitude of the teacher toward the children.

The attitude of the children toward the teacher.

The size of the classes.

The supply of supplementary material as maps, dictionaries, etc.

Information which parents might well seek might include:

What parents can do to help the schools.

Whether any bad habits have been noted in pupils.

What is the general school success of the child.

What are the qualifications demanded of the teaching force.

General policies of the school department.

Specific facts about parents' own children.

Per capita cost as compared with that of other cities.

Whether the child is working up to his full capacity.

The effectiveness of the schools of a community depends largely upon the interest that the people take in them. In a community where parents visit the schools, become acquainted with the teachers and learn all that they can about the conditions under which the teachers and pupils work, there is likely to be better schools than in the community where no parent ever steps inside the schoolhouse door.

A membership campaign has been started by the Commercial club of this city, and an effort is made to bring business and professional men, laborer, and farmers of the community into the ranks of this organization which is a tremendous agency in furthering the best interests of the city and community. This organization is doing a splendid work in calling the attention of people outside of this favored section to the possibilities awaiting them here, and in this the non-member has been a beneficiary together with the member.

The Commercial club is a Thief River Falls club and you should take pride in its welfare. A resume of the club's activities in the past will convince anyone that it has been of inestimable service. With a greater membership still more can be done. In numbers there is strength.

The poorhouse is a vanishing institution, according to statistics. That is because those who drink the stuff they make now need only the services of an undertaker.

Will our troubles never cease! Soon after the election congress opens.

It is to be regretted that not a larger number of Thief River Falls citizens turned out to hear the excellent program given in this city by the Welsh Male chorus last week. It was an opportunity to hear the best of its kind in music which is seldom offered here, and still the auditorium could have seated an audience twice the size that present. Appreciation of the better things should warrant a large patronage to such an event, which was brought to this city at a considerable expense, and people who are always prone to deplore the fact that nothing worth while comes to this city ought rather to encourage those who sponsor such programs by attending them when they are presented here.

Now that the children are back at school again, what are de doing to encourage them? Or are we doing anything at all?

Possibly the children, irresponsible in their youth, do not expect anything from us, but that does not excuse us in the least. They are entitled to our moral and spoken encouragement in their efforts to secure an education that will fit them for successful stations in life. A few years hence they will be able to understand what we do or are not doing to aid them today.

Will they consider that we did, or that we didn't? It would be well for many fathers and mothers to check up on themselves in this respect.

CANNED GOODS

The people of the United States are going to have another special "week."

This time it is "Canned Foods Week" and it will be observed the week of November 8 to 15.

Forty-seven states, it is recounted, have planned for the observance to show the superiority of the United States as a producer, exporter and consumer of canned foods.

Few of us have ever realized the importance of canned goods. Upon this comparatively new factor in our national life has been built some of our greatest achievements.

There's the tourist camp, for instance. The tourist camp can trace its rapid rise to a position of importance in the life of every tin can tourist to canned goods. No tourist camp is possible without it.

Anyone can readily imagine how dull and uninviting touring would be without a certain amount of canned goods to give life to the party.

Really, the dependence which we as a people have come to put in canned goods is too little appreciated.

WEEKLY SERMON

Following is the second of a series of sermons by Thief River Falls pastors, this one by Rev. E. H. Kreidt, pastor of the St. John's Lutheran church:

"For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." John 3, 16.

"The devil knows no greater trick than to make sinners believe that God HATES them, when, in fact, God LOVES them. For what is this world that God loves so marvelously that He gives His Son to die for it in order to save it? It is a world of Sinners. Yet all the sin and iniquity and enmity of which the world was and is guilty could not kill God's love for it. The wicked world could and did kill God's only Son, but it could not and did not kill God's saving love. Whosoever (O blessed whosoever) learns to believe in that burning love of God for sinners and makes the crucified Savior his Savior by faith, shall not perish, no matter how vile he may be, but shall escape death and have everlasting life.

"A young soldier was shot on the battlefield, and a comrad dragged him aside to die. He shut his eyes, and all his past life flashed before him. In the gayety of life he had forgotten his God and Savior. Now his many sins, like so many weights, seemed to sink him deeper and deeper into everlasting perdition. Then the only legacy which his pious mother left him came to mind. It was this thrilling Bible-verse of God's love for sinners which his mother had taught him at her knee. He caught at it as at a saving rope let down from heaven: 'Lord, I believe,' he cried, 'save me for Jesus' sake or I perish.' That was his dying prayer, a prayer never uttered by a penitent soul in vain. He did not perish: God's love in the crucified and risen Christ saved him.

"We—you and I—are a part of the world that God loved so marvelously in His dear Son. Do we believe, that is, do we trust and depend on that saving love to enter into the mansions of glory? If so, then shall we live with God in the blessed hereafter; then shall we live for God here."

BEET SHIPPING IS STARTED THIS WEEK

About 3,000 Tons Piled Here to be Shipped to Mason City—Mexicans Leaving

Shipping of about 3,000 tons of beets piled along the Soo tracks here is started this week, arrangements having been made to ship four carloads to the refinery in Mason City, Ia., this week, according to County Agent J. J. McCann who is in charge of the field work in this community. David Wigand of Grand Forks, who has charge of the entire Red River Valley territory, was in the city Monday making arrangements for the loading of beets at the various stations in the district. All the beets will be shipped by Dec. 15, it is reported.

If the farmers in the vicinity of Thief River Falls are paid $8 a ton as present indications point to, they will receive approximately $25,000, out of which will be taken about $30 an acre for labor, seed and transportation charges. Between 250 and 300 acres were allotted in this vicinity this year. A large part of the labor money is left right here in the community.

All the beets have now been dug, altho a portion remains to be hauled, and a number of Mexican laborers are preparing to leave soon. About 50 laborers and their families leave this week, most of them going to San Antonio and El Paso, Texas. Some will stay until later in the season and a few intend to spend the winter here. A large number of laborers will be required in this territory next year to take care of the increased acreage. The Mexicans state that they find conditions here favorable and practically all of them plan to return next year.

Applications for 1925 sugar beet acreage are continuing to come in regularly, states Mr. McCann, who received a supply of contracts from the Red River Sugar company. Bids on the sugar beet warehouse for the company's factory at East Grand Forks will be opened Nov. 11.

Rural Route Patrons Vote Regarding Proposed Change

Patrons of the star routes known as Germantown and Kratka routes out of Thief River Falls and of the proposed route out of Mavie are now voting on the matter of whether they wish to be served by a star or free delivery route. Letters and questionaires have been sent out by Major A. E. Otto of Bemidji, post office inspector.

These routes were this fall declared established but considerable controversy resulted and the order was later cancelled, pending further investigation of the situation by the department. In an effort to ascertain the wishes of the patrons served by the routes a vote is being taken on the matter.

The proposed change would eliminate the post offices of Rhoda, Kratka, Highlanding and Germantown, the first three of which are located in Pennington county and the last named in Marshall county. New routes have been established this fall out from Oklee, Plummer and Hazel.

Believes Kirby O. K.

The publishers of The Times have been asked to publish the following letter which was published in a local paper last week:

"Having noticed an article in the Times concerning S. R. Kirby, I can not understand how it is that a coroner's jury could say that this man's death came from Kirby's treatment and I do believe that they as men would never of brought in such a verdict if they had the true facts given them. As this man had consulted other doctors before coming to Kirby and was told that he had a cancer and as I understand that Kirby called it the same, being a cancer of the rectum. And do we know what a cancer means? And one thing certain this man didn't die under Kirby's care.

County Auditor Gets Supply Of 1924 Big Game Licenses

A supply of big game licenses has been received at the office of County Auditor T. P. Anderson and will be ready for distribution tomorrow to hunters who make application for them. The big game season opens on Monday, Nov. 10, and continues thru Nov. 20. The number of big game licenses issued in this county usually is not very large, according to the auditor. A charge of $2.25 is made for this form of license.

The partridge season closed last Friday and a number of hunters report fairly good results of their activities, altho they are not as numerous as predicted early in the season, which caused the governor to issue the order limiting the season to 15 days. The duck season remains open until the first of the year.

Fisher and mink may be taken from Nov. 15 to March 1, muskrat from March 1 to April 30, skunk from Oct. 15 to March 1; gray, black or fox squirrel, bear and snowshoe rabbit from Oct. 16 to March 1.

It is unlawful to hunt mink or muskrat with a dog; to take possession or disturb any otter or beaver; to take muskrats in any form except by trapping; to destroy or molest any mink or beaver house, den or dam; to injure or destroy any muskrat house or den.

So far only 225 small game licenses have been issued, compared to 530 at the corresponding time last year.

The Farmers and Merchants State bank of Inkster, Grand Forks county, North Dakota, which went on special deposit a year ago has reopened for business. The Farmers and Merchants State bank of New Ulm closed July 26 when too much poor paper was found in the institution, plans to reopen next week. Depositors have agreed to a 35 per cent reduction in their deposits and the stockholders have paid an assessment of 100 per cent.

Sheep Survey Is Started In Red River Valley Counties

A sheep survey of the Red River valley is now being taken in Marshall county by Sherman Johnson, a member of the farm management division of the University Farm, St. Paul. The survey will also include Polk, Kittson and part of Norman counties. The survey is to ascertain the number of sheep kept, the amount spent for caring for them and the income from the wool and lamb crops. Only farms which have a minimum of 25 sheep are included.

An examination of the 1924 assessment of Pennington county discloses that there are only a few more than 5,000 sheep in the county. A number of farmers here made applications for western sheep thru the Agricultural Credit corporation but owing to the high prices asked by Montana breeders the order was cancelled.

A total of 31,000 sheep have been placed on farms thru the Northwest by the Credit corporation, according to an announcement by M. O. Grangaard, vice president in charge of the mixed farming program. The animals were distributed, mostly in flocks from 50 to 150, among 86 communities. Twenty-four thousand head went into North Dakota, 2,000 to northern Minnesota, 1,000 to South Dakota and 4,000 into Montana. The corporation received applications for 70,000 sheep, indicating the widespread interest in the program of aiding diversification. The 31,000 animals, however, were all that the corporation could buy of sufficiently high quality and at prices that the farmer could afford to pay. A shipment to Warren ordered by Marshall county farmers was refused on the grounds that the sheep were not up to the standard desired.

Mammoth Cabbage

The productivity of peat soil is fairly demonstrated in the case of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Surmo of Holt, who raised a cabbage head, weighing 23 pounds and measuring 40 inches in circumference, on peat soil, without special fertilizers. The plants were froze down in June and came back from the roots, but despite their setback, many reached enormous size, the dimensions mentioned being the largest. Another fact worthy of mention is that the heads did not crack as is usually the case in overgrowth and were as firm of texture as medium sized heads.

Old Resident Passes.

John Konickson, 55, well known farmer residing six miles southeast of St. Hilaire, died October 23, after an illness of a few days, according to an item in the St. Hilaire Spectator last week. He had been troubled to some extent with a heart ailment and a few days before his death he was thrown off a plow, receiving bruises which aggravated his trouble. Complications resulted in pneumonia which caused his unexpected death.

Konickson, who was a native of Sweden, came to this country in the early eighties and lived for a time in Wisconsin, the family moving to River township, Red Lake county, in 1899. He is survived by his widow and five children, all under 15 years of age. A brother, August, lives at Erskine.

Funeral services were held a week ago Saturday, Rev. A. F. Nelson and Rev. C. M. Grimsrud of St. Hilaire officiating.

A large circle of friends extend their sympathy to the surviving family.

"Buddies" Invited to Crookston

All "Buddies" are invited to participate in the carnival fun of the Nels T. Wold post No. 20, of the American Legion at Crookston November 7, 8, 10, and 11, according to a letter received by The Times from P. F. Schmidt of the Crookston post. Arrangements are being made to show out of town members a pleasant time and it is expected that a number of Thief River Falls Legionaires will join the Crookston veterans in their frolic. "Buddies" showing membership cards in good standing from their local post will be given free entrance and special attention inside.

Powerhouse Ready Soon

The new powerhouse of the Red River Power company at Red Lake Falls will probably be ready to start operations by Monday, Nov. 10, states the Red Lake Falls Gazette. At present the water in Red Lake river is so low that it is hardly to be expected that there will be any more than enough to operate one of the two 375 kilowatt generators.

Making Plans For Convention

Stuart McLeod, prominent Goodridge dairyman, was a caller in Thief River Falls Monday making arrangements for the annual convention of the Red River Valley Dairymen's association which will be held in this city Nov. 19 and 20. Mr. McLeod is president of the association.

Tallakson, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church, will leave on Nov. 21 or 23 for Chicago to attend a celebration commemorating the fifth anniversary of the union of the St. Paul's English Lutheran and St. John's Lutheran churches, the latter of which Mr. Tallakson served for five years prior to his coming to Grand Forks.

Live and Dressed Poultry Wanted

We will need a lot of dressed turkeys, geese and ducks to fill our orders for the Thanksgiving trade. We would advise marketing only the very best birds at this time, as No 2 birds are a drudge on the market, and they probably would be a No. 1 bird for the Christmas market. Turkeys may look fat, but would advise examining them carefully before killing.

We can handle them alive just as well if you do not care to dress them.

Get our prices before selling elsewhere as you are sure of getting the right weight and grade when selling to us. We need a lot of both kinds, so when you are ready to sell, bring them in, see them weighed and graded and know what you are getting when you bring your poultry to town.

We also have barrels for sale, and we want to buy clover seed of all kinds.

Yours very truly,

Peterson-Biddick Co.

The Alumnus

He was an alumnus and proud of it, and as he stood in the hall of the school where he had once been a student, a lump arose in his throat. He remembered himself,—a little freshman—green, but full of enthusiasm. The memory of the sophomore year and the junior year made the lump grow larger and a choking sensation gripped him as the vision of his senior year unfolded itself.

What a fool he had been to content himself with only a passing average for those four years! Why hadn't he worked a little bit harder? Oh, if he only could begin again! The recollection of the things he had planned when a freshman to achieve during the later years, but had soon forgotten, came back vividly. Tears filled his eyes as he thought of the disgrace suffered just before graduation. Why had he done it? Why had he let thoughtless moments mar his whole school career? He could not answer that himself.

A few moments later, he left the building, his proudness superseded by a new courage and determination. He resolved that now every minute should count and that in college he would lay a foundation that would survive.—West Weekly.

In Public Speaking Class

Oscar—"Can't we debate on light wine and beer?"

Mr. Mickelson—"That's rather stale isn't it?"

In Physical Training

Coach Thune to Ole—"Ole, what was your excuse, N. G. or O. K.?"

GAME FOR DISTRICT TITLE WITH EAST G. FORKS NOVEMBER 11

Last Game of Season to See All Regular Players in Action—Real Battle Assured

On Armistice Day the Lincoln high school football team is to play the East Grand Forks aggregation on the home field. This game is to be for the district championship. The local pigskin chasers have lost the last two games played with the boys from the West. One game was lost down there two years ago. They defeated a team that the locals thought worthy of state honors, but their hopes were blasted when Hayes' men played havoc with them, winning by a score of 36-0. East Grand Forks defeated the locals a second time a year after that by a score of 27-7.

This year, however, the locals have developed a first rate aggressive team playing a high class game of football. The team held the Crookston eleven to a 12-12 tie. That same Crookston team beat Bemidji 12-0.

Of course, East Grand Forks has a very strong team, but the locals are determined that East Grand Forks shall fall by the wayside, in this way they think they can successfully end the season of football. Another thing which is going to make the locals fight and that is that most of the men on the team are playing their last game under the colors of Lincoln High.

The day being a National holiday on which the game is to be played will offer an opportunity for the business men of the city to witness the contest. At the last game with Mahnomen here were only a handful of students and hardly any business men. Last year the high school Athletic association made a little more than expenses and with this money they were able to purchase new outfits for the players. If there is a good crowd at this game there will be bright prospects of a balance on the right side of the ledger this year also.

LaFollette Wins in Mock Election Held in School

Students of today are the men of tomorrow, says an old proverb. Perhaps the proverb uses different words but the underlying meaning is the same. In order to make the students of today good American men of tomorrow, a mock election was held on Tuesday. Sample ballots were used, but they were exactly like the ones on which the people voted during the day of election.

The election was carried on similar to the real election inasmuch that each class had two clerks and three judges. It was the duty of the clerk to register the voters and the judges had to do the counting. Right before the election there were many arguments for and against the three leading candidates for the presidency, some of these grew to be quite heated, especially among the girls. But no case of violence has yet been heard of. At present there are no possibilities of any such thing happening.

The returns have been compiled and are herewith submitted. LaFollette is seen to be leading Coolidge by a margin of ten votes. LaFollette has 143 and Coolidge has 133. Davis comes in third with 24. If the school is to be taken as a judge of the state, Magnus Johnson is to retain his job as U. S. Senator. Magnus cleaned up on Schall with a lead of 37 votes. Schall received 117, and Magnus 154. The next Governor according to the school is Ted. Christianson. He received 144 and Olson 135.

Following is the number of votes polled by the two leaders for the rest of the two tickets:

Republican

Lieut. Governor—Nolan	142
Sec. of State—Holm	154
Attorney Gen.—Hilton	139
Warehouse Comm.—Matson	143
Chief Justice S. C.—Johnson	181
Assoc. Justice Sup. C.—Fraser	138
Assoc. Justice Sup. C.—Holt	86

Farmer-Labor

Lieut. Governor—Holmes	153
Sec. of State—Stageberg	105
Attorney Gen.—Sullivan	140
Warehouse Comm.—Smith	141
Chief Justice S. C.—Wilson	111
Assoc. Justice S. C.—Anderson	152
Assoc. Justice S. C.—Stone	98

In the county ballot, the representative for the Ninth district is to be Knude Wefald, who won from his opponent by fourteen votes. Wefald received 151. Day and Wahlal were the winners for representatives of the sixty-fifth district. A. Eklund had no opposition for clerk of district court, he won by 271. In judge for probate court, Backe defeated Wold by a large majority. For county commissioners McGinn and Roy won from their opponents.

As a whole the city of Thief River Falls will vote practically the same as the students as nearly every student will vote the same way as his parents.

About 215 students voted. The ones taking English I, Ancient, Modern and American History were allowed to vote.

CROOKSTON AGGIES BEAT LOCALS 39-0

The Aggies Held Local's Patch-Line-up Scoreless During Entire Game

Fighting against all odds the Lincoln high school was overwhelmingly defeated by the Crookston Aggies Saturday afternoon, on the latter's field. The Lincolnites were playing with a patched line-up, in fact half of the team was out of the game on account of injuries, but nevertheless that same old fighting spirit which the boys have displayed in all their games was again evident—they fought for all that was in them, but in vain. The Aggies were too much for them.

Coach Thune surmounted the difficulties of the loss of the regulars by putting in new men, but still the locals could not hold and the farmer boys slipped over counter after counter until the score mounted to the point of 39, then the whistle blew, ending the game. Even though the score was 39 to 0, the circumstances were such that the Aggies should have scored more, but could not since the locals were imbued with that fighting spirit of "never-say-die."

The game on November 11 will, however, see all the regulars in the line-up cocked and primed to play the game of their lives. More about this game will be seen elsewhere in this issue.

Jokes

Teacher—"Now, Hans, give me a sentence containing a noun and an adjective."

Hans—"?????[illegible]."

Fritz—(whispers) "The teacher is a great ass."

Teacher—(reprovingly to Fritz) "Hush, he will hear and will think of it himself."

All set irate Father—"I never heard of such nerve—a man in your position and a king for the hand of my daughter."

Suitor—"Oh, my position isn't so very bad. I have a window on one side and a door on the other."

Hallowe'en Celebrated By H. S. in Masquerade

The first all-school social event was given at the high school last Friday evening in the form of a masquerade. Students in all sorts of costumes varying from that of a toe dancer to that of a college tough paraded the halls all the time, in fact there was something going on every minute, the universal enthusiasm of the crowd kept the things moving.

Various rooms were decorated by the four classes and the Normal students, as each class was called upon to do that. These furnished the entertainment of the evening. Judging from the noise coming from these various rooms the merrimakers were enjoying these shows immensely. There was a circus with its fortune tellers, dancers, a fat and a tall lady, trips thru weird places, and many contests in which the students took an active part.

After everyone had been to all the amusements of the classes they journeyed down into the gymnasium, where again they were entertained by the several inter-class contests and a ghost story.

Following these light refreshments were served from the home economics room, after which the party broke up.

Aggies Win

In one of the hardest fought games ever played between the two schools, the Northwest school team defeated the Crookston high school football eleven, by a score of 16 to 6 Wednesday of last week. In the Aggie line-up was Elmer Miller of Erie, right guard who also played against the locals Saturday.

Attending Northwest School

Among the 18 Marshall county youths attending the Northwest Agricultural school at Crookston, Einar Hornseth and Josephine Nabben give their addresses as Thief River Falls. Others are Ray Magneson, Edna Peterson, Oliver Peterson and Wesley Sheldrew of Grygla, and Naomi Forder, Gladys Huartron, Einar Loven and Emma Nelson of Gatzke.

The best time of the moon to quit a bad habit is right now.

Local Educators Attending Convention of Educational Assn. in St. Paul this Week

I. T. Simley, superintendent of the city schools, Ole R. Sande, superintendent of the county schools, Maude L. Johnson, music instructor in the city schools and Minnie Leavitt, Loretta Kopriva, Alice Stapleton and Lawrence Mickelson of the high school staff, are this week in attendance at the annual convention of the Minnesota Educational association which opened in St. Paul today continuing thru Saturday. Owing to the fact that all the local teachers attended the meeting of the Northwestern division in this city recently attendance at the state convention was not encouraged.

Mr. Simley is a delegate to the convention as president of the Northwestern division and will also attend the meeting of the State Athletic board, of which he is a member as chairman of district committee.

Mr. Sande, together with Miss Myrtle Roseland of Newfolden, Supt. Erha Pouliot of Red Lake Falls and Supt. G. A. Sanberg of Crookston, represents the Northern division in the assembly of the state association.

Miss Johnson is chairman of the music section and Miss Leavitt is scheduled to take part in the program of the library division.

One fine thing about inheriting money is that it doesn't require any brains or energy.

The federal prohibition commissioner says 90 percent of the bootleg liquor is poison. The mortality rate indicates his figures are low.

The newspapers told recently of a man who dropped dead from laughing at a joke. Fortunately, the joke was not printed.

If he's one of the common people, he's "busted" when he goes broke, and if he's in the capitalist class, he is just "financially embarrassed."

The high school girls who use cosmetics and the high school boys with their first long trousers doubtless object to the reference to the schools as cradles of liberty.

POTATO SHIPPING COMPLETED HERE

Total of 22 Cars Have Been Shipped by Exchange From Thief River Falls Station

Shipping of the 1924 potato crop by the Pennington County Potato Growers' association from the station in this city was completed yesterday, 22 carloads having been shipped, according to Manager Liden. Seven cars have been shipped from points along the Electric line and a considerable quantity from St. Hilaire and Hazel. A portion of the crop is being stored on the farms. A crew of half a dozen men have been busy at the local shipping station the past five weeks, the last car being loaded yesterday.

The 3000th car of potatoes received by the Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange went on the record, October 31, according to word from the state office at St. Paul.

Thus, the Exchange in its first month of heavy operation handled more potatoes than has any other firm, corporation or individual. All daily records for handling potatoes were shattered twice during the month; once on Oct. 20, when 231 cars were received and again on Oct. 27, when 236 passed through the Exchange. The largest previous day's business was handled by the Maine Exchange last year when 188 cars were received.

Of the 3000 cars loaded, the Exchange has placed a large number in local and terminal storage and thousands of bushels are being held on the farms of members. "We are making no statements as to the amount of potatoes we have in storage," says Leo H. Wright, director of the association's warehouse department, "because if that fact is definitely known, our selling operations will be greatly handicapped."

Membership in the Exchange continues to show a steady growth. As October closed, the 13,500th contract was signed and prospects were that the 14,000 mark would be passed before Nov. 15.

With him went two natives of Scotland who were also deported to their native land as was also a native of Russia, all having been arrested near the Canadian border and charged with entering the United States illegally.

LAWYERS EMPLOY D. B. C. GIRLS

When Atty. E. W. Burke, of Max, needed a $100-a-month stenographer recently, he wrote Dakota Business College, Fargo. Nellie Kleinjan was sent. Atty. H. E. Haney of Belfield also recently wired D. B. C. for a steno, and secured Irene Lieffring, who had finished her course that very day.

Positions like these lead to court reporting, the highest paid stenographic work. Nearly every Dakota court has employed "Dakotans."

PENNINGTON WHEAT GETS HIGH RATING

Samples Entered in State Test Show Protein Contents of 11.08 Per Cent

Results of the state-wide survey of the 1924 wheat crop have just been published by the state department of agriculture and shows that spring wheat raised in Pennington this year contains an average of 11.08 per cent of protein, as judged from the seven samples submitted by County Agent J. J. McCann.

Last August county agents and other persons designated in counties without agents furnished the state department with samples of wheat taken from fields well distributed thruout the county. These samples were tested at the state mill to determine the milling quality. The protein of wheat is a very good index to the baking quality of the flour which can be milled from the wheat. A total of 647 samples from 47 counties were sent in. Analysis of the spring wheat revealed an average protein content of 11.50 per cent for the state. Of the samples 31 per cent contained between 11 and 12 per cent and an equal number between 12 and 14 per cent, the remainder being below 11 per cent.

Winter wheat samples, only 51 in number, averaged 10.18 per cent. Five hundred of the 590 samples of spring wheat were Marquis, showing the predominance of this variety thruout the state. Twenty-six of the winter wheat varieties were of the Minturki variety. Nearly all the samples this year consisted of plump, heavy kernels.

The Marshall county samples averaged 10.63 per cent protein, Polk county 10.85, Red Lake 10.10, Mahnomen 10.70, Clearwater 10.50, and Becker 12.13. In comparison Pennington county wheat had higher protein contents than that grown in neighboring counties.

Differences in locality and environmental conditions, including seasonal changes are usually responsible for the the variation in protein content, according to the department. There is some sentiment in favor of inclusion of the percentage of protein in wheat grading standards, says the bulletin.

PARENT-TEACHERS ASS'N HEARS TALK BY SCHOOL NURSE

Importance of Health Work Emphasized—Annual Election Next Meeting, Dec. 2

An interesting program was given at the second regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers' association at the high school Monday night.

The program opened with a piano solo by Miss Ariel Kinghorn, which was followed by a dance drill by the "Nosegays", executed by eight little girls who participated in the Musical Revue of the Legion Auxiliary recently. The group was directed by Mrs. F. S. Patton. Cleon Bottelson, who made his initial appearance as a soloist was well received. He has a musical voice and enunciates clearly.

"Health Work in the Schools" was the subject discussed by Miss Ida Dahl, school nurse. A well trained nurse Miss Dahl has had a number of years experience in nursing, emphasizing the type of work necessary in the community nursing service.

In speaking of the various phases of health work Miss Dahl stressed on the great importance of preventing the spread of contagious diseases. As was pointed out in last week's issue of The Times, Thief River Falls is enjoying splendid health conditions at the present time there being no cases of contagious disease. This is largely due to the strict program of quarantining and taking all possible health precautions particularly among the school children. It was pointed out that parents can co-operate effectively with the health workers by not sending the children to school when sick, as it is better that one child misses a week or more than the entire group of pupils occupying a room be infected.

Miss Dahl's talk brought out expressions by Supt. I. T. Simley, Dr. O. F. Mellby and Principal Morris Bye, who also emphasized the importance of health work in the schools of the city.

The next meeting of the association is scheduled to be held December 2, when the annual election of officers will take place. Music and other features of the program will be provided by high school students. Present officers of the organization are: Mrs. R. Arnold, president; Morris Bye, first vice president; Supt. O. R. Sande, second vice president; Miss Edna Larson, secretary; Mrs. J. H. Hermanson, treasurer.

Grain Movement Continues Heavy to Duluth Terminals

Grain receipts at Duluth and Superior elevators during October amounted to more than 58,900,000 bushels, far exceeding the total of any previous month at either the Twin Ports or Minneapolis and establishing a record for the entire northwest. Minneapolis previously held the record for grain receipts, the highest mark having been recorded in December, 1915.

The embargo stopping grain shipments Oct. 27, was lifted Saturday and grain is again moving to the Head of the Lakes, altho slowly, the congestion of grain cars at the terminal not being completely cleaned up. There were 15,000 loaded grain cars in transit for Duluth and Superior when the embargo was declared effective of which 8,675 were cleared up. Practically all available trackage between this city and Duluth was filled with cars. About 350 cars were held in the Soo yards here Tuesday morning. Only a very small percentage of the grain is billed to the Minneapolis market.

Every available car has been put into service on the local division and an unusually large crew is being employed during the peak of the grain movement.

Patients to Enjoy Radio

Bids for the installation of the radio equipment for the Oakland Sanatorium are being received this week by the committee in charge and the work of making final solicitations for the fund is being rushed in order that the patients may have the use of the radio by Thanksgiving. Only about $150 remains to be raised, nearly $400 having already been subscribed. The equipment planned for includes a central receiving and amplifying station and head phones for each bed. This is conceded to be one of the finest things that welfare workers have done for sanatorium patients and the W. C. T. U. which is sponsoring the move is to be complimented for its efforts, and particularly Mrs. J. O. Sether who has taken full charge of the work.

There may not be as many stumps as there once were, but the supply of stumpers seems inexhaustible.

MANY POLITICAL TALKS HEARD ON EVE OE ELECTION

Farmer-Labor and G. O. P. Campaigners Plead Cause of Parties Before Voters

Firing the final guns in the 1924 campaign a number of candidates and campaigners addressed voters of Thief River Falls and Pennington county on the last days preceding election day. Among those who addressed audiences in this city the past week were Knud Wefald, Farmer-Labor candidate for reelection to congress from the Ninth district, Sunday afternoon at the Princess theatre; William Holderby of Chicago and Ole Sageng of Dalton, candidate for Republican nomination for U. S. Senator in the primaries but defeated by Thomas D. Schall, Saturday night at the final Republican rally at the auditorium; and Mrs. W. J. O'Toole of St. Paul, at a well attended political meeting of women at the Women's Republican headquarters, Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. O'Toole talked briefly on the founding of the constitution and against radicalism in politics. She also dwelt on government ownership of public utilities, denouncing such measures. Qualifications of the candidates on the ticket were discussed more or less in detail, and Mrs. O'Toole began at the head of the ticket with the presidential candidates and went on down the list, touching briefly and concisely the characteristics of each.

A good sized audience heard Holderby and Sageng, the former of whom assailed the Democratic party and LaFollette's followers in a fiery oration and impressed upon voters the importance of reelecting President Calvin Coolidge at this time. Senator B. Howell of Nebraska was unable to fill his speaking engagements here on account of illness. Mr. Sageng, who is a calm and forceful speaker, impressed upon his hearers in a brief talk some of the issues of the national and state campaign, also urging support of the Republican ticket.

The Wefald meeting was well attended, the congressman pleading the cause of the Third party in the national campaign and the Farmer-Labor ticket in Minnesota. Mr. Wefald made an intensive campaign thruout the district and was heard by large crowds, proving him to be a popular speaker. The issues of the campaign were discussed in an interesting manner. The meeting was also addressed by Andrew Trovaton and O. A. Naplin.

Entertainments Will Be Given Under Auspices of S. of N. Lodge This Winter

The Howlett Sisters, a trio of entertainers sent out by the general extension division of the Minnesota university, will appear in a program in this city Dec. 11 under the auspices of the local Sons of Norway lodge. The troupe consists of a pianist, violinist and reader, each one an able artist and high class entertainer. The program will include original monologues, novelty trios, instrumental solos, musical readings and a dramatic sketch "Men, Music and Microbes."

On Feb. 21 a French Costume Revue will be shown in this city under Ceora B. Lanham's direction, also representing the extension division. Local talent will participate in an entertainment showing quaint customs and costumes of old France, national life and history, gay folk songs and folk dances, stories, sketches, plays and humor.

Both are entertainments of high order and will undoubtedly be awaited with much interest. They were secured thru D. A. Leonard, who was in the city two weeks ago.

State Legislators Are Questioned on Issues

President Reed of the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation recently addressed a letter to members and prospective members of the State Legislature, asking them to indicate their attitude toward proposed State and Federal constitutional amendments and other measures which, in view of the coming election, are engaging public attention.

The attitude of legislators and prospective legislators was sought on four different questions: (1) the proposed amendment to the state constitution giving the legislature power to impose a tax on gasoline, the proceeds to be used for road purposes; (2) the proposed amendment to the state constitution authorizing the establishment of state-owned terminal grain elevators at Minneapolis and Duluth; (3) the county area test plan for tuberculosis control; and (4) the proposed amendment to the federal constitution giving Congress the power to limit, regulate and prohibit the employment of persons under 18 years of age.

Latest returns from this survey are as follows: Seventy-one favored the gas tax amendment and three were against it; forty-one favored state-owned elevators—eight of them conditionally—and twenty-one were opposed; forty-three favored the area test for tuberculosis—eleven of them conditionally—and eight were opposed; twenty-six favored the labor amendment—four of them conditionally—and thirty-eight opposed it.

Norby, manager of the Thief River Valley Co-operative Poultry association, is one of the speakers scheduled to speak at the sixth annual Kittson County Poultry show, which is held at Lancaster today and tomorrow. The purpose of this demonstration will be to show the public the true nature of Scouting, that it teaches the boy to take care of himself.

Prichard Explains Bank Situation to Commercial Club at Luncheon Thurs.

Reopening of the closed Citizens State bank in this city would greatly affect the prosperity of the entire community, members of the Commercial club were told last Thursday by W. W. Prichard, Sr., reorganization manager. The plan of reorganization as set forth in these columns previously and thru letters distributed among depositors was thoroly explained by Mr. Prichard, who is doing a tremendous amount of work in effecting a reorganization of the institution. A great deal of the work so far has been done by Mr. Prichard, who is assisted by members of the depositors' committee of which E. O. Mogensen is chairman. The latter also made a few remarks stressing upon the importance of reopening, as relating to the community as a whole.

Mr. Prichard called attention to the misunderstanding of the matter on the part of many individuals who are prone to make ungrounded accusations and misstatements. He urged that everyone interested in the welfare of this community, whether directly connected with the closed bank or not, should become familiar with the real facts so as to properly understand the situation, stating that he or other members of the committee are at all times willing to go into the matter and explain it to any person calling for information.

Satisfactory results were reported in the reorganization work and the signing up of reduction agreements, which are being received by the committee regularly. Depositors who know the true facts and are familiar with the proposed plan of reopening as prepared by the state banking department are signing the agreements readily.

Persons who make misstatements regarding the bank situation and the reorganization work in a thoughtless manner, thus retarding the progress of the work, were severely scored by Mr. Prichard, who urged co-operation in the matter.

POULTRY CO-OP NOW HAS 1,200 MEMBERS

Thief River Valley Assn. Gets Returns from Egg Pool—Many Shipping Turkeys

Returns from the second egg pool were received last week by the Thief River Valley Co-operative Poultry association at the headquarters here. The total received by members for eggs shipped during the first two weeks in October is $2,204, according to Manager R. O. Norby. Checks are being distributed this week.

"The farmers who participated in the association's egg pool are well satisfied," declares Mr. Norby in giving the prices netted to members. Extra firsts brought 42 cents a dozen, firsts 32 cents and seconds 22, the only variation from the first pool being in the price received for seconds, which raised 1 cent a dozen. Altho the egg receipts are not very large at this season a considerable quantity comes in from the 25 receiving stations in the district. A station is started at Gatzke this week.

That the association is proving to be a popular enterprise among the farmers of this section is evidenced by the fact that the membership has now grown to approximately 1,200, Mr. Norby states. "Many producers join voluntarily without solicitation," he continued, "and indications are that it will be one of the strongest associations in the state."

Turkeys will be loaded at Thief River Falls tomorrow, Friday, until a refrigerator car is filled. Dressing of turkeys started at the headquarters in this city Monday, about 200 turkeys being picked Tuesday. Only turkeys weighing eight or ten pounds dressed for the Thanksgiving trade are accepted. Turkeys are being received at 22 stations outside this city, beginning yesterday and continuing thru Saturday, and it is expected that a large volume will be shipped as there is a large number of turkeys in the district, even tho the weather was unfavorable for hatching last spring.

Turkeys for Thanksgiving trade will not be received for freight shipments later than Nov. 12, altho they can be shipped by express, at a greater expense. It is expected that a considerable number of birds will be kept over for the Christmas trade.

The Northern Trading company of this city announces that a car of turkeys, ducks and geese will be loaded for the DeSota Creamery and Produce company on Nov. 15, 17 and 18.

Loading of a car of live poultry was completed here today by the Peterson-Biddick company, also of this city, evidencing a heavy poultry business at Thief River Falls this season.

Express shipments of poultry are light as yet, according to reports from the local office.

Skarning and Rein Coming Here Nov. 7

Thorstein Skarning, the world-famous accordion virtuoso, will once more appear in a concert in Thief River Falls, being booked for a concert at the Sons of Norway hall tomorrow, Friday night, under auspices of the local Sons of Norway lodge.

Mr. Skarning, who has given concerts here frequently in the past, comes this time with a greatly augmented company of entertainers, including the famous Nils Rein of Madison, Wis., whose violin playing has been likened to that of Ole Bull. This will be Rein's second visit to this city, having appeared in a concert here this summer when he was very well received by a large audience of enthusiastic hearers.

In addition to these high class artists the company also includes Mrs. Anna Skarning, soloist; Miss Merle Nelson, talented Swedish pianist; Berith Rokstad, "Kjerringa med Staven", comedienne; and the two Reinlisbachets, famous Swiss-Italian Alp accordion players.

A concert will be given by the company at Gatzke Saturday evening at 8 o'clock and at Grygla Sunday evening.

DAIRYMEN'S CONVENTION AND POULTRY SHOW NEXT WEEK

DAIRY EXPERTS WILL SPEAK AT MEETINGS HERE

Two-Day Session of Red River Valley Dairymen Here Next Wednesday and Thursday

SPEAKERS WILL DISCUSS MANY IMPORTANT TOPICS

Large Attendance From Entire Valley Assured—Club Arranges Reception

Dairy men from seventeen counties in Northwestern Minnesota will invade Thief River Falls next week when the Red River Valley Dairymen's association holds its 21st annual convention Nov. 19 and 20. Reports from all parts of the district indicate that this will be the largest gathering in the history of the organization and the officers have prepared a program of special interest and of much value to everyone interested in the dairy industry. It is expected that upwards of 500 delegates will attend the convention, farmers in the vicinity of Thief River Falls being especially urged to attend the programs. The association convened here in 1916.

Men whose names are well known in the state and nation because of their work in the interest of dairying will be present to take an active part in the proceedings. Among the speakers and their subjects are:

L. Jensen, Clearbrook, president Minnesota Dairymen's association, "Breeding and Developing a Dairy Herd on the farm."

A. J. McGuire, St. Paul, manager Minnesota Co-operative Creameries association, "Co-operative Marketing of Butter."

C. G. Selvig, superintendent Northwest School, Crookston, "The Red River Valley's Part in the World's Agriculture."

I. D. Wilson, dairy specialist, University of Minnesota, "Cow Testing Associations." An effort will be made to form a cow testing association in this county.

A. J. Kittelson, Crookston, assistant state leader boys' and girls' club work, "Dairy Calf Club Work in the Red River Valley."

O. M. Kiser, instructor of animal husbandry Northwest School, Crookston, "Feeding Trials at the Northwest Experiment Station."

A. A. McPheeters, general manager Minnesota Co-operative Poultry and Egg Exchange, "Co-operative Marketing of Poultry and Eggs."

Hans Anton, prominent Pennington county farmer, "Feeding the Dairy Herd for Profit."

Others who will address the gathering, are James Sorenson, St. Paul secretary of the Minnesota Creamery Operators' association; L. Lohnbakken, St. Cloud, state dairy and food inspector and Chris Heen, state dairy and food commissioner.

Leonard Houske of Halstad, secretary of the association, and Stuart McLeod of Goodridge, president, have made arrangements for the programs.

A reception and smoker will be tendered visiting delegates by the Commercial club of this city at the Sons of Norway hall Wednesday evening.

A number of contests will feature the sessions, in which the various creamery associations will compete.

Grain Shipments Thru This City Continue at High Mark Inspector Keating Reports

Rush of the Northwest's great wheat crop to market is still continuing at a maximum, with the terminals, particularly at the head of the Lakes, unable to handle the grain as fast as it can be shipped. A great deal of grain still remains in cars on the side tracks between Thief River Falls and Duluth and on the Wheat Line west of this city, according to P. J. Keating, superintendent of grain inspection at the local Soo yards. Three hundred cars were held in the yards here Sunday and it is likely that the grain receipts will continue heavy for another month, Mr. Keating states. Empties are on hand to meet the demand and in spite of this tremendous increase in business the railroads are able to accommodate shippers without transportation difficulties.

Never in the history of the local yards has there been such a large amount of grain inspected here, Mr. Keating declares. At the present time six state inspectors and four board of trade inspectors are on the job inspecting the grain coming thru Thief River Falls, the bulk of which is billed to Duluth for export on the Lakes. It is predicted that navigation will continue on the Great Lakes until about December 5.

Inspectors employed here are: For the state, P. J. Keating, superintendent, Hubert Jacobson, John Wengeler, Harold Arneson of Thief River Falls, Ray Dahl of Minneapolis, and Martin Olrickson of St. Paul; for the board of trade, Ole Johnson, Andrew Williams and Clarence Williams of Thief River Falls, and George Larson of Duluth. In former years four state and three board of trade inspectors have usually been employed at this point.

Revenue freight car loadings during the week ending Oct. 25 reached a new record, according to announcement by the American Railway association, to a large extent due to the unusually heavy grain receipts in the Northwest.

A huge gain is credited to Northwest farmers as a result of the advancing grain prices following election.

Graveling of State Road East of Hazel Is Started

Graveling of the four-mile stretch of state aid road east of Hazel, a part of the joining link of the Angle road and the Highlanding road, is begun this week under the direction of B. F. Umland, county highway engineer. The gravel is to be hauled by farmers in the community and the project pushed to completion as soon as possible.

Work on reshaping the high ditch grade, also on the road east of Hazel, by Contractor H. P. Lund had to be halted last Friday on account of heavy frost. Altho the job has not been completed the road is easily passable for traffic and is being used. It was planned to have this connecting link of the road system in Pennington county completed this fall but various delays prevented the contractor in finishing the last stretch.

Besides the four-mile project, there will also be graveling of a number of short stretches on the roads of the county where the gravel has been worn off, according to Mr. Umland.

Having the work done by local taxpayers instead of outside contractors, makes it possible to retain the money paid out for such county projects right in the community, it is pointed out by county officials.

50 CENTS PER TON INCREASE IN BEET GUARANTEE FOR '25

Farmers Here Sign up for Acreage With R. R. Sugar Co.—1924 Crop Being Shipped

Contracts for 1925 sugar beet acreage in this locality is now being signed up by County Agent J. J. McCann, representative of the Red River Sugar company, which is erecting a factory in East Grand Forks. Applications for about 2,000 acres in what is known as the Thief River Falls district have already been received, and of this acreage about 200 acres has been actually signed up after inspection and investigation by Mr. McCann.

It is urged that farmers enter their applications as soon as possible as a large acreage has been assured. A number of farmers are asking for from 25 to 50 acres.

The 1925 contract price guaranteed the growers is 50 cents above this year's guarantee of $5.00 a ton, namely $5.50 a ton, and indications are that a much higher price will be paid with the present tariff regulations assured. "The outlook for next year's beet crop is decidedly bright at this time," Mr. McCann declares. Acreage is now being signed up thruout the Red River Valley.

Four carloads of the 1924 crop were shipped from Thief River Falls to the Mason City factory last week and eight more are being shipped this week. The Prichard company's conveyor has been secured to load the beets into the cars, thus making it possible to load about six cars in a day. A number of piles some distance from the tracks have to be hauled again.

The first payment on this year's crop will be paid by the sugar company on Nov. 20, payments being made on beets hauled to the station before the 20th of the preceding month. A considerable amount will be received by local growers this month.

Two million people in the United States have bought Harold Bell Wright's popular novel, "When a Man's a Man." This means that six million people have read it, for book publishers figure three readers to each book purchased.

Today the famous story has been transferred to the screen by Principal Pictures Corporation, and will be shown at the Lyceum Theatre for two days, starting Sunday as a First National attraction.

John Bowers enacts the role of Lawrence Knight, later known in the Arizona mountains as "Honorable Patches." Marquerite de la Motte plays Helen Wakefield of Cleveland, Ohio, the young lady who is responsible for Larry's awakening to the futility of his indolent life. Robert Frazer is the beloved Wild Horse Phil of the Cross Triangle Ranch, and June Marlowe is his western sweetheart whose eastern education is fast estranging her from her western environment. Forrest Robinson is the venerable old Dean of the Cross Triangle Ranch, and Elizabeth Rhodes is his wife, Stella. Fred Stanton is the villanous cattle rustler, whose dupe, Yavapai Joe, is played by George Hackathorne.

The other important characters are played by Arthur Hoyt, Edward Hearn, Johnny Fox, Jr., Charles Mailes and Ray Thompson.

"When a Man's a Man" was photographed in the exact locale in which the story was written, Prescott, Arizona, and the real Cross Triangle Ranch of the story will be seen thruout the picture. Harold Bell Wright wrote this famous novel while on a camping trip in the mountains of Arizona, and when Principal Pictures decided to film the story, directed by Edward F. Cline, he and his troupe were shipped to Prescott. Many of the characters in the book still reside in the mile high city, and an abundance of technical detail and atmosphere was available to the actors in the picture.

Ensign Hicks, young peoples secretary of the northern division of the Salvation Army, was in the city Friday evening last week. He spoke at the hall on Main avenue.

OBSERVANCE OF EDUCATION WEEK THRUOUT COUNTY

Parents Urged to Visit Schools During Special Week Beginning Next Monday

PARADE OF ALL PUPILS IN CITY TO BE FEATURE

Seventeen Section Meetings Arranged by Supt. Sande—Local Men Will Speak

Next week, Nov. 17 to 23, is American Education Week and proper exercises for its observance have been arranged in the city and country schools thruout the county, in an effort to place before the people in the various school communities some definite information about their schools and the problems connected with educational work.

A feature of the observances of the week prepared in the local city schools under the direction of Supt. I. T. Simley will be a big parade in which all the grade pupils and high school students together with their teachers will take place during the early part of the week, announcements to be made in the schools prior to the event so that interested school patrons may be on hand to view the grand parade of the city's youth.

The visiting of schools is particularly stressed during this special week in both city and country schools. A short time each day will be devoted in all the schools to special programs in keeping with the topic assigned to that day of the week, as announced in last week's issue. Special visiting days have been assigned each school in the city, namely, Monday at the Knox, Tuesday at the Central, Wednesday at the Washington, Thursday at the Northrop and Friday at the High school, and Supt. Simley and the respective teachers urge that patrons visit these schools on the designated day if it suits their convenience.

Froehlich of the Commercial club, Friday; and Mrs. R. Arnold of the Parent-Teachers association, Saturday. Some one from the public speaking class of the high school will also address the show audience each evening.

County Superintendent Ole R. Sande announces that a series of community meetings have been arranged thruout the county, one in each of the 17 reading circle sections of rural districts. A group of local speakers have been secured by Mr. Sande to aid in addressing the various gatherings and some real interesting programs are assured. Dr. Mellby Heads Committee to Get Funds for Memorial

Dr. O. F. Mellby of this city has been appointed chairman of a committee to raise funds in Pennington county towards a memorial for Knute Nelson, late veteran senator from Minnesota. An effort will be made to raise the quota of $240 in this county which has been placed by the state committee, the drive starting next Monday. It is expected that thousands of Minnesota citizens will join to perpetuate his memory and that the people will be eager to partake in a popular tribute to their "Grand Old Man." Particularly those of Scandinavian descent are called upon to participate in this tribute to the sturdy Viking who, altho foreign born, made such an illustrious career as a representative of Minnesota during a long period of time.

LOCOMOTIVE PLAYS TRUANT WITH DISASTROUS RESULTS

In the old "horse and buggy" days, pedestrians and bystanders were occasionally furnished spectacular amusement when some restless old dobbin gave its owner a run for his money, but in these days of automotive transportation, a locomotive runaway is considered quite the stuff. Saturday night the engine of the Duluth passenger, while standing on the side track near the water tank in the Soo yards, decided to "paddle its own canoe" and ventured forth without its pilot. What might have happened if the turntable in the turntable pit had been in line with the track is good guessing material, but likely the locomotive would have found the stall in the car barn, or possibly the other side of the further wall. However the "table" had been left in a position at right angles with the track and the old steamer nosed into several feet of earth at the bottom of the four-foot pit, and patiently and submissively awaited the assistance of the crew to help it out of its embarrasing predicament.

Sunday morning, with the help of the round house and yard force the steam buggy emerged from its night's resting place, much ashamed of itself for not having chosen a safer route for its escapade and regretful for the trouble it had caused the crew, faithfully vowing never again to sally forth on so foolhardy a venture. Little damage was done to the engine and it will again be able to tote its usual load of passengers on its regular route.

CITIZENS JOIN IN OBSERVING ARMISTICE DAY

Thief River Falls Observes Day With Impressive Program at Auditorium

FORMER STATE CHAPLAIN IS PRINCIPAL SPEAKER

Snappy Talks Feature Banquet Of Legionaires—Warren Commander Pledges Support

Armistice Day was appropriately observed in Thief River Falls last Tuesday, the cold weather preventing a large attendance of out of town people at the exercises. The schools and stores of the city were closed and the auditorium was filled at the morning exercises at 10:30 a. m., under the auspices of the local American Legion post.

Rev. Joe Barnett of Red Wing former chaplain of the Minnesota department of the Legion, delivered the principal address at the auditorium, paying a glowing tribute to the defenders of the nation and pointing to the significance of the day. An appeal was made for the perpetuation of American ideals as put forth in the constitution. Rev. S. L. Tallakson of the Trinity Lutheran church read President Wilson's declaration of war message and Rev. J. T. Dixon of the Methodist church read the roll of honor.

A solo "Christ in Flanders", by Mrs. O. F. Mellby; "America the Beautiful" by the Woman's Club chorus; a prelude by the Legion Orchestra and singing by the audience under the direction of Maude L. Johnson, added greatly to the solemnity of the occasion. The usual silent tribute to the dead was given. The entire program being very impressive.

A demonstration by Troop No. 3 of the Boy Scouts followed the program, numerous applications of first aid and other scout work being executed.

Preceding the public program, the pupils of the six lower grades gathered at the auditorium at 9:30, where they were addressed by Rev. Charles Gerlinger, who dwelt upon proper patriotism, and by Rev. Barnett who spoke briefly. Rev. Barnett also spoke at Middle River in the afternoon.

In the evening a banquet, served by the Legion Auxiliary in the prettily decorated Legion club rooms, was given in honor of Rev. Barnett. A fine repast was served following which Morlan Bishop, in his usual cordial manner presided as toastmaster and called upon a number of speakers. Dr. C. A. Gunnarson, commander of the Warren post, responded by reviewing the activities of that post, stressing the value of community service in the Legion program. The Warren post with 15 members two years ago now has 114. Support in making the 1925 state convention here a huge success was pledged by the Warren Commander, who helped in getting it to this city. Rev. Barnett, who enlisted in the army as a private at the outbreak of the war, related in a most interesting style some of the incidents connected with his service, reflecting upon the humorous details, intermingled with the seriousness of war. Both speakers were given hearty applause.

Snappy talks were also given by Mayor J. S. Arneson, Commander Oscar Smith and Adjutant Ole Sande, predicting that Thief River Falls will entertain Minnesota Legionaires in royal fashion next year. A rising vote of thanks was accorded the Legion Auxiliary.

A large crowd attended the carnival dance at the auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lambert and son George returned Monday from Detroit where they were guests of relatives a few days and attended the wedding of Mrs. Lambert's brother, Jack Bush. They made the trip by car.

TRUCK UPSETS CAUSING DEATH OF LOCAL MAN

Carl Angell, Oil Dealer, Succumbs to Injuries Received In Spill Near Plummer

SIDE CRUSHED WHEN OIL TRUCK TIPS OVER

Wife in Hospital When Told of Husband's Mishap—Is With Him When End Comes

Carl Angell, partner operator of the White Eagle Oil company in this city, died at the Physicians hospital Tuesday evening, Nov. 11, at 7:30 o'clock, from injuries incurred in an accident three miles north of Plummer Tuesday noon when the oil truck he was driving overturned on the road.

According to a youth who witnessed the accident, Mr. Angell was going south toward Plummer when the truck suddenly skidded as if the driver had quickly applied the brakes, turning the truck completely around facing the north, and upsetting it. Mr. Angell extricated himself from the machine and walked a distance of 50 yards when he was overtaken by one A. J. Adams, who rushed him to the Physicians hospital here.

On examination by Dr. H. W. Froehlich it was found that his right arm was broken about three inches from the shoulder, his collar bone broken and the first three ribs of the right side were broken and crushed into his right lung. Mr. Angell realized his condition and said that he did not expect to live, but asked that information concerning him be withheld from his wife, who was also confined at the hospital. However, at Mr. Angell's request, the news was broken to his wife before he died and she was with him when the end came. During all his suffering he was conscious until the last few minutes.

The entire citizenry of Thief River Falls was grieved by the deplorable accident and extend their condolations to the bereaved wife and five children.

Mr. Angell was born in Norway, March 9, 1883. At the age of 17 years he came to America and settled first at Halma, Kittson county.

Eighteen years ago he came to this city and for a time operated a farm in Silverton township. About 16 years ago he was married to Miss Syneva Foss. Since coming to Thief River Falls he has been employed with the Oen Mercantile company, the Manhattan Oil company and recently as a partner with Ed. Ness in the operation of the White Eagle Oil station. In company with another man he opened the first motion picture house here.

In his years of residence here and elsewhere he has made a host of friends who deeply feel the tragedy which has befallen him. He was a member of the Odd Fellows and Sons of Norway lodges.

To mourn his death he leaves his wife, five children, Arthur, Sheila, Rodella, Effie and Clayton, ranging from three to 14 years, two brothers, Elias Angell of Kratka and Hans Angell of Detroit, Mich., and two sisters, Mrs. John Borgen of this city and Mrs. P. A. Kolden, formerly of this city and now of Iron Mountain, Mich.

The funeral will take place Saturday or Sunday afternoon from the Trinity Lutheran church, with Rev. S. L. Tallakson officiating.

State Executive Committee Of Legion Considers Plans For 1925 Convention Here

In announcing the dates of the 1925 state convention of the American Legion in Thief River Falls, The Times inadvertantly stated that Aug. 11, 12 and 13 had been selected by the state executive committee in session a short time ago. It should have been August 10, 11 and 12.

In the special news letter sent out from the Minnesota Legion headquarters this week it is stated that "special trains will be run to the convention city from all parts of the state, and Thief River Falls already has launched upon plans for entertaining the biggest throng that ever invaded that city."

O. R. Sande of this city, adjutant of the local post, and J. K. McCarthy of Detroit made reports on progress of arrangements for the Thief River Falls convention, at the executive committee meeting Nov. 2. It was decided that if special trains are run to Winnipeg, they shall be run after the close of the convention. It was also decided that the railroads should be asked to provide a one-way fare to and from Winnipeg, it being pointed out that this would be less than a one and one-half fare rate to Thief River Falls, and cheaper, even for those who did not continue on to Winnipeg.

There was some discussion, led by Comrade J. C. Sullivan of Minneapolis, who is chairman of the Thief River Falls convention drum and bugle corps committee, as to rules which shall govern the 1925 contests. A proposal that any winning organization shall be barred from competition the following year was laid before the committee and the executive voted to refer it back to Comrade Sullivan's group.

County Board Meeting Nov. 15

A meeting of the county board of commissioners will be held at the court house Saturday, Nov. 15, according to Auditor T. P. Anderson. A petition from a freeholder to transfer his lands to another school district will be heard at that time.

Chittick, P. O. Clerk, Leaves To Take Up Inspection Work

Thomas H. Chittick, senior clerk at the local post office who was recently appointed by the postal department as post office inspector, received word Monday to report for duty at Spokane, Wash., division headquarters, for which place he left Tuesday. He was not notified as to the exact territory that would be assigned to him but will be informed as to that upon his arrival in Spokane. The family expects to remain in Thief River Falls until the close of the school term, at least.

Mr. Chittick, who has served at the post office here since September 1909, has been a resident of this city since in 1905 and is a graduate of the Thief River Falls high school. He has at all times given excellent service and has made a large circle of friends thru his genial associations with post office patrons, who regret his leaving the office and community. With his long experience in the postal service Mr. Chittick is well qualified for the position, altho the requirements are difficult. There are only 500 inspectors in the country.

Mr. Chittick was superintendent of the Sunday school in the Methodist church for a number of years and a member of the board of deacons.

Trucks Operated Day and Night on Graveling Job

A fleet of more than 20 trucks is now in operation by the Reader Construction company of Minneapolis finishing the graveling of the new trunk highway, No. 32, between this city and St. Hilaire. The south end of the project was completed Friday night and work on the stretch just south from this city was started Monday. Gravel for this part of the road is taken from the Funnesdahl pit. From 12 to 16 loads during the 10-hour day is the average hauled by each truck driver. Crews are now working night and day and it is expected that the job will be finished in a week. The work is being done with unusual rapidity, it is declared.

After the completion of the St. Hilaire-Thief River Falls stretch the trucks will move on to Red Lake Falls to complete another project on Highway No. 32.

POULTRY SHOW HERE WILL BE GREATEST EVER

Prize Stock of Noted Fanciers Will be Entered in Display Here Next Week

PROFESSIONALS AND FARMERS TO EXHIBIT

Gathering of Dairymen at Same Time Will Assure Largest Attendance in History

That the eighth annual exhibition put on by the Pennington County Poultry association, which will be held in this city Nov. 19, 20 and 21, next week, will be the best in the history of the organization is indicated by the interest already shown in the event, according to those in charge. It is predicted that the exhibits this year will exceed those of former years both in quality and number, and that the attendance will be greater than ever before is assured by the fact that the convention of the Red River Valley Dairymen's association is held at the same time, which will bring hundreds to this city from all parts of the valley.

Requests for premium lists are coming in from all parts of the county and numerous outside points, according to Secretary J. J. McCann. Poultry fanciers from all over this section are preparing their birds for entry to compete for about $400 in premium money and the loving cups. Every year a growing number of outsiders bring their poultry to the show here.

Class For Farmers

The exhibition will be held at the auditorium in the same manner as in former years. Besides the professional class there is also the utility class, the latter of which takes the place of the what was known as the farmers' class last year. In the utility class it is not a question of fancy appearance but the usefulness of the bird. Four females and one male constitute a pen in that class.

Entries must be in the hands of the secretary before Nov. 18 and the birds may be placed on exhibition the following day. Exhibitors are requested to follow carefully the rules as presented in the premium lists. Five places will be awarded on cock, hen, cockerel, pullet and exhibition pens in practically all varieties. Liberal money awards are offered for individual birds, pens, for sweepstakes and specials.

The First and Peoples State bank of this city is offering a $50 silver loving cup for the best female bird in the show. This was won by Ed Hanco in 1920, by Olaf Neset in 1921 and 1922 and by L. A. Westphal in 1923. The Sunnyside Poultry Yards is offering a $15.00 cup for the best S. C. W. Leghorn cockerel, won by Oscar Anderson in 1921 and by Wm. Yonke in 1922 and 1923. These cups must be won three times before becoming the permanent property of the winner, and a great deal of competition centers around these awards.

Special Prizes

Special prizes are also offered by the First National bank, Olaf Neset, Larson Furniture company, The Thief River Grocery company, Oen Mercantile company, F. J. Stebbins, J. C. Penney company, L. A. Westphal, Farmers & Merchants State bank, Christenson Hardware company, Dr. O. F. Mellby, Dr. H. W. Froehlich and Dr. J. T. Bowers, as are also a number of poultry publications, clubs and poultry equipment dealers. Prizes are offered in the boys' and girls' club department and for eggs.

The first annual show of the association was put on eight years ago, when 200 entries, many of the scrub variety, were exhibited. In later years upward of a thousand birds have been entered and the effort towards improvement has been remarkable, declare leaders of the association. It is believed that 1000 chickens will be shown this year, and that the exhibits of turkeys, ducks, geese and other birds will be greater than ever before.

Breeders, feeders, farmers and all others interested in the production of poultry should make it a point to attend this great show and become exhibitors. This exhibition will without a doubt be one of the biggest and best in the state and by far the leading event of its kind in Northern Minnesota.

The programs and demonstrations prepared for the Dairymen's convention, some of them pertaining to poultry, will add a great deal of interest to the event this year. Increased interest in poultry has been aroused thruout this section as a result of the activities of the Thief River Valley Co-operative Poultry association.

Skarning and Rein Again Please Music Lovers Here

A delightful program was heard in this city Friday night when Thorstein Skarning, noted accordion artist, and Nils Rein, talented violinist, together with other members of the Skarning company, appeared in a concert at the Sons of Norway hall under auspices of the Snorre lodge. The hall was filled for the occasion and each number was accorded hearty applause, particularly Mr. Rein's beautiful selections and Mr. Skarning's masterful performance on his large instrument.

Mr. Rein, masterful violinist whose playing is often compared to that of the great Ole Bull, again held his audience spell bound during some of his interpretative selections. He was heard here previously this summer and those who heard him the second time are even more pleased than at first. He is a musician of unusual power and his execution and technique is regarded by critics as exceptionally good. His interpretation of the classic is superb, as are his renditions of some of the old folk melodies, his masterful touch adding greatly to the simple tunes. Rein is not only a player but also a composer of considerable merit, some of his own compositions played during the concert being among the best received, of which may be mentioned "The American Serenade", "Souvenir of Roseau," "Norwegian Hallings" and "Norwegian Fantasy." The accompaniment was ably furnished by Miss Merle Nelson, a Fargo girl.

Mr Skarning, who is one of the leading accordionists of the country, again proved his ability to a Thief River Falls audience with his powerful selections from the classics, such as "Aase's Death" from Greigg's "Peer Gynt," "Poet and Peasant" and others, as well as the lively dance numbers, "old time" waltzes and schottiches. He demonstrated that classical selections can be played with pathos on an accordion and in the execution of some of the well known hymns he made the great instrument sound like an organ. His rapid fingering also makes it sound like an entire orchestra. A duet played by Mr. Skarning and Mr. Rein was received with much applause.

Mr. Skarning's playing was somewhat hampered by a sore finger and he may have to discontinue playing for a while. To avoid extra playing here he told a number of stories.

Other numbers of the program were vocal solos by Mrs. Anna Skarning and Miss Berith Rokstad, which were also well received, the latter singing a series of light songs.

Following the program many remained to enjoy themselves at a social dance, several numbers being played by Mr. Skarning.

On Thursday night the company appeared in Greenbush, Saturday night at Gatzke, Sunday night at Grygla and Monday night at Gonvick, playing to packed houses. They travel by car.

Smallpox Vaccination Urged By State Health Department

Following is part of a communication from the State Board of Health, division of preventable diseases, regarding malignant smallpox in Minnesota in 1924:

"Malignant smallpox was introduced into Duluth in January, 1924, thru an itinerant laborer who developed first symptoms ten days after entering Minnesota from Canada. The infection spread to eight other sanitary districts in St. Louis county and to Carlton, Aitkin and Lake counties in Minnesota and two sanitary districts in Wisconsin. Hemorrhagic smallpox appeared early in February in Martin county in a man who became ill nine days after having been resident in Minneapolis for over two months. Infection has recently spread from Minneapolis to Morrison and Stearns counties. Up to Oct. 15 there have been 228 cases with 52 deaths in Minnesota.

Vaccination History

Total 228 cases—52 deaths.

Never successfully vaccinated 180 cases—46 deaths.

Vaccinated over seven years ago, 44 cases—8 deaths.

Vaccinated less than seven years ago, 2 cases—no deaths.

Had smallpox in childhood, 2 cases—no deaths.

"Thousands have been vaccinated in the localities already invaded by malignant smallpox and for this reason the number of cases and deaths, tho needlessly large, is relatively small. Compulsory vaccination was abandoned in Minnesota in 1903. A large percentage of our population is unvaccinated. Unless people become protected thru vaccination, a serious epidemic may break out. Vaccination should be resorted to without waiting for smallpox to appear."

So far there are no cases of this disease in this community, according to local health officials.

Can't Be Without It

"We can't get along without The Times, 'the good old Thief River Falls paper'," declares S. R. Rogers of Vancouver, Wash., a former resident of this community, in renewing his subscription for another year.

T. B. Area Test of Cattle Is Upheld by Dist. Court

Under a recent decision of Judge John B. Sanborn, of the Ramsey County District Court, the Minnesota law of 1923 providing for the eradication of tuberculosis in cattle through the area test plan is declared to be constitutional.

This law provides for test of all cattle in a county by the State Livestock Sanitary Board on the presentation of petitions signed by a majority of the cattle owners. The county commissioners appropriate funds for doing the work. Both State and Federal funds are provided to pay the indemnity on condemned animals.

Meeker county was the first county in the state to comply with the conditions of this law. After one test of all the cattle and two retests of the infected herds had been made, a restraining action was brot against the Livestock Sanitary board by a group of fourteen farmers who opposed the test. An injunction was granted against the board by Judge Harold Baker of the Twelfth Judicial District court at the time the second test of all cattle was to be made.

Following this action a change of venue was secured to the Ramsey County District court by Victor E. Anderson, who as assistant attorney general represented the state in this case.

After a thorough review of the testimony in the case Judge Sanborn ordered the injunction granted by Judge Baker lifted.

An area test was completed this summer in Red Lake county.

58 Cents Average Received By Potato Co-op. Exchange

The first 1,100 cars of potatoes sold by the Minnesota Potato Growers Exchange netted 58 cents a hundred, f. o. b. shipping point it was officially stated at the state headquarters this week. This price is well above what non-members have been receiving from speculative buyers.

"It should be remembered," said S. G. Rubinow, general manager, that 80 per cent of these 1,100 cars were round whites, a variety that at times have been a drug on the market. Only a small per cent of what we have sold thus far has been Gopher State Brand, so that this average price represents what we have been able to obtain for the poorest potatoes that have been grown by our members. Our good stock is being stored as fast as possible, to be ready for sale on the better market that seems certain this winter and spring.

"This price does not constitute an indication of what the Exchange will be able to obtain for the seasonal pool, because the final price will be determined by grade, kind and variety, whereas this price is for all grades and all varieties, with as I said 80 per cent being round whites. The price obtained thus far is made public at this time only because we feel that the membership is entitled to know the progress we are making."

The exchange last week received its 4,000th car and it was expected that the 5,000 mark would be passed before Nov. 12. Cars are arriving at the rate of 150 a day. The bulk of them is being placed in terminal storage.

Alfalfa Best Breakfast Food for Minnesota Cows

"Alfalfa is the greatest known breakfast food for Minnesota dairy cows and possesses a flavor that makes the most blase' cow brighten up and pass her plate for more," according to a statement just issued by the Blue Valley Creamery Institute. "Where it can be grown successfully, it excels all other hay crops in yield per acre, feeding value, drouth resistance, soil enrichment and weed eradication," the statement continues.

"Of the estimated sixty-odd millions of acres in tame hay this year, only a little over ten million acres are in alfalfa, although alfalfa will produce twice as much or more per acre than any other hay crop. While it takes a little more effort to grow alfalfa its requirements are not impossible, and only where some other legume can be grown with extreme ease and made to produce large yields is the omission of alfalfa from the crop scheme on the dairy farm justifiable.

"Average farm prices per ton shows alfalfa generally brings more than either clover, prairie hay or timothy and possesses a much greater value for dairy cows. In spite of this and other advantages, however, many farmers have failed to take advantage of the possibilities of alfalfa. The last census showed that while seven out of every ten farms had dairy cows, only one grew alfalfa, and even Wisconsin, the distinctive dairy state, while reporting cows on ninety per cent of its farms, counted only seven per cent growing alfalfa.

"The 10,000 Acre Alfalfa Club project, which has proven so effective at Sauk Centre, and which the Creamery Institute of Chicago is helping to organize in various parts of the country, is demonstrating the possibilities of alfalfa, and dairy farmers are looking to this new feed to help them up the road to prosperity."

Thief River Falls People Must Believe Such Convincing Testimony as Mr. Krogstad's.

No one in Thief River Falls who suffers backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains or distressing urinary ills can afford to ignore this twice-told story of a Thief River Falls resident. It is confirmed testimony, telling of lasting benefit from Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. It's evidence that no man or woman in Thief River Falls can doubt.

E. L. Krogstad, railroad brakeman, 523 State Ave., N. says: "Every morning I woke up with a terrible pain through my kidneys and my back became weak and lame. It hurt me to stoop or bend and my kidneys acted irregularly. Doan's Pills fixed me up in good shape."

THREE YEARS LATER, Mr. Krogstad added: "The cure I received by using Doan's Pills has been permanent."

LOCAL YOUTHS ENTER PETS IN STATE CONTEST

Helen Satre, Estella and Gladys Hanson and Emma Letnes Compete in Junior Show

FREE TRIP FOR COUNTY CLUB WORK CHAMPIONS

Fourth Time Helen Satre Enters Lamb in Statewide Contest—Much Interest in Event

Four club workers, all girls, are this week representing Pennington county at the Minnesota Junior Livestock Show which opened in South St. Paul Tuesday and continues through today. This is the annual windup classic of boys' and girls' club work in the state, and is reported to be the best in history.

Helen Satre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Satre, Emma Letnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jens Letnes, Estella and Gladys Hanson, daughters of Henry Hanson, all residing near Thief River Falls, left Monday night for St. Paul, Misses Satre and Hanson to enter their Shropshire sheep and Miss Letnes to enter her pig. All are members of Pennington county clubs under the direction of County Agent J. J. McCann, and were awarded the free trip to the state show as a result of their showing at the county fair this fall, at which they won high honors with the animals which they are now showing in St. Paul.

Miss Satre, who is at present a student at the local high school is taking part in the state contest for the fourth time. In 1921 she was awarded third prize in competition with a large number of contestants and the following year she won fifth place and last year 12th place in competition with about 100 club workers of the state. A lamb was shown each time. Her past record indicates that she will make a creditable showing this time also. The judging was done yesterday but no information has been received at this writing as to the prize winners.

Has Fine Pig

The Misses Hanson and Letnes are taking part in a state contest for the first time but are expected to make a good showing. The Letnes girl has an exceptionally fine Poland China pig weighing 375 pounds which will undoubtedly be a strong contender for honors in the fat barrow class. This animal is from the Fuller herd.

Today the animals exhibited by club workers from about 70 counties of the state are sold at auction, liberal prices usually being paid at such sales.

A banquet was given by the St. Paul association last night for all contestants, followed by a program and distribution of prizes at the auditorium.

The show was started in 1918. Then 31 baby beeves comprised the sole exhibit. This year 195 baby beeves are entered for honors, 150 others which lost out in county competitions are entered for sale along with the 196, 72 hogs will be entered for prizes, 80 sheep, 35 crates of poultry and several ton litters of hogs. Nearly 6000 boys and girls in Minnesota have been in livestock club work this year.

A trip to this Junior show is one of the greatest events in the life of a club worker and is the object of a great deal of competition in the county contests.

Some of the winners at the county fair were awarded free trips to the state fair.

BEMIDJI MILL YARD DESTROYED BY FIRE

Saturday's Blaze Threatens Entire City—24,000 Feet of Lumber Consumed

A $750,000 fire destroyed most of the Crookston Lumber company's yards in Bemidji last Saturday afternoon during the high wind, threatening the entire wholesale district of the city. The flames were finally brought under control by Bemidji fire department, assisted by the Crookston and Brainard department and hundreds of volunteer fire fighters.

A slight change in the wind also aided in getting control of the blaze and saved the main mills when it appeared that the entire plant would be destroyed. Before the shift of the wind, flying brands were blown over the city, but the careful watch prevented serious damage to buildings. The roof of the Lutheran hospital caught fire but the flames were extinguished without much damage.

The fire started shortly before noon and it was almost 5 p. m. before the blaze was put under control. It is believed to have started from sparks from the planing mill smokestacks.

There was heavy loss to telegraphic, telephone and electric light wires and a large part of the city was without communication and light service.

This is the third big fire in the yards owned by the Shevlin, Carpenter and Clarke company, and is declared to be the largest fire in Bemidji's history. Twenty-four million feet of lumber were consumed by the flames, the entire west yard being destroyed.

MEXICAN WORKERS RETURN TO TEXAS

Spend Much Money in City Before Departing—Nearly All Will Return in Spring

Business in Thief River Falls has been flourishing the past week as the Mexican sugar beet laborers prepare to leave for Texas and other places to spend the winter months. Immediately following the last pay day these workers and their families crowded the stores to stock up with clothes, practically everyone being fitted out with a complete outfit. Many bought ready-made clothing of all descriptions, the varied combinations in many instances being quite unique.

A total of 120 workers and their families, making a total of approximately 250 persons, were employed in the Thief River Falls district the past year. If 4,000 acres of sugar beets are allotted here next year it is likely that approximately 400 laborers with their families will be required to care for the crop, as practically only Mexican labor is used, the Americans not being fitted for this kind of work.

Of the money paid to these Mexican workers, who this year received $25.00 an acre, practically the entire sum, except the railroad fare south, is left in the community for clothes, food and other necessities, it is pointed out by County Agent J. J. McCann, representative of the Minnesota Sugar company. "Not only will a large amount of wage money be spent here next year," Mr. McCann states, "but a great deal of machinery such as cultivators and lifters will also be necessary in the culture of the crop, which will also greatly increase local business."

A group of about 60 workers and their families left Saturday, most of them going to El Paso and San Antonio, Texas. Another group of about 15 laborers, accompanied by families left yesterday for Chicago, where they will be employed in the mills the ensuing winter months. At least ten families intend to remain here during the winter, Mr. McCann states, while the majority of the workers who left intend to return here in the spring, being well satisfied with conditions.

Attend Winchester Convention

F. L. Christenson and W. L. Hall of this city attended the joint gathering of Winchester clubs of Minnesota, North Dakota, Montana, Northern Iowa, Western Wisconsin and Northern South Dakota, held in Minneapolis, Tuesday and Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Christenson and son, Dean left Monday evening for that city, where they will be guests of Mr. Christenson's sister, Miss Olga Christenson, and Mrs. Christenson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ahlers, and other relatives. They intend to return tomorrow or Saturday evening. Mr. Hall left Saturday night and is expected to return this evening. Mr. Christenson is second vice president of the convention.

Upwards of 1000 of the leading hardware, gun and ammunition and sporting goods merchants of the states mentioned above were in attendance at the convention, which was addressed by men prominent in the world of business and sport. Among the speakers scheduled were Frank A. Drew of New Haven, Conn., president of the Winchester Repeating Arms company; Warren Taylor of Gonzales, Texas, president of the national association of Winchester clubs, and "Bill" Spaulding, football coach at the Minnesota university.

Mattson In Auto Spill

C. W. Mattson, partner publisher of The Times, was the victim in an auto spill on Highway No. 32 about a mile west of this city Friday afternoon while on his way to Warren, when his car overturned in the ditch. He was arranging the robe and took his eyes off the road a little too long and his Lizzy stole her chance. The car turned over the top and on the other side, wrecking the top and windshield. Mr. Mattson escaped with a scratch on his face, and after pushing his car right side up, with the help of a farmer, drove the Ford back to town.

Thanks Highway Users

Having been the road patrolman on Babcock Highway No. 32 between Thief River Falls and Holt for many years, I wish to express my satisfaction to those who have used the road and observed the rules and regulations governing its use. We always have the road hog and the reckless driver with us and if they were as careful and as observing as the following men, I believe that a great deal of road trouble could be avoided:

Routine Matters Disposed Of By Council Friday Nite

On account of Tuesday this week being a legal holiday the council when it adjourned Oct. 28 thought that by having a meeting last Friday, Nov. 7, it would not have to meet again until the fourth Tuesday in the month, but certain matters coming up Tuesday night necessitated an adjournment until next Tuesday, Nov. 18. The meeting Friday night was attended by all the aldermen with the exception of H. A. Brumund, and various routine matters were disposed of.

The request of the bondsmen of the Citizens State bank for an extension of time until Nov. 18 in which to arrange for caring for the city's money on deposit when the bank closed was approved.

The council was presented with the lease duly signed by Mayor J. S. Arneson for that part of the Great Northern right-of-way where the city's gasoline storage tank will be located. It was given approval by City Attorney H. O. Chommie and duly accepted by the council.

Magnus Johnson was granted a milk license, the same having been duly approved by the dairy inspector.

The American Legion was granted a dance permit for Armistice night and the Railway Trainmen for Thanksgiving eve, Nov. 26.

Dr. A. W. Swedenburg was granted permission to remodel the large barn in the rear of his hospital, Fourth street and Knight avenue, at an estimated cost of $2,500, the intention being to elevate the same so as to accommodate autos in the basement and later on remodel the main part so that it will be a modern dwelling. J. S. Hardisty was given permission to erect a garage at a cost of $125 and Ed. O'Hara to erect a small coal shed on the Great Northern right-of-way for $100.

Sidewalks constructed on the East side under the supervision of the street commissioner cost the city only $15.15 per 25 foot lot—the cheapest in years—and this amount was ordered assessed against the various properties benefitted thereby.

The monthly reports were received and ordered filed.

The report of City Dairy Inspector Dr. L. R. Twete shows that he had examined 41 samples of milk and only found one illegal, with a similar number out of 12 samples of cream. The sediment test of milk—43 samples—showed 39 clear, 3 fair, 1 poor and none dirty. A total of 188 cows were examined during October and not any were condemned. Butterfat tests showed the following dealers all above the required 3.25 percent standard as fixed by city ordinance, which bears the approval of the state board of health: Copp & Son, A. Jensen, A. Johnson, Barzen & Kreamer, A. Myrom, Thief River Creamery, Ed. Timm, Magnus Johnson and V. C. Noper. At this time of the year he inspects the various barns in which the cattle are kept and only one was found not up to requirements when the inspection was made, there having been five at the same time a year ago.

The monthly report of the library for last month indicated 619 juvenile fiction books loaned, and 373 juvenile non-fiction. Adult fiction books loaned totaled 871 while non-fiction for adults was only 189—a total altogether of 2,052 books. The reading room attendance was placed at 3,900, while the report also indicated 12 new adult and 16 new juvenile book borrowers.

The report of the city clerk showed a balance of funds Nov. 1 of $6,967.85 while the first of the previous month the total was $7,582.34, there having been receipts during October of $7,027.51 with $7,642.00 in disbursements. The light department indicated earnings of $4,290.83 and the water department with $2,634.22 for the month.

Fees and fines in the municipal court during October totaled $36.65, according to Judge N. W. Tarrant.

The chief of police did not file any report.

Light Snowfall Tuesday

Altho the twin cities and other points south of Thief River Falls were visited by a three-inch snow fall last Friday, the first snowflakes this season made their appearance here Tuesday morning. However, the snowfall was very light hardly sufficient to be noticed yesterday. Cutting winds have accompanied the cold wave here, the lowest temperature so far being 2½ degrees above zero Tuesday night, according to L. M. Rayson, local observer. Yesterday, however, was fair and warmer, and some of the weather prognosticators are predicting continued fair weather this fall.

Commercial Club Notes

Seventeen new members were enrolled the first day the committee was out after new members.

The Commercial club will be host to the delegates of the Red River Valley Dairymen's association at a smoker next Wednesday evening. Every man in the city is invited.

The industrial committee is still working on the project of getting a canning factory in this city. No doubt they will have some thing definite to report in the near future.

C. L. Hansen gave a very interesting talk at the meeting last Thursday on conditions in Europe and especially Germany. Mr. Hansen has just returned from a visit to Europe.

Every business and professional man should be an active member of the Commercial club.

CLARA GULRUD HOME DESTROYED BY FIRE

1500 Feet of Hose Proves Too Short and Dwelling Burns as People Look On

Flames had their way Saturday afternoon when fire broke out in the home of Mrs. Clara Gulrud, at the extreme south end of Kendall avenue, and the fire department's 1500 feet of hose failed to connect the water hydrant, seven blocks away, with the burning building, making it impossible to affect any attack on the flames.

Mrs. Gulrud's mother, Mrs. Angeline Miller, was home alone and after building up a fire in the stove, went out in the yard for a few minutes. Mrs. Gulrud, who was on her way home from the business section, noticed the flames and alarm was turned in immediately. The fire department arrived in time to save the building if water could have been had, but as the hose did not reach from a distant hydrant, it was impossible to battle the flames. Insurance of $2000 was carried on the building and contents.

At present Mrs. Gulrud and her mother are living in the John Tasa house on St. Paul avenue south.

Superintendent Moves

The office of the county superintendent of schools, Ole R. Sande, is now located in the new basement of the court house, instead of upstairs as formerly. Mr. Sande occupies two of the new rooms, the third to be occupied by County Engineer B. F. Umland, who has not yet moved from his present quarters. Greatly improved quarters are now provided for these county officials, the spacious safety vault for storing records and other papers of importance also filling a needed want.

Speaks For Hamline Drive.

Dr. Teachout, a representative of Hamline University, spoke at the local Methodist church last Sunday morning in the interest of a campaign to secure $1,500.00 which opened Nov. 10. The Rockefeller Foundation has promised a quarter of a million on the condition that the university raise half a million. The funds raised will be used for new buildings and equipment. The Revs. W. V. Burns of Witchita, Kansas, and F. A. Kufus of Moorhead, were in the city yesterday soliciting funds.

Canned Foods Week Observed

This is "Canned Foods Week," set aside by the National Canners association to acquaint the housewives of the nation with the wide varieties of canned foods on the market. The week has heretofore been observed in the spring. Thief River Falls grocers are participating in the event and stocks have been rearranged, windows decorated and special offers are made to customers. Prizes will be awarded local grocers having the best display of Del Monte products during the week.

Highway Men in City

W. C. Webster, assistant construction engineer of the state highway department, and W. B. Chapman, division engineer, of St. Paul and A. G. Flygare, division engineer of Fergus Falls, were Thief River Falls visitors Thursday looking after matters in connection with the graveling projects between this city and Red Lake Falls. This work is being done under the supervision of the state highway department. Arrangements were made for gravel pits for the stretch north of Red Lake Falls.

Clarence Jablinski

Clarence, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Jablinski, residing west of Thief River Falls, died Monday at the age of three days. The funeral took place yesterday, Rev. E. H. Kreidt of the St. John's Lutheran church officiating. Interment was made in the Rux cemetery.

500 DAIRYMEN OF NORTHWESTERN MINNESOTA GATHER HERE

RED RIVER VALLEY DAIRYMEN'S ASS'N. HOLDS BEST CONVENTION IN HISTORY, DELEGATES DECLARE

Better Cows and Increased Efforts in Dairying Urged in Talks by Experts

STRONG SENTIMENT FOR CO-OPERATIVE MARKETING

Advertising of Dairy Products Advised by J. H. Hay at Commercial Club Event

Thief River Falls this week is a mecca for dairymen from 17 counties in Northwestern Minnesota, sessions of the 21st annual convention of the Red River Valley Dairymen's association opening in this city yesterday and continuing thru today. It is one of the greatest conventions ever held in Thief River Falls and officers of the association declare it the best attended gathering in the history of the organization. Upwards of 500 men, all 100 per cent boosters for the Dairy Cow, are assembled here at this time to hear discussions of the various phases of the dairy industry and gain information regarding profitable methods and practises.

The programs presented here are declared to be the best ever provided at a convention of this kind, the speakers being experts and authorities and the addresses touching upon all of the important factors in the dairy game.

McLeod Presides

The sessions opened at the Lyceum theatre yesterday morning with President Stuart McLeod, prominent Pennington county Guernsey breeder at Goodridge, presiding. Community singing, under the direction of Maude L. Johnson, featuring the Pennington county alfalfa song and other popular numbers, opened the program, the visitors being welcomed to the city by Mayor J. S. Arneson, briefly outlining the development of the dairy industry in this section. The response was made by Representative Marius Walwal of Plummer, vice president, who paid tribute to the accomplishments of the dairymen and thanked the city for the hospitality accorded the delegates.

In his opening remarks President McLeod urged farmers to stick to the dairy cow, which is certain to bring profit if properly cared for. Better breeding was stressed. Secretary Leonard Houske of Halstad, in giving his report, urged that everyone present become a member.

State Commissioner Speaks

Chris Heen, Minnesota state dairy and food commissioner, spoke in high terms of the important part played by the dairymen of this district in the development of the state and promoted future prosperity for those engaged in dairying, also encouraging better cows. The co-operation of the state department in promoting the interests of the industry was assured.

The afternoon session was opened by an instructive address by L. Jensen of Clearbrook, president of the state dairymen's association, on "Breeding and Developing a Dairy Herd on the Farm," emphasizing the importance of improving the herd, proper feeding and care. "Raise lots of alfalfa", the speaker said in complimenting Pennington county upon its campaign for more alfalfa.

Keep Up Dairying—Selvig

Efficient production is the foundation of farming, declared C. G. Selvig, superintendent of the Northwest School of Agriculture, Crookston, in urging farmers to continue in dairying, a safe industry. He pointed to the indications of greater consumption of dairy products and urged farmers to join in any movement which will increase consumption.

The course of exports from the Civil War to 1914 was outlined, the speaker declaring that the World War dearranged American agriculture by curtailing production in Europe, and expanding it in this country to such an extent that when buying power in Europe became limited and American farmers had a surplus, prices of farm products dropped, while other commodities remained practically unchanged. "Present high prices of wheat are due to a world shortage of wheat, a domestic shortage of corn and the Dawes loan to Germany, which combination cannot be expected to stay," he said. Marketing of farm products requires the most direct and economic system of distribution, he asserted.

Pleads For Co-operatives

A hearty endorsement was given A. J. McGuire, manager of the Minnesota Co-operative Creameries association, in his plea for co-operative selling of butter. The activities of association showing a tremendous volume of business were cited and it was pointed out that the high butterfat prices enjoyed in the last few years is a result of the co-operative creameries in the state. "Co-operative marketing is essential for the future prosperity of dairying," he said. "In the long run the co-operatives pay more than other institutions."

Testing Ass'n. Being Formed

About 20 Pennington county farmers decided to form a cow testing association as a result of a talk by L. V. Wilson, dairy specialist of the Minnesota university, in which he pointed out the many benefits of such an organization in improving dairy herds. S. F. Hunt, Stuart McLeod, Herbert Fuller, Paul Engelstad, Hans Anton and J. J. McCann comprise a committee to perfect the organization, about 26 members being necessary.

A grand time was had at the gathering at the Sons of Norway hall last night, when convention delegates were guests of the Commercial club. The entertainment features such as singing by the Brage Male chorus, a musical comedy by V. C. Noper and short talks were well received. Lunch was served by a committee.

Contest Winners Announced

Winners of the dairymen's contests were announced by Secretary Houske. Pelican Rapids creamery association has the largest percentage of patrons keeping herd records, 38 out of 510 patrons, Hendrum being second and Halstad third. Richard Houske, Halstad, had the best dairy herd record, Christ Rud and Oscar Drotts of Viking being fourth and sixth. The Rindahl creamery had the largest percentage of patrons who purchased purebred sires in 1924, followed by Hendrum and Pelican Rapids. Ottertail had the largest percentage of patrons using silos, 104 out of 136, Pelican Rapids and Rindahl, second and third. Bagley had the largest percentage who built silos in 1924 and also had the largest percentage who installed cooling stations.

J. J. Harms of Pelican Rapids led in the butter scoring contest with 93¾ per cent. John Newland of this city won in district No. 3 with 92¾ per cent. About 70 tubs, the largest number in history, were entered, most of them being donated to the association and sold at 37 cents a pound to the Minnesota Co-operative Creamery association at the auction.

Hay Urges Advertising

An inspiring address was given by J. H. Hay, deputy state agricultural commissioner and formerly superintendent of the city schools, pointing out the necessity of raising the present tariff of 8 cents a pound on butter to about 20 cents and urging dairymen to join in an advertising campaign to increase the consumption of dairy products in the United States. Figures were given showing that there is little danger from saturation of the market if importation is prevented by a high protective tariff.

Four million dollars have been paid out by the four creameries in Pennington county during 13 years, not counting 1924, Mr. Hay stated.

"The co-operative marketing movement is another protection against disaster," declared the speaker, stating also that if it were not for the Potato Exchange in this state there would be no market at all for that product here.

Among others who spoke were James Sorenson, secretary of the Minnesota Creamery Operators' association; L. Lohnbakken, St. Cloud, dairy and food inspector; Daniel E. Willard of the Great Northern railway; "Dad" Cort, veteran creamery organizer; Mayor Arneson and Mr. Jensen of Clearbrook. Dr. H. W. Froehlich presided at the Commercial club's part of the program.

This morning's addresses were given by James Sorenson and A. J. Kittleson, Crookston, boys' and girls' club work leader, speakers scheduled for the afternoon being O. M. Kiser, Northwest School; Hans Anton, farmer near this city, and A. A. McPheeters, manager of the Minnesota Co-operative Poultry and Egg Exchange. The business session will conclude the convention program this afternoon.

Local Creamery Does Huge Business During First Ten Months of 24. Price Down

Altho butter prices this year will average about 20 per cent lower than in 1923, indications are that the business of the Thief River Falls Co-operative creamery will reach last year's totals according to Secretary Thos. H. Bjerke. During the first 10 months of 1924 the creamery has sold butter, milk, cream and buttermilk to the extent of about $235,000, the total for 1923 being nearly $275,000. The 1924 sales include in approximate figures the following:

Butter shipped, $199,000; butter sold locally, $36,000; milk, cream and buttermilk, $10,000.

Up to November 1 about $175,000 had been paid to patrons of the creamery this year, a total of $238,691 being paid in 1923, when monthly patrons received an average of 48 cents a pound for butterfat and cash patrons 45 cents. This year the average will be as much as 10 cents lower for some months, the secretary declares, but the increase in volume of production will bring up the total receipts for the year.

NUMBER OF DAIRY COWS SHOWS GAIN HERE DURING 1924

Pennington County Dairy Increase Ahead of State Average, Report Indicates

Pennington county's dairy cow population is increasing according to figures announced by the Blue Valley Creamery Institute. The statement covers an area embracing approximately one-eighth of the state in this section, and is believed to hold true for the county proper.

A 11.7 per cent gain in the number of dairy cows two years old and over is noted for the district over the preceding year, while the increase for the state as a whole was 6.8 per cent as compared with 1923. The entire United States shows an increase amounting to 6 per cent, government figures show.

The number of heifers 1 to 2 years old as compared to the total number of cows in this district seem to be above the average, indicating the intention to bring more young stock into milk in the near future.

In citing these figures the Institute calls attention to the fact that the United States needs 320,000 more cows every year if production is to keep step with the normal growth of demand for dairy products. There are 1,412,000 more mouths to be fed in the United States with every passing year and with the increased consumption of dairy products per capita, this added number to the nation's herd will barely suffice to meet the increased demand.

According to figures obtained from the 1924 Pennington county assessment records in the county auditor's office farmers in this county have listed purebred cattle as follows:

Under 1 year	133
Between 1-2 years	105
Between 2-3 years	58
Cows	182
Bulls	99
Total	574

Graded cattle in the county are listed as follows:

Under 1 year	2,622
Between 1-2 years	2,074
Between 2-3 years	1,438
Cows	8,018
Bulls	292
Total	14,444
All other cattle	988

The numbear of purebred cows increased from 165 in 1923 to 182 in 1924, according to the assessment figures. North township leads in the number of purebred cows, having a total of 35, Silverton has 32, Rocksbury 27 and Smiley 23. Rocksbury farmers have 15 purebred sires, River Falls coming in second with 10. Only one township, Numedal, reports no purebred sires.

Other livestock listed on the assessment rolls is given as follows: 6,764 horses, mules and asses; 5,055 sheep and 2,108 hogs.

Zeh Has Best Display of Del Monte Canned Foods

Ernest F. Zeh, successor of Zeh & Curran in the grocery business, was awarded first prize for the best display of Del Monte canned foods during Canned Foods Week observed in this city last week. Second prize was awarded Lee S. Gartland, operating the Cash Grocery, and third to the Oen Mercantile company. The prizes were awarded by the Thief River Grocery company. Grocers of the city offered special bargains in canned goods during the week and attractive displays called attention to the observance of the week.

Building Advancing Rapidly

Construction of the new building being erected by the Thief River Falls Co-operative creamery is progressing rapidly and it is expected that the plastering will be completed this week, according to Contractor Bert Norby. If no delays are encountered it is likely that the building will be ready for occupation before Christmas. Thief River Falls residents and farmers in the community are now viewing with pride the completed outside of the building which presents one of the finest structures in the city.

Jefferson Highway Marked

Marking of the Jefferson Highway thru this city from Red Lake Falls to Karlstad has been practically completed with the exception of placing some large signs at the important turns. The work was done by Philip Schmitz of this city.

CACKLERS ARE ON EXHIBITION AT AUDITORIUM

Large Display of Poultry at Eighth Pennington County Show—400 Birds Entered

THREE-DAY EXHIBITION WILL CLOSE TOMORROW

People of Community Urged to View Display of Best Specimens in Poultrydom

Hundreds of chickens, turkeys and other domestic members of the feathered tribe are now on exhibition at the eighth annual show put on by the Pennington County Poultry association, which opened at the auditorium yesterday. This grand array of prize birds, of the best in the country, closes tomorrow and all who have opportunity to should make it a point to see what Pennington fanciers and poultry men from other points are producing.

More than 400 birds have been entered in this exhibition, which is declared to be one of the best ever held and ranks with the best in the state. A visit to the auditorium will be of interest to both farmers and townspeople. Dairymen in attendance at the convention are viewing the exhibition.

The annual meeting of the association is scheduled for this afternoon.

PENNINGTON GIRLS ENTER ANIMALS IN STATE JUNIOR SHOW

Champion Baby Beef Sold For $800.00—Keen Competition Among 400 Exhibitors

Altho Pennington county did not win any championships or special awards at the Junior Livestock show in St. Paul last week, a good showing was made by the four girls who represented boys' and girls' club in this county. Helen Satre, Estella and Gladys Hanson entered Shropshire sheep and Emma Letnes a Poland China pig. They returned full of enthusiasm over the trip and the splendid entertainment given them during their stay at the three-day show. As winners at the county fair, these girls were awarded free trips to the Junior show, the culminations of the year's club work in Minnesota.

Seventy-four counties were represented and 400 boys and girls exhibited 190 calves, 100 sheep, 90 hogs and sixty crates of poultry. George Teller of Farmington, 10 years old, won first honors with his baby beef weighing 997 pounds, which was bought at the auction for $800 by Louis Hill. The first prize for lambs was won by Miss Marie Sullivan, 12, of New Prague, her animal weighing 112 pounds and sold for $448. A brother won the championship last year and another brother won in 1922. Jay Seymour of Eyota, 19 years old, all around champion boy and girl club worker in Minnesota, was declared grand champion pig exhibitor with his Chester White weighing 420 pounds, selling for about $1 a pound. The animals entered this year were exceptionally fine and all were sold at the auction at a high price. The first-prize winners were awarded a free trip to the National Livestock show in Chicago in December.

On Wednesday evening the club workers were guests of the St. Paul Association at a banquet given in the St. Paul Athletic club, at which time the winners were announced. It was a great event, declare the Pennington county representatives. Helen Satre attended for the fourth time.

Northern Minnesota Enjoys Weather While East Shivers

"East Shivers and Cold Takes Toll of Lives" read a headline in the Grand Forks Herald Tuesday, when Pennington county and Northern Minnesota had only about three inches of snow and enjoyed mild weather. A sixty-five mile freezing blast swept the Atlantic and weather bureaus report the coldest Nov. 17 on record in New York. Other eastern points were also visited by heavy snowfalls, in some cases blocking traffic and causing much damage.

A snowfall of 3.4 inches during the past week is reported by L. M. Rayson, local weather observer, the temperature reaching the lowest point this season Saturday, when the mercury dropped to one degree below zero. During the day it has usually been well above the zero mark, and at times above freezing.

The roads leading into Thief River Falls, in spite of the snow, are excellent, having frozen up while they were smooth.

Highway to Sanatorium Road Graveled This Week

The stretch of road connecting the Oakland Park Sanatorium grounds and trunk highway No 32 south of the city has been graveled by the J. S. Reader company as a result of a request made to the state highway department Monday by L. R. Johnston, chairman of the good roads committee of the Commercial club, who conferred with O. L. Kipp, chief construction engineer. This is a much needed improvement as this road has been in bad condition following rains.

PUPILS OF CITY SCHOOLS PARADE THIS AFTERNOON

Procession of 1400 Pupils and Teachers Feature of Education Week Observance

COMMUNITY MEETINGS IN RURAL DISTRICTS

Duties of Parents to Children Emphasized by Speakers During Special Week

Many parents in Thief River Falls and Pennington county are this week visiting the schools as a result of the urgent appeal for increased interest in the educational system during National Education Week, sponsored by the American Legion and National Education association, appropriate observance being made by the local schools in city and country.

In Thief River Falls the program of the week is being carried out as planned by Supt. I. T. Simley and his staff. The all school parade will be staged this afternoon at 2:45, winding up with flag retreat at the high school ground. Brief periods of the day are given over to the consideration of certain topics assigned to each day in the week in all the schools, and representatives of various civic organizations and members of the public speaking class in high school are speaking each evening at the theatre, discussing various phases of education and urging greater interest among parents.

"Duties of Parents Towards the Children, Individually and Thru Organized Society" is the topic discussed by a group of local speakers who are addressing community meetings in the rural districts of the county. Emphasis is placed on the necessity of providing proper equipment and keeping it up, getting well qualified teachers and united support on the part of the parents in order to get the desired results.

Meetings in practically all of the 17 sections of the county have been arranged by Supt. O. R. Sande and the rural teachers. In addition to the special speakers, other numbers such as singing and music, recitations, spelling and arithmetic contests, are also provided at the meetings. Those held so far have been exceptionally well attended and much enthusiasm has been evidenced.

Three meetings were held Tuesday night. Rev. Chas. Gerlinger of the Presbyterian church, spoke at Mavie; Morris Bye, principal of the high school, spoke at the Banner school, district 53, and Supt. O. R. Sande addressed a gathering in district 11, Kratka.

Last night City Attorney H. O. Chommie was the principal speaker at a meeting in district 147, Numedal; Lawrence Mickelson, high school instructor, spoke at the Satre school, district 37; Mr. Bye at the Hazel hall and Mr. Sande in district 26, east of the city.

Only one meeting will be held tonight, in district 39, east of Hazel, with Rev. E. H. Kreidt, pastor of the St. John's Lutheran church, as speaker.

B. O. Norby, former superintendent of the Goodridge schools and now manager of the local Co-operative Poultry Marketing association, speaks in district 94, west of St. Hilaire, tomorrow, Friday night; Mr. Chommie in district 178 east of St. Hilaire; Rev. Kreidt in district 25, northwest of the city, and Mr. Sande in district 14, Star township.

Saturday night Mr. Bye will address a gathering in district 37, Highlanding, and C. W. Pope, high school teacher, will speak in district 57, Reiner.

Anderson appointed by Judge Andrew Grindeland as court commissioner was approved; the depository bond of the Citizens State bank of Hazel was approved, and the usual grist of bills allowed. The proceedings appear elsewhere in this issue.

H. O. Berve Joins Attorney Bishop in Law Practice in City—Former Resident

Announcement is made this week that another attorney has been added to the legal staff of Thief River Falls, H. O. Berve for some time farmer near Germantown and former representative from the Marshall county district, having become associated with J. M. Bishop, veteran attorney of this city. Offices will be maintained in the First National bank building in the same quarters as have been used by Mr. Bishop for some time. Mr. Berve moved here with his family last week and resides on Crocker avenue.

Mr. Berve, who has farmed near Germantown during the last 20 years, practised law in this city for a short time following his admittance to the bar in 1913, being engaged in Mr. Bishop's office. In 1921 he was in charge of O. A. Naplin's office during his absence as state senator. He has a wide acquaintance thruout this section, becoming well known to many as the Farmer-Labor representative from Marshall county.

SANDE IS ELECTED LEGION COMMANDER AT MEETING FRIDAY

Former Adjutant Succeeds O. R. Smith as Head of Elmer J. Eklund Post

Ole R. Sande for the past year adjutant of the Elmer J. Eklund post of the American Legion, was last Friday night elected commander to succeed Oscar R. Smith. Other officers named were: Francis Burns, vice commander; Verner Nelson, adjutant; F. E. McGinn, finance officer; Rev. Charles Gerlinger, chaplain; and L. A. Hermanson, sergeant-at-arms. Installation will take place a week from tomorrow night, Nov. 28.

No nominations were made, each member present giving his preference on a written ballot, a person being elected if he received a majority of all the votes cast. If no one received a majority in the first ballot, the two getting the most votes would be balloted upon.

The constitution of the post was amended so as to make the last meeting in September the time for the annual meeting and election, except this year when the first meeting in November was designated. Dues were fixed at $3.75 for the coming year, 50 cents of which is for the American Legionaire and 25 cents to the veterans' hospital in Rochester.

It is felt that the affairs of the local post have been placed in the hands of efficient and capable officers, which is particularly important at this time with the 1925 state convention coming to this city. Committee chairmen will also take an important part in preparing for this great event. Definite plans for the convention will soon be outlined by the officers and committees, the latter of whom will be appointed in the near future.

HELSETH COMPLETES $300,000 BRIDGE AT MOBRIDGE S. D.

Local Bridge Builder is Prominent Figure in Dedication of Important Structure

Thief River Falls may well be proud of the achievements of one of its citizens, Isak Helseth, vice president of the Minneapolis Bridge company, who has completed a huge bridge spanning the Missouri river at Mobridge, South Dakota, the first highway bridge across the Missouri over its entire course thru the state. This is the first of five bridges which will redeem the western half of the state from a condition of practically isolation during a large part of the year. It also affords more convenient travel on the Yellowstone Trail.

Governor McMaster and other notables of the state were assembled at Mobridge Wednesday, Nov. 12 at the ceremonies marking the dedication of the great structure, which was erected under the supervision of Mr. Helseth, a number of other local men also being employed on the project. Besides several men employed as common laborers, the following Thief River Falls men were foremen: H. Hostvet, S. Michalsky, John Bredeson, Duncan Stanton and Martin Jepson. Paul Helseth was timekeeper.

The magnitude of the project may be realized when it is known that the bridge cost approximately $300,000, is 1487 feet long, has six re-enforced concrete piers, five 256-foot through-riveted trusses and contains nearly two million pounds of structural steel and 2,555 cubic yards of class A concrete. It was completed a month before the contract expired. Congratulations were sent to Mr. Helseth by the local Commercial club.

Mr. Helseth is expected to return to Thief River Falls this week for a brief stay, as are also some of the other men employed by the company.

Heavy Grain Shipments Keep Up.

Grain shipments thru Thief River Falls are continuing at a maximum and loadings at western points are as heavy as at any time during the shipping season, declares P. J. Keating, local grain inspector. Last Sunday 225 cars were inspected in the Soo yards here and four trains, each with about 60 cars, left Thief River Falls within three hours. The highest number of cars inspected in one day is reported to be 300, in the early part of October.

POULTRY CO-OP. SHIPS TEN CARS IN TWO WEEKS

Thousands of Turkeys Brought to District Station Here for Thanksgiving Market

LOCAL UNIT LEADS IN SHIPMENTS IN STATE

Northwestern Garage Rented For Additional Quarters—T. R. F. Market Center

Turkeys have been popular in Thief River Falls the past two weeks, particularly at the headquarters of the Thief River Valley Co-operative Poultry association, which by the end of this week will have shipped out more than four carloads of dressed turkeys and six carloads of live poultry, ducks and geese for the Thanksgiving market. The fourth car of dressed turkeys is being shipped to Chicago today, the others going to the New York market, and the sixth car of live birds will be shipped to Chicago tomorrow. Cars of live poultry average between 16,000 and 17,000 pounds.

The Thief River Valley association leads all the other 11 associations operating in the state in the volume of dressed turkeys for the Thanksgiving market, a total of approximately 85,000 pounds being handled here. Officials of the state exchange are surprised and highly gratified at the tremendous receipts at the headquarters in this city, thousands of turkeys, chickens, ducks and geese being brought here from all parts of the district. More than 20 local receiving stations are maintained in this district for the 1200 members.

Lack of Space

Due to the heavy influx of live turkeys for dressing at the station here, it was necessary not only to make use of every available inch of space in the Hall Hardware building but also two buildings at the fair grounds. Members had to be asked to dress their own turkeys when possible.

Manager B. O. Norby this week reports that the Northwestern Garage building on Main avenue has been rented for use as a packing plant, of which Geo. Whaley of Winnebago is in charge. The business office and picking and dressing department are still maintained in the Hall building, the latter being in the charge of Frank Kingsley of the state exchange. Mr. Kingsley has been employing a crew of from 10 to 14 pickers and reports dressing from 300 to 400 birds a day.

E. B. Davis, field service man for the state exchange, has also been assisting here during the rush, and this week A. R. Wolf, manager of the supply department and accountant for the state exchange is assisting officials of the local unit in getting their accounting and bookkeeping started properly.

State Manager Here

A. A. McPheeters, general manager of the Minnesota exchange is also in the city and speaks this afternoon at the dairymen's convention on the subject of "Co-operative Marketing of Poultry and Eggs." A recent report of the state poultry and egg exchange which began business in St. Paul July 12 shows that up to Oct. 31, the organization handled 47 carloads or 708,499 pounds of live poultry and 51 carloads or 18,417 cases of eggs. The poultry handled represents a value of $129,763 and the eggs $331,216. Of the 12 district associations now operating only six were shipping in any quantity up to Oct. 15.

Nothing definite is known as to the price which will be paid for the Thanksgiving shipments, which will continue until Saturday but indications are that it will be lower than last year. A large number of birds are as yet in poor condition for marketing and association members are advised to hold back all turkeys which are not mature, for the Christmas market, which will open the first part of December, according to Manager Norby.

"There is every indication that we will handle a much larger volume of turkeys for the Christmas market," Mr. Norby declares. Many farmers have from 100 to 200 birds, which they are now preparing for market.

Those in charge of the local association are working like troopers in taking care of the unusually and unexpectedly heavy receipts. The plant here has been in operation practically night and day during the last two-three weeks. Farmers from a large territory have come to this city with their birds, making Thief River Falls the leading market in this section.

Produce Companies Ship

A carload of live turkeys and chickens was loaded by the Peterson-Biddick company two weeks ago and another last Thursday, a third being loaded for shipment the first of the week. The Northern Trading company loaded a car of dressed turkeys, ducks and geese for the DeSota Creamery & Produce company Saturday, Monday and Tuesday.

Express shipments so far have been light this season compared to last year, according to employees of the American Railway Express company here.

Many Work on Graveling Job

Sixty-six teams are now hauling gravel on the four miles of state aid road east of Hazel connecting up with the Highlanding road, only farmers and residents of the tributary territory being employed. County Engineer Umland is in charge. The remaining four miles of grading on state aid road No. 1 will be completed by Contractor H. P. Lund as soon as possible next spring, the project being 70 per cent finished now.

What is Wirfs Home Comfort Weatherstrip?

It is the most practical Weatherstrip ever made, and the only one that is insulated.

Anybody can apply it; only tool required is a tack hammer.

No taking out of windows or taking down of doors.

No cutting or mitering of corners.

No waste pieces—comes in continuous lengths.

No wood, metal or zinc binding necessary.

Does not crystalize or decay.

Is vermin and weatherproof.

"The Strip of a Hundred Uses"

WATERPROOF: Made of pure rubber-coated fabric, impervious to moisture, enclosing and protecting the insulation, preventing crystalization and decay.

AIRTITE: When in place, forms a resilient caulk or fillet, similar to cold storage and freezer door seals.

NOISELESS: Has vibratory absorption (cushion) effect on slamming doors and rattling windows.

DETACHABLE: Of interest to renters—can be taken off, rolled up and re-applied.

FLEXIBLE: Never hardens, cracks, nor tears; adjustable to variating surfaces, warped doors, 90 degree angles, etc—without cutting.

DUSTPROOF: Seals against dust, vapors, etc., as well as against wind, rain and snow.

NON-CONDUCTIVE: While "metal" weather-strip (when applied perfectly) may keep the wind out—it does not resist the "cold," since metal is a rapid conductor of heat or cold; whereas Home Comfort Weatherstrip is insulated, thus greatly lessening the transfer of heat or cold through joints.

We also carry glass in all popular sizes, including automobile glass.

THE DAIRYMEN'S CONVENTION

The 21st annual convention of the Red River Valley Dairymen's association in Thief River Falls this week is in many respects the most important meeting in the history of the city. This city, the county seat of one of the leading dairy counties in the valley, is selected as the meeting place for dairymen from the entire Northwestern Minnesota the second time, a similar convention having been held here in 1916. That they are pleased with the treatment accorded them then is indicated by the fact that they are glad to be back. The business men of the city are making a special effort to entertain them, the Commercial club having made arrangements for the event.

Dairying has made phenomenal advances in this section during the last few years and is now recognized as the one particular pursuit to which our conditions are adapted. Viewing the progress in the industry in the past the immediate future promises an even greater advance, especially with the increased acreage of alfalfa in this and neighboring counties. Press reports in the Minneapolis Journal yesterday claimed for Pennington county the greatest gain in the United States in the percentage of alfalfa planting in 1924.

This convention will do much to stimulate interest in dairy cattle and the results of the talks given by men of national prominence, who have made the profitable raising of cattle their particular study, will be far reaching. Farmers will return with improved ideas of how to get the greatest returns from their herds.

No dairyman from the Red River valley in attendance at the Dairymen's convention here this week should be permitted to leave Thief River Falls before he has had a good look at the new creamery being built by progressive dairymen of this community. This splendid plant is in itself evidence of the fact that Pennington county farmers have realized for some time that the dairy cow is one of the most dependable sources of income. That they intend to enlarge upon their activities in this field and increase the production is easily indicated by the enlarged facilities for preparing these products for market. The building is not only a most creditable asset to the city but an appropriate monument to the industry which is making money for Pennington county farmers every day in the year, and should be the object of pride to every citizen of the community.

It might be well to remind some individuals of the fact that defending the constitution includes the eighteenth amendment as well.

Citizens Asked to Donate To Nelson Memorial Fund

As no direct intensive drive for raising Pennington county's quota of $240 towards the Knute Nelson Memorial fund will be made, it is pointed out by Dr. O. F. Mellby of this city, appointed to raise funds in this county, that contributions will be made in the form of free will offerings, which are to be sent to the county chairman. The campaign thruout the state to raise funds for a memorial to the memory of Minnesota's Grand Old Man and most prominent statesman started Monday and continues until the end of this month and it is urged that all donations be made before the close of the drive. A memorial statue will be placed on the Capitol grounds, an effort being made to raise a total of $50,000 in the state, every county being organized. Out of respect to Nelson's tradition, those in charge say that it is preferred that the donations be small amounts but large in number and representative of the entire state.

A proclamation has been issued by Governor J. A. O. Preus, designating November 17 to December 1 as the period for the memorial drive and urging "all citizens of the state not only to show their appreciation of Nelson's services but by this means point out to future generations what may be accomplished in this land of opportunity by any youth who has industry, integrity and the will to serve."

Mike Popular in Minnesota

"Mike Holm stayed at home during the campaign and attended to business and didn't make any speeches and the returns seem to indicate that all others who stayed at home and didn't make any speeches voted for him," says Martin Widsten in the Crookston Daily Times. Mike was the biggest vote-getter in Pennington county among the G. O. P. men and was given the biggest vote of any candidate for office in Minnesota. Perhaps his popularity in this city was partly due to the fact that he has a 100 per cent booster in the person of his daughter, Mrs. Clarence O. Erickson. A niece, Mrs. Bart Wegenstein, is also a resident of Thief River Falls. The secretary of state was the only Republican candidate who received a majority in Marshall county. He was a resident of Roseau at the time of his election but went to school in Warren in the early days.

Another Farm Closed

Judgment was entered with the clerk of court at Warren Wednesday of last week closing the farm and buildings owned by Appolus Poitras and his wife of Argyle for one year and an order filed by Judge Andrew Grindeland provides that the place be closed some time before Nov. 22. It is the third abatement order to be filed in Marshall county and the first in which judgment has been actually made. The first case against Alfred LeBlanc of Argyle has been appealed to the state supreme court and that against Walter Gajeski of Wright township has been suspended pending his attitude regarding liquor laws.

Extraordinary Savings In Coats and Dresses

Thanksgiving—Thursday Next!

This Store will be closed on Thanksgiving Day as usual.

It is fitting that a day should be set aside each year to give thanks to the Omnipotent for the blessings received.

It is a time-honored custom, observed on the last Thursday in November since 1863 when President Lincoln so declared by proclamation.

It was first observed in America when in 1621 the Plymouth Pilgrims devoted the day to an acknowledgment of their first harvest.

Russelite Perversions of the Holy Scriptures

Sermon delivered by Rev. E. H. Kreidt, Sunday, Nov. 9, at St. John's Lutheran Church, Thief River Falls.

Our text gives the rule according to which all religious teaching shall and must be tested. That rule is the inspired word of God. "To the Law and to the Testimony, if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them." Anything and everything spoken contrary to, or beside, the Holy Scriptures is spiritual darkness; it is false doctrine, and leads not to God, but to the devil, not to heaven, but to hell. Such doctrines are not the wisdom of God but the machinations of Satan.

Religious systems and doctrines are to be tested, not by decisions and opinions of men, but by the Word of God, by the Law and the Testimony. Everything contrary to the Word must be cast aside as false.

The followers of "Pastor" Russel, who style themselves "The International Bible Students", have circulated a sheet in which they have brought forth the following indictment against all pastors and teachers of the various branches of the Christian Church: "We present and charge that Satan formed a conspiracy for the purpose of keeping the people in ignorance of God's provision for blessing them with life, liberty and happiness;—That unfaithful preachers have formed themselves into ecclesiastical systems, consisting of councils, synods, Presbyteries, associations, etc, and have designated themselves therein as popes, cardinals, bishops, doctors of divinity, pastors, shepards, reverends, etc., and elected themselves to such offices, which aggregation is herein desciganated as the "clergy";—that the clergy have yielded to the tempatations presented to them by Satan and, contrary to God's Word, have joined in said conspiracy."

That is not a trifling charge to be brought against the Christian Clergy, without exception. Is the charge based on facts? The Bible Students appeal to the Word of God. To that let us go, and see whether the indictment shall stand. I speak as a pastor of the Missouri Synod Lutheran Church, and as such answer the charges brought against us.

In their indictment the Bible Students declare: "We further present and charge that the clergy as a class have constituted themselves the fountain of doctrines which, in furtherance of said conspiracy, they have sent forth to the people, claiming such doctrines to be the teachings of God's Word, well knowing the same to be untrue, in this, to-wit:

(1) That they falsely claim to be the divinely appointed successors to the inspired Apostles of Jesus Christ—;

(2) That they claim the sole right to interpret the Scriptures and that therefore they alone know what the people should believe."

These claims have never been made by the Lutheran Church. On the contrary, it was Luther, the founder of the Lutheran Church, who successfully attacked this claim set forth by the Pope at Rome. The Pope indeed claimed, and still claims, to be the successor of Peter, and the Vicar of Christ upon earth: that he alone is able and permitted to expound and interpret the Word of God; that he alone may determine what the people shall believe. Luther declared, that the Word of God alone may determine articles of faith; that every person has the right to interpret the Scriptures; that he may, even must, depart from decisions of the popes and church councils, because they have erred. However, Luther also demanded that the Scriptures be interpreted according to the laws of language; that the Scripture must be interpreted and explained by the Scripture. This position we still hold. We are not the 'successors of the Apostles', as though we could add to what they have said and taught. We are merely the instruments for passing on the Truth of God as given by and through the Apostles. How often have you not been exhorted from this pulpit to follow the example of the Bereans, who, having heard Paul preach, "searched the Scriptures daily whether those things were so" (Act. 17, 11.) You are to believe what we teach and preach unto you, not because WE preach it, but because it is the Word of God. Indictments 1 and 2 are a lie and falsehood, as far as the Lutheran Church is concerned.

The Bible Students continue: 3) "The clergy have taught and teach the divine right of kings to rule the peoples, claiming such rule to be the kingdom of God upon earth—". What does the Lutheran Church teach regarding the rule of kings and republics, of all constituted authority? Just that which the Apostles of Jesus Christ, and the Savior himself have taught: "Give unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and unto God the things that are God's." (Matt. 22, 21.) The Kingdom of God and that of earthly kings are two separate spheres; they must be kept separate. Paul writes to the Romans (13): "Let every soul be subject to the higher powers. For there is no power but of God; the powers that be are ordained of God. Whosoever therefore resisteth the power resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation. Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake;—for they are Gods ministers." To Titus, (3, 7). "Paul writes: "Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work." Peter writes: "Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake; whether it be to the king as supreme, or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and the praise of them that do well. Fear God. Honor the king" (I Pet. 2). That is apostolic and also Lutheran doctrine of civil government: The form of Government under which we live is God's representative on earth; to it we owe obedience, honor and respect. We have never taught that any form of Government was God's kingdom on earth.—Lie No. 3.

Indictment 4. "That the clergy are the authors of the UNREASONABLE and FALSE doctrine of the trinity, by which they claim and teach that Jehovah, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit are three persons in one, which fallacy they admit cannot be understood nor explained; that this false doctrine has blinded the people to the true meaning of the great ransom sacrifice of Jesus Christ, through which men can be saved." The first part of this statement is not true to facts. We do not teach that Jehovah, Jesus and the Holy Spirit are ONE, but that they are three persons in one divine essence, or in one God. There is one God, but three persons. The clergy are not the authors of this doctrine. The author is none other than the Triune God, as witness the following words of God: Gen. 1, 26: "Let US make man in our image." Gen. 3, 22: "And the Lord God said, Behold, man is become as one of US." Here God speaks of Himself in the plural. Matt. 28, 19: "Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost." Of Jesus' baptism we read Lk. 3, "The Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon Him, and a voice came from Heaven which said, Thou art my beloved son." Jn. 15, 26: "When the Comforter is come, whom I will send you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me." Acts 10, 38: "God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost." Rom. 8, 11 Paul speaks of "the Spirit of Him that raised up Jesus from the dead." II Cor. 13, 14: "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of the Father, and the communion of the Holy Ghost be with you all." Tit. 3, 4 Paul speaks of "the renewing of the Holy Ghost which God shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior." In all these passages, and they could be multiplied, three distinct persons in God are expressly mentioned. And yet there is only one God. "Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord" (Deut. 6, 4). Who is standing on the Word of God, we who believe and teach a TRIUNE God, one God but three persons, or Russel and his followers, who call the doctrine of the trinity 'unreasonable and false and God-dishonoring'? Ye who have eyes and ears, see and hear. Of course we cannot understand nor explain this mystery of the unity in trinity. We believe it, because the Word of God teaches it.

Does this doctrine of the trinity 'blind the people to the true meaning of the great ransom sacrifice of Jesus Christ, through which men can be saved'? We answer 'No.' What is the true meaning of Jesus' sacrifice? We shall let the Bible speak: Jn. 3, 16: "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." Gal. 4, 4.5: When the fullness of time was come God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the Law, to redeem them that were under the Law, that we might receive the adoption of sons." Jn. 1, 29: "Behold the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world." Eph. 1, 7: "In Christ we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace." I Jn. 1, 7: "The blood of Jesus Christ God's son cleanseth us from all sin." Rev. 5, 9: "Thou was slain and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood." God the Father sent his only begotten Son into the flesh as a true man, to redeem sinners from sin and everlasting death by the shedding of his blood. The Holy Spirit through the Gospel brings this redemption to men, causes them to believe and accept it, and thus be saved. Does the doctrine of the trinity blind us to this great Work of God's saving love? Nay, the Trinity makes that work possible. Indictment 4 has failed utterly. We are standing on the Bible, and Russel beside it.

Here is further proof for that: Russel taught: Jesus Christ is not God, but the 'highest of God's spiritual creatures'; before his incarnation, Jesus was the 'highest of the angels', when he was born man, Jesus ceased to be an angel, and became a perfect man; at his death he ceased to be man: "The man Jesus is dead, dead forever." Russel thus denies the bodily resurrection of Christ, his bodily ascension into heaven, and his sitting at the right hand of God. He says: "The man Jesus Christ suffered for us death in the most absolute sense of the word, everlasting destruction." Russel denes that we are redeemed by the "blood of the Son of God," for Jesus was merely a perfect man. Are we saying too much, when we call Russel and his followers perverters of the Scriptures? Judge for yourselves. He it is who is blinding the people to the true meaning of the great ransom sacrifice of Jesus Christ. If Christ was only a man, then we are not redeemed unto God, for "no man can by any means redeem his brother" Ps. 49.

Indictments 5 and 6: "That the clergy teach and have taught the false doctrine of human immortality; that is to say, that all men are created immortal souls, which cannot die." "That the clergy preach and teach the doctrine of eternal torment; that is to say, that the penalty for sin is conscious torment in hell, eternal in duration." We do teach that on the basis of the following scriptures: Dan. 12, 2: "Many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to everlasting shame and contempt." The good and evil shall rise again. Jn. 5, 28. 29: "Marvel not at this, for the hour is coming in which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil to the resurrection of damnation." The saved and the damned shall be made alive again. All men, without an exception, are immortal. They live forever, either in heaven or in hell. The wicked are not destroyed, as Russel taught but they live forever in conscious, infinite torment.

To deny that is to deny the following clear statements of the Scriptures: Matt. 25, 41.46: "Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels. And these shall go away into everlasting punishment." Lk. 3, 17: "Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner, but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable." Rev. 14, 9-11: "If any man worship the beast and his image and receive his mark in his forehead or in his hand, the same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation, and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb; and the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever; and they have no rest day and night." Then ponder the story, of the rich man in hell; here are the pertinent phrases: "In hell he lift up his eyes being in torment"; "I am tormented in this flame"; "thou art tormented"; "between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence" (Lk. 16, 19 sq.) The punishment of the wicked is conscious torment in hell, eternal in duration. When we teach and preach that, we are standing on the Word of God; and when Russel denies that, he is willfully perverting the Scriptures.

Indictment 7: "That the clergy deny the right of the Lord to establish his kingdom on earth, well knowing that Jesus taught, that He would come again at the end of the world, and that the fact of that time would be made known by the nations of Christendom engaging in a world war, quickly followed by famine, pestilence, revolutions, etc." Three terms must here be defined from the Scriptures: 1. The Kingdom of God; 2. Jesus' return to the world; 3. The end of the world. We shall take them up in order.

1. Christ says to Pilate, Jn. 18, 36: "My kingdom is not of this world." "Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Everyone that is of the truth heareth my voice." Christ's kingdom is set up on earth by bearing witness unto the truth; wherever this truth is heard and accepted, there is the Kingdom of Christ. It is a spiritual Kingdom, in which Christ rules by faith in the hearts of the believers. The following words of Jesus are to the point: "And when he was demanded of the Phar. when the Kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation; neither shall they say, Lo here, Lo there, for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you" Lk. 17, 20, 21. Through the preaching of the Gospel of Salvation Christ has all these centuries been establishing his kingdom in the hearts of men, even unto the ends of the earth.

2. (Matt. 24) The disciples ask the Lord: "What shall be the sign of thy coming and the end of the world?" Among the signs the Savior mentions: Wars, famine, pestilences, revolutions, earthquakes, persecution of the Christians, falling away from love and faith, false prophets and false Christs, darkening of the sun and moon, the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of heaven shall be shaken. Then shall appear the sign of the Son of Man in heaven; and then shall all the tribes of the earth see the Son of Man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory." Matt. 25, 32 sq. "Before him shall be gathered all nations; and he shall separate them one from another; and he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. To those on the right he will say, Come ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom; to those on the left, Depart from me ye cursed into everlasting fire. And these shall go away into everlasting punishment; but the righteous into life eternal." Christ shall return visibly, in great glory and divine power and majesty to judge the living and the dead.

When will he thus return? Matt. 24, 27: "As the lightning cometh out of the east and shineth even unto the west; so shall the coming of the Son of Man be." He will come suddenly, unexpectedly. 36. "But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my father only." That day is known only to God. 42. "Watch therefore, for ye know not what hour your Lord cometh." How then does Russel know?

3. What do the Scriptures understand by the "end of the world"? II Pet. 3, 7, 10. We have the answer: "But the heavens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up." The end of the world, as the Bible understands it, is the day of judgment, the last day, when Christ shall visibly return to pass sentence upon all nations, banish the wicked to everlasting punishment, return to heaven with the elect, and the earth and all created things shall be destroyed with fire.

Russel claims that Christ has returned in the year 1914 and begun the setting up of his kingdom; "the millions of the people now on earth will be first tried, and then the dead will be resurrected and have an opportunity for life. Those who refuse to obey the Lord will be destroyed forever. All the wicked that turn to righteousness shall live and not die." Here are several questions to be asked: How do the Bible Students know the time of Christs reutrn, when Christ Himself said, "Of that day and hour knoweth no man?" Why do they teach that the wicked shall be forever destroyed, when the Bible so clearly states, that the wicked "shall go away into everlasting punishment"? Why do they teach that the resurrected dead will have an opportunity for life, when the Bible says: "It is appointed unto man once to die, but after this the judgment;" and that Christ shall return "to judge the living and the dead?" There is only one answer to these questions: The Bible Students are false prophets, that come to us in sheeps clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. They are not of God, but of the devil. They lead not to heaven, but to hell. They give not life, but death.

"To the Law and to the Testimony: If they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them." At the bar of the Law and the testimony, the inspired Word of God, Russel and the International Bible Students stand convicted of the most gross and blasphemous perversion of the Scripture. They deny the doctrine of the Trinity in Unity of God; the deity of Jesus Christ, his resurrection, and the true meaning of his atonement for sin; the immortality of all men, and the everlasting punishment of the wicked; they teach a false idea of Christ's kingdom on earth; of the end of the world, and of Christ's return; they teach evolution after death, of which the Bible knows nothing. With these and other false, unscriptural doctrines Russel and the Bible Students have placed themselves outside of the Christian Church. Beware of these false prophets.

Beloved, let us cling to our dear Lutheran church, in which the Word of God has been taught to us in its truth and purity; where we "have been made wise unto salvation through faith which in Christ Jesus."

O Lord Jesus, preserve unto thy church faithful and honest preachers, that "rightly divide the Word of truth." Amen.

RECORD DISASTER YEAR KEPT RED CROSS BUSY

In 192 Places in United States Its Relief Operations Cost $737,603.

One hundred and ninety-two disasters resulting in 735 deaths and injury to 1,932 persons, rendering nearly 3,000 homeless and causing property losses estimated at more than $44,750,000, established a new record in the United States in the year ended last June 30, according to reports of the American Red Cross. In all of these disasters immediately relief activity was applied by the Red Cross, which expended $737,603.37 through the national organization and the local Chapters in assisting stricken communities.

As the nation's chief relief agency, whose service covers over 43 years, the Red Cross is expected to be on duty almost as soon as disaster strikes any locality. This trust and confidence is amply justified by the increasing equipment of the Red Cross, which recently organized a mobile disaster unit of experienced workers ready in all parts of the country to respond on the instant to a call for active duty. This unit is capable of operating in several disaster areas under one general direction, and recently was at work in seven communities in five states at the same time.

Ability, alertness and increasing skill of volunteer workers in more than 3,500 Chapters are reasons for the preparedness of Red Cross for disaster operations, be the call for a disturbance in a restricted local area or for millions in relief funds for a staggering catastrophe such as the earthquake in Japan.

The Red Cross, however, is far from being self-satisfied, for the organization is giving the most serious consideration to measures for preventing disasters. Its relief administration and rehabilitation policies have won for it nation-wide regard. That this important work can always measure up to every demand needs the continued support of the American people through Red Cross membership. The annual enrollment will begin Armistice Day, November 11, and every American is urged to join or renew membership in the Red Cross.

Help yourself by helping others with your dollar Red Cross membership. The dividend in good works is guaranteed.

Pitch Lake of Trinidad Reported Slowly Falling

In the thirteen-odd million square miles of territory which comprises the British empire there are many remarkable phenomena, one of the most interesting being the pitch lake of Trinidad, in the West Indies. It is a natural reservoir of valuable mineral pitch, a hundred acres in extent, from which 200,000 tons of asphalt are exported annually.

Although the asphalt appears "soft," one can easily walk about on the lake. Any excavations made during the day are mysteriously filled up at night by nature, although the general level of the lake is slowly sinking.

About halfway across Kenya colony, in British East Africa, is Magadi lake, a vast natural deposit of soda. The lake is ten miles long, two or three miles in width, and, seen from the mountains that surround it, it has the appearance of an immense ruffled white sheet.

Borings have failed to reveal its depth, and as new deposits are formed after excavations the supply would appear to be inexhaustible. A railway has been built to it, refineries opened and every year something like 150,000 tons of soda reach us from this wonder lake in East Africa.—London Tit-Bits.

Apples Breathe Just as Human Beings Do

Apples breathe and use up air in storage, just the same as human beings do, though very slowly, says the Pennsylvania department of agriculture, in a notice issued giving instructions for the proper method of winter apple storage. It is just as important, says the department, for an apple to have a change of air as it is for a sleeping babe in a closed room.

If this fruit is to keep properly specialists in the bureau of plant industry point out, three chief points must be kept in mind—temperature, ventilation and air moisture. The temperature should be brought close to the freezing point and kept there. High temperature—above 40 degrees Fahrenheit—causes too rapid a loss of moisture and encourages rot. A system of storage which provides for changing the air, by the arrangement of crates, raised floors, slatted partitions, or other methods, will make a vast difference in the condition of the fruit after a few months' storage.

As to air moisture, if the fruit is kept in too dry an air, the apples will lose water rapidly and shrivel. If too moist, they are apt to rot.

Large Garnet Quarry in Adirondack Mountains

Tucked away in the heart of the Adirondack mountains, near beautiful Thirteenth lake, and about three and a half miles to the south and west of the village of North River, Warren county, New York, are the plant and the associate properties of America's largest producer of abrasive garnet. The North river ore has the reputation of superiority owing to conditions surrounding its birth eons ago, when the earth's crust in that neighborhood underwent tremendous movements, which, combined with several different intrusions of igneous rock, thoroughly transformed the ancient sediments.

The commercial value of abrasive garnet depends upon its hardness, toughness, manner of fracturing and purity. The grains, crystals, or masses of the garnet must be large enough to yield, when crushed and screened, particles of sharply angular form and of varying sizes to meet the requirements for different grades of abrasive papers. Therefore, a laminated garnet, which will break up into relatively sharp, angular grains is most to be desired. It is the sharp cutting edges of the abrasive that do the work for which garnet papers are employed. Garnet paper as a competitor of quartz and paper was first brought out in the eighties, and has won widening recognition ever since because of qualities which distinguish the garnet abrasive from the quartz-sand abrasive.—Detroit News.

Edible Birds' Nests Found in Great Caves

Far up in the great limestone caves of North Borneo are found, glued to the sides in hundreds of thousands, the edible birds' nests so loved by Chinese epicures for making soup.

The nests are built by a species of cave-haunting swifts which breed in colonies. They are formed not, as the natives believe, from sea foam, but from a glutinous substance produced from the large salivary glands of the birds themselves.

There are two kinds of nests, the white and the black. The white nests are clean and semi-transparent, the fine threads of which they are interwoven being not unlike those of a shredded wheat cake.

The black nests are discolored and have grass and feathers mixed with them. The black nests predominate, but the white, from which the best soup is made, fetch from ten to fifteen times as much as the others.

A Great Shock

The late Sir Charles Hawtrey, the English actor, was being praised in a New York club.

"Hawtrey," said a comedian, "once told me about a trip he made to India. He complimented the Anglo-Indians for their elegance, but he said their slang was very hard to understand.

"He said that at a dinner party in Simla he was praising the smart equipages he had seen everywhere when a pretty girl on his left touched his ear coquettishly:

"'I must show you my tum-tum tomorrow. I have just had it painted black and yellow.'

"Hawtrey said that when he came to they explained to him that 'tum-tum' was the Anglo-Indian slang for 'dogcart.'"

THE DAIRYMEN'S CONVENTION

The 21st annual convention of the Red River Valley Dairymen's association in Thief River Falls this week is in many respects the most important meeting in the history of the city. This city, the county seat of one of the leading dairy counties in the valley, is selected as the meeting place for dairymen from the entire Northwestern Minnesota the second time, a similar convention having been held here in 1916. That they are pleased with the treatment accorded them then is indicated by the fact that they are glad to be back. The business men of the city are making a special effort to entertain them, the Commercial club having made arrangements for the event.

Dairying has made phenomenal advances in this section during the last few years and is now recognized as the one particular pursuit to which our conditions are adapted. Viewing the progress in the industry in the past the immediate future promises an even greater advance, especially with the increased acreage of alfalfa in this and neighboring counties. Press reports in the Minneapolis Journal yesterday claimed for Pennington county the greatest gain in the United States in the percentage of alfalfa planting in 1924.

This convention will do much to stimulate interest in dairy cattle and the results of the talks given by men of national prominence, who have made the profitable raising of cattle their particular study, will be far reaching. Farmers will return with improved ideas of how to get the greatest returns from their herds.

No dairyman from the Red River valley in attendance at the Dairymen's convention here this week should be permitted to leave Thief River Falls before he has had a good look at the new creamery being built by progressive dairymen of this community. This splendid plant is in itself evidence of the fact that Pennington county farmers have realized for some time that the dairy cow is one of the most dependable sources of income. That they intend to enlarge upon their activities in this field and increase the production is easily indicated by the enlarged facilities for preparing these produtes for market. The building is not only a most creditable asset to the city but an appropriate monument to the industry which is making money for Pennington county farmers every day in the year, and should be the object of pride to every citizen of the community.

It might be well to remind some individuals of the fact that defending the constitution includes the eighteenth amendment as well.

Citizens Asked to Donate To Nelson Memorial Fund

As no direct intensive drive for raising Pennington county's quota of $240 towards the Knute Nelson Memorial fund will be made, it is pointed out by Dr. O. F. Mellby of this city, appointed to raise funds in this county, that contributions will be made in the form of free will offerings, which are to be sent to the county chairman. The campaign thruout the state to raise funds for a memorial to the memory of Minnesota's Grand Old Man and most prominent statesman started Monday and continues until the end of this month and it is urged that all donations be made before the close of the drive. A memorial statue will be placed on the Capitol grounds, an effort being made to raise a total of $50,000 in the state, every county being organized. Out of respect to Nelson's tradition, those in charge say that it is preferred that the donations be small amounts but large in number and representative of the entire state.

A proclamation has been issued by Governor J. A. O. Preus, designating November 17 to December 1 as the period for the memorial drive and urging "all citizens of the state not only to show their appreciation of Nelson's services but by this means point out to future generations what may be accomplished in this land of opportunity by any youth who has industry, integrity and the will to serve."

Mike Popular in Minnesota

"Mike Holm stayed at home during the campaign and attended to business and didn't make any speeches and the returns seem to indicate that all others who stayed at home and didn't make any speeches voted for him," says Martin Widsten in the Crookston Daily Times. Mike was the biggest vote-getter in Pennington county among the G. O. P. men and was given the biggest vote of any candidate for office in Minnesota. Perhaps his popularity in this city was partly due to the fact that he has a 100 per cent booster in the person of his daughter, Mrs. Clarence O. Erickson. A niece, Mrs. Bert Waggenstein, is also a resident of Thief River Falls. The secretary of state was the only Republican candidate who received a majority in Marshall county. He was a resident of Roseau at the time of his election but went to school in Warren in the early days.

Another Farm Closed

Judgment was entered with the clerk of court at Warren Wednesday of last week closing the farm and buildings owned by Appolus Poitras and his wife of Argyle for one year and an order filed by Judge Andrew Grindeland provides that the place be closed some time before Nov. 22. It is the third abatement order to be filed in Marshall county and the first in which judgment has been actually made. The first case against Alfred LeBlanc of Argyle has been appealed to the state supreme court and that against Walter Gujeski of Wright township has been suspended pending his attitude regarding liquor laws.

Skovgaard, Danish Violinist, Gives Concert Here Tonite

Axel Skovgaard, celebrated Danish violinist, appears tonight at the Sons of Norway hall in a concert under the auspices of the Snorre lodge. Alice Mc'lung Skovgaard, wife of the noted concert player, will serve as accompanist. The program which they will play here is said to be sure to appeal to everyone with a sense of musical appreciation, those who have heard Skovgaard giving him high praise. He plays upon a violin valued at $13,000, a Stradivarius made in 1712, but upon which he was the first to play.

Madame Skovgaard is an American by birth and is said to be a pianist of remarkable ability. She will play several groups from the best composers. The two artists promise a diversified program of uniform excellence.

City Turns Out For Funeral Of Prominent Citizen Sun.

One of the saddest funerals in the history of Thief River Falls was held Sunday at the city auditorium for Carl Angell, who was killed Tuesday last week when the truck he drove overturned near Plummer. The spacious auditorium was filled and even standing room was unavailable when the services began.

Rev. S. L. Tallakson, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church of which Mr. Angell was a member, conducted the services. The vocal numbers included "One Sweetly Solem Hour," by Miss Thora Hanson and "Endnu Et Streif Kun af Sol," by Dr. P. L. Vistaunet, and two numbers by the Brage chorus, "En Sangers Bon," and "Requiem." The Prelude and Postlude were played by Mrs. W. J. Brown and the hymns by the audience by Mrs. Gaston Ward. The Messrs. Alfred Bredeson, C. H. Jung, Iver Aaseby, Leonard Hanson, T. J. Reierson and William Parhst served as pall bearers.

Clarence Sanders

Clarence Sanders, son of Mrs. Sigurd Sanders of Cloverleaf township, died at the Swedenburg hospital Saturday forenoon, Nov. 8, after a two days' illness of spinal meningitis. The funeral services were held from the Augustana Lutheran church Thursday afternoon and interment made in Greenwood cemetery, the body placed beside that of his father who died some time ago. Rev. A. A. Larson officiated at the obsequies.

Young Sanders, one of Cloverleaf's finest young men, was well and working on a gravel haul the first part of last week. Thursday morning he suddenly became ill and Friday evening was taken to the Swedenburg hospital in this city, where he died Saturday forenoon. He was born August 20, 1907 and made his home with his parents and with his mother since his father's death. He was an energetic and faithful youth and assisted his mother and older brother greatly in the operation of the farm. To mourn his untimely death he leaves his mother, brothers, Emil and Leonard, and sister, Julia.

Completing Graveling of T. R. F.-St. Hilaire Road

Crews at work on the graveling project on trunk highway No. 32 between this city and St. Hilaire expect to get thru with that part of the job today or tomorrow, a fleet of more than 20 trucks having been at work on the north half portion day and night during the past ten days. The crew will move to Red Lake Falls to complete the surfacing north of that place.

Dr. Twete Returns

Dr. L. R. Twete, local veterinarian and city dairy inspector, returned on Saturday night from Des Moines, Ia., where he was in active duty taking post graduate work in the army medical school for two weeks. He is now checking up infective herds in Red Lake county as follow-up work after the area T. B. test.

Teloyd Orrin Bratland

Teloyd Orrin Bratland, son of Mrs. T. Bratland of Goodridge, died Saturday, Nov. 8, at the age of nine years, two months and five days. He leaves to mourn his passing his mother, Mrs. T. Bratland, two sisters and a brother. Funeral services were held at the house Nov. 11, and interment made in Rosendal cemetery, Rev. V. O. Aakre officiating.

Thanks Voters

To the voters of the Ninth Congressional District of Minnesota:

I wish to thank you most sincerely for the fine endorsement given me in the election on November the fourth. It shall be my aim, in the future as in the past, to so conduct myself that the interest of the Ninth District of Minnesota and of the common people in general shall not suffer at my hand.

Sincerely yours,
KNUD WEFALD.

Kvale Got Big Majority

Congressman O. J. Kvale, Farmer-Labor, in the Seventh district, former pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church of this city, defeated his Republican opponent Gunnar Bjornson by about 13,000 votes majority, carrying all but one county in the district.

Many Aliens Cross Border

The Marshall county jail now has ten alien inmates and arrests are being made regularly as a result of the drive against smuggling aliens across the border from Canada. A force of 25 motor patrolmen has been added to the border patrol north of here.

Thanksgiving—Thursday Next!

This Store will be closed on Thanksgiving Day as usual.

It is fitting that a day should be set aside each year to give thanks to the Omnipotent for the blessings received.

It is a time-honored custom, observed on the last Thursday in November since 1863 when President Lincoln so declared by proclamation.

It was first observed in America when in 1621 the Plymouth Pilgrims devoted the day to an acknowledgment of their first harvest.

Russelite Perversions of the Holy Scriptures

Sermon delivered by Rev. E. H. Kreidt, Sunday, Nov. 9, at St. John's Lutheran Church, Thief River Falls.

Our text gives the rule according to which all religious teaching shall and must be tested. That rule is the inspired word of God. "To the Law and to the Testimony, if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them." Anything and everything spoken contrary to, or beside, the Holy Scriptures is spiritual darkness; it is false doctrine, and leads not to God, but to the devil, not to heaven, but to hell. Such doctrines are not the wisdom of God but the machinations of Satan.

Religious systems and doctrines are to be tested, not by decisions and opinions of men, but by the Word of God, by the Law and the Testimony Everything contrary to the Word must be cast aside as false.

The followers of "Pastor" Russel, who style themselves "The International Bible Students", have circulated a sheet in which they have brought forth the following indictment against all pastors and teachers of the various branches of the Christian Church: "We present and charge that Satan formed a conspiracy for the purpose of keeping the people in ignorance of God's provision for blessing them with life, liberty and happiness;—That unfaithful preachers have formed themselves into ecclesiastical systems, consisting of councils, synods, Presbyteries, associations, etc, and have designated themselves therein as popes, cardinals, bishops, doctors of divinity, pastors, shepards, reverends, etc., and elected themselves to such offices, which aggregation is herein designated as the "clergy";—that the clergy have yielded to the tempatations presented to them by Satan and, contrary to God's Word, have joined in said conspiracy."

That is not a trifling charge to be brought against the Christian Clergy, without exception. Is the charge based on facts? The Bible Students appeal to the Word of God. To that let us go, and see whether the indictment shall stand. I speak as a pastor of the Missouri Synod Lutheran Church, and as such answer the charges brought against us.

In their indictment the Bible Students declare: "We further present and charge that the clergy as a class have constituted themselves the fountain of doctrines which, in furtherance of said conspiracy, they have sent forth to the people, claiming such doctrines to be the teachings of God's Word, well knowing the same to be untrue, in this, to-wit:

(1) That they falsely claim to be the divinely appointed successors to the inspired Apostles of Jesus Christ—;

(2) That they claim the sole right to interpret the Scriptures and that therefore they alone know what the people should believe."

These claims have never been made by the Lutheran Church. On the contrary, it was Luther, the founder of the Lutheran Church, who successfully attacked this claim set forth by the Pope at Rome. The Pope indeed claimed, and still claims, to be the successor of Peter, and the Vicar of Christ upon earth; that he alone is able and permitted to expound and interpret the Word of God; that he alone may determine what the people shall believe. Luther declared, that the Word of God alone may determine articles of faith; that every person has the right to interpret the Scriptures; that he may, even must, depart from decisions of the popes and church councils, because they have erred. However, Luther also demanded that the Scriptures be interpreted according to the laws of language; that the Scripture must be interpreted and explained by the Scripture. This position we still hold. We are not the 'successors of the Apostles', as though we could add to what they have said and taught. We are merely the instruments for passing on the Truth of God as given by and through the Apostles. How often have you not been exhorted from this pulpit to follow the example of the Bereans, who, having heard Paul preach, "searched the Scriptures daily whether those things were so" (Act. 17, 11.) You are to believe what we teach and preach unto you, not because WE preach it, but because it is the Word of God. Indictments 1 and 2 are a lie and falsehood, as far as the Lutheran Church is concerned.

The Bible Students continue: 3) "The clergy have taught and teach the divine right of kings to rule the peoples, claiming such rule to be the kingdom of God upon earth—". What does the Lutheran Church teach regarding the rule of kings and republics, of all constituted authority? Just that which the Apostles of Jesus Christ, and the Savior himself have taught: "Give unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and unto God the things that are God's." (Matt. 22, 21.) The Kingdom of God and that of earthly kings are two separate spheres; they must be kept separate. Paul writes to the Romans, (13): "Let every soul be subject to the higher powers. For there is no power but of God; the powers that be are ordained of God. Whosoever therefore resiteth the power or resisteth the ordinance of God; and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation. Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake;—for they are Gods ministers—". To Titus, (3, 7). "Paul writes: "Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work." Peter writes: "Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake; whether it be to the king as supreme, or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and the praise of them that do well. "Fear God. Honor the king" (1 Pet. 2). That is apostolic and also Lutheran doctrine of civil government: The form of Government under which we live is God's representative on earth; to it we owe obedience, honor and respect. We have never taught that any form of Government was God's kingdom on earth.—Lie No. 3.

Indictment 4. "That the clergy are the authors of the UNREASONABLE and FALSE doctrine of the trinity, by which they claim and teach that Jehovah, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit are three persons in one, which fallacy they admit cannot be understood nor explained; that this false doctrine has blinded the people to the true meaning of the great ransom sacrifice of Jesus Christ, through which men can be saved." The first part of this statement is not true to facts. We do not teach that Jehovah, Jesus and the Holy Spirit are ONE, but that they are three persons in one divine essence, or in one God. There is one God, but three persons. The clergy are not the authors of this doctrine. The author is none other than the Triune God, as witness the following words of God: Gen. 1, 26: "Let US make man in our image." Gen. 3, 22: "And the Lord God said, Behold, man is become as one of US." Here God speaks of Himself in the plural. Matt. 28, 19: "Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost." Of Jesus' baptism we read Lk. 3, "The Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon Him, and a voice came from Heaven which said, Thou art my beloved son." Jn. 15, 26: "When the Comforter is come, whom I will send you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me." Acts 10, 38: "God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost." Rom. 8, 11 Paul speaks of "the Spirit of Him that raised up Jesus from the dead." II Cor. 13, 14: "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of the Father, and the communion of the Holy Ghost be with you all." Tit. 3, 4 Paul speaks of "the renewing of the Holy Ghost which God shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior." In all these passages, and they could be multiplied, three distinct persons in God are expressly mentioned. And yet there is only one God. "Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord" (Deut. 6, 4). Who is standing on the Word of God, we who believe and teach a TRIUNE God, one God but three persons, or Russel and his followers, who call the doctrine of the trinity 'unreasonable and false and God-dishonoring?' Ye who have eyes and ears, see and hear. Of course we cannot understand nor explain this mystery of the unity in trinity. We believe it, because the Word of God teaches it.

Does this doctrine of the trinity 'blind the people to the true meaning of the great ransom sacrifice of Jesus Christ, through which men can be saved'? We answer 'No.' What is the true meaning of Jesus' sacrifice? We shall let the Bible speak: Jn. 3, 16: "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." Gal. 4, 4.5: When the fullness of time was come God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the Law, to redeem them that were under the Law, that we might receive the adoption of sons." Jn. 1, 29: "Behold the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world." Eph. 1, 7: "In Christ we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace." I Jn. 1, 7: "The blood of Jesus Christ God's son cleanseth us from all sin." Rev. 5, 9: "Thou was slain and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood." God the Father sent his only begotten Son into the flesh as a true man, to redeem sinners from sin and everlasting death by the shedding of his blood. The Holy Spirit through the Gospel brings this redemption to men, causes them to believe and accept it, and thus be saved. Does the doctrine of the trinity blind us to this great Work of God's saving love? Nay, the Trinity makes that work possible. Indictment 4 has failed utterly. We are standing on the Bible, and Russel beside it.

Here is further proof for that: Russel taught: Jesus Christ is not God, but the 'highest of God's spiritual creatures'; before his incarnation, Jesus was the 'highest of the angels'; when he was born man, Jesus ceased to be an angel, and became a perfect man; at his death he ceased to be man: "The man Jesus is dead, dead forever." Russel thus denies the bodily resurrection of Christ, his bodily ascension into heaven, and his sitting at the right hand of God. He says: "The man Jesus Christ suffered for us death in the most absolute sense of the word, everlasting destruction." Russel denes that we are redeemed by the "blood of the Son of God," for Jesus was merely a perfect man. Are we saying too much, when we call Russel and his followers perverters of the Scriptures? Judge for yourselves. He it is who is blinding the people to the true meaning of the great ransom sacrifice of Jesus Christ. If Christ was only a man, then we are not redeemed unto God, for "no man can by any means redeem his brother" Ps. 49.

Indictments 5 and 6: "That the clergy teach and have taught the false doctrine of human immortality; that is to say, that all men are created immortal souls, which cannot die." "That the clergy preach and teach the doctrine of eternal torment; that is to say, that the penalty for sin is conscious torment in hell, eternal in duration." We do teach that on the basis of the following scriptures: "Dan. 12, 2: "Many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to everlasting shame and contempt." The good and evil shall rise again. Jn. 5, 28. 29: "Marvel not at this, for the hour is coming in which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, to the resurrection of damnation." The saved and the damned shall be made alive again. All men, without an exception, are immortal. They live forever, either in heaven or in hell. The wicked are not destroyed, as Russel taught but they live forever in conscious, infinite torment.

To deny that is to deny the following clear statements of the Scriptures: Matt. 25, 41.46: "Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me ye cursed into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels. And these shall go away into everlasting punishment." Lk. 3, 17: "Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner, but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable." Rev. 14, 9-11: "If any man worship the beast and his image and receive his mark in his forehead or in his hand, the same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation, and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb; and the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever; and they have no rest day and night." Then ponder the story of the rich man in hell; here are the pertinent phrases: "In hell he lift up his eyes being in torment"; "I am tormented in this flame"; "thou art tormented"; "between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence" (Lk. 16, 19sq.) The punishment of the wicked is conscious torment in hell, eternal in duration. When we teach and preach that, we are standing on the Word of God; and when Russel denies that, he is willfully perverting the Scriptures.

Indictment 7: "That the clergy deny the right of the Lord to establish his kingdom on earth, well knowing that Jesus taught, that He would come again at the end of the world, and that the fact of that time would be made known by the nations of Christendom engaging in a world war, quickly followed by famine, pestilence, revolutions, etc." Three terms must here be defined from the Scriptures: 1. The Kingdom of God; 2. Jesus' return to the world; 3. The end of the world. We shall take them up in order.

1. Christ says to Pilate, Jn. 18, 36: "My kingdom is not of this world." "Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Everyone that is of the truth heareth my voice." Christ's kingdom is set up on earth by bearing witness unto the truth; wherever this truth is heard and accepted, there is the Kingdom of Christ. It is a spiritual Kingdom, in which Christ rules by faith in the hearts of the believers. The following words of Jesus are to the point: "And when he was demanded of the Phar. when the Kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation; neither shall they say, Lo here; Lo there, for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you" Lk. 17, 20, 21. Through the preaching of the Gospel of Salvation Christ has all these centuries been establishing his kingdom in the hearts of men, even unto the ends of the earth.

2. (Matt. 24). The disciples ask the Lord: "What shall be the sign of thy coming and the end of the world?" Among the signs the Savior mentions: Wars, famine, pestilences, revolutions, earthquakes, persecution of the Christians, falling away from love and faith, false prophets and false Christs, darkening of the sun and moon, the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of heaven shall be shaken. Then "shall appear the sign of the Son of Man in heaven; and then shall all the tribes of the earth see the Son of Man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory." Matt. 25, 32 sq. "Before him shall be gathered all nations; and he shall separate them one from another; and he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. To those on the right he will say, Come ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom; to those on the left, Depart from me ye cursed into everlasting fire. And these shall go away into everlasting punishment; but the righteous into life eternal." Christ shall return visibly, in great glory and divine power and majesty to judge the living and the dead.

When will he thus return? Matt. 24, 27: "As the lightning cometh out of the east and shineth even unto the west; so shall the coming of the Son of Man be." He will come suddenly, unexpectedly. 36. "But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my father only." That day is known only to God. 42. "Watch therefore, for ye know not what hour your Lord cometh." How then does Russel know?

3. What do the Scriptures understand by the "end of the world"? II Pet. 3, 7, 10. We have the answer: "But the heavens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up." The end of the world, as the Bible understands it, is the day of judgment, the last day, when Christ shall visibly return to pass sentence upon all nations, banish the wicked to everlasting punishment, return to heaven with the elect, and the earth and all created things shall be destroyed with fire.

Russel claims that Christ has returned in the year 1914 and begun the setting up of his kingdom; "the millions of the people now on earth will be first tried, and then the dead will be resurrected and have an opportunity for life. Those who refuse to obey the Lord will be destroyed forever. All the wicked that turn to righteousness shall live and not die." Here are several questions to be asked: How do the Bible Students know the time of Christs reutrn, when Christ Himself said, "Of that day and hour knoweth no man?" Why do they teach that the wicked shall be forever destroyed, when the Bible so clearly states, that the wicked "shall go away into everlasting punishment"? Why do they teach that the resurrected dead will have an opportunity for life, when the Bible says: "It is appointed unto man once to die, but after this the judgment;" and that Christ shall return "to judge the living and the dead?" There is only one answer to these questions: The Bible Students are false prophets, that come to us in sheeps clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. They are not of God, but of the devil. They lead not to heaven, but to hell. They give not life, but death.

"To the Law and to the Testimony: If they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them." At the bar of the Law and the testimony, the inspired Word of God, Russel and the International Bible Students stand convicted of the most gross and blasphemous perversions of the Scripture. They deny the doctrine of the Trinity in Unity of God; the deity of Jesus Christ, his resurrection, and the true meaning of his atonement for sin; the immortality of all men, and the everlasting punishment of the wicked; they teach a false idea of Christ's kingdom on earth; of the end of the world, and of Christ's return; they teach probation after death, of which the Bible knows nothing. With these and other false, unscriptural doctrines Russel and the Bible Students have placed themselves outside of the Christian Church. Beware of these false prophets.

Beloved, let us cling to our dear Lutheran church, in which the Word of God has been taught to us in its truth and purity; where we "have been made wise unto salvation through faith which in Christ Jesus."

O Lord Jesus, preserve unto thy church faithful and honest preachers, that "rightly divide the Word of truth." Amen.

RECORD DISASTER YEAR KEPT RED CROSS BUSY

In 192 Places in United States Its Relief Operations Cost $737,603.

One hundred and ninety-two disasters resulting in 735 deaths and injury to 1,632 persons, rendering nearly 44,000 homeless and causing property losses estimated at more than $44,750,000, established a new record in the United States in the year ended last June 30, according to reports of the American Red Cross. In all of these disasters immediate relief activity was applied by the Red Cross, which expended $737,603.37 through the national organization and the local Chapters in assisting stricken communities.

As the nation's chief relief agency, whose service covers over 43 years, the Red Cross is expected to be on duty almost as soon as disaster strikes any locality. This trust and confidence is amply justified by the increasing equipment of the Red Cross, which recently organized a mobile disaster unit of experienced workers ready in all parts of the country to respond on the instant to a call for active duty. This unit is capable of operating in several disaster areas under one general direction, and recently was at work in seven communities in five states at the same time.

Ability, alertness and increasing skill of volunteer workers in more than 3,500 Chapters are reasons for the preparedness of Red Cross for disaster operations, be the call for a disturbance in a restricted local area or for millions in relief funds for a staggering catastrophe such as the earthquake in Japan.

The Red Cross, however, is far from being self-satisfied, for the organization is giving the most serious consideration to measures for preventing disasters. Its relief administration and rehabilitation policies have won for it nation-wide regard. That this important work can always measure up to every demand needs the continued support of the American people through Red Cross membership. The annual enrollment will begin Armistice Day, November 11, and every American is urged to join or renew membership in the Red Cross.

Help yourself by helping others with your dollar Red Cross membership. The dividend in good works is guaranteed.

Laying Down the Law

The Boss—Your face looks very untidy. You haven't shaved for a week.

The Bill Clerk—I know it. I'm raising a beard.

The Boss—You can raise all the beard you want on your own time, but I won't have it during office hours.

Insulting

Flapper—Officer, arrest that man. He insulted me.

Policeman—All right, miss, but what did he do?

Flapper—I made eyes at him and he refused to flirt with me.

Pitch Lake of Trinidad Reported Slowly Falling

In the thirteen-odd million square miles of territory which comprises the British empire there are many remarkable phenomena, one of the most interesting being the pitch lake of Trinidad, in the West Indies. It is a natural reservoir of valuable mineral pitch, a hundred acres in extent, from which 200,000 tons of asphalt are exported annually.

Although the asphalt appears "soft," one can easily walk about on the lake. Any excavations made during the day are mysteriously filled up at night by nature, although the general level of the lake is slowly sinking.

About halfway across Kenya colony, in British East Africa, is Magadi lake, a vast natural deposit of soda. The lake is ten miles long, two or three miles in width, and, seen from the mountains that surround it, it has the appearance of an immense ruffled white sheet.

Borings have failed to reveal its depth, and as new deposits are formed after excavations the supply would appear to be inexhaustible. A railway has been built to it, refineries opened and every year something like 150,000 tons of soda reach us from this wonder lake in East Africa.—London Tit-Bits.

Apples Breathe Just as Human Beings Do

Apples breathe and use up air in storage, just the same as human beings do, though very slowly, says the Pennsylvania department of agriculture, in a notice issued giving instructions for the proper method of winter apple storage. It is just as important, says the department, for an apple to have a change of air as it is for a sleeping babe in a closed room.

If this fruit is to keep properly, specialists in the bureau of plant industry point out, three chief points must be kept in mind—temperature, ventilation and air moisture. The temperature should be brought close to the freezing point and kept there. High temperature—above 40 degrees Fahrenheit—causes too rapid a loss of moisture and encourages rot. A system of storage which provides for changing the air, by the arrangement of crates, raised floors, slatted partitions, or other methods, will make a vast difference in the condition of the fruit after a few months' storage.

As to air moisture, if the fruit is kept in too dry an air, the apples will lose water rapidly and shrivel. If too moist, they are apt to rot.

Large Garnet Quarry in Adirondack Mountains

Tucked away in the heart of the Adirondack mountains, near beautiful Thirteenth lake, and about three and a half miles to the south and west of the village of North river, Warren county, New York, are the plant and the associate properties of America's largest producer of abrasive garnet. The North river ore has the reputation of superiority owing to conditions surrounding its birth eons ago, when the earth's crust in that neighborhood underwent tremendous movements, which, combined with several different intrusions of igneous rock, thoroughly transformed the ancient sediments.

The commercial value of abrasive garnet depends upon its hardness, toughness, manner of fracturing and purity. The grains, crystals, or masses of the garnet must be large enough to yield, when crushed and screened, particles of sharply angular form and of varying sizes to meet the requirements for different grades of abrasive papers. Therefore, a laminated garnet, which will break up into relatively sharp, angular grains is most to be desired. It is the sharp cutting edges of the abrasive that do the work for which garnet papers are employed. Garnet paper as a competitor of quartz and paper was first brought out in the eighties, and has won widening recognition ever since because of qualities which distinguish the garnet abrasive from the quartz-sand abrasive.—Detroit News.

Edible Birds' Nests Found in Great Caves

Far up in the great limestone caves of North Borneo are found, glued to the sides in hundreds of thousands, the edible birds' nests so loved by Chinese epicures for making soup.

The nests are built by a species of cave-haunting swifts which breeds in colonies. They are formed not, as the natives believe, from sea foam, but from a glutinous substance produced from the large salivary glands of the birds themselves.

There are two kinds of nests, the white and the black. The white nests are clean and semi-transparent, the fine threads of which they are interwoven being not unlike those of a shredded wheat cake.

The black nests are discolored and have grass and feathers mixed with them. The black nests predominate, but the white, from which the best soup is made, fetch from ten to fifteen times as much as the others.

A Great Shock

The late Sir Charles Hawtrey, the English actor, was being praised in a New York club.

"Hawtrey," said a comedian, "once told me about a trip he made to India. He complimented the Anglo-Indians for their elegance, but he said their slang was very hard to understand.

"He said that at a dinner party in Simla he was praising the smart equipages he had seen everywhere when a pretty girl on his left touched his ear coquettishly:

"'I must show you my tum-tum tomorrow. I have just had it painted black and yellow.'

"Hawtrey said that when he came to they explained to him that 'tum-tum' was the Anglo-Indian slang for 'dogcart.'"

RED CROSS YEAR'S COST $21,366,255

Nearly $12,000,000 Devoted to Helping Victims of Great Japanese Earthquake.

OVER 3,000 BUSY CHAPTERS

Aid to Disabled War Veterans Paramount and Reaches Nearly $4,000,000.

Washington.—More than $21,000,000 was the total of funds expended in all activities of the American Red Cross during the last fiscal year, ended June 30, says a statement issued by the National organization. This expenditure was almost one-sixth of the amount of money disbursed by the Red Cross in the war year, July, 1917, to June, 1918. Of this extraordinary sum $11,631,303 was America's contribution to the Red Cross for relief of the Japanese earthquake victims. This was increased to $11,768,803 by appropriations from general funds of the Red Cross, and it represented probably the largest spontaneous outpouring of beneficence of a single nation in the history of the world.

Over 3,000 active Chapters expended during the year $4,869,000, the National organization disbursed $16,497,255.35, making the total $21,366,255.35—all for humanitarian work which reached practically around the world.

In announcing the year's record of American Red Cross industry the executive officials at Washington emphasize the fact that the extensive and never-halting work of the Red Cross depends almost wholly upon the nation-wide support of the organization from the memberships enrolled during the annual roll call which this year will be in progress from Nov. 11 to 27, when everyone is asked to join or renew their membership in the American Red Cross.

Soldier Service Paramount

Service in behalf of the disabled veterans of the World War and their families is a paramount obligation of the Red Cross. The organization, through its Chapters, is constantly in touch with this duty in 2,600 communities throughout the United States—the Chapters alone during the year expending in service for veterans about $2,000,000. The National organization expended $1,735,825—a total of $3,735,825 applied to assisting war sufferers toward recovery from disability and distress.

This work is constant in hospitals, sanitariums, camps, soldiers' homes, in the community. For example, in helping disabled men and women in places where they were transient residents $173,076 from national funds alone was required to help solve their problems. Every Red Cross service is ever at hand ready to meet the individual need of these men and women.

The enlisted men in the Regular Army, the Navy, and the Marine Corps, with their home ties, mean a never-ending Red Cross service which figures cannot fully interpret. In this work a total of $688,285 was applied in meeting an obligation under the Red Cross charter which has been fulfilled for over 20 years.

Domestic Operations Extensive

In the past year Red Cross operations were almost wholly confined to continental United States and the insular possessions. Relief work following disasters called for immediate activities in 192 places and a total of $737,603.87 was spent in this service alone. In 33 major disasters trained workers were kept at the work of rehabilitation for many months.

In carrying on the health activities a total of $444,886.66 from Red Cross national funds, and $808,000 from Chapter treasuries—approximately $1,252,886 in all—was applied, giving some idea of the extent of Red Cross service in the fields of public health nursing, nutrition instruction, and spreading knowledge of personal hygiene and care of the sick in the home.

For advancing the cause of human safety, the First Aid instruction, locally by Chapters and over extensive national territory, by the Red Cross instruction car covering trunk line railroads, and in teaching water-safety and increasing the membership of the Red Cross Life-Saving Corps, the total cost was $288,234.71, of which $216,234.71 came out of national funds.

Army of Over 5,500,000

The Junior Red Cross in the schools—with over 5,500,000 in its "I Serve" ranks—was aided with $233,510.78 to which it is estimated the Chapters added some $277,000—a total of $510,510.78. In various other domestic activities the Red Cross spent $283,473.19, and the Chapters in their numerous voluntary services expended an additional $1,048,000 during the year.

Foreign obligations, aside from Japan, were met with national funds as follows: Relief of refugees in Greece, $200,887.18; Junior Red Cross projects, $99,579.75; League of Red Cross Societies, $165,000; other insular and foreign work, $221,855.31. The American Red Cross budget for 1924-25 is $4,647,790.85, or $868,286.96 less than the budget for the year ended last June 30.

In good deeds for all peoples in time of distress the American Red Cross never rests. Help this work with your membership dollar—join on Armistice Day.

Police Chief Cuts Leg

A. D. Ralston, local chief of police, who was confined to his bed a few days last week as a result of a severe cut in his leg incurred while hewing a log on his farm in the Rapid river country, northeast of Grygla, will be back on the old beat again this week. The accident occurred Sunday, last week, and Mr. Ralston was brot to this city immediately for medical care. The ax entered the leg at the ankle and penetrated to the bone. During Chief Ralston's confinement, Gust Gulseth assisted

MANY VACCINATED AGAINST SMALLPOX

Health Authorities Urge Vaccination as Precaution Against Dread Disease

As a result of the warning issued last week by the local health authorities a large number of Thief River Falls citizens and others in the community are being vaccinated as a precaution against smallpox, which has reached an epidemic stage in the larger centers of population in the state. A number of deaths have occurred in the twin cities where the disease is particularly malignant, and deaths thruout the state now average about one a day, according to Dr. O. F. Mellby, who attended a special meeting of the state board of health held Saturday at the division of communicable diseases at the University of Minnesota. Minneapolis has had 55 death's from smallpox this year.

Dr. Mellby, who is a member of the state board, Dr. H. W. Froehlich, city health officer, and Miss Ida Dahl, school nurse, advise vaccination as a measure of precaution, altho the only case of smallpox reported in this section is one at Warren, where a woman who recently arrived from the twin cities was taken ill with the disease. In the twin cities particularly vaccination has been general for some time and it is believed that the epidemic will be held under control if communities thruout the state join in taking the necessary precautions. On Saturday about 100 persons called upon local physicians to be vaccinated, exhausting the supply of vaccine, but a new supply was received Monday so that every request can now be taken care of.

Communities expending public funds for free voluntary smallpox vaccination, in view of the existing prevalency of that disease, are to be reimbursed for half their expenditure, out of county funds, according to a decision of the state board of health. Compulsory vaccination in Minnesota was abandoned in 1903 and a large part of the population in this state is unvaccinated, and unless the people protect themselves by this means a serious epidemic may break out.

Health conditions in Thief River Falls are exceptionally good at this season, reports Miss Dahl, the school nurse. Few absences are reported on account of illness, altho there are two cases of scarlet fever, one in the Knox and one in the Central School. As a close guard is kept by the school nurse it is not expected that there will be further developments. A strict program of quarantining is maintained, to check the outbreak of any disease among the school children.

A number of infantile paralysis cases are also reported in the state, several in the northern section. North Dakota reports 29 cases in October.

To Keep Clock Running

Take a piece of thick woolen cloth, soak it in coal oil and lay it inside the shelf of a hall clock underneath the pendulum or inside it. The vapor goes up and you will never need to oil the clock. Always soak the same woolen cloth two or three inches in kerosene every three or six months. The same thing can be used in a hanging clock or a shelf clock that has a pendulum.

Wet Battery Light

An electric flashlight operated by a wet battery is so constructed that the electrolyte comes in contact with the plates and provides current only when the light is in use.

Battery Storage

Neglect of your storage battery in freezing weather may cause its ruin in a short time. If you are driving your car see that it is fully charged—the extra work in starting in cold weather quickly discharges the battery. Let us recharge it for you and keep it in good working condition. If you are not driving your car, phone 369, and we will call for your battery, store it for the winter and deliver it when you want it in the spring.

RED CROSS YEAR'S COST $21,366,255

Nearly $12,000,000 Devoted to Helping Victims of Great Japanese Earthquake.

OVER 3,000 BUSY CHAPTERS

Aid to Disabled War Veterans Paramount and Reaches Nearly $4,000,000.

Washington.—More than $21 000 000 was the total of funds expended in all activities of the American Red Cross during the last fiscal year, ended June 30, says a statement issued by the National organization. This expenditure was almost one-sixth of the amount of money disbursed by the Red Cross in the war year, July, 1917, to June, 1918. Of this extraordinary sum $11,631,303 was America's contribution to the Red Cross for relief of the Japanese earthquake victims. This was increased to $11,768,803 by appropriations from general funds of the Red Cross, and it represented probably the largest spontaneous outpouring of beneficence of a single nation in the history of the world.

Over 3,000 active Chapters expended during the year $4,869,000, the National organization disbursed $16,497,255.35, making the total $21,366,255.35 —all for humanitarian work which reached practically around the world.

In announcing the year's record of American Red Cross industry the executive officials at Washington emphasize the fact that the extensive and never-halting work of the Red Cross depends almost wholly upon the nation-wide support of the organization from the memberships enrolled during the annual roll call which this year will be in progress from Nov. 11 to 27, when everyone is asked to join or renew their membership in the American Red Cross.

Soldier Service Paramount

Service in behalf of the disabled veterans of the World War and their families is a paramount obligation of the Red Cross. The organization, through its Chapters, is constantly in touch with this duty in 2,669 communities throughout the United States—the Chapters alone during the year expending in service for veterans about $2,000,000. The National organization expended $1,735,825—a total of $3,735,825 applied to assisting war sufferers toward recovery from disability and distress.

This work is constant in hospitals, sanitariums, camps, soldiers' homes, in the community. For example, in helping disabled men and women in places where they were transient residents $173,076 from national funds alone was required to help solve their problems. Every Red Cross service is ever at hand ready to meet the individual need of these men and women.

The enlisted men in the Regular Army, the Navy, and the Marine Corps, with their home ties, mean a never-ending Red Cross service which figures cannot fully interpret. In this work a total of $685,285 was applied in meeting an obligation under the Red Cross charter which has been fulfilled for over 20 years.

Domestic Operations Extensive

In the past year Red Cross operations were almost wholly confined to continental United States and the insular possessions. Relief work following disasters called for immediate activities in 192 places and a total of $737,603.87 was spent in this service alone. In 33 major disasters trained workers were kept at the work of rehabilitation for many months.

In carrying on the health activities a total of $144,886.66 from Red Cross national funds, and $808,000 from Chapter treasuries—approximately $1,252,886 in all—was applied, giving some idea of the extent of Red Cross service in the fields of public health nursing, nutrition instruction, and spreading knowledge of personal hygiene and care of the sick in the home.

For advancing the cause of human safety, the First Aid instruction, locally by Chapters and over extensive national territory, by the Red Cross instruction car covering trunk line railroads, and in teaching water-safety and increasing the membership of the Red Cross Life-Saving Corps, the total cost was $283,234.71, of which $216,234.71 came out of national funds.

Army of Over 5,500,000

The Junior Red Cross in the schools — with over 5,500,000 in its "I Serve" ranks—was aided with $233,510.78 to which it is estimated the Chapters added some $277,000—a total of $510,510.78. In various other domestic activities the Red Cross spent $283,473.19, and the Chapters in their numerous voluntary services expended an additional $1,048,000 during the year.

Foreign obligations, aside from Japan, were met with national funds as follows: Relief of refugees in Greece, $200,897.18; Junior Red Cross projects, $99,579.75; League of Red Cross Societies, $165,000; other insular and foreign work, $221,855.31. The American Red Cross budget for 1924-25 is $4,647,700.85, or $868,286.96 less than the budget for the year ended last June 30.

In good deeds for all peoples in time of distress the American Red Cross never rests. Help this work with your membership dollar—join on Armistice Day.

Police Chief Cuts Leg

A. D. Ralston, local chief of police, who was confined to his bed a few days last week as a result of a severe cut in his leg incurred while hewing a log on his farm in the Rapid river country, northeast of Grygla, will be back on the old beat again this week. The accident occurred Sunday, last week, and Mr. Ralston was brot to this city immediately for medical care. The ax entered the leg at the ankle and penetrated to the bone. During Chief Ralston's confinement, Gust Gulseth assisted

MANY VACCINATED AGAINST SMALLPOX

Health Authorities Urge Vaccination as Precaution Against Dread Disease

As a result of the warning issued last week by the local health authorities a large number of Thief River Falls citizens and others in the community are being vaccinated as a precaution against smallpox, which has reached an epidemic stage in the larger centers of population in the state. A number of deaths have occurred in the twin cities where the disease is particularly malignant, and deaths throut the state now average about one a day, according to Dr. O. F. Meliby, who attended a special meeting of the state board of health held Saturday at the division of communicable diseases at the University of Minnesota. Minneapolis has had 55 death's from smallpox this year.

Dr. Meliby, who is a member of the state board, Dr. H. W. Froehlich, city health officer, and Miss Ida Dahl, school nurse, advise vaccination as a measure of precaution, altho the only case of smallpox reported in this section is one at Warren, where a woman who recently arrived from the twin cities was taken ill with the disease. In the twin cities particularly vaccination has been general for some time and it is believed that the epidemic will be held under control if communities throut the state join in taking the necessary precautions. On Saturday about 100 persons called upon local physicians to be vaccinated, exhausting the supply of vaccine, but a new supply was received Monday so that every request can now be taken care of.

Communities expending public funds for free voluntary smallpox vaccination, in view of the existing prevalency of that disease, are to be reimbursed for half their expenditures out of county funds, according to a decision of the state board of health. Compulsory vaccination in Minnesota was abandoned in 1903 and a large part of the population in this state is unvaccinated, and unless the people protect themselves by this means a serious epidemic may break out.

Health conditions in Thief River Falls are exceptionally good at this season, reports Miss Dahl, the school nurse. Few absences are reported on account of illness, altho there are two cases of scarlet fever, one in the Knox and one in the Central School. As a close guard is kept by the school nurse it is not expected that there will be further developments. A strict program of quarantining is maintained, to check the outbreak of any disease among the school children.

A number of infantile paralysis cases are also reported in the state, several in the northern section. North Dakota reports 29 cases in October.

To Keep Clock Running

Take a piece of thick woolen cloth, soak it in coal oil and lay it inside the shelf of a hall clock underneath the pendulum or inside it. The vapor goes up and you will never need to oil the clock. Always soak the same woolen cloth two or three inches in kerosene every three or six months. The same thing can be used in a hanging clock or a shelf clock that has a pendulum.

Something New at Last

To fly through college is the aim of Charles T. Wrightson who arrived last week by airplane at Oregon Agricultural College from Fresno, California. Wrightson, who is registered as a freshman, is a commercial flier and has conceived the novel idea of bringing his plane to school with him and taking up passengers to pay his college expenses.—Hamline Oracle.

Asked by a Freshman
(Seniors kindly answer)

Do ships have eyes when they go to sea?
Are there springs in the ocean' bed?
Does the Jolly tar flow from a tree?
Does a river lose its head?

Are fishes crazy when they go in seine?
Can an old hen sing her lay?
Can you bring relief to a window pane?
Or mend the break of day?

What sort of a vegetable is a police-beat?
Is a newspaper white when it's read?
Is a baker broke when he's making dough?
Is the undertaking business dead?

Would a wall paper store make a good hotel
Because of the boarder there?
Could you paint a rabbit on a bald man's head
Just to give him a bit of hair?

If you ate a square meal, would the square corners hurt?
Can you dig with the ace of spades?
Would you throw a rope to a drowning lemon
Just to give a lemonade?

STAR ROLAND

As the season for football is now over, a summary of all the games can be made, showing the work the boys have done in this particular phase of athletics. Although the home team is not on top, they have made considerable advance since last year. Many of the boys were handicapped by inexperience and light weight, but as a whole they did exceedingly well, and deserve a great deal of credit for their efforts.

Most of the opposing teams were composed of boys of a much larger stature than those of the local team, but the latter did some excellent work in holding their own with these boys. From all reports the Bemidji players were to be big, hard huskies, but judging from the number of "time outs" called for them, our boys evidently must have given them a few good "impressions" also.

With odds against them in nearly every game the team showed determination and spirit which made them hold their opponents to a close score. Below are the results of each game with comparison of totals:

	T. R. F.	Opp.
Red Lake Falls (there)	26	6
Red Lake Falls (here)	26	0
Warren (there)	0	21
Crookston (here)	12	12
Bemidji (here)	0	39
Mahnomen (here)	53	0
Crookston A. C. (there)	0	38
East Grand Forks (here)	6	12
Totals	123	131

Library Study

We doubt very much if the opportunity of library study is fully realized by those with lessons to prepare. The library is essentially a place for study, for information, and for reference. It is not a place for gossip, not a "ladies aid", or a club meeting place. We wish students would try to realize the fact that altho they may not want to study themselves, there are others who have lessons to prepare, and who are annoyed at the commotion generally set up when a group of young people get together to talk over what has happened. There is bound to be gossip, but let's try to keep it in the halls as much as possible.—The Mac Weekly.

Try for Debate Team

Lylian Arnold, Thomas Melgaard, Ward Mathewson, Emmett Shanahan, Maxine Johnson, Maurice Holzknecht, Jessie Joyce and Ruby Anseby were picked as winners in the debate tryouts Monday and Tuesday. From these eight a team will be picked to represent the high school. All members of the public speaking classes, taught by Lawrence Mickelson, took part in the tryouts.

Debate Schedule

The schedule for the state debating contest in the ninth congressional district was announced this week. The teams will be paired as follows:

Pelican Rapids vs. Fergus Falls.
Moorhead vs. Barnesville.
Perham vs. Detroit.
Warroad vs. Roseau.
Crookston vs. Bagley.
Ada vs. Thief River Falls.

Hawley is an odd team and will not enter until the second debate. The debates must take place before December 19. The question of whether the United States should enter the League of Nations is the subject for this year.

Basketball Is Here

Coach Leonard Thune will issue the first call for basketball players this week. At first those to compete for first string positions will be picked by the coach, and class team candidates will start practicing a little later on in the season. There is plenty of good material left over from last year and Coach Thune should have a champion quint.

"Prowler" Meeting

A "Prowler" meeting was held at the high school on Wednesday evening of last week. It was decided that a candy sale should be held, the proceeds of which are to go to the kodak department. An advertising committee was elected to take charge of any future advertising in connection with the "Prowler." The members of the committee are: Kenneth Streeter, chairman; Delma Dols, Russel Olson, and Sylvester Wengeler.

Lylian Arnold, Aeriel Kinghorn and Ersyle Anderson were selected to work on a program which is to be given in the assembly in the near future. The sales campaign, the big problem at the present was discussed and a definite plan decided upon.

Bread Club Meets

The Bread club and cake baking club was organized Thursday, Nov. 6. At the meeting Miss Engebretson gave a short talk on the duties of the members of the Bread and Cake club and stated briefly some of the things that the club intends to do this year. The following officers were elected: Hilda Ness, president; Lucille Larson, vice president; Maxine Johnson, secretary; Elaine Korstad, treasurer.

The Cake Baking club organized this year for the first time in Lincoln High. The greater number of students have joined the Bread Baking club, however, there will be sufficient competition in the Cake Baking club also to keep everyone working hard.

A keen interest was shown in the club this year by the large attendance at the meeting and by the large number enrolled. The club is also eager to start work. Another meeting is to be held Tuesday, Nov. 17, for the purpose of determining the time for the regular meetings.

Thief River has been quite successful in bread baking attaining first place in the state several times, and hopes to win this year, not only in the bread baking field but in the cake baking also.

Husband: "No, I hit every one."

Man (To a little girl): "How many sisters have you, little girl?"

Little Girl: "I have two sisters, sir, and I'm one of them."

High School Days
Have their delights
But they can't compare
With High School nights.

The other night I was visiting my best girl and it was getting late. I asked her if she had the time about her and she said no. She did that time 'cause I had my wrist watch on.

A motorist on his way through Boston was accosted by a policeman and the following conversation took place:

"Your beacon has ceased its functions."

"What?"

"Your illuminator, I say, is shrouded in unmitigated oblivion."

"I don't quite get——"

"The effulgence of your irradiator has evanesced."

"I can't quite understand——"

"The transverse ether acill atives in your incandescer have been discontinued."

At this moment a newsboy relieved the situation with, "Say Mister, your lights out."

Toy Balloon's Long Flight

What is probably a record flight for a toy balloon is recorded by a resident of Konigsberg, a seaport town of Germany, who found the tiny gas bag descending after a flight from Keswick, Cumberland, England. It cost him 660 marks to mail the balloon back to its owner. The balloon had been entered in a contest.

Paul Revere Was Artist, Engraver and Dentist

Paul Revere, famous for his historical ride during the Revolutionary war, seems to have been one of those men who can do anything and do it well. He was an artist and an engraver of both wood and metal. He was a silversmith of rare skill, and he even turned his attention to dentistry in the early days when dentistry was barely beginning to be a science. There is still extant one of his advertisements of 1770, reading:

"Whereas, many persons are so unfortunate as to lose their Foreteeth by Accident, and otherways, to their great Detriment, not only in looks, but speaking both in Public and Private: This is to inform all such, that they may have them Replaced with artificial Ones, that looks as well as the Natural, and answers the End of Speaking to all Intents, by Paul Revere."

When, quite a while after Bunker Hill, it was desired to remove the body of General Warren from its first resting place, it was Paul Revere who identified it by an artificial tooth and the wire he had used to fasten it in.—Detroit News.

In State of Ignorance

A man who said he lived in Chicago stood before the judge in City court a few days ago to answer to a charge of vagrancy.

"On what street do you live?" the judge asked.

"I just can't remember the name of that street, your honor," replied the prisoner.

"Well, does it run east and west or north and south?" queried the judge.

"Well, sir, I'm not positive which way it does run. I never was no good on directions."

"You should be in vaudeville," the judge said, when he ordered the man discharged.

"Just where is that town, judge?" asked the man. "Seems like I don't remember I ever heard of that place before."—Indianapolis News.

Martin McAndress Injured

Martin McAndress, farmer near St. Hilaire, was taken to his home Monday from the Swedenburg hospital after ten days' confinement following an accident which occurred on the state road near St. Hilaire. A car, driven by Greenbush parties, overtook Mr. McAndress as he was walking along the new graveled stretch just north of St. Hilaire and the driver apparently became befuddled or was unable to manage the car in the gravel, as he struck the pedestrian squarely and dragged him for several rods. He was taken to the Swedenburg hospital here and while no bones are broken, he will feel the effects of the shock for some time.

Red Cross Fighting First Aid Battle To Conserve Life

Reliable records establish the fact that more than 75,000 accidental deaths occur every year in the United States. The records show that 206 American citizens are killed every day: that 38 of these deaths are due to automobiles, 35 to falls, 19 to drownings, 16 to burns.

Facing such distressing sacrifice of life is the First Aid Service of the American Red Cross, fighting through education and demonstration to instill a consciousness of safety in the public mind and teaching approved methods which assure that competent hands will care for injured persons until the arrival of doctors. Trained service in the first few minutes is vital in serious accidents and saves many precious lives.

One of the most encouraging signs of the past year is the record of the Red Cross First Aid Insurance Car No. 1 which traveled 9,760 miles along trunk lines, stopping at 137 places. The car's staff of surgeons gave 911 demonstrations to audiences composed of 42,150 railroad men, 71,000 high school and college students, 13,000 industrial workers, 2,000 members of clubs, and nearly 18,000 policemen, firemen, and other municipal employes, a total of 147,000.

Red Cross First Aid certificates were conferred upon 13,865 persons who took the course last year, an increase of 4,000 over 1923. Telephone, gas and electric companies, public service corporations and other large employers of the country adopted the Red Cross course, and their team contests everywhere were witnessed by huge crowds with as much interest as develops at popular athletic games.

In the industrial field the growth of First Aid practice to fight to reduce preventable accidents and unnecessary loss of life has received wide recognition. The promise of an unprecedented advance in this fine cause lies in the evidence of the great strides systematic instruction in First Aid has made throughout the country through the Red Cross Chapters and the the work of the experts in this service under direction of the national organization.

Device Will Help Aviators at Night

The business of night flying will be greatly facilitated by the invention of a device which enables the man in the airplane to keep constantly informed as to the height at which he is flying.

This information is valuable at all times while in the air, particularly when landings are being made.

This is accomplished in a very ingenious manner. The device consists of two powerful lights through projecting fixed beams directed toward the earth, parallel to each other. Two images are cast upon the ground by these lights—one a straight bar and the other a pair of arrow heads, the bar being the forward one.

There is also a movable light, and when this is adjusted with reference to the other beams it throws upon the surface of the earth figures in light which indicate the distance above the surface which the machine is traveling.—Philadelphia Enquirer.

Misleading

There was great excitement in the suburb of Tootway. A new store had opened. It was to be run on the lines of those three-penny and six-penny shops which are getting quite a feature of our big shopping centers nowadays.

The store was being run by a man called Cohen and it was not hard to tell that he was not a Scotchman.

One day a woman came in, chose a toy and put sixpence in the proprietor's hand.

"Excuse me, madam," said Cohen, "but the toys are ninepence."

"But I thought this was a three-penny and sixpenny store," protested the customer.

"Vell, madam, I leave it to you," was the reply. "How much is three-pence and sixpence?"

Red Lake County Pioneer Passes

James Brady of Red Lake Falls, one of the best known pioneers of Red Lake county, died Friday, Nov. 7, after a two-days' illness of broncho-pnumonia. He was 81 years of age at the time of his death and had been a resident of Red Lake county since in 1882, when he took a homestead in River township where he lived until in 1887 when he moved to town. He is survived by ten children, Mrs. Margaret Allard of Big Falls, Mrs. Mary Moran of Dugdale, Mrs. Lillian Flink of Nashwauk, Mrs. Leo Spillane, Miss Helen Brady and John Brady of Red Lake Falls, James G. Brady of Oakland, Cal., Dr. Charles Brady and Dr. Frank Brady of Minneapolis.

Mr. Brady was a contractor and builder by profession and erected a number of public buildings and residences in the community. Among buildings he has erected are the Red Lake county court house, the Red Lake Falls high school and the Plummer school.

New High Gasoline Consumption Record

THE Bureau of Mines (Washington, D.C.) places the domestic consumption of gasoline for August, 1924, at 819,467,892 gallons, an increase over July consumption of 22,001,302 gallons and the highest monthly consumption of gasoline ever reached in the United States.

Notwithstanding this unusual demand, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been able to keep the motorist of the Middle West constantly supplied with gasoline. This is the direct result of strict economy in production and the uninterrupted operation of a modern system of distribution.

The new high gasoline consumption record of August tells of hundreds of small business organizations made efficient by means of the automobile and an abundance of standard quality gasoline. It tells of thousands of families who have enjoyed healthful outings at minimum cost. It tells of hundreds of thousands of city children benefited by country air, because motor transportation carried them into open spaces at a trifling charge.

Giving people what they want, at a price they easily can afford to pay, is in itself a valuable service. This service is rendered to society by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

Few of the hundreds of thousands of people who profit daily by the abundance and the wide distribution of gasoline, consider the intricate industrial problems solved before this service could be rendered. They are apt to think of gasoline as yielded freely by nature; a generous, unceasing gift to man.

On the contrary, no matter how freely crude oil is produced by nature, without the aid of science it does not yield the tremendous quantities of gasoline needed to supply the demand.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) by originating processes which vastly increase the percentage of gasoline recovered from crude oil, serves mankind by helping to keep the supply equal to the demand. By devising a comprehensive distribution system and maintaining it in the face of every obstacle, this Company is able to make gasoline available to millions who could not afford to have the fuel shipped to them individually. Gasoline is as accessible to the farmers of the Middle West as it is to the city dweller.

PARAGUAY IS HAVEN OF HUMAN DERELICTS

Country Favorite Refuge for Other Nations' Exiles.

Paraguay has long been a favorite refuge for men from other climes who for one reason or another feel better with many miles between them and their native countries. In the following examples it would obviously have been unkind to give too definite details.

In a village not far from Asuncion lives a baron from one of the oldest and noblest house of Prussia. On the wall of his mud-floored hut hangs an affectionately autographed photograph of Wilhelm II. The baron, like his Paraguayan wife and brood of children, goes barefoot habitually, yet clings to a monocle, last remnant of his vanished splendor.

Working on an isolated cattle camp is the brother of the royal equerry of a Scandinavian king. His story includes a duel with a semiroyal scion over the affections of a girl. Of his Vikinglike strength and beauty, cana, native rum, is slowly robbing him.

An American former cowboy has been more fortunate. He claims to have once been a member of the Texas Rangers, but it is commonly thought he had been "about two jumps ahead of the Rangers." At any rate Paraguay seems to agree with his health, and his knowledge of the cattle game and lightning ability with a Colt .45 have stood him in good stead.

At the end of the American Civil war certain irreconcilables from the south migrated to Latin America rather than accept defeat. One man, prominent in the Confederate navy—his family name has been given to a town, a county and a college in North Carolina—settled in Paraguay. Late in life he married a Paraguayan girl, and his son, now a grown man, can barely speak English. Poor derelicts! What brave ships you once were! What stormy seas you sailed! May your battered hulks rest quietly on the peaceful sands where at last you have stranded!—Adventure Magazine.

A Way Out of It

Pat Macree was in search of a new house, and at last, after many weary months of unsuccessful search, he found one which he thought would be just the thing.

Accordingly he went at once to see the agent about it.

That gentleman at once gave him the keys and accompanied him on a tour of inspection around the premises.

Looking out of one of the back windows, Pat remarked that the railway ran rather close to the house.

"The trains do make rather a noise," the agent admitted. "They may interfere with your sleep at first, but you'll get accustomed to that after the first two nights."

"Arrah, shure. Oi'll not want to get accustomed to it at all, sir," answered Pat, "'cause Oi can easily go an' slape in me aunt's house thim couple o' nights!"

Fertilizer From Volcanoes

Tops of submarine volcanoes rising from extreme deeps in the lonely Pacific are now furnishing fertilizer for farms in Great Britain, Nauru and Ocean islands, 165 miles apart and 2,200 miles northeast of Australia, are both being actively worked for phosphate. Each island is encircled by a coral reef on which is built a long steel traveling crane. The cranes carry the phosphate from the island shores across the reefs and discharge it into steamers anchored in the ocean outside.

One of World's Most Famous Mountain Roads

Overlooking Los Angeles, Cal., is one of the world's most remarkable mountain roads, extending from Laurel canyon to the summit of Lookout mountain. While just wide enough for one vehicle, the road is perfectly safe for automobiles, as it is built to ascend by one route and descend by another. The curves, hairpin turns, switchbacks, etc., are numerous, but all built so scientifically that there is no danger. The road is carved from the side of a hill which is so precipitous that in one place there are six levels rising one above the other, all visible from the same point; in fact, the hill appears to be terraced with the zig-zag of highway. The surface is of decomposed granite and the outside edge has been fenced with stout timbers.

From the summit—occupied by a summer hotel—one has a view that is without a rival on the Pacific coast. The ocean is but a few miles distant, with the Santa Catalina and San Clemente islands on the horizon, while along the shore are the score of towns and resorts built upon the sands. About thirty cities and towns are visible from the summit, with Los Angeles almost directly below.

Immense Freak Boulder in the Berkshire Hills

Among the Berkshire hills of Massachusetts, near Pittsfield, is to be seen a tremendous boulder, weighing some 170 tons, perched upon a flat rock, apparently so nicely balanced that a glance at it almost convinces a person that but little force is needed to throw it over.

It is called the "Balance rock," but, despite its name and appearance, it is firmly fixed and makes no movement whatever. Another strange feature of this freak is that the boulder is of an entirely different formation from that of the Berkshire limestone upon which it rests, and it is supposed that in some prehistoric age it was torn from some mountain height by a glacier and at last delicately placed on the limestone bed.

At Cheyteyo, in Burma, British India, nature has superimposed an immense boulder upon a rocky elevation, and the natives have seized upon it as a fit place for a temple of worship. Here they have erected a small pagoda. So evenly balanced is this great stone that it sways, temple and all, back and forth when a strong wind is blowing.—Detroit News.

Definition of Factory

In modern usage the term factory covers any establishment, with its buildings and equipment, used for the manufacture of goods. The legal definition, however, varies widely in different states, but is usually based upon the number of workers. One such extreme definition makes a factory "any place where two or more persons are engaged in working for hire or reward in any handicraft." C. D. Wright's definition reads: "A factory is an establishment where several workmen are collected for the purpose of obtaining greater and cheaper conveniences for labor than they could procure individually at their houses; for producing results by their combined efforts which they could not accomplish separately, and for preventing the loss occasioned by carrying articles from place to place during the several processes necessary to complete their manufacture." Another distinguishing mark of a factory is the ownership of all the tools or implements of production by the employer.

Hawaiian Customs

Many of the old Hawaiian customs are being discarded; but surf-riding and surf-canoeing are as popular today as ever they were.

Hawaiian serenaders often wander down the beaches and street, playing and singing in the inimitable Hawaiian way. Tileaving, or tobogganing down grassy slopes on slick leaves is another thoroughly Hawaiian custom. Luaus, or Hawaiian feasts; and hukilaus, or pulling in the great fish nets, are often arranged for the edification of the visitors.

No prettier or more touching custom may be witnessed than that of placing leis, or wreaths of flowers, around the necks of arriving or departing relatives or friends.

These are practically the only distinctly Hawaiian customs remaining in general use today.—F. M. Hulton in Adventure Magazine.

GERMANY ENTERING ERA OF PROSPERITY SENATOR DECLARES

Sen. C. L. Hansen Relates Observations on European Trip at Club Luncheon

Senator C. L. Hansen, formerly president of the First National bank of this city, who recently returned from a three months' tour in Europe, addressed members of the Commercial club at the regular noon luncheon Thursday, Nov. 6, giving an interesting talk on conditions in Europe as he saw them.

"What impressed me most," said the senator, "was the amazing rapidity with which the countries on the Continent are recovering from the effects of the late World War. Viewing only conditions as they are today, one would scarcely believe that either Germany or France had been in so devastating a combat. Industry is thriving and business is apparently good. For an illustration, in the city of Cologne, Germany, a 16 story building is now in the process of construction which certainly does not indicate commercial stagnation. New buildings are under construction in no small degree in all parts of Germany.

"In Germany the mortgage and bondholders were the heaviest losers in the recent war, and not the property owners, as a result of the drop in the value of the mark. Only a large estate would be likely to have a mortgage of a million or two marks and after the drop in the value of German currency, the farmer whose property was mortgaged needed to sell only a chicken or two to pay off the obligation. I was informed that ninety days ago not a single piece of property in Germany was encumbered, for the simple reason that all mortgages had been retired due to the depleted value of the mark.

"However, now a 'gold mark' has been established in Germany which is on a par with American money, making Germany the only country which has a currency on a par basis with the American dollar, and all banking paper is now based on the 'gold mark.' One step has been taken to reimburse German investors. The German government is making payment of 50 per cent of the money lost thru the drop in currency value, payments to begin in 1930.

"France suffered great property losses and the government is reimbursing private parties by restoring buildings to as near their former condition as possible, and it is indeed surprising how near to their former condition they can be repaired. Where structures are enlarged in rebuilding the additional cost must be borne by the owner. In cities where cathedrals were ruined, the exact architectural design is being restored. Large agricultural districts were made almost uncultivatable by the trenches, large shell holes and barbed wire entanglements, which are now in rapid progress of restoration.

"Air transportation is well established in all parts of central Europe and England. Fare is approximately the same as first class rail transportation and the planes seem as safe a means of travel as the railroad. Only one air passenger accident has been recorded in Europe to date, as compared with many train catastrophies, and I believe air travel will soon be quite common in this country.

"Among interesting places I visited were Rheims and Chateau Thierry, about 100 miles in extent. I also visited the grave of Quinton Roosevelt, which is visited by thousands of tourists every year."

Prichard Company Loading Sugar Beets in District; First Payment This Week

The Prichard company of this city has been awarded the contract for loading all the sugar beets in the Thief River Falls district for shipment to the refinery at Mason City, Iowa. A special conveyor for the loading of beets arrived this week and shipments will be made as fast as cars can be loaded, the factory being able to handle the entire crop upon arrival.

Beets are now being shipped on the Soo line from this city, other loading points in the district being St. Hilaire, Steiner, Engen Spur, Silverton and Newfolden. At Rosewood the growers loaded the beets on the cars as they were hauled from the field.

The first payment on the 1924 beet crop contracted by the Minnesota Sugar company is to be made this week, and growers will receive the $5.00 a ton guarantee on beets hauled before Oct. 20, less $25 an acre for Mexican labor and $2.25 an acre for seed. A considerable sum will be received at this time by farmers near Thief River Falls, about 250 acres being grown this year in the immediate vicinity. Another payment will be made Dec. 20. It is expected that growers will receive a total of between $8 and $9 a ton for their beets this year.

Construction of the foundation for the first warehouse for storing sugar beets to be erected by the Red River sugar company at East Grand Forks is expected to be started this week, it is announced in the Grand Forks Herald. Tracks are now being laid by the Great Northern railway for the spur to be used by the company to be completed in time for the first shipment of beets next year.

Farmers thruout the Red River valley are signing contracts to furnish beets for the factory next year. It is planned to arrange for about 12,000 acres of land upon which sugar beets will be raised.

Big Game Hunters Enjoy Ideal Weather. Many Local Nimrods Return with Deer

Few big game hunters can boast having killed their first deer in an hour's hunt, but that is the record of Alfred Paulson, local expressman, who returned Wednesday of last week from Big Forks with a buck that dressed 280 pounds. O. A. Rambeck shot one weighing 240 pounds. Oscar R. Smith shot his first deer six miles out of Middle River Wednesday of last week, other Thief Riverites successful in bringing down the wary animals being Dr. J. T. Bowers, Julien Provencher, Jack Houfek, Walter Jung, Sheriff O. L. Ihle, M. T. McFarland, Ted Hunt and Ed. Skoglund.

Deer hunters welcomed the snowfall the past week making tracking an easy matter, and a large number of those who secured big game licenses from the county auditor this year have returned with their buck. The coveted animals are reported to be numerous in many parts of this section, north and east from here. One deer is the limit for the season, which closes today, having been open since the 10th. With ideal weather conditions many will feel rather reluctant about leaving the hunting grounds.

14 Gals. Alcohol Found in Garage Near Warren Jail; Hunter Quistgaard is Held

Storing 14 gallons of liquor in a garage 50 feet from a county jail on the court house grounds, may sound improbable but such seems to have been the case at Warren recently. Hunter Quistgaard, 23, son of Ed. Quistgaard and proprietor of the Warren Pharmacy the past year during his father's illness, was on Wednesday of last week bound over to the grand jury under bonds of $800 following his arrest when 14 gallons of alcohol were said to have been discovered in a garage used by him.

The supply of "fire water" was found by the Marshall county authorities, by whom Quistgaard is said to have been suspected for some time. The garage in which the liquor was discovered belongs to the court house janitor but was used by Quistgaard. The arrest was made Friday, Nov. 7 and it is expected that the case will be brought before the Marshall county grand jury which convenes Nov. 24.

THE SUPERIORITY OF MAN

Sunshine White was dreaming peacefully and a broad smile completely covered his ebony features. Suddenly the smile flickered, died out, and was replaced by a look of sadness and gloom.

Sunshine was drowning. Great volumes of water engulfed him. He was suffocating. He thought of all his past evils. How he had cheated all his fellow brethern of the Colored Peoples' Baptist church by playing with loaded dice and lastly of the unforgiveable sin of putting Idle Hour Pool Hall chips in the collection box. He was ready to receive his harp when he awakened.

The first object that met his wandering gaze was a bucket at the business end of which he perceived his wife's hamlike hand. Her gentle voice in cyclonic tones calmly advised him to appear on the ground floor for breakfast inside of two minutes or forever lead the life of an invalid. He took the hint and in less than the specified time breezed into the kitchen where his morning's repast awaited. After he had eaten so much that his esophagus became paralyzed, he quit.

As he was doing his daily dozen by turning the Armstrong power wringer he turned to his brawny frau and remarked: "Ah guess Rastus Green mus' a been to a stag party last night."

"Why, man?"

"Well, ah saw him doin' considerable staggerin'."

"Say, Sunshine, am yo shure you didn't marry me for ma job?"

"Suttunly not, dear, you jes' go on an keep yo ole job."

"Say woman, yo shure am dumb. Did yo eber do any classical readin'?"

"Man, ah shure did. By de way did yo eber read 'Lonspoke?'"

"Ya, woman, ah shu did read 'Lonespoke.' It was written by a guy named Sheakfellow."

"Man, why do you call dat two-bit watch of yours a wondah watch?"

"Well, woman, dat am a wondah because when ah looks at it, I has to wondah what time it is."

As Sunshine stood in the door he passed his last witty remark:

"Well, woman why do a stork lift one leg when it stands? You don't know? Well, if he'd lif de odder one he'd fall down."

LOCALS LOSE TO E. GRAND FORKS 12-6

Cold and Snow Makes last Game of Season Uncomfortable—Locals Score in Third

With snow half an inch deep on the ground, and the thermometer registering below freezing, the Lincoln High school football team was defeated by the East Grand Forks eleven by a score of 12 to 6. As the ground was slippery, and the air very cold, there was quite a lot of fumbling on the part of both of the teams, and there were no long runs. At the first of the game a comparatively large crowd was there to witness the contest, but at the end of the first half, few remained to see the rest of the game. The ones who did brave the cold were satisfied with the game, which furnished lots of thrills. The stars for the locals were Penney and Zeh. Penney was the producer of thrills with his ability to pick passes out of the air, while Zeh showed his prowess in going around end for many big gains, which no doubt would have been greater had the ground been free of snow.

The game by quarters:

First Quarter

Thief River kicked off and the visitors returned the pig-skin to their 30 yard line. On their first and second downs they made 20 yards. Then they tried some line smashes which netted them first down two times and the next time they shoved the ball over for a touch down. The try-for-point failed. Thief River seemed to be slow in getting started. The locals received and returned the ball to their 20 yard line. They tried end-runs but could not make anything through East Grand's heavy line and were forced to punt on the fourth down. The visitors likewise were unable to gain and they, too, were forced to punt. The locals were held, and punted again, East Grand fumbled and Penney recovered, but on Thief River's fourth down they punted. Then a punting duel began, and in a little while the visitors made another touchdown, the score now being 12-0.

Second Quarter

The locals received and returned the ball to their 30 yard line. On the first down the Lincolnites lost six yards, but gained seven on the next play. Time was called out, as Penney was knocked unconscious, but in a little while was as good as ever. Thief River was going better now and they made a 23 yard gain, with Zeh carrying the ball. Again they made their downs and were in the scoring zone when they made a costly fumble, and East Grand recovered. The visitors made their downs twice and then were forced to punt. Thief River could not gain anything so they too punted, and East Grand fumbled. The locals recovered the ball and made their downs three times until they were close to the goal line. With one minute left of the half to play a pass to Penney was incomplete and East Grand got the ball on their 20 yard line. Then the half ended.

Third Quarter

Thief River received and returned the ball 20 yards. On the third down they were forced to punt. East Grand made seven yards, when on the fourth down one of their men was tackled pretty hard and he slugged the tackler. The visitors were penalized, but the locals chose to keep the ball and not accept the penalty. Then the ball went back and forth on the field, however, it was going closer and closer to the visitor's goal. A fifteen yard penalty for holding put the ball in the scoring zone again, and Zeh carried the ball over for a counter of six. The try-for-point failed. The score was 12-6 in favor of the visitors. East Grand received and returned the ball ten yards. The visitors could gain nothing, and were penalized five yards for off-side. They punted. The locals also punted out of danger and the visitors did the same.

Fourth Quarter

Zeh reeled off 29 yards for the locals, but on the next fourth down the Lincolnites were forced to punt. East Grand punted 70 yards with the wind. Then the locals coaxed the ball up near the goal line but lost it on an intercepted pass. Then the whistle blew, ending the game. The score: East Grand Forks 12, Thief River Falls 6.

This was the last game of the season.

ALL THEY DO IS GRUNT

There are many, so we find,
as on our way we jog,
Who want to do their lifting on the small end of the log;
They do a lot of blowing, and they strive to make it known
That were there no one else to help, they'd do it all alone.
If talking were effective, there are scores and scores of men,
Who'd move a mountain off its base,
and move it back again.
But as a class, to state it plain,
in language true and blunt,
They're never worth a cent to life,
for all they do is grunt.

Local Schools Represented at M. E. A. Meet Last Week

I. T. Simley, superintendent of the city schools, Maude L. Johnson, music supervisor, Alice Stapleton and Loretta Kopriva, normal training department, Minnie S. Leavitt, English instructor and librarian, Lawrence T. Mickelson, English and public speaking instructor, and Ole R. Sande, county superintendent of schools, returned the past week from St. Paul where they attended the annual convention of the Minnesota Educational association. More than 5,000 Minnesota teachers were in attendance. Mr. Sande and Mr. Simley took part in the convention assembly of 100 members which functioned for the first time, the former as a delegate from the Northwest division and the latter as president of the division. Mr. Simley also attended the meeting of the state athletic boards. Miss Johnson was chairman of the music division and Miss Leavitt appeared on the program of the library section.

R. B. McLean, president of the state teachers' college at Moorhead, was named president of the association, and Supt. G. H. Sanberg of Crookston was elected a member of the executive board, as was also M. W. Deputy, head of the Bemidji college. Supt. J. W. McNeal of Red Lake Falls and Supt. M. C. Hayes of East Grand Forks were named delegates to the national convention from this division. An effort will be made to insure the adoption of a sound teachers' retirement law by the 1925 legislative session. Considerable attention was devoted to consideration of the equitable distribution of tax money thruout the state.

During the absence of the local teachers Mrs. W. W. Prichard, Jr., substituted for Mr. Mickelson and Mrs. L. G. Larsen for Miss Leavitt.

THE TEAM

Now don't any of you stall,
Tomorrow is grand football.
Mike's the captain of the team,
He wastes no time in idle dream.
Speed's what Penney doesn't lack,
We can pat him on the back.
Let's give three cheers for Syl,
He uses all his might and will.
Big little boy McCrum,
Will make the whole game hum.
There's nothing wrong with Bennes,
He'll fight to the very finis.
Hurrah for tiny little Dutch!
Even if he don't amount to much.
Elofson, Froseth, Arne and Bjork;
All know the meaning of real hard work.
And at the end of that memorial day
As homeward we wend our weary way
In our very hearts we'll feel
Our team is made of hardest steel.

WHY MEN LEAVE COLLEGE

I've taken my drinks till I've floundered,
I've staggered and reeled in my time;
I've had my pick of the likkers,
When likker was in it's prime.

I started to drink as a Freshman,
Bitter the stuff was at first;
But now I can drink with the best
'uns,
Alcohol now scarce slacks my thirst.

'Twas the night of my first cotillion
A Sophomore gave me a sip
From an 'arf pint of Sherwood
That he carried on his hip.

I coughed and gagged for a moment;
A tear welled up in my eye,
But I smiled through my eyes misty
dimness,
At an 'arf snooted Senior nearby.

The rest is a sad, hard story
Of a college man's downward path:
How the D. F.'s finally got me,
And the Profs. kicked me out at last.
(With apologies to R. Kipling.)

THE LOVING CUP

Silently we stood together in the darkening shadows of the November evening. After an interval that seemed like ages to me, I lowered my head to catch the sweet odor which pervaded the cool air. I looked long and fervently at the well rounded mouth and thought of the pleasure to be found there. I could restrain myself no longer. With an almost brutal eagerness, I grasped the smooth round neck in my two hands and pressed my hot lips to the moist little mouth. Draining the last drop, I put down the bottle, and, chewing a clove sauntered out into the darkness.

A Toast

You stand so silent on the shelf,
Who once so gaily filled my life;
How merry was that other self
You used to show when joy was rife.

A thousand thoughts of other days
Creep in upon me as I ponder
Upon your once so prankish ways
That made me fond of you—and fonder.

A toast to You, O Silent One!
A tribute glowing to your maker.
A sigh, a thought of work well done,
My gleaming, silver Cocktail Shaker!

Fattening, Marketing The Thanksgiving Bird

Turkeys are best fattened on range, and corn gives the quickest and best gains, says Cora Cooke, state poultry specialist with the agricultural extension service of the university. The corn ration should be begun gradually, for if the corn is not well matured digestive troubles may develop. It is best to begin with a light feeding of mixed grain, gradually changing to corn and increasing the ration steadily. For the last ten days before the birds are marketed they should receive all the corn they will clean up every day, with the largest feedings night and morning.

It is important, Miss Cooke warns, to ship turkeys from the farms ten days to two weeks before Thanksgiving Day. Dealers often have to reship and if the turkeys are received too late they may have to be held over at a lower price.

Good quality turkeys will be in strong demand, says Miss Cooke. The crop is small. Turkeys well matured and in good flesh should bring a good price on the Thanksgiving market.

A large number of turkeys brought to this city this season have been of inferior quality, especially the spring birds, the older birds being in good condition. Many farmers are planning to fatten their flocks for the Christmas market rather than to sell at this time.

Plummer Farmer Killed While Unhitching Team

John Foldoe, 56, one of the prominent farmers of Garnes township, Red Lake county, and a brother-in-law of John Bundy of this city, met a tragic death Monday night of last week as a result of injuries received when trampled on by his horses which he was unhitching.

Mr. Foldoe had hauled a load of grain to town and returned about 7:30 in the evening. While he was unhitching it appears that the horses had become frightened and bolted, pinning him between the near horse and an oak tree. Judging by the position in which he was found lying it seems that the near horse had stepped on his head and the wagon, which was carried along by the neckyoke, passed over his chest.

Mrs. Foldoe and son Gustaf, who were in the house, upon hearing noise outside immediately ran to the rescue but found the victim of the accident unconscious and in a mutilated condition. Medical aid was summoned at once but he did not regain consciousness and died at 1:30 that night.

Mr. Foldoe, who was a native of Osterdal, Norway, came to this country with his parents at the age of nine, living at first in Fillmore county and later in northern Minnesota. In 1890 he married Miss Anna Swenby at Dindahl, Norman county, eight children, all of whom are living, being born to their union. He took a homestead in Garnes township in 1896, lived there for 10 years and moved to Bagley and later to Erskine. In 1909 he returned, having bought a farm from Octave Lefaivre.

Surviving are his widow, four sons, Alfred of Garnes, Carl of Bagley, Gustaf and Joseph living at home, and four daughters, Mrs. V. H. Healy of Red Lake Falls, Mrs. D. A. Nelson and Laura of St. Paul and Mable living at home. A brother, Lars, resides at Highlanding, east of this city. He is also survived by three other brothers, Nels of Bagley, Pete of Seattle, Wash., and Carl of Roosevelt. Two sisters also mourn his departure, another sister, Mrs. John Bundy of this city having died 16 years ago.

The funeral services conducted last Thursday from the Garnes Lutheran church by Rev. J. K. Lerohl of Oklee, was attended by Misses Myrtle, Olga and Norma and Hjalmer Bundy of this city.

There are now seven cream buying stations in Warren, the seventh being started last week by the Crookston Creamery company. Warren has no co-operative creamery altho efforts have been made at various times to get one organized.

Game Refuges

Pennington county has two game refuges containing approximately 50,000 acres, according to state map just issued by the state game and fish commission. The largest of 46,080 acres includes Rocksbury and Smiley townships, the other being about 3,200 acres bordering Thief river north from Thief River Falls for a distance of about three miles. Marshall county has 46,080 acres, namely the north three miles of the townships of Warrenton, McCrea, Comstock and Viking.

The Larger Service

The larger service is not typified by the storekeeper who delivered a spool of cotton in a five-ton truck manned by three men.

Nor is it typified by the man who attempts to unload the contents of a freight car with a market basket.

The larger service consists of giving the people what they want, when they want it, at a minimum cost of time, labor and money. This, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) does.

Cost and waste are closely related. Cost is controlled and waste is eliminated by the same factors — capable management and intensive organization.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has lowered consistently its manufacturing costs by creating new and useful products from that residue of petroleum which had been acknowledged as waste.

Each new product created has been made to bear its true proportion of the manufacturing costs of all products taken from the single base—crude petroleum.

The benefits accruing from this economy have been passed to the consumer in lower prices and improved service.

Because the business of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is balanced to a fine point there is no slack season. A shut-down in its manufacturing plants seldom occurs. There is no waste effort or unnecessary overhead expense to be absorbed. Products flow through the manufacturing channels of this Company uninterruptedly and are sold at natural — not artificially maintained—prices.

Such a condition in the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is not a circumstance, it is a policy —for experience has demonstrated that manufacturing cost, selling price and quantity production are inseparable.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is inspired by a determination to render the most comprehensive service — the larger service. This means a tremendous turn-over, with a small profit per unit of sale.

It is on this foundation that the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has become one of the truly great institutions of America — a constructive force for good — and an influencing factor in solving problems closely related to the social and economic welfare of the thirty millions of people in the Middle West.

GERMANY ENTERING ERA OF PROSPERITY SENATOR DECLARES

Sen. C. L. Hansen Relates Observations on European Trip at Club Luncheon

Senator C. L. Hansen, formerly president of the First National bank of this city, who recently returned from a three months' tour in Europe, addressed members of the Commercial club at the regular noon luncheon Thursday, Nov. 6, giving an interesting talk on conditions in Europe as he saw them.

"What impressed me most," said the senator, "was the amazing rapidity with which the countries on the Continent are recovering from the effects of the late World War. Viewing only conditions as they are today, one would scarcely believe that either Germany or France had been in so devastating a combat. Industry is thriving and business is apparently good. For an illustration, in the city of Cologne, Germany, a 16 story building is now in the process of construction which certainly does not indicate commercial stagnation. New buildings are under construction in no small degree in all parts of Germany.

"In Germany the mortgage and bondholders were the heaviest losers in the recent war, and not the property owners, as a result of the drop in the value of the mark. Only a large estate would be likely to have a mortgage of a million or two marks and after the drop in the value of German currency, the farmer whose property was mortgaged needed to sell only a chicken or two to pay off the obligation. I was informed that ninety days ago not a single piece of property in Germany was encumbered, for the simple reason that all mortgages had been retired due to the depleted value of the mark.

"However, now a 'gold mark' has been established in Germany which is on a par with American money, making Germany the only country which has a currency on a par basis with the American dollar, and all banking paper is now based on the 'gold mark.' One step has been taken to reimburse German investors. The German government is making payment of 30 per cent of the money lost thru the drop in currency value, payments to begin in 1930.

"France suffered great property loses and the government is reimbursing private parties by restoring buildings to as near their former condition as possible, and it is indeed surprising how near to their former condition they can be repaired. Where structures are enlarged in rebuilding the additional cost must be borne by the owner. In cities where cathedrals were ruined, the exact architectural design is being restored. Large agricultural districts were made almost uncultivatable by the trenches, large shell holes and barbed wire entanglements, which are now in rapid progress of restoration.

"Air transportation is well established in all parts of central Europe and England. Fare is approximately the same as first class rail transportation and the planes seem as safe a means of travel as the railroad. Only one air passenger accident has been recorded in Europe to date, as compared with many train catastrophies, and I believe air travel will soon be quite common in this country.

"Among interesting places I visited were Rheims and Chateau Thierry, about 100 miles in extent. I also visited the grave of Quinton Roosevelt, which is visited by thousands of tourists every year."

Prichard Company Loading Sugar Beets in District; First Payment This Week

The Prichard company of this city has been awarded the contract for loading all the sugar beets in the Thief River Falls district for shipment to the refinery at Mason City, Iowa. A special conveyor for the loading of beets arrived this week and shipments will be made as fast as cars can be loaded, the factory being able to handle the entire crop upon arrival.

Beets are now being shipped on the Soo line from this city, other loading points in the district being St. Hilaire, Steiner, Engen Spur, Silverton and Newfolden. At Rosewood the growers loaded the beets on the cars as they were hauled from the field.

The first payment on the 1924 beet crop contracted by the Minnesota Sugar company is to be made this week, and growers will receive the $5.00 a ton guarantee on beets hauled before Oct. 20, less $25 an acre for Mexican labor and $2.25 an acre for seed. A considerable sum will be received at this time by farmers near Thief River Falls, about 250 acres being grown this year in the immediate vicinity. Another payment will be made Dec. 20. It is expected that growers will receive a total of between $8 and $9 a ton for their beets this year.

Construction of the foundation for the first warehouse for storing sugar beets to be erected by the Red River sugar company at East Grand Forks is expected to be started this week, it is announced in the Grand Forks Herald. Tracks are now being laid by the Great Northern railway for the spur to be used by the company to be completed in time for the first shipment of beets next year.

Farmers thruout the Red River valley are signing contracts to furnish beets for the factory next year. It is planned to arrange for about 12,000 acres of land upon which sugar beets will be raised.

Big Game Hunters Enjoy Ideal Weather. Many Local Nimrods Return with Deer

Few big game hunters can boast having killed their first deer in an hour's hunt, but that is the record of Alfred Paulson, local expressman, who returned Wednesday of last week from Big Forks with a buck that dressed 280 pounds. O. A. Rambeck shot one weighing 240 pounds. Oscar R. Smith shot his first deer six miles out of Middle River Wednesday of last week, other Thief Riverites successful in bringing down the wary animals being Dr. J. T. Bowers, Julien Provencher, Jack Houfek, Walter Jung, Sheriff O. L. Ihle, M. T. McFarland, Ted Hunt and Ed. Skoglund.

Deer hunters welcomed the snowfall the past week making tracking an easy matter, and a large number of those who secured big game licenses from the county auditor this year have returned with their buck. The coveted animals are reported to be numerous in many parts of this section, north and east from here. One deer is the limit for the season, which closes today, having been open since the 10th. With ideal weather conditions many will feel rather reluctant about leaving the hunting grounds.

14 Gals. Alcohol Found in Garage Near Warren Jail; Hunter Quistgaard is Held

Storing 14 gallons of liquor in a garage 50 feet from a county jail on the court house grounds, may sound improbable but such seems to have been the case at Warren recently. Hunter Quistgaard, 23, son of Ed. Quistgaard and proprietor of the Warren Pharmacy the past year during his father's illness, was on Wednesday of last week bound over to the grand jury under bonds of $800 following his arrest when 14 gallons of alcohol were said to have been discovered in a garage used by him.

The supply of "fire water" was found by the Marshall county authorities, by whom Quistgaard is said to have been suspected for some time. The garage in which the liquor was discovered belongs to the court house janitor but was used by Quistgaard. The arrest was made Friday, Nov. 7 and it is expected that the case will be brought before the Marshall county grand jury which convenes Nov. 24.
